WANTED TO REST.

EVANS DESERVES PRAISE

SOME, HOWEVER, CENSURE HIM FOR BEING A JUST OFFICIAL.

Careful Administration the Amount for Pensions Was $5,000,-000 Less Than Appropriation.

WASHINGTON, July 12.—The enemies of Pension Commissioner Evans are selxing every available opportunity of condemning his administration, and have lately made a great deal of noise over the fact that during the past fiscal year the Pension Office did not expend the full appropriation for pensions, but turned back into the Traxeury a surplus of $5,000,000. As a matter of fact, this surplus should be regarded as a testimonial of the Commissioner's careful and pains. taking management of his office. But his enemies, principally disgruntled or dis-barred pension attorneys, are trying to create the impression that, inasmuch as this money was appropriated for pen-sions, it should have been paid out in

That is not a business-like or common-sense view of the situation. The laws governing pensions prescribe the amounts that shall be allowed for different disa-bilities. It is the mere duty of the Pen-sion Office to make its allowances in strict accordance with the law. It is not within the option of the bureau to allow large or small pensions at will. The Pension Office made an estimate of the amount that would be needed for paying pensions. Then, as claims were presented, each was examined, the meritorious were each was examined, the meritorious were granted, and the unworthy were disallowed. Pure justice guided the action of the bureau, and by close discrimination the amount of $5,000,000 was saved in one year. This was not money kept from deserving soldiers, but rather so much kept from the pockets of fraudulent or undeserving claimants, who have no right and title to a Government allowance. Commissioner Evans deserves nothing but missioner Evans deserves nothing but praise for his careful administration of the Pension Office.
