AGAIN REFUSED TO PLEAD

CZOLGOSZ STILL WORKING THE IN-SANITY DODGE.

Roundly Hissed by Speciators in the Courtroom-Case Set for Trial Next Monday,

BUFFALO, Sept. 17 .- Leon F. Czolgosz, the arrangin of President McKinley, was arranged before Judge Edward K. Em-ery in the County Court at 3 o'clock this afternoon under indictment for murder in the first degree. Again the stubborn pris-oner refused to plead or even to utter a word or sound, and Loran L. Lewis, ex-Supreme Court Justice, entered a plea of not guilty. The accused will be tried in the Supreme Court next Monday morn-

Crowds flocked to the City Hall today to see the prisoner, and the most notable incident of the day was the hissing of the prisoner by the crowds who surged around him as he was being escorted down the stairs which were still draped in mourning garb. The strong guard of pa-trolmen and Deputy Sheriffs had been dispensed with so that the people were able to get nearer the prisoner as he passed to and from the courtroom.

Judge Lewis, one of the attorneys assigned as counsel by Judge Emery yes-terday, called at the Eric County Jall at 2 o'clock this afternoon to see the prisoner. Cholgosz refused to talk to Judge Lewis, and even refused to answer questions as to whether or not he wanted any counsel. Judge Lewis said that, nev-ertheless, he would appear for the pris-oner upon arraignment, even if he decided not to accept the assignment of the court. Th prisoner entered the courtroom just as the city clock was striking 3 o'clock, and as many of the curious spectators as could surged into the courtroom be-hind him. As soon as Czolgosz was before the bar and the handcuffs removed, District Attorney Penny began the formal arraignment. He read the principal charges of the indictment in a voice of "How do you plead, gullty or not

Not a sound was uttered by the pris-Justice, apparently continuing his feint of insanity which was noticed for the first time when he was taken into court yesterday. His curly hair was disheveled, and although his linen was white and clean, his disordered clothes and the growth of his beard gave him an un-kempt appearance. When questions were being asked of him rapidly he moistened his lips with his tongue and seemed to ms ips with his tongue and seemed to endeavor to maintain the appearance of stolld indifference. When the prisoner refused to plead the District Attorney asked him if he understood what had been read and receiving no answer, told he that he had been indicted for murder in the first degree, and that he could an-ewer "yes" or "no." For an instant Czoi-gosz glanced at Mr. Penny and it was thought that he intended to speak, but

Judge Lewis then addresses the court at length. He said that his associate, Judge Titus, was in Milwaukee, but that he had appeared informally to enter a plea of not guilty on behalf of the de-fendant. He asked permission to reserve the right to withdraw the plea and enter special plea or interpose a demurrer, after consulting with Judge Titus, they decided not to ask the court to assign

District Attorney Penny gave notice that he would move to have the indictment transferred to the Supreme Court for trial, and would also move the trial be set for next Monday morning. "I know of no reason why the defend-ant should not be ready next Monday."

replied Judge Lewis. At his request, however, the orders will not be entered until Judge Titus returns, which will probably be in a day or two. Judge Lewis said that he might also like an order of the court for allenists to examine the prisoner. This gave rise to the belief that a special ples of insentity may be that a special plea of insanity may be entered by the counsel for the defense. The prisoner was then taken back to

Too Much Legalism Would Not Be Allowed in the Assassin's Trial

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—After 48 hours' discussion of the Buffalo tragedy, public opinion in England asks the question whether America will tolerate another Guiteau scandal when McKinley's murderer is brought up for trial, says the London correspondent of the Herald. Lynch law, as applicable to this wretch, was never so nearly popular in England, all classes agreeing that short shrift is the only fitting justice. From one of His Majesty's Judges the correspondent is able to give the substance of the highest legal opinion here as to what the Buffalo courts ought to do.

This ought to give America the chanc to shake off the incubus of too much legalism," said the Judge, "and by legalism I mean straining the law to defeat its own purpose. In criminal trials it seems to be the main object of the American courts to discover a jury who will liberate the prisoner-not carry out the law. Absurd questions are asked whether the veniremen or jurymen have read about the case; whether such read-ing has led to the formation of opinion on the merits of the case so as to prefudice the verdict; whether they are ac-quainted with the prisoner or victim. This absurd straining for loopholes, which the courts appear to encourage, is, in my opinion, the first step toward an-

At this time President McKinley had been gone from San Francisco nearly three weeks. Secret Service Detective Hazen ie understood to be trying to secure further eviof the movements of Nieman of the Czar and the Kaiser are directed is demonstrated in the memorable words of the Kaiser when referring to the important character of the meeting, particularly by his assertion that he was fully persuaded that European peace would be maintained for a long time to come. The Kaiser's address to the naval officers, in which he expressed a hope that Germany and Russia would always stand shoulder to shoulder, shows more unreservedly than any other official manifestation the purely defensive character of the Franco-Russian alliance and Russia's desire to count on the friendship of Germany."

A pair of bases on balls, and a couple of errors in the first inning lost the game for the Tigers, inasmuch as two raw decis-ions permitted Portland to maintain its lead. Weed's home run in the third came after Zearfoss had dropped a foul and brought in an extra run. A sensational catch by Muller was the solitary fielding feature of the game. The score: TACOMA.
