

WILL LINE UP SATURDAY

MULTNOMAH AND PACIFIC ELEVEN WILL CONTEST.

Forest Grove Leads Under McFadden's Coaching Are Proving Factor in Football Situation.

It is a rare occasion when one is able to see a football game on a dry field on Multnomah grounds, but such it promises to be on Saturday, when Multnomah plays the Pacific University team from Forest Grove. The last game played a week ago Wednesday between Multnomah and the University at Forest Grove proved that there is another team in the field that is able to contend with any of the first-class teams in the Northwest. The score, 6 to 0, in Multnomah's favor, did not prove that Multnomah was a better team, but that their past reputation had secured the boys at Forest Grove. It was certainly luck that helped Multnomah, for the club's team work was very ragged, and individual playing predominated. But with a little over a week's practicing since then and one or two of the old players back on the team, Pacific will have to play a hard game to win.

The playing of the university team was certainly a surprise to Multnomah on that day at Forest Grove, and this proves what team work and coaching will do for a team that has but very little experience. The material was there, but unity was lacking, and has always been lacking until a coach was obtained this season in the person of Tom McFadden, Stanford's end of last season, and was certainly put the boys through hard practice, and does great credit. The new plays and fast playing of his eleven so early in the season will make Saturday's game an interesting one.

There will be about seven or eight pounds difference to a man between the two teams, Multnomah averaging about 160 and the university about 155.

Football Eleven Hard at Work.
PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, FOREST GROVE, Oct. 23.—The football eleven is hard at work this week preparing for the Multnomah game at Forest Grove. A fast practice game was played last evening between the "varsity" and scrub eleven.

The second eleven will play Hill Military Academy as soon as a satisfactory date can be set.

Construction of the grandstand on "Varsity Field" was begun this morning. The stand is to be 64 feet in length and will have a seating capacity of about 500.

Pennsylvania, 22; Gettysburg, 0.
PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 23.—University of Pennsylvania played a pitched-up football game and defeated Gettysburg College today without much effort, by the score of 22 to 0. The visitors managed to get the ball within striking distance of Pennsylvania's goal several times, but failed to carry it over the line, because of Pennsylvania's strong defense.

Princeton, 29; Orange, 0.
PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 23.—The Princeton "varsity" scored a clean victory here today over the Orange Athletic Club by a score of 29 to 0.

THE DAY'S RACES.

World's Trotting Record for a Half Mile Broken at Memphis.

MEMPHIS, Oct. 23.—The world's trotting record for a half-mile race with other horses was broken this afternoon at the Millers Park, when Audubon Boy won half a mile in 1:30.5. This feat was accomplished in the first race, a 2:30 class pace event, under what is known as the "Memphis plan." The first heat at one mile was won handsily by Audubon Boy, Don Monck second place. Audubon Boy made his own pace in the second heat, which was at 1 1/4 miles, and won by two lengths from New Richmond. In the last heat, starting from the half-mile pole, the game one of J. J. Audubon went to the front and won in the easiest sort of fashion in 1:30.4, breaking the world's pacing and trotting record.

Geers brought The Abbot for an attempt to lower his record to 1:29.4, but failed to do better than 2:04 flat, accompanied by two running horses. The quarter was passed in 1:29.4, the half in 1:30, the three-quarters in 1:30.4, and the full mile in 1:30.4. After dismounting Geers announced that the horse was not at his best, and that he would try again Saturday.

Tomorrow Little Boy will be sent against his recently made pacing record of 2:03.3. Mr. Billings, his owner, said to-day that he was not satisfied with Monday's performance, and that he believed the horse can complete the circuit in 2:02.28, beating to wagon, amateur drivers, mile beats, prize silver, cup—Hunters Crooke won in two straight heats in 1:30.5, 1:30.5. Jone and Sunland Belle also started.

Accidents at Morris Park.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—A chapter of accidents marred the racing at Morris Park today. A horse named Johnnie, owned by J. J. Jones, received injuries which resulted in his death a few hours later; two horses were killed outright, and one was so badly hurt that it had to be shot, and three other horses were narrowly escaped. In the first race King T. fell at the water jump, directly in front of the grandstand, and broke his neck, Barry, the jockey, escaping injury. It was in the fifth race that Olsen met with his fatal mishap. When he was picked up it was at once seen he was most seriously hurt, and when taken to Parkhurst hospital the surgeons found his skull had fractured. He lived until 7 o'clock tonight. Olsen was 35 years old, and was riding Timothy Foley for K. L. Anderson. Summary of the day's races:

MAY FORCE BRIGANDS OUT

COLD RAINS FALLING IN THE BULGARIAN MOUNTAINS.

Captors of Miss Stone Will Probably Release Her as Soon as They Receive the Ransom.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 23.—Cold rains are falling in the district where the brigands who abducted Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, are concealed, and a prolonged stay in the mountains is believed to be almost impossible, even for the brigands. It is considered likely that the hasty release of the captive as soon as they can secure the ransom and then disperse to their homes. No word has come from the missionaries today, though W. P. Peet, treasurer of the mission here, to whom they would communicate, is still hopeful. Mr. Peet is not expecting news until he is asked to forward the gold, which it is estimated will weigh between 300 and 400 pounds.

TURKS AIDING THE BRIGANDS.

According to a Macedonian Paper Published at Sofia.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The Betscheria Boschia, a Macedonian newspaper published at Sofia, Bulgaria, declares that the Turkish troops following the brigands holding Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, and her helper, Mme. Tsiska, for ransom, have no intention of trying to capture the ruffians, says the Vienna correspondent of the World. On the contrary, the soldiers and Turkish officials provide the brigands with food, it is asserted. The newspaper says that the brigands are being protected under orders from the highest Turkish authorities for the reason that the Sultan has been for revenge against the United States for the pressure brought to bear by America with reference to indemnities for the Armenian massacres by the Turk.

As these declarations emanate from the organ of a revolutionary party, that is making war on Turkey, and are not accompanied by any proofs, they are not accepted as wholly without prejudice. The Boschia says that the Bulgarian Government is doing everything in its power to assist the American representatives, and has instituted a strict inquiry to discover the identity of those who made the capture of Miss Stone, and to learn if the kidnapping had another more important object than that of a ransom. The impression is created that Miss Stone will certainly be released and at an early date.

Result of Dickinson's Activity.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The State Department has heard nothing from any official source to confirm the Austrian reports of the killing of the brother of Mme. Tsiska by Turkish troops or the death of the lady herself. It has been unable to get in touch with the brigands, and all of the information it has had as to the probable movements of the bandits with the captives has come through missionary sources. It is known officially that the arrest of some of the Macedonian committee was a direct result of Consul-General Dickinson's activity, so far it does not appear that these arrests have aided in the pursuit of the brigands.

Denied by Saratoff.

PARIS, Oct. 23.—M. Saratoff, the president of the Macedonian committee, has written a letter to the Times, dated from Paris, emphatically denying the reports that he is an accomplice in the abduction of Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary, and her helper, Mme. Tsiska, for ransom. He says he has been living quietly in Paris for the past month.

GEORGETOWN, Ky., Oct. 23.—The trial of Caleb Powers was resumed today. It has been discovered by counsel for the commonwealth that one of the jurors was a schoolmate of the defendant, and was in the same class with him for three years at Kentucky University.

Smuggling of Sealskins.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—On charges of being implicated in the wholesale smuggling of sealskins into the United States, warrants have been issued in Vermont for 14 persons now in Montreal, says the Montreal correspondent. These skins, it is alleged, were smuggled in by a baggage-master of the Central Vermont Railroad. It is said the United States Government is conducting an investigation of the skins, and the customs detectives are tracing the remainder.

TRUSTS IN EUROPE.

Amalgamation of Interests in England, Germany and Belgium.

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—The projected amalgamation of the business interests of the largest iron and steel manufacturers in the United Kingdom has so far escaped observation by the British London correspondent. The formation of the United States Steel Corporation was the signal for similar concentrations of capital in Europe. The German ironmasters and steel manufacturers, under the leadership of the Krupp, have been endeavoring to organize an industrial combination, and the Belgian ironmasters and steel manufacturers have been moved in the same direction. The interests of both those countries are centered in a few hands, and these combinations, while not yet effected, are easy in comparison with the amalgamation of British iron and steel manufacturers, whose interests here are of tremendous magnitude.

CATARRH OF HEAD

AND STOMACH CURED

Mrs. Z. M. Knight, St. Johns, Portland: When I began treatment with Dr. Copeland and Montgomery I was a very sick woman. The stomach seemed to have lost all power to digest food properly. Everything I ate seemed to turn to gas, causing bloating, heart palpitation and another spell. I had no appetite, and fell away until I was little more than a skeleton.

I also had catarrh of the head and throat, being troubled with stopping-up of the nostrils and a discharge and drooping into the throat.

When I quit the treatment I was fully restored to perfect health.

Mr. E. M. Foudray, residing at 302 East Davis street, and employed by the Grattan & Knight Manufacturing Company:

British tobacco interests have formed the Imperial Manufacturing Company of Great Britain and Ireland, with a capital of $75,000, to compete with the consolidated Tobacco Company in Europe.

ORDINANCE BUREAU REPORT

Increasing the Efficiency of Our Big Naval Guns.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—Increased efficiency in our big naval guns must be looked for from the use of heavier projectiles, the production of powder possessing high ballistic qualities, rather than from an increase in the weight and dimensions of the guns themselves, says Rear-Admiral Charles A. May, chief of the Naval Bureau of Ordnance, in his annual report. The latest types of guns are so large and heavy, he says, that it is inadvisable to make an increase in either respect, and the bureau now will confine itself to developing lighter projectiles and powder of greater energy.

The only material change in the system of gun construction last year was a provision that guns of and above six inches in caliber, for greater safety, shall have an inner and outer tube instead of a solid forging as heretofore.

Admiral O'Neill believes that the ordnance equipment of United States naval vessels is fully up to the highest standard maintained abroad for vessels of corresponding age and class, and says he knows of no guns afloat or soon to be put afloat equal in energy to those manufactured for the United States.

Admiral O'Neill believes that the subject of submarine boats is being given undue prominence. If these boats are shown to have practical value, he says, it will be as an adjunct to the system of coast defense. They cannot and will not, he continues, take the place of naval vessels of regular type or render a less number necessary. Submarine boats, he says, have not yet emerged from the experimental stage.

The use of torpedoes on large vessels has been practically discontinued, and provision having been made for them in the latest battle-ships and cruisers. Admiral O'Neill says that the latest armament abroad for vessels of corresponding age and class, and says he knows of no guns afloat or soon to be put afloat equal in energy to those manufactured for the United States.

The estimates accompanying the report aggregate $10,902,000, the largest items pany: "Before my treatment at the Copeland Institute, my health was very bad, the effects of catarrh. My nose and throat were in bad shape—small and taste gone, and hearing greatly impaired. "I had no appetite. My stomach was sore and indurated, and at times I could not retain the most digestible foods. I could not sleep at night or work in the day.

"Now I feel better than I have in years, the result of my treatment at the Copeland Institute."

CATARRH CURED.

HEAD NOISES CURED.

HEARING RESTORED.

Mr. T. J. McClure, Mosier, Waco County, Oregon, was badly afflicted with catarrh for a number of years, the result of which was to destroy his hearing. He was greatly distressed over his condition, as he feared his case was a hopeless one. In speaking of the result of his treatment at the Copeland Institute, he says: "I suffered with catarrh of head and throat for several years. I had which are so generally complained of by those afflicted with this disease—stopping up of the nostrils, dripping of the nose, tickling in throat, hacking cough, etc. Every change in the weather gave me cold, accompanied by sneezing and buzzing in the ears, and I would be unable to hear distinctly. Gradually these noises became more annoying, often changing to a roaring and popping, and my hearing became impaired. It was very difficult for me to distinguish sounds or conversation. I grew more and more right along, and I feared I would soon be Entirely Deaf.

Upon the advice of a friend in The Dalles, I began treatment at the Copeland Institute. I improved from the start, and now, after a few months' treatment, I am Thoroughly Cured.

I hear as well as I ever did, the catarrh has been cured and the head noises relieved. I can heartily recommend the Copeland treatment to all sufferers, and will gladly answer any letters or inquiries.
