A SENSATIONAL FAILURE.

Admissions Made by the Senior Member of a St. Louis Firm.

ST. LOUIS, July 16.—Sensational admissions have been made on the stand by Samuel A. Gaylord, senior member of the firm of Gaylord, Blessing & Co., which failed recently. Mr. Gaylord, who is one of the oldest stockbrokers here, admitted at the hearing before bankruptcy Referee Cowles that the firm had been practically insolvent for two years, and had been doing business on funds secured from local customers. In the firm's dealings stocks never changed hands, being a mere matter of bookkeeping, in which the firm never forgot to charge up commissions, margins and interest. This was admitted by Mr. Gaylord, who also told of the employment of relatives' names and the use of an insane man's name in the accounts.

At the time of the failure they were short $150,000 in bonds, face value, and over 6000 shares of stock in New York. It was admitted by the witness that the failure was due to their own speculation by which they had hoped to win out and pay off their indebtedness, estimated to have been something near $200,000. As to the missing collateral left with the firm by customers, attached to promissory notes, Mr. Gaylord admitted that all had been hypothecated with banks as security for loans to the firm.

Relations With Russia Friendly.

NEW YORK, July 16.—A dispatch from London to the Herald says:

M. Michael Mering, of Kieff, is at the Hotel Cecil. He is a son-in-law of M. de Witte, Russian Minister of Finance; also president of the Bank of Commerce at Kieff, besides being head of the largest sugar refining company in that city. As a large majority of Russian sugar manufacturers are at Kieff, and the recent tariff dispute between the United States and Russia touches local interests there, he was questioned on the subject.

"I don't think there will be any protracted trouble," said M. Mering. "The amount of sugar exported from Russia to America is so small that the difference in duty is not worth quarreling over. Unless there is something behind this matter it ought to be settled without any difficulty."

"Would Russia take part in any anti-American combination, such as the London papers have suggested?"

"Of course not," he answered. "Why should we? America and Russia should be good friends always. We buy American machinery in preference to all other, and our trade relations are of the best. There is nothing that we should quarrel over."

"Of course," he added, "I cannot say what the two governments may have in their minds about this matter, but I speak simply of the Russian people who are most friendly disposed to America and the Americans."

A 50x100 brick building, the first in town, is being completed at Mullan, Shoshone County.
