Says He Is an Anarchist, and Was Influenced to Commit the Deed by Emma Goldman's Lectures.

BUFFALO, Sept. 6.-The police have just learned that the real name of the assume in is Leon Cholgosz. He was born In Derroit, and came here from Cleveland. Choigost has signed a confession cover-ing six pages of foolscap, and in which he states that he is an anarchist, and that he became an enthusiastic member of a body through the influence of Emma Goldman, whose writings he had read, and whose lectures he had listened to, He denies having any confederate, and mays he decided on the act three days ago, and bought the revolver with which the act was committed in Buffalo. He has seven brothers and sisters in Cleveland, and the Cleveland directory has the names of about that number living on Hosmer street and Euclid avenue, which adjoins. Some of them are butchers, and others are employed in different trades. He is now detained at police headquarters pend-ing the result of the President's injuries, Cholgorn does not appear in the least degree uncasy or penitent for his action. He says he was induced, by his attention to Emma Geldman's lectures and writis control of the present form of government in this country was all wrong and he thought the best way to end it was by killing the President. He shows no signs of insanity, but is very reticent about much of his cureer.

While acknowledging himself an an-rchist, he does not state to what branch of the organization he belongs.

Five alleged anarchists were arrested here this evening, but were afterward released.

At police headquarters no information was to be obtained as to the arrest of anarchists in Chicago. Neither the Chief of Police nor Assistant could be seen, and the Sergeants in charge declined to talk.

Tacoma Man Thrashed Nieman.

TACOMA, Sept. 6.-R. C. Hunt, employed by the Northern Pacific as a special agent, with headquarters in Tacoma, knows the would-be assastin quite well. As soon as he heard the news and the name of the man under arrest, Mr. Hunt enté

"I know Fred Nieman, and, If I am not mistaken, he now carries some scars in-iteted by me. Nieman formerly lived in Detroit, but his home is now in Toledo. Five or six years ago, when in Detroit, Nieman, who was a pronounced anarchist, intered a crowd in the Union depot by surishing a revolver and uttering pro-sunced anarchistic sentiments. I told him he must stop that kind of business and started to lead him away. He restated me and I pounded him good over the head. I think he has some of the scare yet."

Description Fits Detroit Man.

DETROIT, Sept. 6.-Late tonight a newspaper reporter discovered that a man named Alfred Nieman had boarded ni 178 Russell street up to two weeks ago, when he left for Buffalo. The de-scription of Fred Nieman was read to Alfred Nieman's former landlady and she recalled it fitted him, except that Alfred Nieman's hair was not dark, but medium brown, wavy and thick. He wore it brushed back off his forchend. He also had very white, even teeth."Alfred Nieman was a wagonmaker.

While the wounded President was being borne from the exposition hospital to the Milburn residence between rows of onlookers with bared heads, a far different spectacle was being witnessed along the route of his assailant's journey from the scene of his crime to police headquarters. The crime was committed so quickly that the prisoner was safely landed within the wide portals of the police station and the doors closed before any one was aware of his presence The news of the attempted assassination had, in the meanwhile, been spread broad-employed to the fullest extent, but specially detailed men had accompanied the Presidential party in all its travels since inauguration day, and in addition to this, the extra precaution was taken upon the occasion of the President's visit to the Exposition of having him guarded by secret service men of long experience and proved ability. In fact, to such an extent has this matter of the President's personal safety been carried by those responsible for his welfare that it-has given rise to some crit-icism. Upon his visit to the Exposition, it was felt by those surrounding him that the President was liable to greater chances of danger than is usual, even upon his travels, owing to the great crowds, the diversified character of the people assem-bled, and the necessity of direct contact with the crowds. There is much talk there tonight of attempting means to drive anarchiets out of that city.

CHICAGO ANARCHISTS ABRESTED.

Believed to Be Connected With the Plot.

CHICAGO, Sept. 6 .- Six men were placed under arrest in this city tonight on the charge of being implicated in the plot to assassinate President McKinley. The men were all found in one house at the corner of St. Johns Place and Carroll avenue, on the west side of the city. The arrests were made on information from the police officials of Buffalo, who said that the men were members of a society to which the assailant of the President belonged and that they had knowledge of the plot. The police have not yet given out the names of the men taken into custody, but of the men is known to be Abraham lisekk, president of an organization which bears the name of the Free Society. He was formerly editor of a paper of anarchistic principles which bore the name of the Firebrand.

The information received by the local police from Buffalo is to the effect that the plot to kill the President was originated among the members of the society and that the Buffalo prisoner was chosen by lot to commit the crime. Five men and three women were in the place where the arrests were made and they appeared to be discussing some serious matter. They were so completely surprised by the invasion of the police that they had no time to make any resistance.

All the mon arrested with Isekk were employes of the paper. The arrests were made by Chief of Detectives Colleran, as-sisted by three of his officers. Captain Colleran said, after taking the men to the central police station for examina-tion, that he had arrested them upon information from Buffalo, but what the asture of his information from Buffalo might be he declined to say. He would not admit that he had any intimation that the assailant of the President had mad a confession implicating in any way the men arrested here. The impressio provalla Colleran that there was no special reason for arresting the men save the gen-eral character of their teaching's and writings.

WITNESSES SUMMONED.

Called to Washington for Conference Before the Trial.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 6 .- The Navy De artment received a letter from Admiral schley containing a list of witnesses he dealres to have brought here, and adding a request that they be summoned. Act-, ing Secretary Hackett has expressed a willingness to have the witnesses brought here at once. Arrangements have been made to arrange technical details, so that they may get here promptly. Admiral Barker, who was a member of the War Board during the Spanish-Ameri. can War, arrived here today. He is one of the witnesses on Admiral Schley's list, which leads to the belief that the evidence may go into the antecedent circ few clothes stances before the war began, when the West Indian campaign was planned.

Judge-Advocate-General Lemly has de-ided, so far as the civilian witnesses, whose names appear on the list, are con-cerned, he has no power under the law to summon them in advance of the meeting of the court, that body alone being competent to issue a formal summons having legal force. Captain Lemly today issues "notices" to each of the civillans named, requesting them to be present in Washington at the opening day of the court next Thursday. The name of Nunez, the plipt, is on Admiral Schley's list. He was put aboard the Brooklyn by Captain Sigsbee to serve as a pliot, and he it was who reported to Admiral Schley that it was impos-sible for the Spanish squadron to enter Santiago harbor without tugs, on account of the crookedness of the channel, Among the civilians to be called are several newspaper men who served as correspondents during the West Indian campaign campaign. Admiral Schley and his counsel today began holding sessions with the witnesses they will call. Those heard today were Admirals Watson and Barker. The slitings were private and the character of the evidence was not disclosed. Admiral Watson was at Guantanamo the day of the battle of Santiago.

Inside the station house were assem bled District Attorney Penny, Superinter dent of Police Bull and other officials. The prisoner at first proved quite com-municalive, so much so, in fact, that lit-tle dependence could be placed on what he said. He first gave his name as Fred Nieman, said his home was in Detroit, and that he had been in Buffalo about a week. He said he had been boarding at the place in Broadway. Later this place was located at John Nowak's saloon, a Raines law hotel, 1978 Broadway. Nowak, the proprietor, said he knew very little about his guest. He came there, he declared, last Saturday. saying that he had come to see the Pan American Exposition and that his home was in Toledo. In his room was found a small traveling bag of cheap make. It contained an empty cartridge box and a

The Prisoner's Admissions.

With these facts in hand, the policy went at the prisoner with renewed vigor, with a view to obtaining either a full confession or a straight account of his identity and movements prior to his arrival Buffalo. He at first admitted that he was an anarchist, in sympathy at least, but denied strenuously that the attempt on the President was the result of a con-certed plot on the part of any anarchist At times he was defiant and society. again indifferent. But at no time did betray the remotest sign of remorse. He being the remotest sign of remorae. He declared the deed was not premeditated, but, in the same breath, refused to say why he perpetrated it. When charged with being the instrument of an organiz-ed band of conspirators, he protested vehemently that he never even thought of perpetrating the crime until this morn-ing.

After long and persistent questioning it was announced at police headquarters that the prisoner had made a partial confession, which he had signed. As near as can be learned tonight the facts contained in the confession are as follows: The man's name is Leon Crologes. He is of Polish-German extraction. His home is in Cleveland, where he has seven broth-ers and sisters. He is an avowed an-archist and an ardent disciple of Emma Goldman, whose teachings, he alleges, are responsible for today's attack on the Provident He denies standfaulty that he President. He denies steadfastly that he is the instrument of any body of anarch-lats or the tool of any coterle of platters. He declares he did not even have a cor federate. His only reason for the deed, he declares, is that he believed the present form of government in the United States is unjust and he concluded that the most effective way to remedy it was to kill the President. These conclusions, declared, he reached through the teachings of Emma Goldman.

At the Milburn Home.

Immediately after the President was cared for at the exposition grounds, Direc-tor-General W. I. Buchanan started for the Milburn residence to forestall any information that might reach there by telephone or otherwise. Luckily, he was first to arrive with the information. The Niagara Falls trip had tired Mrs. Mc-Kinley and on returning to the Milburn residence she took leave of her nleces, the Misses Barber, and the President's niece, Miss Duncan, as well as their hostess, Mrs. Milburn, and went to her room as possible to the nieces and consulted with them and Mrs. Milburn as to the best course to pursue in breaking the news to Mrs. McKinley. It was finally decided that on her awakening, or short-ly thereafter, Mr. Buchanan should break the news to her, if, in the meantime, her physician, Dr. Rixey, had not arortly afterward he said: 'Do not exaggerate this to Mrs. McKinley." "The President displayed the greatest fortitude, and until the time I saw him carried from the building his coolness and ourage were wonderful."

Long after midnight crowds were walkng the streets, eagerly inquiring for information or loitering about the newspa-per builetin boards in the hope of se-curing additional information. The deepest feeling over the outrage was every-where apparent, and people of all classes, without distinction of political partisanship, were unanimous in their expressions of abhorrence of the cowardly crime. The latest news obtainable at police leadquarters was that District Attorney Penny was still closeted with the pris-oner, while mounted police patrolled the district roped off from the public.

Arrest of Anarchists.

In the course of the evening five men vere arrested on the charge of seditious itterances, but later all were released. Inquiries at the home of President Milburn at this hour (3 A. M.) are fruitless. The street in the immediate vi-cinity of the house where the President lies is roped off and guarded by police, who will admit nobody. It was an-nounced earlier in the evening that official bulletins would be issued at regular intervals and upon these the public must wait, as the physicians refuse absolutely to give out any information. At 3 A. M. the street in the neighbor-hood of the Milburn residence was deserted, save for the policemen who were on guard, and the streets downtown were ost equally quiet.

Senator Hanna arrived from Cleveland at 11:28 P. M., and immediately went to the Milburn residence.

DIPLOMATS AT BUFFALO.

Met Last Night and Drew Up a Noto of Condolence.

BUFFALO, Sept. 6 .- Solemnity and sor row were written in the faces of the dip-lomatic corps as they moved out of Ni-agara Hotel. News reached some of them on the exposition grounds, others had gone to their hotels on their return with the President from the trip to the fails, and did not learn of the calamity until late in the afternoon. Upon learning it, each hurried to the Milburn house to inquire as to the President's condition and to express sorrow for the misfortune that had befailen him. Don Manuel de Aspiroz, Minister Exitaordinary Plenipotentiary from Mexico, and his secretary were among the first call-
