

SAFETY OF CROWNED HEADS

PRECAUTIONS FOR THE PROTECTION OF THE TOURING RULERS.

Frontiers of France, Switzerland and Italy Will Be Guarded—Talk of an International Conference.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—Stimulated by the attacks upon President McKinley, Continental governments are adopting the greatest precautions to insure the safety of the touring sovereigns. Twenty-five thousand troops will be employed in France to protect the routes taken by Emperor Nicholas.

The French, Swiss and Italian governments have ordered their police to exercise the greatest vigilance on the frontiers, in the expectation that frightened anarchists will seek refuge in flight. The supposition that anarchists might form a subject of conversation at the meeting of the rulers was probably the origin of the unfounded rumor that Emperor William would call an international conference to deal with the evil.

THE ROYAL DECLARATION.

Cardinal Vaughan Says It Is Blasphemous.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Cardinal Vaughan made a striking address at the opening of the Catholic conference in New York last night, says a London dispatch to the Times. The cardinal implored Catholics to call themselves Catholics—Roman Catholics if they pleased, but preferably Catholics.

"Indeed," the cardinal went on to say, "it is important in this country that we call ourselves Catholics, rather than Roman Catholics, because a false meaning is more often attached to the latter than the former term."

In speaking of the royal declaration, the cardinal said that it was the accepted decision of the country that the king must be a Protestant. It was expedient that the king should be of the religion of the overwhelming majority of his subjects. Catholics, however, had no difficulty in giving their loyal allegiance to a Protestant sovereign, and in this they seemed more liberal and more patriotic than those who refused allegiance to a king not professing their creed.

The cardinal pointed out that it would be no gain to the English Catholics to have a Catholic king. The king was not an absolute monarch. They must first convert the House of Commons. Next session, continued the speaker, Parliament might settle forever the position of Christianity in this country when secondary and middle-class education would be "thrown in the melting pot."

The cardinal later in his speech, did not tie with His Majesty, but on religious prejudice. He said that he had never talked King Edward's conduct. The declaration as it stands was called by Cardinal Vaughan blasphemous, and an insult to three-fourths of Christendom. As a guarantee, he said, it was a sham. As for the House of Lords amendment, it singled out the Catholics, and was an insult to three-fourths of Christendom. If there must be a declaration, let it be one to the effect that the king was a Protestant, and let it end there.

Disturbances in Morocco.

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The Tangier correspondent of the Times says the disturbances in the country are increasing, and amount almost to anarchy in many districts.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs believes that the Spanish captives carried off last May have been put to death. The Spanish Government claims that the Sultan and Lord Sidi Mohammed were killed on the 20th of May. There is no indication that Madrid has yet decided what steps will be taken.

Kraus Case Adjourned.

Dr. Kraus was informed that a warrant had been issued for his arrest on a charge of treason, and that he was to be held in custody until the trial.

FAULT OF THE GOVERNMENT.

Secret Service Department Handicapped by Lack of Funds.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 10.—Clyde M. Allen, editor of the International Police Journal, the organ of the National Association of Chiefs of Police of the United States and Canada, said today:

"The fact that anarchists are rampant in the United States today is due to the parsimony of the Government. It is a notorious fact among police officers that the secret service department is so badly handicapped by lack of funds that it cannot keep track of counterfeiters, to say nothing of waiting anarchists. It is the most important and still most neglected department of the Government. Long before President McKinley fell a victim to anarchy, the members of the Government realized the necessity of suppressing anarchists. With that in view it had been planned to ask the next session of Congress to establish a National Bureau of Identification at Washington, under the supervision of the Government, to keep track of the movements of every anarchist. Affiliations will be had with similar bureaus in other countries, such as Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Spain and Canada, and the world in close touch."
