FORTLAND CARNIVAL-At Exposition build-ing and Multhomah field. Concerts afternoon and evening, and many other stiractions. CORDRAY'S THEATER (Washington street) "A Baggage Check."

BACK FROM A SPORTSMAN'S PARADISE-W. Newkirk, R. H. Wallace and O. B. Btubbs have returned from a two weeks cubing, spent in hunting and fishing un-der the care of "Uncle" George Frissell, on the upper waters of the ronring San-tiam. They go up to Frissell's every sea-won, and report having enjoyed better sport this year than ever before. Trout were abundant, and many large ones were caught, not only of the rainbow species, but Doily Vardens and cut-throats as well Deer are more numerous than for years, owing to the suppression of the pestifer-ous "skin hunters." The loggers are strip-DEATH OF MRS. COLEMAN.-MIS. Eliza-beth C. Coleman, wife of Henry C. Cole-man, the hardware merchant on Third etreet, died yesterday morning at her home, 306 Fourteenth street, from an affec-tion of the heart. FEELS HIS WAY ALONG .- A big blind man, groping his way about the city by the aid of a long cane, while he carries under his arm per of new brooms causes pedestrians to pause and watch the slow, cautious manner in which he makes his way. He taps the edge of the curb or the side of the wall with the stick, order to keep in the middle of the walk, and when he comes to a crossing manages to follow the walk by feeling of the pavement in front of him. He islts the various down-town business ouses to dispose of his brooms, and seems readily sold. o make a living by the occupation. He are he lost his sight through the mai-restment of a doctor, who put nitric acid into his eyes to cut away granulations caused by a cold. He sometimes hires a boy to lead him, but the boys are now all at school, he says, and so he man-ages to perambulate alone.

HOTELS FILLING UP, - The principal hotels of the city are full to over-flowing, and 'busses are sent to the de-point and innings only with departing passengers the past few days. The Car-nival is largely the cause of this, though the houses were doing a good business all Summer. The Carnival rush has been fell at a strike world then would the felt at an exriter period than usual this time, and was apparent on the very day of the opening of the Exposition. Usually the beavy stream of visitors does not reach the city until the excursions bring them in, because most people wait for the very cheap rates granted coachloads.

SALE POSTPONED.-The plant of the Wolff & Zwicker Iron Works was not sold yeaterday, as advertised. Receiver Platt re-ceived several earnest requests from persons at a distance, asking that the sale postponed in order that they might we an opportunity to be present, and after consultation with some of the principal consultation with some of the prin-cipal creditides of the firm the sale was postponed till October 8. The selling of the increditidise of the firm was pro-ceeded with, and it is expected that it will all be disposed of by the time fixed for the sale of the plant. The prices it is bringing as a principle of the plant. is bringing are very satisfactory.

Seventy-three milkmen met last night in Keller's Hall, corner First and Madi-son streets, and discussed the advisabil-ity of raising the retail price of milk. Boy DROWNED .- Andrew Prebelsky, at 8-year-old boy, whose parents live at 34 East Seventh street, was drowned in the river yesterday afternoon, while play-After the meeting was over one of the men who was most active in promoting the proposed increase in price stated that sentiment was unanimous in favor of taking such action. There was not a single dissenting voice at the meeting, he said ing with a companion in the vicinity of the boathouse at the foot of East Clay street. The accident occurred about 5:30 P. M. and the body was in the water nearly a half hour before recovered. The boy's companion gave the alarm as soon said as possible, and several men, who were in the vicinity, dived for the body. Dr. E. L. Irvihe was summoned as soon as the body was recovered, and worked 30 It is generally understood among the milkmen that the price of milk will be advanced to $2 a month for a quart of

STILL IN SERVICE .- F. C. Reed still considers himself State Fish Commissioner in spite of the decision of the State Cir-cuit Court, which he is confident will be reversed at the higher tribunal to which the case has been appealed. At the im-perial yesterday Mr. Reed said he was still attending to the state's fish interests and had 1500 shag scalps, for which he had issued certificates. The shag is a bird that preve upon young salmon and trout and is remarkably destrous as well as vorablous, and a bounty of 5 cents a bead was placed upon them by a recent l'asticiation Legislature.

HEADSTONES FOR SOLDIERS' GRAVES.-There is now in the local freight office of the Northern Pacific Raliroad Company a shipment of headstones for the graves of deceased soldiers of the G. A. R. and others which came from West Rutland, VL, furnished by the Government. There are 115 crates in all and they are to go to some eight or 10 counties in this state, and a few to Vancouver, Fort Canby and Cowlitz, Wash.

CAUGHT BETWEEN LOGS .- While William Brown was working yesterday in a lum. ber pile on East Water and Mill streets his right log was caught between two logs that rolled down on him. He was taken in the police patrol to St. Vincent's Hospital, where it was found that his in-jured leg was not broken, and that he would be able to be sent home in a short

The other Whitschapel rounders looked on admitingly, when Jailor Johnson walked out, collared McGee and hauled him inside with no gentle force. McGee, however, made a lightning pass at his captor, but was floored with one blow and then he became very quiet and al-lowed Johnson to lock him up. Nearly all the rounders in Whitechapel fear McGee because of his record in po-lice circles, his great strength and his experience as a boxer. The police say xperience as a boxer that about two years ago McGee vis-ited a First-street saloon and started to own it, liquor, proprietor and all. Special Officer Orin Smith started to arrest Mc-Gee without knowing who that individual was, and suddenly McGee wrested Smith's was, and suddenly access where a weater small a jack-stick from him, assaulted Smith and was captured with considerable difficulty. The police also state that McGee recently got into a difficulty with another fighter named Ross, and when the fight ended a portion of Ross' nose had disappeared.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Cordray's Next Attraction. In the company that will present "A Female Drummer" at Cordray's next week are four actors who have been starred, and one, Mart Reagan, who for years has been known as a star among minstrel performers. The other three stars are Tony Williams, the comedian; Charlotts Scott, Payson Graham and Johnstone Bennett, who, after contributing greatly to the success of other plays, established themselves as origina favorestablished themselves as prime favor-ites under their own banners. The au-thor of "A Female Drummer," Charles E. Bianey, has written a comedy that re-quires good actors, and he has spared no expense in getting them. The com-pany, all told, will number 35 people, and the production is said to be a most elab-orate one in the way of properties, scenerv and costumes.
