

TO OPEN RESERVATION

Will Probably Be Thrown Open for Homestead Settlement When Survey is Completed.

OLYMPIA, Wash., July 29.—Surveyor-General Kingsbury today received instructions from Commissioner Bismuth, at Washington, D. C., to advertise for bids for the survey of the Quinalt reservation in Chehalis County.

The reservation, when surveyed, will be about 10 townships, or between 25,000 and 30,000 acres, which it is to be thrown open for settlement, presumably in homesteads, after the survey is completed and approved.

For several years various people have been working by petition with the Federal Government to have the reservation thrown open, but the order for its survey comes somewhat later than had been expected so soon.

NO END TO THE SALMON

Present Record Run May Continue to the End of the Season.

ASTORIA, July 29.—The run of salmon in place of falling off, as has been predicted by the experts, appears to be increasing. Reports from the landings on the lower river show that there were more fish in the Columbia this morning than at any previous time since the big run commenced in June.

TO FORM CANNERY COMBINE

Sale of Plant to New Concern in Portland Thursday.

SEASIDE, July 29.—On Friday, promoter of the Alameda Cannery, J. H. Griffin's Cabin, Native Sons, is making extensive arrangements for the street carnival to be held here October 3, 4 and 5.

Prunes and Hops at Dallas

DALLAS, Or., July 29.—The prune crop around Dallas bids fair to be, in quality and quantity, by far the best ever known. The shipments from here last season amounted to 1,000,000 pounds, but will not fall short of 1,000,000 pounds this year.

Assaulted While Under Arrest

BAKER CITY, July 29.—A peculiar damage suit is threatened against Baker City by Joseph Reader, who was brutally assaulted by Artie Fountain, the negro pugilist, a few days ago. Reader was taken to the hospital and both were arrested. While Reader was in custody he broke away, and struck Reader a fearful blow on the side of the head, breaking his jaw and rendering him unconscious for several hours.

Catholic Church Dedicated

FOREST GROVE, Or., July 29.—The new Catholic church at Buxton, with a seating capacity of 300, was dedicated yesterday. Archbishop Christie and Father Hogan, Portland, and Father Heinrich, of Verbort, conducted the exercises.

Basball Team Disbands

The Walla Walla baseball team formally disbanded today. The manager, who accepted the position, had paid all expenses, including the cost of the uniforms, and divided $750. It has the fence and grandstand at the park and their uniforms, which represent an outlay of $400, to dispose of.

GAME LAWS VIOLATED

Report of Illegal Hunting and Fishing on Coast Streams. MMINNVILLE, Or., July 29.—If reports are true, the practice of hunting deer with hounds is being carried on extensively in the vicinity of Elk Creek, a tributary of the Big Nestucca River.

GRAVE CRIME CHARGED

EX-CHIEF JUSTICE SCOTT ACCUSED OF SERIOUS OFFENSE.

Girl, Aged 15, Alleges That He Criminally Assaulted Her—He is Released on Bail.

WHATCOMB, Wash., July 29.—Elmer Scott, for eight years Supreme Justice of the State of Washington, and for two years Chief Justice, was arrested last Thursday charged with criminal assault on the person of Minna Schaefer, aged 15, of this city.

Officers in San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—Among the Army officers who have returned on the transport Meade is Captain J. S. Mallory, formerly a Lieutenant-Colonel of the Twenty-eighth Infantry. Up to the time he was ordered home...

Ex-Forest Grove Minister

Rev. Alonzo Rogers.

FOREST GROVE, July 29.—The Rev. Alonzo Rogers, styled as Rev. Whatcom, Friday evening, aged 69 years, from the effects of a paralytic stroke received over a year ago, came from Iowa to Oregon, about 1885, to accept the pastorate of the Congregational church here.

For a Cash Consideration, a Petition Signed by 12 Well-known Citizens of Whatcom was presented to the Seattle Times, requesting the publication of the facts in the case. Judge Scott was elected to the Supreme Bench upon the admission of the state last time a full term of six years. During the last two years of his term he was Chief Justice. At the time of his election he was a resident of Eastern Washington, but during his term he moved to Whatcom. In 1898 he refused to be a candidate for re-nomination, and since his retirement from the bench he has been practicing law. His friends regret that the charge against him is the result of an attempt to blackmail him.

FRUIT SEASON OPENS AT SALEM

Apple Crop in Demand—Big Apple Crop in Expected.

SALEM, Or., July 29.—The fruit picking season has fairly opened here, and the picking and commission-houses have been scenes of much activity today. The peach crop is the most extensive and will be handled here almost exclusively during the rest of the week. The fruit dryers are making dates every day for the use of their plants, and the prospects are that more fruit will be shipped from here than ever before.

Washington County Crops

HILLSBORO, July 29.—The hay harvest in this county is practically completed, and the crop has been large and of excellent quality. Grain is ripening fast and in some instances Fall wheat has already been cut. The wheat yield will not be up to the average, but oats are in fine condition and prospects are good for a heavy crop.

Oats Around Albany

ALBANY, Or., July 29.—The first field of oats threshed in this county was on the farm of E. G. Cox. Six hundred bushels were threshed in 2 1/2 hours, and averaged 40 bushels per acre. The yield is large as usual. Spraying has been the order in a number of yards where lice have made their appearance.

Will Inspect Cavalry Horses

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 29.—Dr. James Dorr, who was buried today with Masonic honors, was born in South Brunswick, Me., December 27, 1828. He came to Walla Walla some 30 years ago. He left a widow who is an invalid.

Will Inspect Cavalry Horses

WALLA WALLA, July 29.—Lieutenant Colonel R. D. Walsh, U. S. A., and Major James Jackson, retired, will arrive tomorrow to inspect the cavalry horses offered for sale by the new Washington County Company at that place some time Sunday and was drowned. The body was recovered today.

Outlook is Bright for a Prosperous and Useful Year

EUGENE, July 29.—The University of Oregon, the State University, had an exceedingly prosperous year. Indications in athletics have been only surface indications of the enthusiastic and loyal spirit of the students. More than this, the university is doing a continually advancing grade of work.

STATE UNIVERSITY GROWING

The growth of the university in numbers has been somewhat remarkable, as total number of students for all departments at Eugene for the year 1898-99 was 181; for the year 1899-1900 it was 230; and for 1900-1901 it was 302, or a gain of 100 per cent in two years.

PUGET SOUND SALMON RUN

Greatest Ever Known in the History of Fishing There.

FORT TOWNSEND, July 29.—The largest run of salmon known for years is reported from the vicinity of San Juan Island. Word arrived from there today that 40,000 fish were liberated from the traps, there being no market for them. They had been offered as low as 1 cent apiece. The same men in the same vicinity caught 2000 at one haul, and were compelled to turn many fish loose, as they could find no market for them at any price.

Vancover Military Notes

VANCOUVER BARRACKS, July 29.—Captain R. D. Walsh, of the Ninth Cavalry, and Captain W. K. Jones, of the Sixth Infantry, have been appointed on a board which will meet today at Prospect, Wash., and later on at Fort Walla Walla and at Elgin, Or., to inspect under contract a number of horses intended for the cavalry.

MINING RIGHTS DEFINED

FIRST USER HAS THE PRIOR CLAIM ON WATER PRIVILEGES.

Later Arrivals Must Not Divert Streams Injuriouly or Dump Tailings on His Claim.

SALEM, Or., July 29.—The Supreme Court today handed down decisions on three mining cases, affirming the decision of the lower court in one, reversing and modifying it in the other two. The decisions in detail were as follows:

SALEM, Or., July 29.—The Supreme Court today handed down decisions on three mining cases, affirming the decision of the lower court in one, reversing and modifying it in the other two.

The complaint alleges that the plaintiff, A. H. Carson and one Johnson appropriated all the waters of the stream in 1898, and that they and their successors in interest have ever since used the same in placer mining, and that defendants had interfered with plaintiff's rights as above stated.

Ex-Forrest Grove Minister

Rev. Alonzo Rogers.

FOREST GROVE, July 29.—The Rev. Alonzo Rogers, styled as Rev. Whatcom, Friday evening, aged 69 years, from the effects of a paralytic stroke received over a year ago, came from Iowa to Oregon, about 1885, to accept the pastorate of the Congregational church here.

For a Cash Consideration, a Petition Signed by 12 Well-known Citizens of Whatcom

was presented to the Seattle Times, requesting the publication of the facts in the case. Judge Scott was elected to the Supreme Bench upon the admission of the state last time a full term of six years. During the last two years of his term he was Chief Justice. At the time of his election he was a resident of Eastern Washington, but during his term he moved to Whatcom. In 1898 he refused to be a candidate for re-nomination, and since his retirement from the bench he has been practicing law. His friends regret that the charge against him is the result of an attempt to blackmail him.

FRUIT SEASON OPENS AT SALEM

Apple Crop in Demand—Big Apple Crop in Expected.

SALEM, Or., July 29.—The fruit picking season has fairly opened here, and the picking and commission-houses have been scenes of much activity today. The peach crop is the most extensive and will be handled here almost exclusively during the rest of the week. The fruit dryers are making dates every day for the use of their plants, and the prospects are that more fruit will be shipped from here than ever before.

Washington County Crops

HILLSBORO, July 29.—The hay harvest in this county is practically completed, and the crop has been large and of excellent quality. Grain is ripening fast and in some instances Fall wheat has already been cut. The wheat yield will not be up to the average, but oats are in fine condition and prospects are good for a heavy crop.

Oats Around Albany

ALBANY, Or., July 29.—The first field of oats threshed in this county was on the farm of E. G. Cox. Six hundred bushels were threshed in 2 1/2 hours, and averaged 40 bushels per acre. The yield is large as usual. Spraying has been the order in a number of yards where lice have made their appearance.

Will Inspect Cavalry Horses

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 29.—Dr. James Dorr, who was buried today with Masonic honors, was born in South Brunswick, Me., December 27, 1828. He came to Walla Walla some 30 years ago. He left a widow who is an invalid.

Will Inspect Cavalry Horses

WALLA WALLA, July 29.—Lieutenant Colonel R. D. Walsh, U. S. A., and Major James Jackson, retired, will arrive tomorrow to inspect the cavalry horses offered for sale by the new Washington County Company at that place some time Sunday and was drowned. The body was recovered today.

Outlook is Bright for a Prosperous and Useful Year

EUGENE, July 29.—The University of Oregon, the State University, had an exceedingly prosperous year. Indications in athletics have been only surface indications of the enthusiastic and loyal spirit of the students. More than this, the university is doing a continually advancing grade of work.

STATE UNIVERSITY GROWING

The growth of the university in numbers has been somewhat remarkable, as total number of students for all departments at Eugene for the year 1898-99 was 181; for the year 1899-1900 it was 230; and for 1900-1901 it was 302, or a gain of 100 per cent in two years.

PUGET SOUND SALMON RUN

Greatest Ever Known in the History of Fishing There.

MINING RIGHTS DEFINED

FIRST USER HAS THE PRIOR CLAIM ON WATER PRIVILEGES.

Later Arrivals Must Not Divert Streams Injuriouly or Dump Tailings on His Claim.

SALEM, Or., July 29.—The Supreme Court today handed down decisions on three mining cases, affirming the decision of the lower court in one, reversing and modifying it in the other two. The decisions in detail were as follows:

The complaint alleges that the plaintiff, A. H. Carson and one Johnson appropriated all the waters of the stream in 1898, and that they and their successors in interest have ever since used the same in placer mining, and that defendants had interfered with plaintiff's rights as above stated.

Ex-Forrest Grove Minister

Rev. Alonzo Rogers.

FOREST GROVE, July 29.—The Rev. Alonzo Rogers, styled as Rev. Whatcom, Friday evening, aged 69 years, from the effects of a paralytic stroke received over a year ago, came from Iowa to Oregon, about 1885, to accept the pastorate of the Congregational church here.

For a Cash Consideration, a Petition Signed by 12 Well-known Citizens of Whatcom

was presented to the Seattle Times, requesting the publication of the facts in the case. Judge Scott was elected to the Supreme Bench upon the admission of the state last time a full term of six years. During the last two years of his term he was Chief Justice. At the time of his election he was a resident of Eastern Washington, but during his term he moved to Whatcom. In 1898 he refused to be a candidate for re-nomination, and since his retirement from the bench he has been practicing law. His friends regret that the charge against him is the result of an attempt to blackmail him.

FRUIT SEASON OPENS AT SALEM

Apple Crop in Demand—Big Apple Crop in Expected.

SALEM, Or., July 29.—The fruit picking season has fairly opened here, and the picking and commission-houses have been scenes of much activity today. The peach crop is the most extensive and will be handled here almost exclusively during the rest of the week. The fruit dryers are making dates every day for the use of their plants, and the prospects are that more fruit will be shipped from here than ever before.

Washington County Crops

HILLSBORO, July 29.—The hay harvest in this county is practically completed, and the crop has been large and of excellent quality. Grain is ripening fast and in some instances Fall wheat has already been cut. The wheat yield will not be up to the average, but oats are in fine condition and prospects are good for a heavy crop.

Oats Around Albany

ALBANY, Or., July 29.—The first field of oats threshed in this county was on the farm of E. G. Cox. Six hundred bushels were threshed in 2 1/2 hours, and averaged 40 bushels per acre. The yield is large as usual. Spraying has been the order in a number of yards where lice have made their appearance.

Will Inspect Cavalry Horses

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 29.—Dr. James Dorr, who was buried today with Masonic honors, was born in South Brunswick, Me., December 27, 1828. He came to Walla Walla some 30 years ago. He left a widow who is an invalid.

Will Inspect Cavalry Horses

WALLA WALLA, July 29.—Lieutenant Colonel R. D. Walsh, U. S. A., and Major James Jackson, retired, will arrive tomorrow to inspect the cavalry horses offered for sale by the new Washington County Company at that place some time Sunday and was drowned. The body was recovered today.

Outlook is Bright for a Prosperous and Useful Year

EUGENE, July 29.—The University of Oregon, the State University, had an exceedingly prosperous year. Indications in athletics have been only surface indications of the enthusiastic and loyal spirit of the students. More than this, the university is doing a continually advancing grade of work.

STATE UNIVERSITY GROWING

The growth of the university in numbers has been somewhat remarkable, as total number of students for all departments at Eugene for the year 1898-99 was 181; for the year 1899-1900 it was 230; and for 1900-1901 it was 302, or a gain of 100 per cent in two years.

PUGET SOUND SALMON RUN

Greatest Ever Known in the History of Fishing There.

MINING RIGHTS DEFINED

FIRST USER HAS THE PRIOR CLAIM ON WATER PRIVILEGES.

Later Arrivals Must Not Divert Streams Injuriouly or Dump Tailings on His Claim.

SALEM, Or., July 29.—The Supreme Court today handed down decisions on three mining cases, affirming the decision of the lower court in one, reversing and modifying it in the other two. The decisions in detail were as follows:

The complaint alleges that the plaintiff, A. H. Carson and one Johnson appropriated all the waters of the stream in 1898, and that they and their successors in interest have ever since used the same in placer mining, and that defendants had interfered with plaintiff's rights as above stated.

Ex-Forrest Grove Minister

Rev. Alonzo Rogers.

FOREST GROVE, July 29.—The Rev. Alonzo Rogers, styled as Rev. Whatcom, Friday evening, aged 69 years, from the effects of a paralytic stroke received over a year ago, came from Iowa to Oregon, about 1885, to accept the pastorate of the Congregational church here.

For a Cash Consideration, a Petition Signed by 12 Well-known Citizens of Whatcom

was presented to the Seattle Times, requesting the publication of the facts in the case. Judge Scott was elected to the Supreme Bench upon the admission of the state last time a full term of six years. During the last two years of his term he was Chief Justice. At the time of his election he was a resident of Eastern Washington, but during his term he moved to Whatcom. In 1898 he refused to be a candidate for re-nomination, and since his retirement from the bench he has been practicing law. His friends regret that the charge against him is the result of an attempt to blackmail him.

FRUIT SEASON OPENS AT SALEM

Apple Crop in Demand—Big Apple Crop in Expected.

SALEM, Or., July 29.—The fruit picking season has fairly opened here, and the picking and commission-houses have been scenes of much activity today. The peach crop is the most extensive and will be handled here almost exclusively during the rest of the week. The fruit dryers are making dates every day for the use of their plants, and the prospects are that more fruit will be shipped from here than ever before.

Washington County Crops

HILLSBORO, July 29.—The hay harvest in this county is practically completed, and the crop has been large and of excellent quality. Grain is ripening fast and in some instances Fall wheat has already been cut. The wheat yield will not be up to the average, but oats are in fine condition and prospects are good for a heavy crop.

Oats Around Albany

ALBANY, Or., July 29.—The first field of oats threshed in this county was on the farm of E. G. Cox. Six hundred bushels were threshed in 2 1/2 hours, and averaged 40 bushels per acre. The yield is large as usual. Spraying has been the order in a number of yards where lice have made their appearance.

Will Inspect Cavalry Horses

WALLA WALLA, Wash., July 29.—Dr. James Dorr, who was buried today with Masonic honors, was born in South Brunswick, Me., December 27, 1828. He came to Walla Walla some 30 years ago. He left a widow who is an invalid.

Will Inspect Cavalry Horses

WALLA WALLA, July 29.—Lieutenant Colonel R. D. Walsh, U. S. A., and Major James Jackson, retired, will arrive tomorrow to inspect the cavalry horses offered for sale by the new Washington County Company at that place some time Sunday and was drowned. The body was recovered today.

Outlook is Bright for a Prosperous and Useful Year

EUGENE, July 29.—The University of Oregon, the State University, had an exceedingly prosperous year. Indications in athletics have been only surface indications of the enthusiastic and loyal spirit of the students. More than this, the university is doing a continually advancing grade of work.

STATE UNIVERSITY GROWING

The growth of the university in numbers has been somewhat remarkable, as total number of students for all departments at Eugene for the year 1898-99 was 181; for the year 1899-1900 it was 230; and for 1900-1901 it was 302, or a gain of 100 per cent in two years.

PUGET SOUND SALMON RUN

Greatest Ever Known in the History of Fishing There.

DRAYMEN MAKE HEADWAY

SAID THEY ARE BEATING THE STRIKING UNION TEAMSTERS.

Additional Teams Used, and Many Applications for Work, but Police Protection Retained.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—There was no change in the strike situation today. At the headquarters of the Draymen's Association it has been made against the union teamsters. Twenty-five additional teams were sent out this morning in charge of non-striking drivers.

The meeting of this influential organization to be held tonight is expected to be most important, for if all the members of the federation are called out, nearly 10,000 more men will be available in the labor struggle. It is not likely that the result of the federation's deliberations will be known until a very late hour, as questions of some conflicting interests are to be considered.

Rich Mine Cleanup

GRANT'S PASS, July 29.—Alex Watts, owner and proprietor of the Watts placer mine in the Williams Creek district, called into Grant's Pass yesterday. He stated that the cleanup just completed was very good, bringing over $1000 for each man employed during the season. The Wrotherton mine, which is a rich placer ground, about 100 acres of ground, has been worked for 30 years and yields a big sack of coarse gold nuggets each season. It will continue to yield handsomely for some time to come, as the ground is far from being worked out.

Rich Mine Cleanup

GRANT'S PASS, July 29.—Alex Watts, owner and proprietor of the Watts placer mine in the Williams Creek district, called into Grant's Pass yesterday. He stated that the cleanup just completed was very good, bringing over $1000 for each man employed during the season. The Wrotherton mine, which is a rich placer ground, about 100 acres of ground, has been worked for 30 years and yields a big sack of coarse gold nuggets each season. It will continue to yield handsomely for some time to come, as the ground is far from being worked out.

Wasco County Pioneer

THE DALLES, July 29.—Mrs. Mary C. Gated, who died at the late N. H. Gates, one of the pioneers of this city, died Sunday night after an illness of nearly a year. She was born in Frankfort, Germany, in 1823, and came to the Dalles in the early '50s. She left a son, N. H. Gates, and two daughters, Mrs. Kate V. Roche and Mrs. Leese, residents of this place, and a daughter by a former husband, Mrs. Thomas Strohn, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Stabbed Man Recovering

BAKER CITY, July 29.—M. L. Gosney, who was stabbed Thursday morning last week by Madison Coffman at Carter & Miller's ranch, near this city, is getting along nicely. The wound was a bad one, and Dr. Hayes, his physician, attributes his escape from almost instant death to the fact that the wound was inflicted before Gosney had eaten his breakfast. It was a deep wound, made with a knife, in the abdomen.

Cashier at the New Yale Bank

BAKER CITY, July 29.—Elmer Clark, who is at present employed in the First National Bank of this city, has been selected by the board of directors of the New Yale Bank. This is a new National Bank, recently organized, with a capital of $25,000. Mr. M. G. Hope, vice-president of the bank, is now in Portland purchasing the fixtures.

Clatskanie Mill Man

CLATSKANIE, July 29.—Word has been received from San Diego, of the death in that city of A. M. Tichenor, as the result of Bright's disease, at the age of 61 years. Mr. Tichenor was president of the Tichenor Mill Company, and has been a prominent business man about here for the past 17 years.

Body Caught in Fish Net

ASTORIA, July 29.—The body of J. S. Hutley, the fisherman who was drowned about a week ago, was picked up in the fish net of the bank at Carter & Miller's. He was drifting near Tongue Point. The body was turned over to the Coroner, who will ship it to the man's former home at La Center, Wash., for burial.

QUOTATIONS OF MINING STOCKS

Table with columns: Bid, Ask, Bid, Ask. Lists various mining stocks such as American Boy, Bitter Lake, etc.

QUOTATIONS OF MINING STOCKS

Table with columns: Bid, Ask, Bid, Ask. Lists various mining stocks such as Adventure, Atlantic, etc.

QUOTATIONS OF MINING STOCKS

Table with columns: Bid, Ask, Bid, Ask. Lists various mining stocks such as Adventure, Atlantic, etc.

DRAYMEN MAKE HEADWAY

SAID THEY ARE BEATING THE STRIKING UNION TEAMSTERS.

Additional Teams Used, and Many Applications for Work, but Police Protection Retained.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 29.—There was no change in the strike situation today. At the headquarters of the Draymen's Association it has been made against the union teamsters. Twenty-five additional teams were sent out this morning in charge of non-striking drivers.

The meeting of this influential organization to be held tonight is expected to be most important, for if all the members of the federation are called out, nearly 10,000 more men will be available in the labor struggle. It is not likely that the result of the federation's deliberations will be known until a very late hour, as questions of some conflicting interests are to be considered.

Rich Mine Cleanup

GRANT'S PASS, July 29.—Alex Watts, owner and proprietor of the Watts placer mine in the Williams Creek district, called into Grant's Pass yesterday. He stated that the cleanup just completed was very good, bringing over $1000 for each man employed during the season. The Wrotherton mine, which is a rich placer ground, about 100 acres of ground, has been worked for 30 years and yields a big sack of coarse gold nuggets each season. It will continue to yield handsomely for some time to come, as the ground is far from being worked out.

Rich Mine Cleanup

GRANT'S PASS, July 29.—Alex Watts, owner and proprietor of the Watts placer mine in the Williams Creek district, called into Grant's Pass yesterday. He stated that the cleanup just completed was very good, bringing over $1000 for each man employed during the season. The Wrotherton mine, which is a rich placer ground, about 100 acres of ground, has been worked for 30 years and yields a big sack of coarse gold nuggets each season. It will continue to yield handsomely for some time to come, as the ground is far from being worked out.

Wasco County Pioneer

THE DALLES, July 29.—Mrs. Mary C. Gated, who died at the late N. H. Gates, one of the pioneers of this city, died Sunday night after an illness of nearly a year. She was born in Frankfort, Germany, in 1823, and came to the Dalles in the early '50s. She left a son, N. H. Gates, and two daughters, Mrs. Kate V. Roche and Mrs. Leese, residents of this place, and a daughter by a former husband, Mrs. Thomas Strohn, of Los Angeles, Cal.

Stabbed Man Recovering

BAKER CITY, July 29.—M. L. Gosney, who was stabbed Thursday morning last