NAVAL VETERANS PARADED

FEATURE OF THE SECOND DAY OF THE ENCAMPMENT

Celebrated the Eighty-seventh Anniversary of Commodore Perry's Triumph-Other Events.

CLEVELAND, O., Sept. 10.-The Naval Veterans took first place in the festivities attendant upon the Grand Army Encamp-ment today. The eighty-seventh anniversary of Oliver Hazard Perry's historic triumph on Lake Erie was fittingly cele brated in the grand parade of naval vet erans and a naval display upon the lake General Leo Rassieur, commander-in-chle of the Grand Army, with his staff, re viewed the parade. In the reviewing stand with General Rassicur was ex-Secretary of War Russell A. Alger and General J. Warner Keifer, of Springfield, Major-General of Volunteers, togethe with other prominent veterans and celeb

Much regret was expressed by veterans today by the announcement that President Roosevelt will not be able to attend the encampment. Other features of interest in the day's programme were a reception by the Cleve-land Yacht Club, a dog watch of the Association of Naval Veterans at Grays Armory, a campfire of Union ex-prisoners of war at Central Armory, a reception for National officers of the Grand Army by Women's Relief Corps at Chamber of Commerce Hall, a reception of ladies of the G. A. R., the West Side campfire at Turner Hall, and a lake front naval dis-play by the United States Naval Reserve boats, including illuminations and maneuvers by the fleet.

The real business relative to the admin istrative affairs of the Grand Army commenced this afternoon when numerous caucuses were held at the headquarters of the various departments. The election of the next commander-inchief promises to be one of the most interesting and spirited in the history of the organization. General Sickles' candi-dacy is not boomed, but if he secures the election he will be the first Democratic incumbent of that most important office. Governor Van Sant, of Minnesota, is handling the campaign of Judge Eli Tor-Minnesota, and Minnesotans claim that they have excellent chances of winning out. It is said that General Stewart, of Pennsylvain, is the adminis tration favorite, and the fight is expected to be waged most closely between the candidates from New York and Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Calista Robinson Jones, of Brad-ford, Vt., is a candidate for president of the Woman's Relief Corps, the largest auxiliary body allied to the Grand Army. The election is practically decided upon. At Central Armory tonight the Union ex-prisoners of war had their 2th annual reunion. The atmory was packed to the doors. Mayor Tom L. Johnson, of Cleveland, presided. Governor Nash, of Ohio, and Governor Bliss, of Michigan, addressed the assemblings.

dressed the assemblage The Weman's National Association, auxiliary of the ex-prisoners of war, today elected National officers as follows: National president, Mrs. William Haut, of Allegheny, Pa.; vice-president, Mrs. John Horne, Steubenville, O.; junior vice-president, Mrs. Frank Traville; secretary, Mrs. J. R. Hutchinson; treasurer, Mrs. Alfred H. Jones.

At a naval dog watch in Gray's Armory the principal speaker of the night was Captain Richmond P. Hobson. President McKinley's old regiment, the Twenty-third Ohio, in which he enlisted as a private in Company G, in 1861, and which had for its commander Colonel Rutherford B. Hayes, another President held its annual reunion today. A resolu-tion against anarchism was adopted.

THE BRITISH PRESS.

Comment on the President's Condition and the Anarchist Peril. LONDON, Sept. 10 .- The papers again cupy themselves fully with President McKinley's state, and the anarchist peril. The Daily Telegraph says: "President McKinley has a wonderful constitution, as has, indeed, been proved by the incidents of his illness. The simple, almost austere life he has led has helped him at the crisis of his fate, while the devotion and fortitude of his wife. with whom, as the President has said, h has often conquered both difficulty and danger, have profoundly touched and inspired the sympathetic pity of the world." The Daily Mail remarks: Both in this country and in the United States public opinion has hitherto been recognize that the unwillingness to act harshly toward political fugitives cannot be permitted to condone the crime of rufflans, who preach sedition and plot assassination. Even the latest anarchist outrage will not have been in vain if it should determine on both sides of the Atlantic a boundary between the exercise of National hospitality and harboring Na-The Daily News says: "The cry of 'Down with the anarchists being raised, as it was certain to be raised in various quarters-European as well as American-but it seems to us that the worst possible way of going about the business is to stir up public feeling on behalf of a vendetta against anarchism in general. The preater the pressure the more violent the resistance." The Daily Graphic writes: "There is no obvious means of discouraging the anarchist propaganda which has been too much neglected in the United States and the Continent, namely, to treat the advocacy of crime itself as criminal. In this country that principle is accepted and acted upon. Probably if a score or so of philosophic anarchists were sent to cool their heels a year in prison they would grow considerably more cautious in the use of their words, and their disciples would begin to learn something of the same reticence in using re

The Morning Post believes that the charcteristic lesson of recent events is that all governments are exposed to the same

"It is not this or that particular form of authority that is aimed at, but all authority. Wherever the anarchist sees authority or government, he strikes, no matter what its origin may be. This is the lesson which is being driven home in the United States by the brutal attack on President McKinley. While it would appear that certain measures may be taken by the United States on its own account in order to combat this new evil, it would be better if all such measures were adopted in concert by the great powers after an international conference. There is certainly solidarity between all civilized nations now that America is no longer outside the circle of its influence.

United States Ambassador, Joseph H. Choate, has received from the First Lord of the Admiralty, the Earl of Selborne, the following message in behalf of the British Navy and Admiralty: "Allow me to give expression to the universal feeling of horror at the attempt on the life of the President, and the earn-est prayer of all the subjects of His Majesty that the President may long be spared to his family and the service of his country. The respectful sympathy of

PROVINCE OF PAMPRNGA.

One of the Most Important of Our Island Possessions.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 10 .- From official material complied in the Division of In-sular Affairs of the War Department, the ollowing abstract has been prepared concerning the important Province of Pampanga. Under the provincial organization act, Pampanga was created a local political jurisdiction in February last, under the general authority of the Philippine Commission. It is one of the most important of the provinces in population, industry and trade. Its southern borders contain half of the great delta of the Grande Pampanga River, which enters Manila Bay through many outlets, The province contains 1,413,769 which makes it nearly twice the size of the State of Rhode Island, and within 150 square miles of the area of the State of Delaware. The country has every variety of surface, being mountainous in the western part and nearly level in the center and south. The temperature is cool and delightful. All the towns of the interior are within wagon road or trail communication with the Capitol, which is Bacolor, and thence to Manlia, which is but 35 miles distant.

The rivers are also navigable, and on them is carried on a large trade in native products with Manila. The Manila and Dagupan Railroad crosses the province from southeast and northwest, and brings many of its principal towns in communi-cation with Manila Bay, and the Gulf of Lingayen, an arm of the China Sea. The railroad is parelleled by a telegraph

The population of the province is 223,-522, six times as large as the State of Nevada, nearly three times as great as Wyoming, and considerably larger than Arizona, Idaho, Delaware or New Mexico. The inhabitants are the race from whom the province takes its name, Pampanga, In the mountains are a few Negritos, a remnant of the aboriginal race of Luzon. This population is distributed among 25 towns, 228 villages and 297 rural dis-

The capital, Bacolor, on the Betis River, not far from the head of the Pampanga delta, is a town of 17,100 inhabitants. It is well built, has a fine Courthouse and monument to the memory of Anday Sai-zar, Governor-General of the island in 1762-4, 1776. Arayat, in the northeastern part, has a population of 14,000; Candaba, near the western margin of the swamp of that name, 14,000; Lubao, on the delta, 14,000; Macabebe, on the Rio Grande Pam-panga, near one of its outlets, 14,000; San Fenando, the shipping port of Bacolor, on the Manila & Dagupan Railroad, 14,000. There are 12 other towns with a population exceeding 5000.

The agricultural products of the province are quite extensive, the staples be-ing rice, sugar, tobacco, cotton, corn, sweet potatoes and Indigo. The annual value of these crops is estimated at $1,-210,000. The annual value of forest prod-ucts is $182,380. The fishing interests are also becoming extensive. In addition to the large occupation of the inhabitants in agriculture, grazing and fisheries, there 577 looms in operation, and 654 sugar mills. 445 being hand power, 177 steam and the rest hydraulic. There were 365 stone mills, 15 carriage shops, besides pottery factories, carpenter shops, tool shops, belt factories, etc. A large manufacture of sacks is carried on.

Goldman answered in the negative. She declared that she had stayed at the Hol-lenden under an assumed name, so that the reporters would not bother her.

Miss Goldman's arrest was in answer to a request sent to the various police chiefs of the country from Buffalo. Chief O'Nelli telegraphed Chief Bull of her capture and will hold the prisoner until the Buffalo officers take charge of her.

The chief's office was crowded while Miss Goldman talked. Mayor Harrison was an interested auditor. At a conference this afternoon the city authorities resolved to continue to hold Isaak and other alleged anarchists under arrest here without ball

"I'm afraid I cannot help them now," aid Miss Goldman, when the news was brought to her. A message from Chief Bull, of Buffalo, to Captain of Detectives Colleran asserts that Czolgosz was in Chicago August 18, in company with Emma Goldman and Abraham Isaak. Isaak and Miss Goldman deny the assertion. They assert told you before.

Charged With Conspiracy.

When the interview was over Captain Colleran served a warrant on Miss Gold-man charging her with conspiracy to murder the President, The warrant was sworn to by Captain Col-leran. It gives as her co-conspirators Abraham Isaak, Maurice Isaak, Clement Pfeulser, Hippolyte Havel, Henry Travag-ito, Alfred Schneider, Julia Mechame, Marie Isaak and Marie Isaak, Jr. They were arrested some days ago. The women were allowed to go, but the men were held without ball and are now in fail. C. J. Norris, at whose home Miss Goldman was captured, was arrested later.

Miss Goldman was taken from the Chief's office to the woman's annex of the Harrison-Street Station, where she will spend the night. It is the opinion of several lawyers that Miss Goldman cannot be extradited for trial in New York, unless she and Czolgosz are charged with an offense under the Federal statutes. The suggestion that the would-be assassin must be tried under the state laws of New York for assault with intent to kill, would, it is said, preclude the possibility of Miss Goldman be-ing extradited as an accessory before the fact, as her alleged incendiary statements were not made in New York, and she is not a fugitive from justice from that state. It is said, however, that she and Czolgosz might be charged with an offense under section 5508 of the Federal statutes, which fixes a 10-year term of Imprisonment and a $5000 fine for two or more persons who conspire to injure any citizen in the exercise of any rights secured to him by the Constitution and laws of the United States. The enforcement of this statute against Miss Goldman and Czolgosz would, it is said, permit of the former's extradition from any state.

"I feel sure that the police are helping us more than I could do in 10 years. They are making more anarchists than the most prominent people connected with the anarchist cause could make in 10 years. If they will only continue I shall be very rateful; they will save me lots of work." Asked if she had been on the downtown streets before her arrest she an-

"Certainly I have, I have been shopping -have been in restaurants; in fact, I passed the City Hall several times.

"The police knew positively that I was oming," she continued, "because I wrote on Friday from St. Louis, both to Mr. Havel and Mr. Morris, that I would come Sunday if I got through with my business on Saturday and if so I would tele-graph the hour of my arrival. I also said that if I did not come on Sunday, I would surely come on Monday or Tues-day. These letters they must have seen

"What do you think of your own arshe was asked. "if I told you," she replied, "It would look somewhat conceited and I certainly would not like to be guilty of that. Not only my arrest, but the others, smack of the Haymarket, The police are very much in disrepute all over the country, and they wish to do something to clear themselves. They are trying to make it an anarchist plot. If they wish to make up a case, they may succeed." Her Oninion of the President.

Referring to the attempt on the life of e President, Miss Goldman said: "It is a dirty trick to charge in the newspaper reports that it was the result of an anarchist plot. Mark Hanna has been the ruler of this country, not Mc-Kinley. McKinley has been the most insignificant ruler this country has eved had. He nelther has wit nor intelligence, but has been a tool in the hands of Mark Hanna. Other Presidents have had heart or something, but this poor fel-ow-God forgive him, since he knows knows nothing—is a tool, in the hands of the wealthy and it seems very remarkable or Mark Hanna to say that he was notified of a plat for his assassination. I think McKinley too insignificant for such a 'thing." "What man in the United States is of sufficient prominence to a plot? she was saked. prominence to warrant such

"I am not in a position to say," replied Miss Goldman, "who ought to be killed. The monopolists and the wealthy of this country are responsible for the existence of a Czolgosz. If imperialism would not grow in this country, if the libertles of the people were not trampled under foot, there would have been no violence. Referring to the would-be assassin, Miss oldman said:

"I feel that the man is one those unfortunates who have been driven by despair and misery to commit the deed. I feel deeply with him as an individual, as I would feel with anybody who suffers. If I had means I would help him as much as I could; I would see that he had counsel and that justice was done him." Although the whole world waited eager-
