AT THE HOME TOWN

Remains of the Late President Received at Canton.

ENTIRE CITY IN MOURNING

Body Lay in State in the Courthouse Building of Taylor for a Period of 24 Hours. Crowds Gathered Half Million People Paid Homage.

CANTON, O., Sept. 24—Today the first stage of the long journey of President McKinley's body to its resting place in the family graveyard at Canton was completed.

The train on which the body was brought to this city from Utica, N. Y., arrived this morning near here and was met by a large crowd. The body was then taken to the City Hall, where the funeral movements were started.

THE CZAR IN FRANCE

First Day of His Visit Passed Without a Hitch.

NIGHT SPENT AT COMPIEGNE

The State First Breakfast Was Given by a Delegation of French Diplomats—Received by President Sazonoff With Compliments.

COUNCILINGergy, Sept. 24—The czar spent his first night here in the city of Compiene, and the some of the French diplomatic corps were the guests of the czar at dinner. The czar has left the city for Munich, where he will spend the day. It is understood that he will return to Compiene this afternoon.

FRIENDS AT MRS. MCKINLEY'S SIDE

ASSIS u McKinley.

J. S. H. Hay.

D. H. M. KeTey.

The President's body was received at the White House this morning by President Sazonoff, who was to have been here at the time of the arrival, but was detained by business.

McKinley, who has been in Europe since the fall of last year, is returning to the United States for the first time since the death of President Garfield.

McKinley, who is expected to arrive here on the first of October, will be received by President Sazonoff at the station, and will be met by the president of the French Foreign Office.

McKinley, who is the son of the late President Garfield, has been in Europe for the past three years, and has been a member of the National Guard for the past two years.

McKinley, who has been in Europe for the past three years, is the son of the late President Garfield, and has been a member of the National Guard for the past two years.

McKinley, who has been in Europe for the past three years, is the son of the late President Garfield, and has been a member of the National Guard for the past two years.

McKinley, who has been in Europe for the past three years, is the son of the late President Garfield, and has been a member of the National Guard for the past two years.