EMMA GOLDMAN IN PORTLAND

Visit of the Red-Hot Anarchist Three Years Ago.

Emma Goldman, the anarchist, whose name is in everybody's mouth today as the probable instigator of the crime that has nearly robbed our country of its President, gave a platform lecture in Portland about three years ago. Her presence in this city was due to the fact that she had just been driven out of Eastern towns by the authorities, and so was forced to take her way westward. Her speech here was of a very incendiary character, but it kindled no responsive enthusiasm among such Portland people as gathered in Arion Hall to hear her. It was given at a time when patriotism was at fever heat, for the Spanish war was then well under way, and the call had gone out for volunteers. There was an element of humor in seeing the red, white and blue knotted conspicuously in the buttonhole of everybody in the audience, while they listened with an air of bored politeness as Miss Goldman ranted about on the platform, considering the heads of all the nations to the place where nobody cares to go. It was perhaps as thoroughly respectable and placid an audience as she or any other anarchist has ever talked to. Every man present had brought his wife, and the wives had brought their babies, who tumbled contentedly over into their mothers' laps, between meals, and went to sleep.

come back again, as they do at the theater. From which it will be seen that Emma Goldman did not win any adherents during her stay in Portland.

GOING EAST!

The ideal trip across the Continent, especially at this time of the year, is via the Rio Grande route, known as the "Scenic Line of the World." In addition to going through Ogden, Salt Lake City, Greenwood Springs, Pueblo, Colorado Springs and Denver, with the privilege of a stop-over at any of these points, you have a day-long ride through the heart of the Rockies, the scenery of which is surpassed nowhere. By stopping over in the Mormon capital, you have the opportunity of a bath in the Great Salt Lake, Nature's famous sanitarium. Through Pullman and dining-car service. MINISTERS VOICE SYMPATHY Methodist Ministers Take Action on the National Crime.

At the regular weekly meeting of the Methodist Ministers' Association yesterday, the following resolutions were passed: "The ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church in the City of Portland, Or., assembled on the morning of the 8th of September, in regular session, take this first opportunity to express their profound indignation and great sorrow, at the diabolical attempt made upon the life of William McKinley, President of the United States, on Friday, the 6th inst., while holding a reception at the Temple of Music at the Pan-American grounds in the City of Buffalo, N. Y. We are overwhelmed at the National condition which makes such a dastardly deed possible. While we receive with thanksgiving to God the favorable news of his probable recovery, the deed wears none the less of blackness. As citizens and patriots of this Republic, a country where life and property of all classes have been cherished and protected, and where opportunity has been and is now afforded to the humblest for the highest preferment, we cannot be silent at this epochal moment, when the whole Nation waits with holy anxiety the latest item from the physicians of the distinguished patient. We desire to place ourselves on record as a body in the belief that the time has come when the Congress of the United States should take immediate action enacting stringent laws against all forms of so-called anarchism, and while it does not become us to advise legislation, we humbly suggest that it is our profound judgment that any attempt to take the life of the Chief Magistrate of this Nation should be made high treason, and visited summarily with the penalties attached to that crime. We also declare most positively that anarchists, as they are known, should be speedily banished from this country, and if possible, international laws agreed upon by all nations, whereby these infesters of civilization could be dealt with in an international way. Furthermore, we submit that as these deprecators see no merit in any form of government, but seek alike by violence the destruction of all government, that the time has come when literature such as the writings of Emma Goldman should be destroyed and a suitable penalty attached to publishing or circulating the same; and that public or secret meetings by anarchists or of an anarchistic character be everywhere prohibited.

"Resolved, That we extend our Christian sympathy and love to President and Mrs. McKinley, and that we pray for his speedy recovery." "Resolved, also, that a copy of this be sent to the press of this city, to Hon. John Hay, the Secretary of State, to Major Richard Sylvester, president of the National Association of the Chiefs of Police of the United States and Canada,
