

WESTWARD TOUR ENDED

DUKE AND DUCHESS OF YORK LEAVE FOR HOME TODAY.

Reception at Victoria Was One of the Most Enthusiastic of Their Trip.

VICTORIA, B. C., Oct. 1.—The Duke and Duchess of Cornwall and York completed their westward tour through Canada today, and tomorrow set their faces eastward toward home. They arrived here this morning and were given one of the most enthusiastic receptions of their trip. There were many Americans in the great crowd that gathered here for the royal party, and the address presented to the Duke by the American-British League of Seattle, was acknowledged in the general response made by the Duke to the formal welcome. Perfect weather attended the party all the day and the city was in an attractive dress of flags and bunting.

The last stage of the westward trip from Vancouver to Victoria was made in the steamship Empress of India, which was accompanied by the cruisers Waspette, Amphion, Phaeton and Concor, the destroyers Sparrowhawk and Virago and the Destroyer Tender Madras. The fleet sailed from Victoria at 10 o'clock and the blue-jackets manned the yards. A shore battery at Work Point took up the refrain of the guns, firing the royal salute. Great crowds lined the shore driveway, and the royal party radiating from the outer wharf, and when the royal party landed there was a long cheer of welcome. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, lieutenant-governor of British Columbia, and the members of the local reception committee, who showed the Duke and Duchess to their carriage. The drive to the Parliament buildings, where the formal welcome was extended, was through crowded streets decorated with flags and streamers.

The civic address was read by Mayor Beatty, and the Duke and Duchess were accompanied by the members of the British Columbia and the American-British League of Seattle were offered. The latter address was presented by John W. Pratt, of Seattle, and said in part:

"We rejoice at the growing unity of spirit between the great constitutional Empire and the great Republic, and we have observed with interest and appreciation the friendly purposes manifested toward them by His Majesty and the British Government."

The Duke in Reply.

The Duke in his reply said in part: "I desire to assure you of the gratitude which the Duchess and I feel for the kind words of welcome and good wishes which have been addressed to us. I have presented on behalf of the citizens of Victoria, the residents of Seattle and other parts of the State of Washington, and of the British Columbia, a letter to the Presbyterian Church of Canada. I shall have much pleasure in informing my dear father, the King, with what special satisfaction I have noticed your strong declaration of loyalty to the constitution and pride in the heritage of British citizenship, and your unflinching resolution to share the responsibilities of upholding the great principles of that heritage. I know what proof of this you have already given in the blood of your youth which has been shed on the south African field, and I am confident that the sacrifices you have made will not be in vain. They have forged another link in the golden chain which binds together the brotherhood of the empire."

The Duke then presented the address to the Victorians who served in South Africa, after which he and the Duchess went among the school children, who were marching in the parade, and to the Parliament buildings. The royal party drove to Esquimalt, and was entertained at luncheon by Admiral Bickford, on the flagship Waspette. The Duke and Duchess then boarded the Empress of India for a royal salute and the yards were manned.

Late in the afternoon the Duke and Duchess returned to the city and drove to the exhibition grounds, passing en route through the Chinese quarter, which was fantastically decorated in their honor. The Duke spent the afternoon at the exhibition, and with the Duchess looked at many of the exhibits. Tonight the Duke party was entertained at dinner at Government House, and in turn gave a reception at the Parliament buildings. The latter was brilliantly illuminated, and the reception made one of the prettiest affairs of the day. The Duke and Duchess were accompanied by the Duke of Devonshire, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke of York, and the Duke of Gloucester. The party goes to Toronto.

SEVENTEEN ARE ENTOMBED.

Mine at Nanaimo Is Now Sealed to Smother Out the Fire.

NANAIMO, B. C., Oct. 1.—The situation at the Extension mine remains practically unchanged. Seventeen are known to be entombed in the very serpentine No. 2 slope. The list of the dead follows: GEORGE SOUTHCOMB, timberman; married; with family residing at Ladysmith; resided at Ladysmith; 23 years of age; a native of Australia; worked here about two years. His escape was immediately cut off when James Thomas, a rope rider, had a thrilling escape. He was riding down the slope, and seeing the fire coming jumped off the car and ran. George Southcomb and Eugene Griffin, timbermen, called to him to follow them, but he ran on up the slope for 100 feet to its mouth and barely escaped with his life. The other men were overtaken by the flames and perished. A miner running from No. 2 workings felt exhausted and in falling knocked open a door into another gallery and thus escaped.

ROGERS ON M'KINLEY.

His Contribution to the Forthcoming History of the President.

OLYMPIA, Oct. 1.—Governor Rogers was recently invited to write a short letter expressive of his opinion of President McKinley's life and work, for Congressmen Grosvenor's forthcoming "History of William McKinley," and yesterday the Governor sent the following to the commission having the matter in charge: "The Continental Assembly, Corcoran Building, Washington, D. C.—Gentlemen: President McKinley was an eminent man, who attained prominence by reason of his higher talents, and was acquired, in all the relations of life he was exemplary—a model to be followed. As President of the United States he conducted the Nation through the Spanish War with great skill, and he had no man in his position could have been more successful. And yet, with all his abilities and attainments, it may be said, he died a martyr. His death honored him so much as his conduct at the time of his most lamentable taking-off. At the time of the assassination, in all the calm and dignified presence maintained. His command, 'Let no man hurt him,' was Christianlike, and passed the ordeal with a noble bearing. President Jackson was attacked by a would-be murderer, on leaving the hall of the House of Representatives, the doughty old General struck viciously at his assailant with his cane. Jackson's attitude was proper enough and right enough from the human standpoint, but McKinley, under like circumstances, and in the presence of the world, heeded the universal admiration of the world. This will cause him to be remembered when all else in connection with his career has been forgotten."

GOOD YEAR FOR THE FARMER.

Hops and Potatoes Were the Only Short Crops in Lewis County.

CHEHALIS, Oct. 1.—The past season has been the most successful one for the crops of Lewis County. With the exception of hops and potatoes all crops in this section have been good. Potatoes now net the farmer $1 per sack. Wheat brings the grower 50 cents per bushel at the Chehalis mill, and oats are worth $1.20 per ton to the producer. Less wheat has been raised this season in Lewis County than for many years. This is no doubt due to the strong demand for oats, and the good price the latter brought last year. The shortage in wheat acreage has no doubt been more than made up by the increased oat acreage. Many of the farmers are holding their oats for $2.25. Hay was an excellent crop and was saved in good shape. The yields of wheat and oats were heavy, and all root crops, with the exception of potatoes, have produced excellent results. Cattle and hogs are in strong demand, several carloads of each having been shipped out of Chehalis within the past two weeks. The average crop of Toledo, is 10 per cent of an average crop. The shortage is due largely to the cold, damp weather in July, which retarded the growth of the vines. H. J. Beatty, of Toledo, is the most notable section who has a larger crop than last season. The shortage in the yard of the Dobson Hop Company, at Chehalis, is about 10 per cent of the normal crop. The potato crop is fully 10 tons short on 20 acres. Some growers have only a third of an average yield. The quality, however, is better than for several years. The potato crop is better, yet, the crop being only a part of it baled at this time. Picking was completed without the loss of any of the crop by mold, the first time for two or three years.
