PORTLAND CARNIVAL—At Exposition building and Multnomah field. SEATTLE AGENCY—Mr. J. M. McIntosh, the agent for The Oregonian in Seattle, has removed his office to room 23, Rowell building, Columbia street, corner of First avenue. THE OREGONIAN REACHES SEATTLE at 4:45 P. M. on the day it is issued, and is immediately delivered to subscribers and placed on sale at all the prominent news stands in the city. Any orders given Mr. McIntosh will receive prompt attention. BAD BOYS IN COURT—Instead of 13 boys showing up at the Municipal Court yesterday to answer charges of disorderly conduct at the Exposition building, only these eight presented themselves: Andrew Lighthouse, Charles Burton, Samuel Eady, Theodore Albert, F. W. Adams, Edward Nofke, Harry Thoman and Charles Shado. Evidence was given that the defendants, along with other boys, had thrown stones at special policemen at the Carnival when the policemen asked them to stop tearing down fences throwing stones and using bad language. The boys were released for further hearing today, and bench warrants were issued for the arrest of those boys, who were arrested and released Monday night, and who did not appear in court: Earl Smith, Frank Smith, Elmer Crane, Ben Wilson and Charles Wilson. "Find out where these boys attend school, between the school teachers and the police we hope to teach these young hopefuls the error of such bad conduct as has been testified to," said Municipal Judge Cameron. BANKRUPT SALE. WOLFF & ZWICKER IRON WORKS.—The auction sale of the plant of Wolff & Zwicker Iron Works has been postponed to October 5, 1901, at 10 A. M., at which time I will offer for sale, on the premises, all the real estate of the Madison-street bridge, Portland, Or., at public auction, for cash, to the highest bidder, all the plant of the Wolff & Zwicker Iron Works, including real estate, machinery, tools, equipment of all kinds, office furniture, etc. Up to and until 10 A. M. of October 5, 1901, I will also receive written offers for any specified lots or portions of the said plant or any specified machines or tools, or the real estate, separately. Deposit at the time of bid must be made if required by trustee. The trustee reserves the right to reject any and all bids not satisfactory. Inventory and abstract of title can be examined, and all inquiries answered at office on premises. The sale of merchandise will continue each day, beginning Friday, September 27, until completed. Harrison G. Platt, trustee, Wolff & Zwicker Iron Works, bankrupt. BUREAU ATTACHES A TRAIN.—Assessors who came into the city by the West Side railroad report that the stubble fields along the line were alive with men and dogs, and that from an early hour the reports of firing were heard in all directions. Just before noon a hunter came across the Morrison-street bridge carrying three beautiful pheasants, the tails of which dragged on the ground as he walked. He was followed by a crowd of men who were during the day. Few of those who went up the Valley hunting will return before this evening. A rather exciting incident occurred at the West Side train near Hillsboro Monday evening. A large band of quail rose up from either side of the track, seemingly to attack the trainload of hunters. Some of them ran toward the train, and he eyed so many sportsmen "rubbering" at them that they abandoned the job. One pugnacious bird flew alongside the train for quite a distance, but finally gave up the chase. WHOLESALE CUSTOMER FOR SEATS.—Maurice Smith, the gentlemanly treasurer at Cordray's Theater, was greatly surprised yesterday morning when a man walked up to the ticket window and asked for 50 tickets for Friday night's performance of "A Female Truancy." Mr. Smith does not sell 50 seats to one purchaser every day, and he eyed the applicant with a somewhat dubious air. The welcome guest, however, ordered the seat chart produced, and after designating the part of the house which he desired to buy, proceeded to count out the money. Mr. Smith, in his modest sort of a way, endeavored to find out who the crowd is that is booked for such a good time, but did not succeed. The visitor did not volunteer the information. He thanked him kindly for his call, and invited him to come again next week. AGAINST UNLAWFUL SHOTS AND HILL-BOROUGH. LI.—The Chamber of Commerce meeting yesterday Assistant Secretary Henry E. Reed was installed in place of E. C. Masten, whose health compels his retirement. President Hahn, of the committee appointed to deal with the matter of the freight car shortage, reported briefly that relief was in sight, some cars having already been added. C. Lombard referred to the bad impression strangers get of the town from observing tumble-down buildings and inconspicuous signboards, and suggested that the Chamber of Commerce ask the Charter Commission to embody in the new charter provisions to discourage those things. The secretary was directed to bring the matter to the attention of the Charter Commission. VAQUEROS FROM WHITECHAPEL.—The names of the vaqueros who were arrested Monday night in Whitechapel for vagrancy were called yesterday in the Municipal Court, and each of the defendants responded, except three or four who are out on bond. The vaqueros who pleaded not guilty, and most of them pretended that they were recent arrivals in town. "I have been cooking for the soldiers at the Army, and my job expired tonight. If you don't show me to go at once I won't get my wages, and then I'll be a vagrant sure," said James Brown. The cases will be taken up in the Municipal Court this afternoon. LAW LECTURES.—The first of the course of 20 lectures to be delivered before the law school of this city during the Winter by Judge H. H. Northrup will be delivered this evening at 7:30 o'clock at Armstrong's Business College. The subject is "Pleading." One lecture will be given each week until the course is completed. FIRE ON THIRD STREET.—There was a slight fire in David Dorfman's store, 27 North Third street, last night, but it was easily extinguished. The firemen stated that the blaze probably originated from gasoline setting fire to surrounding woodwork. The alarm was sent from box 132 at 7:10. DUKE AND DUCHESS OF YORK AND B. C. AGRICULTURAL ASSOCIATION, VICTORIA.—"Rosalee" leaves Yeager wharf, Seattle, 10 P. M. October 1 to 5; returning, including October 6; round trip rate, $2.50. BASEBALL. BASEBALL. 2:30 P. M. SPokane vs. Portland. TWENTY-FOURTH AND VAUGHN. The ladies of Westminster Church will hold a rummage sale at 300 Russell street, near Williams avenue, commencing Wednesday, October 3. Donations solicited. "Phone, Pink 1095. LECTURES at the North Pacific Dental College begin with the opening of the session Tuesday, October 1, at 5 o'clock P. M. The first day students may enter is October 30. The public is warned against buying a note given by me to David Tempest for $50, September 30, 1901, as the same will not be paid. W. J. Hibson. DR. HERBERT W. CARDWELL has opened offices, 224 and 225 Abington bldg. MRS. THOMAS, modiste, 261 Oak st.

FISHING FOR PIKE.—An old-time fisherman, who does not care to go abroad to enjoy his favorite sport, amuses himself in pike fishing in front of the city, and says it is as good sport as can be desired. He says the pike is what the German call "hecht," that is, a game fish, and that plenty of them of large size are to be found out on gravel bars in the clear running water in the middle of the river. He fishes from a boat or barge, putting out about 150 feet of line, and catches pike 2 1/2 to three feet long, which fight as gamely as any fish. The pike here are the same as those caught in Germany, except that they have no teeth and are a very good table fish. Some best bait for them is, strange to say, ordinary cheese. Just how or why pike have a taste for cheese is not known, but they take a bait of cheese with avidity, and if they can take it without taking the hook, so much the better for them. They are found almost anywhere in the river where there is clear running water and a clean sandy or gravelly bottom. Carp fishing or fishing for blue fish, this old sportsman says, are not to be mentioned in the same day with pike fishing. IDENTITY UNKNOWN.—An inquest was held yesterday into the case of the drowned man, who was found in the water near Burnside-bridge Monday night, but after a searching investigation his identity could not be learned. From the evidence of the witnesses the body had been in the water for about 10 days. One of the pockets was a copy of the New York World newspaper, dated September 15, this year, and in another pocket was a blank memorandum-book, bearing the address of "Hamlin, the clothier, McMinnville." The other pockets contained lemons, apples and one piece of tobacco. The body was clothed in two pairs of trousers, a general coat, vest and necktie, all of poor quality. The body was that of a man about 32 years old, about 5 feet 9 inches tall, smooth faced, sandy hair and weighing about 150 pounds. There were no marks of violence. SAVINGS BANK LAND SOLD.—The 10,500 acres of lands in Klamath County, forming an asset of the Portland Savings Bank, were sold at auction by Receiver Nixon yesterday. The bidding started at $200, and some 75 bids were made. The land was finally knocked down to C. S. and R. S. Moore, for the sum of $12,500. Mr. Nixon had hoped to secure more for the land, but it is known that the lands cost the bank as they were turned in by S. Couler with everything else he had, and credit for the whole was given him on his general indebtedness. It is not definitely known what the amount of the final dividend will be, but Mr. Nixon will apply to the court today for an order to pay it, and he hopes to be ready to begin paying next Monday. The paying of this dividend will be the last act in the long-drawn-out process of winding up affairs of the Portland-Savings Bank. BISHOP MALLALEU WILL PREACH.—Bishop W. F. Mallaleu, after closing the session of the Oregon Conference, at Hillsboro, on Monday last, came to this city and left yesterday morning for brief visits to Salem and Eugene. Bishop Mallaleu will return to Portland Thursday, and is to deliver an address at Grace St. E. Church at the regular Thursday evening service, which will be held in the church auditorium to accommodate the large number who desire to hear the bishop, who has a wide reputation as an earnest and eloquent preacher and revivalist. All Methodists and others who desire to hear Bishop Mallaleu, are cordially invited to attend, policies being arranged to be held in order to insure good music and old-time congregational singing, and it is expected that this will be the occasion of a great Methodist rally. VALUABLE PORK AX-HANDLES.—Oak grubs, which have long been a nuisance on many farms in this region, have now become valuable. Not only do grub wood bring a high price, but pick, ax and sledge-handles made from oak grubs, are in great demand. The grubs are tougher than most others. Dealers do not handle them yet, but many contractors buy no others, and a Norwegian who manufactures Yeager wharf, Seattle, has made by hand a preferred to those made by machinery. The grub wood is as tough as leather when green, and improves with age. THE SCALES in front of Woodard, Clarke & Co. are proving one of the greatest of Portland's attractions. Hundreds make use of them each day, and Saturday evenings waiting crowds are standing in line for their turn. The only drawback is the hoodlum spirit of some boys who jump on them violently in an endeavor to break the platform. The first scales received were too light for the professional heavyweight of Portland, and have been sold to a drug firm in Tacoma. CHICKENS BY THE POUND.—Some commission men have adopted the plan of selling chickens and other poultry consisting to them by the pound. This is considered fairer to the buyer and seller than selling by the dozen, as if one sends in large chickens he gets the full value of them, and those who send poor or small ones get all they are worth. There is a great deal of poultry coming to market now. Chickens bring about 11 cents per pound wholesale. NEW HIGH-GRADE PIANOS.—For rent and sold on easy installments, to suit the purchaser, at lowest prices. Piano-tuning and repairing. Established 1852. H. Sinsheimer, 72 Third street, near Oak. Phone North 561. WOOLEN WALKS, FURS AND RIFTS.—See them. Lower than anywhere. New York Mercantile Co., 26 Third. To Spend a Pleasant Hour.—Go to billiard parlors, 127 Sixth. OSTEOPATHY.—The basis of osteopathy is just as broad as the sciences of anatomy, physiology and pathology upon which it rests. Investigate it. CONSULTATION FREE. Dr. W. A. Rogers (Graduate, A. T. MAY BE SMALLPOX.—A colored man, who said he came from Salem and was sick caused some excitement at the Court-house yesterday. He called there to see what the county could do for him, and as he was covered with some kind of eruption, it was imagined that he had the smallpox. He was hustled out in a hurry and given the direction to County Physician McKay's office. Later it was learned that he had been taken to the posthouse, and that plenty of them of large size are to be found out on gravel bars in the clear running water in the middle of the river. He fishes from a boat or barge, putting out about 150 feet of line, and catches pike 2 1/2 to three feet long, which fight as gamely as any fish. The pike here are the same as those caught in Germany, except that they have no teeth and are a very good table fish. Some best bait for them is, strange to say, ordinary cheese. TERMINUS MOVED WORKED SOMETIME.—Charles McGee, who hangs around First and Madison streets, pleaded guilty yesterday in the Municipal Court to a charge of being an idle and disorderly person, who has no visible means of support. Policeman Carpenter testified that McGee was formerly a prizefighter, and that most of the rounds in Whitechapel are afraid of him. McGee stated that he was married to one Bertha Severs about a year ago near Burnside-bridge, and that he worked sometimes. He was sentenced to 30 days in jail. BOY BICYCLIST KNOCKED DOWN.—While James Mooney, of 328 Mississippi avenue, was pedaling yesterday along Third street, near Stark, he collided with horses attached to a milk wagon, and was injured about the shoulders. He was taken to his home and the injuries were dressed. Eyewitnesses state that the driver of the wagon did all he could to avert the collision with the boy, and that the latter was looking at the other side of the street when the accident happened. NOTICE OF REMOVAL.—I have removed my offices from No. 250 Stark street to No. 231 Washington street (Oregon telephone Main 628), transacting a general insurance business, under the firm name of Puffer, Burgard & Co., representing several large companies. Indorsements, assignments and renewals will be taken care of by the old firm of Puffer, Dooly & Co. will receive prompt attention at my hands upon notice. W. C. Puffer. SAME HANDSOME INCREASE.—The receipts of the Portland Postoffice from the sale of stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards for the month of September amounted to $20,694.83. The receipts for the preceding month amounted to $19,843.89, showing an increase in September of $850.94. The receipts of the Customhouse in this city for the month of September amounted to $25,916.75. H. K. SARGENT has removed his law office to 334-4, Chamber of Commerce building. $5000 BAG PUNCHER.—The Fredericksburg this week has on hand some exceptionally strong features. Early on the programme come Stanley and Scanlon, in one of the most novel and interesting musical acts ever shown in the city. They introduce some of the most original and fetching musical novelties imaginable. In J. S. Allison, the champion bag-puncher of the world, the Fredericksburg scores another success. Richard K. Fox, of the Police Gazette, has offered $500 for his equal, and the bid appears to be an indefinitely open one. Allison is a real wonder. Whether he plays the bag with his fists, his elbows or his head, he does it marvelously well. He is one of this week's drawing cards of the Fredericksburg's good bill. WHERE TO DINE TODAY.—Visitors to the city will find the Portland restaurant, 305 Washington, near Fifth, a very desirable place to dine. The only place to eat, Strauss's restaurant. Everything first class. White labor only. 223 Washington st., near 1st. B. C. AGRICULTURAL ASS'N.—Duke and Duchess of York and B. C. Agricultural Association, Victoria—"Rosalee" leaves Yeager wharf, Seattle, 10 P. M. October 1 to 5; returning, including October 6; round trip rate, $2.50. DALLIES STREET CARNIVAL.—Reduced rates have been made by the O. R. & N. Co. from Portland to the Dailies and return, account Dailies Carnival, from October 20 to October 31, inclusive, rate will be $3.75, limit two days, and on October 3 only, rate will be $2.50 with two days' limit. Ticket office, Third and Washington. BUSINESS ITEMS.—If Baby Is Cutting Teeth.—Be sure and use that old and well-tried remedy, Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup, for children teething. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and diarrhoea. New High-Grade Pianos.—For rent and sold on easy installments, to suit the purchaser, at lowest prices.
