PORTLAND TOOK REVENGE

WON GAME FROM TACOMA ON FIVE HITS AND NINE ERRORS.

Climax Came in Seventh Inning, When Tacoma Had the Bases Filled-Vigneux' Star Catch.

Portland took revenge on Tacoma for the victory of Wednesday when the Puerages up several notches. Yesterday the Portlands hammered the ball all over the lot, and although they made only five safe hits, the fielding averages of the Tacoma went down in an inverse ratio. Errors gave Portland the game if anything did. The speedy blue base-runners took every advantage, and when an opposing fielder juggled the ball, all be saw was a streak of blue running around the bases. It was ladles day too, and the home players were greeted with screams of approval, whenever a good play was made, and the Tacoma team was also applauded in the same generous fashion

The climax of the game was in the seventh inning. The score was 4 to 1 in favor of the home team and Tacoma was at the bat. McCloskey was the first man up. He hit a swift ball to Anderson that rolled up his body and then away, with him after it. It would have been a hit, even if not fielded. Anderson ed it up with both hands toward frey at first, and the ball got to the bag just in time to put McCloskey

"Good boy Anderson," velled one an-

With this starter to ginger up their enthusiasm, the crowd followed each play eagerly. Stultz opened out on Glendon for a hit. He was followed by Zearfoss with the same kind of a swat. Carter flew out, and Stuliz went to third on the throw-in. Zearfoss took second on passed ball. Glendon failed to steady down, and McCarthy walked to first, filling the bases. There were two men out. Murdock knocked a sharp ball to Anderson, which he failed to gather in, and Stuitz scored. The bases were still full, and only a small batting rally was needed to the the score. Flannery came to the hat, with blood in his eye, but the only thing he did was to pop up a foul ball that rose high and fell near the grandstand. Vigneux ran full speed to-ward it, caught it just as it fell, and then crashed against the stand. He was given an ovation.

"There, there," cried out one woman as he fell, "let me go down there and pick that nice boy up."

Vigneux cutch retired the Tacoma side and prevented an avalanche of runs that had been impending. After that Tacoma had no chance to score, and the men were casily retired in the later innings. Portland scored in the first inning.

Mulier took first on an error, was ad-vanced to second on Delsel's sacrifice, and scored on Anderson's grounder that Mc-Carthy juggled. Carthy Juggied.

Tacoma also sent a run over in the first. McCarthy lined out a pretty two-bagger to left. When Muller fielded it he made a wild throw across the diamond, the ball cluding all the players.

making an effort to back up second base. McCarthy did not stop running, scoring Salisbury scored the second run for Portland in the fifth. He sent out a clean hit to right, and was advanced to second on a sacrifice by Muller. Muller was doubled up at first on Delsel's pop to

Carter. Salisbury scored on Anderson's grounder to McCarthy, which that clever fielder did not handle. Salisbury scored again in the seventh. He sent out another clean hit, and was scored on Muller's three-bagger. Muller scored on Deisel's drive to right, the watchful Lynch, however, fielding Deisel out on first, cutting off a hit. PORTLAND. A.B. R. H. P.O. A. E. Muller, l. f.....

MISS STONE'S CAPTORS ARE ON THE HEIGHTS OF JOKORUDA.

Proops Attempting to Surround the Brigands-Secreey at the State Department.

SOFIA, Bulgaria, Oct. 10.-According to semi-official intelligence, some shepherds informed a Bulgirlan official yesterday that the brigands having Miss Stone in custody are now on the heights of Jokoruda, in Turkish territory.

Danger of a Tragedy.

LONDON, Oct. 10,-With reference to the announcement that the Turkish and Bulgarian troops are surrounding the abductors of Miss Stone, the Globe says it considers that unless the movement is suspended until she is safe out of the is suspended until she is safe out of the hands of the brigands, there will infalli-bly be a repetition of the tragedy in Greece during the year 1870, when Lord Muncaster and party were captured. Lord Muncaster was released in order to negotiate a ransom of £25,000. Then, as now, an attempt was made to surround the brigands, with the result that three gentlemen of the party were murdered. Lord and Lady Muncaster and a party of Eng-lish travelers were seized by Greek bri-gands April 18, 1870, at Oropos and Maragands April 18, 1870, at Oropos and Mara-thon. Lord Muncaster and the ladies of the party were sent to treat for £25,000 demanded as ransom with a free pardon for the brigands. The latter were sur-rounded by troops, and retreating. April 21, killed Mr. Vyner, Lloyd Herbert and Count de Boyl. The incident caused great excitement, especially as many in-fluential persons, were charged with confluential persons were charged with con-nivance at the brigandage. Several of the brigands were killed and seven were captured, tried and condemned May 23, of the same year. June 20, 1870, five of the brigands were executed.

Put a Price on Their Heads.

NEW YORK, Oct. 10 .- Tomo Sargentich, an Americanized Montenegrin, who is connected with a bank, knows a great deal, from personal observation, about the district where Miss Stone is held captive, and about the people who inhabit it. He told a Tribune reporter yesterday that the native Bulgarians are, in his opinion, in no way implicated in the abduction of the American mission-ary. He believed it to be the work of Turks; but he thought the peasantry in the country surrounding the scene of the abduction could easily be induced by an offer of cash rewards for the heads of the brigands to undertake a war upon the rascals, which would end in their extermination. If rewards were placed upon the heads of Miss Stone's captors, he said, the heads would be forthcoming sooner or later.

Ex-Minister Straus' Opinion. NEW YORK, Oct. 10.—Oscar S. Straus, ex-Minister to Turkey, thinks that the abduction of Miss Stone should not be charged to the Sultan or his subjects. Neither is he at all sure that the Bulgarian Government is in any way implicated. He prefers to think that it was the work of irresponsible Bulgarian brigands who were moved thereto solely by a desire to extract ransom, and who had no political end of any kind to serve by their nefarious actions. Mr. Straus thinks both the governments of Turkey and Bulgarla will do all they can to bring the rascals to judgment. No menace of war will be allowed to arise out of the incident, in Mr. Straus' opinion.

Secrecy at State Department. WASHINGTON, Oct. 10.—A cablegram has been received at the State Department from Spencer Eddy, secretary to the United States Legation at Constantinople. conterning Miss Stone's case, which, it is said, is practically a repetition of the facts stated by Consul-General Dickinson in his dispatch of yesterday. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 10.—The sur-rounding movement of Turkish and Bulgarian troops on the Mountain Gultepe, on the Turko-Bulgarian frontier, near Dubnitza, has commenced. ROCKEFELLER INSTITUTE. Tentative Working Plan Adopted by the Officers. NEW YORK, Oct. 10 .- The Tribune to-

At the time the announcement was made that Mr. Rockefeller had given $200,000 to found the institute, it was said that one of the things the institute would do would be to investigate the milk supply of the city in co-operation with the Board of Health. With sincere respect for Christianity,
I would ask, regarding the pillars of the church, the professed Christians owning the wealth of the Nation, as to the depth of their personal faith as portrayed by practice when they permit an American woman, a missionary sent out in the service of Christ, under auspices of their service of chist, under auspiess of their own American Missionary Society, to languish and go through a living death in the hands of mercless brigands, when by the payment of a few pairry dollars-and by that means only—she could be re-

The American Missionary Society brings The American Missionary society orings influence to bear on the Government to collect, by force of arms if necessary, indemnity for the destruction of their church buildings in foreign countries, and yet where the Government is powerless in dealing with a lawless element, the members (of church or society), with boundless wealth at their command, and who are responsible for Miss Stone being sent to the scene of her present perll, now permit her to go to her doom rather than make individual contributions of money, and to their shame permit a generous-hearted follower of Confucius (whom they deem a heathen) to read them a lesson in humanity. Are Christ's eachings based on apathy and R. C. PENTLAND, experience in literature, his friends and co-workers in other fields, and began the task of preparing this great work. North, East, South and West, and the Mother country as well, have been searched for gems in every field of eloquence. Here was a lecture that had wrought upon the very souls of great audiences; there an after-dinner speech, which "between the lines" was freighted with the destines of nations. Here was an eulogy expressing in few but virile words the love, the honor, and the tears of millions, and there an address pregnant with the fruits of a strenuous life's work. Or, perchance, a reminiscence, keen, scintillant repartee, or a story potent in signifi cance and affame with human interest. Matter there was in abundance, for Eng IIsh-speaking peoples are eloquent, but THE BEST-ONLY THE BEST, ONLY THE GREAT, THE BRILLLIANT, HE WORTHY TO ENDURE, has been the ulding rule of Mr. Reed and his colleagues. Their editorial labors have been

Whatever the viewpoint, this work is without precedent. It has no predecessor, no competitor. Speeches that have been flashed across continents, lectures that have been repeated over and over again to never-tiring audiences (but never published), addresses that have made famous the man, the time and the placethese are brought together for the first time, and with them a large number of the wittlest sayings of the wittlest men of the nineteenth century. For an hour-for a whole evening in the easy chair at home-for the study of style and diction that have electrified brilliant assemblies, for the man ambitious to become a successful or popular public speaker, and for the one who has to prepare a toast or an address, this work is a never-falling source of charm and inspiration. Nor is this solely "a man's work." "The tenderest tribute to woman I have ever read," sai Senator-Dolliver when he read the manuscript of Joseph Choate's after-dinner speech-"The Pilgrim Mothers."

These gems of spoken thought were fugitive from lack of proper preservative means, until the Hon, Thomas B. Reed, upon voluntarily retiring from the Speaker-ship of the House of Representatives, gathered about him these men of mark and
