MORLEY FINDS FAULT

SAYS EDWARD WILL SOON HAVE TO SEEK OTHER MINISTERS.

Declares the Policy of Devastation in South Africa Is a Mistake Reinforcements for Kitchener.

LONDON, Oct. 31.-John Morley, M. P. addressing his constituents today at Ara-

"The government is aggravating the essential mischief of the situation in South Africa by its management of the concentration camps. The death rate of chlidren, measure it as you will, is hideous excessive and appalling. The policy of devastation has been admitted to be a mistake. I wonder what Lord Palmer-ston would have said of a government justifying themselves by saying that Russis in Poland, and Austria in Bosnia, had something like the same, be war has entirely changed in character and is drifting into a war of exter-mination of a people fighting for their own land. The policy of unconditional surrender and submission means extermination and similation. The present atti-tude of the government is one of suiten desperation. There is nothing worse than mettle in a blind horse. The King will, perhaps, at no distant date, have to seek other Ministers with a better insight and a more pliant mind in the face of the dangerous and complex situation which and complex situation which confronts the country."

MORE TROOPS FOR KITCHENER. All Available Forces in England

Will Be Sent to Africa. ALDERSHOT, England, Oct. 31.—It is inderstood as a result of the conclusion crived at by the Cabinet Monday every available infantryman will be sent to the front in South Africa between now and Christmas. The departure of the cavalry brigade from Aldershot (orders to which effect were received there last night, the troopers being instructed to start for South Africa about the middle of November) will leave only a single regiment of regular cavalry, the Thirty-first Lancers, in the United Kingdom. Prince Arthur of Connaught, who is a Second Lieutenant in the Seventh (Queen's Own Hussars), goes with his regiment to South Africa.
