ARRESTED IN HIS UNIFORM .- In his full uniform, as Sergeant of the Twenty-second Reigment of the United States Army W. F. Barrett was before Municipal Judge Cameron yesterday, charged with striking Li Ful, at Second and Couch streets Saturday. Li Ful testified as follows: "That soldier boy struck me and my nose bled. I remember him by his face. When he was arrested I picked him out of a crowd of soldlers." Barrett denied that he struck the Chinaman, and testified that it was a case of mistaken identity. "The real culprit is a Sergeant over at Vancouver Barracks," he went on. "I do not know his name. I have served in the Cuban campaign and in the Philippines, and my Army discharge reads 'excellent." "If you have left the army why do you continue to wear uniform?" asked Deputy District Attorney Spencer. "The other soldiers asked me to go around with them, and I dressed myself in my uniform. My own clothes are too much worn. Discharged soldiers are sllowed to wear their uniforms for a short time if their own clothing is a short time if their own clothing is shabby," continued the defendant. The Judge decided that a reasonable doubt existed as to the identity of the soldler who struck Li Ful, and he discharged

HUNGET FOR PHEASANTS.—A waiting public, who are longing for the day to arrive when they can lawfully induige in the luxury of a brelied bird and a "small cold bottle," will be pleased to learn that the prospects are that the crop of Chinese pheasants this year will be larger than ever before. Duck hunters report flush-ing scores and hundreds of these birds, which they ran across everywhere. A farmer in Yamhili complains that the pheasants have completely rulned his gar-fen this year, and a gardener in the Commissa bottom complains that his patch of green corn was eaten up by them. There will be a great slaughter of the innocents immediately after the oting season for upland birds opens ober I, and if the pheasants are not all killed before November 15, there will some for sale in the markets during the II days between that time and De sember 1, when the season ends. People who have no friends among the sports-men to present them with birds before November 15 may eat pheasants every one of the 15 days mentioned, in order to get enough to last them a year.

SLAUGHTER OF CARP.—There was a great slaughter of carp on the Morgan place in Sauvie's Island Sunday, and now all the lakes at Morgan's and Gillhan's are cleared of these pests, and they will no longer eat up the wheat put out for the ducks. The very low water in the lakes gave Frank Thorne, who has the shooting at Morgan's place this year, a chance to kill all the carp in the last of the lakes. The water was could be for his lakes. The water was only a few inches in depth. Still very few carp could be seen, but when planks were laid over the soft mud down to the water and a barrel of lime dumped in, the water began to boll, and hundreds of carp from 2 to 18 or 20 pounds put in an appearance and made the water and mud fig. There were tons of the big ones and millions of little ones in the lake, but in a short time after the lime was put in the lake they were all dead, and when the hunters left the pigs, crows and cranes were having a picnic. A few days' rain will fill the small lakes, but it will take a great many days' hard rain to fill the large ones.

PATING DOG LICENSES.-There was a rush to pay dog licenses yesterday, and the dog-catchers were directed to stay their hands for a season, to give the owners of dogs a chance to save them from the flames of the crematory. It is rather remarkable that the great majority of dog licenses are paid for by women and boys, but few men apparently caring to put up $3 or $5 for a tag for their dog license, that she knew there was no some in keeping dogs in a city, but her boy had a dog that knew everything and could do anything he was told to and the boy would not take $100 for him, and so she was obliged to pay the $3, which she semed loth to part with. A man, who applied for a dog license, on being informed that the charge was $3, said he would not pay any such amount for his dog, and the dog-catcher might have him if he could catch him. There is trouble ahead for that dog.

STEEL PRODUCTS AT AUCTION.-The sale at public auction of the merchandise in the possession of the bankrupt firm of Wolff & Zwicker was commenced yesterday on the premises, at the east end of the Madison-street bridge. The sheet steel, rivets, shufting etc., were wanted by a number of persons, on account of the strike of steelworkers, and brought good prices. It will take the greater part of the week to dispose of the mer-chandlee, after which the tools and equipment will be auctioned off.

Les-ser, $2.50; G. & L. Rosenblatt, $5; Peter Wagner, $2.50; "Cash," $1; "G. A. P.", $1; cash, $1; Colton Meek, Sec. 14. cash, $1; Colton Meek, 50c; A. G. Levy, Jr., 19c. COUNTY SCHOOLS.-Multnomah County schools, outside of Portland, opened yes-terday for the Fall term, to the number of 102. The change of text-books en-gaged the attention of parents and pupils, but supply points had been established previously at the adjacent stores, so very little delay was encountered. No WEATHER FOR DUCKS.-The continued fine weather and the low stage of water in the lakes are not favorable for duck hunters, and so not many ducks were killed Sunday. The hunters greatly enjoyed being able to leave home Saturday evening and get back Sunday even-ing, by the aid of a steamer which is now to run regularly on the Willamette slough route, and the jolly party of some 15 hunters which came up on her Sunday night put all in mind of old times. The slough is 12 miles long, and there are many good duck lakes on both sides of it, which have not been leased for years, but will be before long, thus increasing the number of hunters, and of course the number of ducks shot. There are a good many ducks in the country, young wood ducks and mallards raised here and teal, widgeon, spoonbills, etc., which have come down from the North, but the lakes are so low that when the ducks are driven out in the morning they do not come back, as they can get feed anywhere now, and also feed at nights. The first heavy rains will bring in the great flight from the North, and then shooting will begin in

FIREBUG SURPRISED AT WORK.-A dastardly attempt to burn Woodlawn schoolwas reported to the police yester-People who live in the neighborhood say that a man was observed act-ing suspiciously around the schoolhouse Sunday night, and that they saw him deliberately pour what afterward turned out to be coal oil on the basement win-dow and then strike a match. He held a can of oil in one of his handa, and when one of the neighbors cried out: "What are you doing there?" the stranger ran away, carrying the can with him. Two burned matches lay near the win-dow and the latter was partially saturated with coal oil. How the woodwork In the window did not catch fire is a mystery. The police have detailed detectives on the cas DEATH OF CAPTAIN GARDNER.-Captain James A. Gardner, of the Salvation Army, who lived at 357 East Oak street, died yesterday from the results of being struck by car No. 80, of the Portland Rallway Company, on Burnside-street bridge, July 22. He was riding along the bridge on his blcycle, when the tire slipped in front of the advancing trolley car, and he fell and was struck by one of the car wheels. His head was badly injured and he was sent to St. Vincent's Hospital. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Salvation Army Hall, Davis street, near Third street.

HUNGRY CENTIPEDES .- Two venomouslooking centipedes were discovered in a bunch of bananas unpacked at a Frontstreet commission house yesterday. They were a little mad and hungry after their long trip from the troples, and were disposed to attack anybody, As their bite or even a puncture from one of the needle-like claws, with which their numerous legs are armed, is likely to cause trouble more serious than blood poisoning, they were speedily inserted in phial of alcohol, and it took about 10 ntes for this to put the horrid things to sleep.

WHITE CUCUMBERS.-The "snow cucum per" is the name given a white vegetable of that species, on exhibition at the office of the State Board of Horticulture. It was raised by W. H. Pope, County Audi-tor, at his farm in Clackamas County, and he considers it just the thing, as the rind is so thin that little or no waste is necessary in preparing it for the table, and there is an entire absence of bitterusual in the old-fashioned cucum-Mr. Pope will place some of these cucumbers on exhibition at the Portland Carnival this month.

LOST HIS MONEY TO MASKED MEN .-Acel B. Clark, 16 years old, 175 East Water street, reported to the police last night about 10:45 o'clock, that two men with black masks on their faces, and carry-ing revolvers, held him up within 190 yards of his home, and robbed him of $11 80. Clark said that the men sprang on him suddenly, and seeing that they had revolvers he gave up his money with-out question. By trade he is a helper in a box factory, and was on his way home, after working on the night-shift, when he was relieved of his money.

The statute imposes a penalty upon all delinquents. The officers have instruc-tions to take no excuses, and arrests will be made if the tax is not paid. The County Court is determined to enforce the law, and the deputies were placed in the field by order of the County Court.

Tobey, superintendent Oregon Children's Home Society, 666 Marquam building.

WANDERING BOY ARRESTED,-A boy who gave his name as Norman Hogan, 10 years old, and who said he did not know where he lived, was found wandering about the railroad tracks, near the east end of the steel bridge, yesterday, and he carried a bundle containing socks and a shirt. He was locked up at the police station until he can give a better ac-count of himself.

CHARTER COMMISSION TONIGHT .- The Charter Commission will meet tonight in the Council chamber and will take up the report of the committee on civil service. That committee has drafted a plan for the placing of a majority of positions under the city government under civil service regulations. FAREWELL TO DR. KELLOGG Informal Gathering Held at Taylor-Street Church.

A largely-attended and informal farewell meeting in honor of Dr. H. W. Kel-logg, who leaves today to assume the pas-torate of a church at indianapolis, Ind., was held last night in the parlors of the Taylor-Street Methodist Episcopai Church, of which Dr. Kellogg has been the pastor for several years. W. D. Fenton presided over the meeting and made a short address, in which he spoke in terms of highest praise concerning the work of Dr. Kellogg in the Taylor-Street Church. Short addresses were also made by Pro-fessor T. T. Davis and H. W. Stone, sec-retary of the Y. M. C. A. Judge John F. Caples presented resolutions of regret over the resignation of Dr. Kellogg, and wishing him abundant success in his new field The resolutions were unantsponse to the resolutions, in which he re-ferred at some length to his church work in this city. Following the exercises a in this city. Following the exercises a short social was held, at which opportunity was given to the members of the church to bid Dr. and Mrs. Kellogg goodbye. Nearly all the Methodist pastors of the city were present.

At the meeting of the Portland Metha-dist Preachers' Association yesterday the following resolutions were passed: As the Rev. H. W. Kellogg, D. D., the ast four years paster of Taylor-Street Church, his city, is about to transfer to another field of labor, we hereby order spread upon the minutes of the Portland Methodist Preachers' Meeting a record of our high appreciation of his industry, good fellowship, courage and ability as a preacher of the Gospel; and while our prayers and best wishes attend him, we cannot help thinking a mistake is made in his leaving a constantly widening circle of uence in our city and state-an influence anywhere of slow growth. Furthermore, when he shall be overwhelmed with a sense of his loss of our equable climate, abundant fruits, snow-capped mountains, mighty rivers and the great Pacific Ocean, so inspiring to a soul like his, may the Lord sustain and if possible deliver him from all his sorrow.

Com STOLEN WIRE BURIED.

Twelve Boys Implicated, but No Arrests Were Made.

Several complaints have recently been received by the police that coils of trolley wire have been cut and stolen along the Mount Scott trolley line and the lines of the City & Suburban Railway. Detectives Snow and Kerrigan were placed on the case, and they saw and examined eight boys who live near Mount Scott, and one of the boys broke down and confessed that he an! other boys had stolen coils of trolley wire from the Mount Scott line. He showed where the boys had buried the wire, and it was dug up and recovered. The detectives next discovered that four oys, living near the car barn, on Savier street, near Twenty-third, were implicated in the stealing of trolley wire in that neighborhood, and when these four hopefuls were interviewed they admitted they had taken several heavy coils of wire and had hidden them in a pit they dug near Eighteenth and Northrup streets. Spades were procured, and after digging up pieces of board and matted straw, the wire was discovered. All the boys were severely reprimanded, and they promised

A BIG INSURANCE DEAL

ALMOST A MILLION DOLLARS IN-VOLVED IN THE TRANSACTION.

Pacific Mutual Sells Its Industrial Business to the Metropolitan Life, of New York.

The largest transaction by far that has ever occurred in local insurance circles has just been consummated, by which the Pacific Mutual Life Insurance Company, of California, transfers its industrial business to the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, of New York. The magnitude of the transaction can scarcely be realized by those not familiar with this branch of insurance. Industrial or weekly payment insurance is something new to this state, and the Pacific Mutual has been the only company up to this time that has ever engaged in the business on this Coast. Some six years business on this Coast. Some six years ago the management of the company, believing that this form of life insurance was needed in California, and that the business could be successfully prosecuted, added this department to its regular life and accident business; and the correctness of that belief is attested by the result of its six years' business in that line, as by this transaction the Pacific Mutual adds almost a million dollars to its assets for the protection of its policy-holdersthe largest sum of money ever paid for business of this character. Its industrial business has always been profitable, but with the advent of the Met-ropolitan, the largest industrial company in the United States, competition would Dr. Kellogg made a brief but feeling re-sponse to the resolutions, in which he re-ferred at some length to his church work protected by the policies of the Metropol-itan, thought it wise to realize a handsome profit by transferring this business and devoting its entire attention to its

The Pacific Mutual has been engaged in business over 30 years, and is now doing a larger business than ever before in its history, and with the money realized from this sale has been advanced into the fore-most rank of life insurance companies of the United States, its percentage of surplus to policy-holders now being larger than that of any other company doing business on this Coast. The holders of regular policies in the company have been greatly benefited by this transaction, and the industrial policy-holders, by being transferred to the Metropolitan, noted for its liberal and broad dealing, will undoubtedly be well cared for.

THE FREDERICKSBURG.

This popular music hall opens the Fall season with an unusually strong bill. Wiggin and Raymond, direct from the Chutes Theater, San Francisco, are exceptional novelty artists. They met with a hearty reception last night. In Ar-neldo, the equilibrist wonder, the only per-former in the world doing a seven-foot jump on his hands, the house has an ex-ceedingly fetching card. His work, while difficult, is easily handled. Neille Bruce, however, is the feature of this week's performance. As a clever contortion dancer, it is doubtful if her equal has been seen here. Miss Bruce has for some time been a favorite English dancer, and the Fredericksburg has made a hit in her engagement. She is pleasing in appearance. As a dancer, her reception last night justified the claim made—that she is among the world's best artists in her line. Rousselle and Howard, the aerial bar jugglers, have heretofere been mentioned. All in all, the Fredericksburg opens the season with a most creditable
