THEY WOULD MAKE AN ARMY .- The number of pupils registered as in attendance at the publisc schools Friday last was 10,688. The attendance on the previous Friday was 10,289, showing an increase of 386 during the week. This is the largest number of pupils ever attending the public schools in this city, the maximum number reached in February last year being 10,560. The increase in the number of pupils is always large at this time of year for several weeks, and the increase continue on a diminishing rate for ably three months. The attendance will then probably decline until the February term, when there will be a sharp increase till the maximum is reached, and then the attendance will begin to decline, a citizen remarked yesterday that 15,688 school children all marshaled in a body would make a fine sight, but was told in Oregon. that there would be great difficulty in getting them all together. They are, of course, scattered all over the city, and it would take several days to arrange transportation for them, and the date fixed upon might prove a stormy day, and it would not do to have all the children out in a storm, so there is but slight probability that the school children of the city will ever be seen in a body.

BANKRUPT SALE, WOLFF & ZWICKER IRON WORKS—The auction sale of the plant of Wolff & Zwicker Iron Works has been postponed to October 8, 1901, at 10 A. M., at which time I will offer for sale, on the premises, at the east end of the Madison-street bridge, Portland, 55., at public auction, for cash, to the highest bidger, all the plant of the Wolff & Zwicker Iron Works including real & Zwicker Iron Works, including real estate, machinery, tools, equipment of all kinds, office furalutre, etc. Up to and until 19 A. M. of October 8, 1991. I will also receive written offers for any speci-fied lots or portions of the said plant or any specified machines or tools, or the real estate, separately. Deposit at the time of bid must be made if required by trustee. The trustee reserves the right to reject any and all bids not satisfactory. Inventory and abstract of title can be examined, and all inquiries answered at office on premises. The sale of merchandise will continue each day, beginning Friday, September 27, until completed. Harrison G. Platt, trustee, Wolff & Zwicker Iron Works, bankrupt. Zwicker Iron Works, bankrupt.

SEASON PREMATURELY OPENED.-Speaking of the opening of the shooting sea-son for pheasante, a resident of Irvington remarked yesterday that it had been open for some time in that addition. There is a large part of the Irvington tract unsettled, and quite a number of Chinese pheasants have taken up their abode there. They are frequently seen by resi-dents, sometimes in their gardens. A short time ago one of the residents no-ticed a man on a bicycle with a dog and gun, going into a clump of brushes not far from his place. A few minutes later he saw two pheasants rise above the bushes, heard two shots and saw the pheasants tumble down. He rushed over to the place, but before he reached it the violator of the game law had secured the birds, mounted his bicycle, called his dog and was scorching down the street several blocks away.

REAL ESTATE SALES.-The west half of lots 7, 8, in block 205, being 50x100 feet, situated on the southeast corner of Park and Jefferson streets, has been sold by Max Smith to Ambrose C. Froom and Frank A. Bryant for $5700; also the west half of lots 7 and 8, in block 209, being 50x100 feet situated on the southeast corner of Park and Taxino streets. ner of Park and Taylor streets, by Frank W. Warren to E. R. Pittelkau for $5500. These sales have been made by F. V. Andrews & Co., It is probable that flats will be built on both lots.

For Drink, $37 in Five Hours.—J. E. Brown was before Municipal Judge Cameron vesterday, charged with drunkenand he asked that he be allowed ave town. "I've had hard luck in this to leave town. here town," explained Brown. "I came to Portland a short time ago with $50 and I've been twice arrested. I fooled around a saloon near Third and Burnside streets and spent $57 for liquor in five hours. The second time I was arrested I had just 5 cents." Brown was fined $2

AT THE CARNIVAL COOKING SCHOOL Soups and soup stock will be the sub-ject of the demonstration at the Carni-val cooking school today. This will be of special interest to nurses and all who have the cure of the sick. Every one is requested to bring a napkin and a spoon This will be one of the most valuable and interesting demonstrations yet given by Mrs. Miller, and no doubt there will e a large attendance. The hour is 2:30

NEW TROLLEY WIRE.-The City & Suburban Railway Company is about to re-move the old trolley wire on their Irving-ton line and replace it with a new one. The change will be made in one day, during which time car service on that line will be necessarily suspended. The slight in-convenience which the patrons of the line will be put to by the change will be made up by the better service the new line will furnish

Nor VERY GOOD APPLES.-Apples are beto to to cents per box. Some are of good quality, but there are too many scrubby ones, which show the marks of various kinds of insect pests. Belleflowers are scarce yet, and the choice varieties of Winter apples are not ready to market

DIBN'T HAVE BICTCLE TAG.-When a boy named Eugene Toohey was asked yes-terday in the Municipal Police Court why he rode his bicycle on an East Side side. walk, he said: "Please, sir, I didn't have a tag from the Sheriff's office." He was fixed & just the same.

MEDICAL COLLEGE.-The medical depart. ment of the University of Oregon opens its first session for the season this morn-

GAMBLING-HOUSES CLOSED.—Open gam-bling was ordered by the police to be stopped early this morning and the command was generally obeyed. The sx. large gambling-houses in the city—the Portland Club, Bell, Gem, Erickson's, Fritz' and Blazier's—were closed tightly. The decision to enforce the laws against gambling was reached last night at a meeting of the Police Commissioners, and the Chief of Police afterwards extend. "Orthe Chief of Police afterwards stated: "Or-ders have been given the Police Depart-ment to see that the laws against gambiling shall be strictly enforced." That was all the police would say officially, but it is know that messengers were sent to all the gambiling-houses, notifying the proprietors that games must close not later than 2 o'clock this morning. In well-informed countries the authority did not informed quarters the notification did not come as a surprise, but a great many of the players were surprised when told that ling had to stop. AT OREGON'S BEST TROUT STREAMS. Henry Williams and Charles Johnson, who have been spying out lands for settlement in the Princylle region, arrived here yesterday, having come in by the Mc-Kenzie route. They report having had a very pleasant trip across the Cascades, meeting many teams loaded with supplies going over to the Silver Laka section. They stayed several days at Frissel's on the McKenzie, and visited the hot springs in that vicinity, and enjoyed some ex-cellent sport, such as trout fishing and hunting deer. There were duite a num-ber of sportsmen there, and they all had good luck fishing and caught some very large trout. The river was at an excellent stage for fishing, and they satisfied them-selves that the McKenzie is one of the very best, if not the best, trout streams

STRUCK OIL, QUIT RAILROAD Ex-Conductor Who Now Owns and

Travels in Private Car. J. B. Bunting, who was formerly a carpenter in Bakersfield, Cal., and subse-quently engaged in the railroad business and rose to be a passenger conductor on the San Joaquin division of the Southern Pacific, was in Portland yesterday in his private car. He was accompanied by his amily. They came across the country on the Northern Pacific, reaching Port-land Sunday night. Yesterday they looked about the city and left in the evening for San Francisco.

Four years ago Mr. Bunting was still running through the desert and punching lickets. About that time be became in-terested in an oil venture that turned out successful and soon thereafter he juit railroading. His success has been ontinuous and it is said his income now is about $300 a day. Part of this money he is spending in traveling with his famhe is spending in travelly fly in their private car.

Some time after Bunting struck oil it is said he went to Superintendent Fill-more and asked for a private car. The manager apparently thought Bunting had mortgaged his life insurance and was bent on spending the proceeds on a few hours' use of a private car, and he did not approve of such action. However, it was his business to supply cars when applied for and paid for, so he somewhat regretfully said that he would see if he could arrange to let Bunting use a car.

"'Arrange to use' be blanked," ejaculated Bunting. "I want to buy one of your private cars if you've got one good

That put a different phase on the mat ter. It turned out that the Southern Pa-cific Company did not have a car that suited Bunting, so he had one built and it is said he spent $30,000 on the rolling palace he now travels in.

FIREWOOD IN DEMAND.

Is Brisk, in Anticipation of Winter Storms.

Wood dealers report a brisk business in the city now, as housekeepers are all anxious to get their Winter's fuel in before the rainy season begins. Help has been so scarce all Summer that the wood purchased early in the season has been allowed in many cases to be piled in the street, as no one could be found to carry it in. This class of laborers has become more numerous of late, and so the work of stowing away wood is going on all

Wood dealers think fir and oak will both be more plentiful after sufficient rain has fallen to start the water in the flumes. A good deal of cord wood now lies at the stumps, as it cannot be carried to the scow at the river bank until the water from place to place sawing the wood into stove lengths, and this time of the year is considered the steam wood-sawyer's harvest. Slabwood is cheaper this Fall than formerly, owing to the addition of more big sawmills, which have thus increased

JOHNSTON'S NOSE SUFFERED Result of Contact With Fire Badge, One Witness Says,

With his nose nearly hidden by plaster strips, J. A. Johnston walked into the Municipal Court yesterday to give evi-dence against Harry Chambers, whom he charged with assaulting him. Policeman Carpenter testified that he saw the two men fighting in a Third-street saloon Sunday, and that when he pulled them apart Johnston's nose appeared to have been bitten by someone. The peo-ple in the saloon said that Johnston's nose had been injured before he entered the place. On cross-examination John-ston said he did not clearly remember ston said he did not clearly remember what took place, as he was drinking at the time In defense Chambers told the court that Johnston struck him first, "I had to defend myself," testified Chambers, "and when Johnston came at me a second time he ran his face against the fire badge I wear, and that is how his nose was cut. I belong to the Fire Department. "You wish me to believe that the damage to Joffiston was inflicted by his face coming in contact with your fire badge?" asked the Judge. "Yes, sir," replied the witness. The case was continued for further evidence.

WHERE TO DINE TODAY.

Visitors to the city will find the Port-land restaurant, 205 Washington, near Fifth, a very desirable place to dine.

DRAW BRIDGES NOT ORDERED CLOSED.

Power of Regulating All Bridge Seems to Rest With the Secretary of War,

The County Commissioners were to have disposed of the question of closing the draws of the Burnside, Morrison and Madison-street bridges at stated times, at the meeting held yesterday, but encountered another snag and continued the matter for future action. Judge Cake was back from San Francisco, and it had previously been supposed in view of the decision of the United States Court upon this subject and the opinion of District Attorney Chamberlain, that the County Court was free to proceed in the matter. Commissioner Showers called attention to the rules and regulations to govern the opening of the draw bridges across Willamette River at Portland according to the river and harbor act of August 17, 1894. This refers to bridges across all navigable rivers of the United States, and provides for the opening of draws after reasonable signal. Judge Cake thought under this act it may be neces-sary to obtain the permission of the Secretary of War to keep the draws closed at stated times, and that in any event it would be well to submit the case to the District Attorney for an opinion. The extract from the river and harbor act referred to, is as follows:

Section 5. That it shall be the duty of all persons owning, operating and tending the draw bridges now built, or which may hereafter be built across the navigable rivers and other waters of the United States, to open, or cause to be opened, the draws of such bridges under such rules and regulations as in the opinion of the Secretary of War the public intorests require to govern the opening of draw bridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law. Every such person who shall wilfully fail or refuse to open or cause to be opened, the draw of any such bridge for the passage of a boat or boats, or who shall un-reasonably delay the opening of said draw after reasonable signal shall have been given, as provided in such regulations, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and on con-viction thereof, shall be anythined by a fine of viction thereof shall be punished by a fine of not more than $2000 nor less than $1000, or by imprisonment (in the case of a matural person) for not exceeding one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment in the discretion of the court; provided, that the proper action to enforce the provisions of this sec-tion may be commenced before any Commis-sioner, Judge or court of the United States. and such Commissioner, Judge or court shall proceed in respect thereto as authorized by law in case of crimes against the United States; provided further, that whenever, in the opinion of the Secretary of War, the pub-lic interests require it, he may make rules and regulations to goven the opening of draw bridges for the passage of vessels and other water crafts, and such rules and regulations, when so made and published, shall have the force of law, and any violation thereof shall be punished as hereinbefore provided.

REVENUE MEN AFTER THEM

Cigar-Making Machine Scized in George Smithson's House.

A machine for making clgars appeared as one of the exhibits in a case heard yesterday before Municipal Judge Cameron, in which George Smithson and Maude Smithson, his wife, were accused of the larceny by ballee of household goods on the complaint of N. P. Sherman, also known as Perry. The cigar-making machine had been selzed along with other goods by virtue of a search warrant in the Smithsons' house, on Isabella street. The defendants admitted that the whole of the goods seized belonged to Sherman and that they had been in the Smithson house on storage. Revenue officers were present to watch the case, and they made the statement that neither Smithson no Sherman had taken out a license to make and sell cigars. After the hearing, how-ever, the revenue officials decided that according to the evidence it had not been shown that Sherman had made or sold cigars, and the cigar machine was handed back to the police officials. that Sherman and his wife came a short time ago from the East, and stored their household goods and the cigar-making machine in an East Side hotel, and pieced them under the charge of the Smithsons who also lived at the same place. Smithcan be turned into the miles of V-shaped son swore that at this time Sherman went troughs prepared for transporting it to the river. Freight cars are reported very hard to obtain also, and no wood piled along the railroad track within 29 or 30 miles of that Sherman left town for a short time, railroad track within 20 or 30 miles of town cannot be moved hither. "When we order 20 cars," a dealer said yesterday, "the company sends us one, after some delay. The great harvest of the interior is largely responsible for this."

Four-foot fir is delivered about the city at $3.50 to $3.75 per cord, and oak for about $1 more. The portable steam saw, for which Portland is peculiar, travels from place to place sawing the wood into former friends, the Smithson refused to about $1 more. The portable steam saw, for which Portland is peculiar, travels from place to place sawing the wood into former friends, the Smithson with lar.

W. T. Vaughn appeared for the Sher and J. F. Watts for the Smith During the cross-examination Mr Watts brought out the fact that among the goods Sherman said he owned was a cigar-making machine, and when the search warrant was issued the machine in question was brought into court. On the part of the defendants evidence was given that Sherman had been seen with boxes of cigars when he lived in the hotel For the prosecution in the case of larceny by ballee, it was argued that it was not a crime to have in any one's possession a machine for making cigars. A con-tract was produced, signed by Elsie Sher-man, addressed to George Smithson, authorizing Smithson to take the Shermans goods and store them until further orders. The defense argued that the complainant had been advanced $100 on the goods, and that the latter had been held only as security. Ultimately a conference was held between the parties in litigation and the defense agreed to deliver to Shrman a certain number of the goods in dispute. Mrs. Smithson was discharged and her husband was held in $100 ball for a fur-ther hearing. The revenue officials announced later that they had no case against any of the parties in litigation.

COMING ATTRACTIONS.

Senbrooke in "A Modern Crusoe" at the Marquam.

The sale of seats for Thomas Q. Sea-brooke in "A Modern Crusoe" will open tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. The company will appear at the Marquam Grand Theater Friday and Saturday nights, October 4 and 5, with a matinee Saturday at 2:15 o'clock.
Sydney Rosenfeld has put some of his brightest work into this play. The facile flow of wit which scintillates through this author's work in "The Senator" and "At the White Horse Tavern" finds another outlet in this latest of his comic plays. The great charm about this playwright's works is that his characters are all genuine, and that their utterances have the stamp of spontaneity.

Sale of Soule Bros. & Johnston Stock of Pianos.

Also Organs --- Prices That Will Never Again Be Duplicated--Such Low Figures Have Never Been Made on Similar Goods in This Country--- If You Are Coming, We Cannot Urge You Too Strongly to Come Quick---Pay $25 Down and $10 or More a Month.

One little Colonial Chickering, two fancy baby Webers, one little black Steinway, three fancy Kimball uprights, one mahogany Emerson, or was it a Gramer?—a beautiful little oak-cased Hinze, a Weser Orchestrai, one Richmond, two Kimball organs, and a second-hand organ, is the record of yesterday's plano-selling at Ellers Piano House, where the sale of the Soule Bros. & Johnston stock of Steinway, Emerson, Estey, Richmond, Gramer and other planos is now in full blast.

Of course, it ought to have been nearly double that number of planos, but some people seem to have been somewhat confused in their minds as to where the sale is going on. We, therefore, state that the stock is at Ellers Plano House retail sales-rooms, 33! Washington street.

The auction sale, which was conducted by Mr. Baker at the old stand, was for the purpose of winding up the old partnership matters between Mr. S. S. Soule and the purchaser of the E. S. Johnston interests. Everything in the way of furnishings and fixtures, stools, covers, together with a little A. B. Chase plano (which was knocked down at $75 (being on a steamer somewhere between here and China), and also a number of organs were sold out at that place.

Now the sale can go on uninterruptedly at Ellers Plano House, and we'll slaugh-

a steamer somewhere between here and China), and also a number of organs were sold out at that place.

Now the sale can go on uninterruptedly at Ellers Plano House, and we'll slaughter prices for "further ordera."

Steinway pianos have always been represented by Soule Brothers & Johnston as being costly pianos—in fact, some people have been led to believe that Steinway planos could not be sold for less than $500 and $700 and $750. As a matter of fact, this little firm did not sell many planos. Their store expenses were heavy. They had to charge a big retail profit, in order to make ends meet. Then they had also to pay the San Francisco house quite a substantial wholesaie or jobber's profit, which again made their planos that much higher in price. And in view of all this, it is no wonder that they had to try to ge? big "betoh-de-wah" prices for their planos, whenever they did sell one. So it may be that an occasional customer has been found who paid, as they say, $600 or $750 or $750 for Steinway planos. But now you can take-choice of nearly a carload of Steinway planos, for—we had almost said one-half—but, say, two-thirds of Soule Brothers & Johnston's former retail prices.

There are several styles of Steinways in stock, and it doesn't take much more than $400 to get one now. The Estey planos came next, at prices ranging from $450 to $500. We have quite an assortment of Estey planos. No need of paying much more than half that price for a fine Estey now. They are new instruments, accompanied by the respective factory guarantees.

Then come the Emerson planos. Emer-

Then come the Emerson planos. Emer-Then come the Emerson planos. Emerson pianos are good pianos. Soule Brothers & Johnston's prices on Emersons ranged from $400 to $500—an average of say, $450. It is said that they soid two or three for that figure. This morning we offer the best Emerson in this stock for $237, others for $218—and some that are said to be Emersons, and probably are, for the Emerson name appears on the fallboard, while on the plate appears the name of the factory superintendent, Mr. Joseph Gramer—well, we'll sell these so-called Emersons for what they are worth, for we have nearly a carload of them; $188 and $198 will secure choice of several different cases.

Whoever heard of the Nugent plano-although it has been said to be "worth $250." We offer one of Soule Brothers & Johnston's big oak Nugent planos tomoralthough it has been said to be "worth 1250." We offer one of Soule Brothers & Johnston's big oak Nugent planos tomorrow for $146. Several Richmond planos, in fancy walnut and oak cases, for about nalf the former prices asked for them.

Remember, we have the factory warranties for every instrument in stock. We will deliver planos at sale prices to any part of the city, and give our regular one year's tuning agreement with every instrument sold.

During this closing-out sale of the Soule Brothers & Johnston stock, we will offer also a number of discontinued catalogue styles of the Kimball, the Decker, the Vose, the Wheelock and others at "cut prices." At least half of these planos should be disposed of today, and if every one could but realize the tremendous advantages we now have to offer, there is little doubt that a single instrument would remain on hand after Tuesday.

Please bear in mind that arrangements can be made to buy any of these planos on our new easy-payment plan. Come in early and secure first choice.

Remember the street number. Ellers Plano House, corner Park and Washington streets; entrance, 351 Washington streets.
