Father Crowley, the ex-Priest, Was Cause of a Sensation in Chicago.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.-There was an in tensely dramatic scene in Holy Name Cathedral today, when, in the presence of fully 1999 parishioners, Jeremiah J. Crowley, the excommunicated Roman Catholic lest, was publicly humiliated by order the authorities of the church. Father Crowley had entered the church unob-served, passing up the center alsie, and had taken a seat almost under the pulpit. Solemn high mass was being celebrated at the time. When the presence of Father the time. When the presence of Father. Crowley beame known, Rev. Francis J. Barry, chancellor of the archdiosese of Chicago, was hurriedly sent for. Upop entering the cathedral he went straight to seat where the excommunicated clergyman was kneeling and ordered him to leave the church. Father Crowley refused to go, saying: "Put me out, if you dare." The strain was intense, and one woman in the congregation fainted. There was no resort to force, however. Chancellor Barry signaled to a man in the choir loft and the sound of the organ ceased and the singing of the chair was hushed. The priests on the altar stopped the solemn service at the end of the "Gloria," and walked to the benches and laid aside their golden vestments. The alter boys marched ut of the sanctuary through a side door and the priests, clad in their cassocks, fol lowed. The next moment the hundreds of incandescent lights in the vaulted arche were extinguished, and the candle lights on the altar were put out. The strain was broken when Chancellor Barry appeared in the pulpit and said: "Owing to the presence in this sacred edifice of an excommunicated priest, the solemn high mass has been suspe We will proceed with a low mass.

No sermon was delivered, however, and the mass was at an end before the con-gregation was calm again. The parishiers lingered around the cathedral and watched the deposed priest as he hurried away. None spoke to him.

Call Issued by Member of the New York Board of Trade.

NEW YORK, Nov 3-The members of the New York Board of Trade and Transportation have issued a call for a special meeting, to consider "commer-cial reciprocity." The call is addressed to members of the board who are engaged in manufacturing and is signed by William Carroll, of the American by William Carroll, of the American Leather Company; the Eaton, Cole & Burnham Company, E. H. Cole, treas-urer; the Mergenthaler Linotype Com-pany, P. T. Dodge, president; H. J. Baker & Bro., by W. D. Faris; the National Lead Company, R. P. Rowe, manager; Charles A. Schleren, of Charles A. Sch-eren & Co., and Frank S. Gardener, the eren & Co., and Frank S. Gardener, the secretary of the board. The call reads:

"In view of the active discussion of the expediency and practicability of the broader application of the principle of commercial reciprocity as a means of ex-panding foreign markets for American products, without sacrificing the interests of any of our industries, the under-signed, with the approval af the execu-tive of the board, invite and request all members of the Board of Trade and Transportation who are engaged in manufactures to designate a principal or executive officer in each such firm or corporation, to meet in the board rooms on Thursday, November 7, at 2:30 P. M., for a liberal comparison of views on the subject, to formulate some expression of ent of the meeting and, the seatment of the meeting and, if deemed desirable, to select and recom-mend to the board 10 delegates to the National Reciprocity Convention, which will be held in Washington on November

"The undersigned are aware that differing views of the value of commercial reciprocity are held among manufactur-ers and have not ourselves compared opinions. The meeting, therefore, is called absolutely without prejudice or bias, and those attending will shape conclusions.'

Republicans Claim Better Shape Than for Years.

NO OFF-YEAR CONDITIONS EXIST

Managers on Both Sides Rejuctant About Giving Out Estimates-Close of the Campaign In Other States.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 3.-Following their losing rally here last night, and the receptions to Colonel James G. Kilbourne Democratic candidate for Governor, and the Democratic leaders today, the Democrats are claiming that they will elect part of their ticket in Hamilton County. It is hardly possible that this will affect the local legislative candidates, but it will naterially affect the state ticket if the Democrats should secure part of the couny offices here. The Republicans lost both Duyahoga and Lucas Counties two years ago, when Governor Nash had a plurality of 49,000. Although the result at Cleveland and Toledo is likely to be very close, yet the conditions are not considered so demoralizing as they were two years ago.

The Republicans concede that the result s doubtful in Franklin County, in which the state capital is located. The Democrats are confidently claiming that county, in which both Governor Nash and Colonel Kilbourne reside. There is some opposition to Governor Nash on account of his appointments, and it is asserted that the popularity of Colonel Kilbourne, especially among the workingmen, will add strength to the Democratic ticket in that county. The Republicans can lose both Cuyahoga and Franklin Countles, and still have a majority in the Legis-lature for Senator if they carry Hamilton and Lucas Counties, as seems most prob-

The election this year is for a full state ticket and county tickets, as well as for members of the Legislature. During the last half of the century, the Democrats have elected only four Gov-ernore, and, with a single exception, they were elected in years following Presiden-tial elections. The Republicans have had that elections. The Republicans have had uninterrupted control of the state ever since the first election of McKinley as Governor, in 1891, and in that time they have controlled more of the county and city offices than at any previous period. They deny that any so-called "off-year" conditions exist, and claim to be in better condition for success than for years. The memogers on both sides are more reluctant about giving out estimates than usual. This is due to the uncertainty as to the shortage in the vote on both sides, and the Republicans say that prevents them predicting as closely as usual the extent of their plurality.

The question of local option has been prominently agitated in this campaign, but with the brewers and liquor organizations of the controlled of the controlled of the controlled of the controlled of the campaign, but with the brewers and liquor organizations of the controlled of

Chairman Dick's Appeal.

COLUMBUS, O., Nov. 3.-Chairman Dick tonight issued an appeal to Republicans to 'get out the vote,' saying:
"If this be done, from information received at these beadquarters, we predict the election of Governor Nash and the entire state ticket by a plurality exceeding that of two vars ago, and to the Governor has the contraction of t ing that of two yars ago, and to the Gen-eral Assembly the election of 22, and pos-sibly 25, of the 33 Senators, and 70 certain, with the probability of 30, of the 110 mem-bers of the House of Representatives. thus insuring the return of Joseph B. Foraker to the United States Senate."

PREACHERS SPOKE FOR LOW. Active Part in the Campaign Taken by New York Clergymen. NEW YORK, Nov. 2.- The feature of the local campaign today was the active part taken in it by the pastors of the churches. Thirty-one pastors, clergymen and two leaders of independent church societies advertised themselves to speak on the issues of the election, and all these clergymen took for their subjects the al-leged maiadministration of the present city officers. *Rabbi Schutman, the one Jewish priest whose sermon was reported, urged on his hearers the support of the sion ticket because of the revelations concerning vice in the tenement districts. All Protestant pastors, except two, talked for the fusion ticket, asserting that vice and unsanitary conditions existed here and a change was needed. The exceptions were Dr. Davis G. Wylle, of the Scotch Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. Dr. Vandewater, of St. Andrew's Episcopal Church, who advised their congregations to examine the two theory. to examine the two tickets closely and vote for the best men on them. Henry Frank, of the Metropolitan Independent advised his hearers to "against bosses, whether they came from this city or Tioga County." The Rev. Father J. Ducey, of St. Leo's Roman Catholic Church, was alone in those re-ported who spoke on the election for the Shepard side. One of the features of the fusion cam

One of the features of the fusion cam-paign has been the work of the Women's Campaign Committee. A report issued to-day says this committee had distributed several hundred thousand copies in En-glish and German of a pamphlet pur-porting to be an expose of vice in the city. The Democrats also had a women's campaign committee actively at work dur-ing the canyass but no report of its lining the canvass, but no report of its la-bors has yet appeared.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 3.—The cam-paign just closed in Pennsylvania has atpaign just closed in Pennsylvania has attracted more than the ordinary off-year interest in consequence of the fusion of Democrats and Independent Republicans on candidates for the only two state offices to be filled—State Treasurer and Justice of the Supreme Court. The Independent Republicans, organized under the name of the Union party, joined with the Democrats in the nomination of E. A. Correy, Jr., (Republican) for State Treasurer, and Herman Yerkes (Democrat) for Surey, Jr., (Republican) for State Treasurer, and Herman Yerkes (Democrat) for Supreme Court Justice, against the regular Republican nominees. Frank Harris, for State Treasurer, and William P. Botter, for Supreme Judge. The Fusion leaders are making strong predictions that their candidates will carry the state, while, on the other hand, the regular Republican leaders express confidence in bringing their candidates safely through, though conceding that the majority may be lowered from that of two years ago, when Barnett (Republican) was elected Treasurer by 116,000 majority.

Treasurer by 110,000 majority.

The campaign in Philadelphia has been The campaign in Philadelphia has been unusually active, the interest centering in the fight for District Attorney. The resular Republicans, backed by the city and state administration forces and United States Senators Penrose and Quay, placed in nomination John Weaver for District Attorney, while the Union party and Municipal League named the present incumbent, B. H. Rothermel, a Republican. A faction of the Democratic party, however, refused to join the reformers and placed in regular nomination William Wilkins Carrel, a Democrat and Postmaster of the city during the Cleveland master of the city during the Cleveland Administration. It is generally admitted, however, that the real battle at the polls Tuesday will be between the respective adherents of Weaver and Rothermel. Many prominent Democrats, among them ax-Governor Robert E. Patrison, have been active participants in the campaign in the interest of Rothermel. The latter was sleeted in 1889 by a metority of 7.500. was elected in 1898 by a majority of 73,500, but at that time had the support of the regular Republican forces now opposing

THE PROSPERITY ISSUE. Both Sides in New Jersey Are Claiming Victory.

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.-The Gubernatorial campaign in New Jersey was brought to a close last night with the leaders of both parties claiming victory for their respective candidate. It was one of the respective candidate. It was one of the most stubborn ever fought in the state, the Republicans leaving no stone unturned to hold the state machinery, which they have controlled for nearly a decade, while the Democrats are struggling to take it from them. But sides are to-night claiming victory.

The Republicans base their hopes on two thing—first, the large majority which must be wiped out by the opposition, and, second, the fact that they think the voters of the state, pleased with the prosperous condition of affairs in the Nation, will return a Republican Governor as an eviprominently agitated in this campaign, but with the brewers and liquor organizations on one side and the Ohio Anti-Saloon tions on one side and the Ohio Anti-Saloon League on the other side, this issue is to the present head of the Administration considered a stand-off between the two leading parties. The only large city is practically on the latter issue that the party made its fight.

The Democrats claim victory on the personal popularity of their candidate for Governor, James M. Seymour. He is very popular with the working classes, and his strength is acknowledged by his oppon-ents. He has thrice been elected Mayor of Newark by large majorities.

Both state committees have compiled tables made up from reports from various counties of the state. The Republicans, by their figures, show that Franklin Murphy, their candidate for Governor, who is also chairman of the committee, will be elected by about 10,000 majority. The tables compiled by William B. Gourley, chairman of the Democratic State Committee, show that Mayor Seymour will have about 8000 majority.

THE VOTE IN IOWA. Republicans Figure on a Plurality of 75,000.

DES MOINES, Ia., Nov. 3.—There have been no new developments today in the election outlook beyond the severe change in the weather, which, if continued, is likely to affect the turnout to the polls. Chairman Spence, of the Republican State Committee, estimates a total vote of about 440,000, of which he thinks the Republicans will get 250,000, the Democrats 175,000, the Prohibitionists 14,000, and the remainder scattering. This would give 75,000 plurality for the Republican ticket. and any change from these figures would be caused by the size of the total vote-the larger the total, the larger the Republican plurality.

Frank Q. Stuart, secretary of the Demo cratic State Committee, thinks the Repub lican estimates are too large, but refuses o give any figures of his own. He says locally the Democrats have put up in the various counties their strongest men, and thinks this fact should bring out nearly the full Democratic vote.

J. H. Campbell, chairman of the Prohibition State Committee, says he is sat-isfied with the prospects for a large vote for the Prohibition ticket, the largest, in fact, ever cast for that ticket in this state tes the minimum vote of his party at 25,000.

Light Vote Expected in Nebraska LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 3.—Yesterday's storm played havoc with the registration in this city, which shows a falling off of over 2000, compared with a year ago. The same report comes from other large towns In the state. This is not encouraging to the Republicans, but as the same apathy s shown in the country, they assert they see no cause for alarm. The only rally of importance tomorrow will be at South Omaha, where W. J. Bryan will make a number of speeches at night. At the two state headquarters the respective chairmen sald tonight they saw no reason to change previously made. Both committees predict a light vote.

Both Sides in Kentucky Claim It. LOUISVILLE, Ky., Nov. I .- As the four Democratic candidates for United States Senator in Kentucky-ex-Governor Me-Creery, Congressman Wheeler, Congress-Smith and Judge Cantrill-decided not to make a canvass from the stump, and as Senator Deboe was the only an-nounced Republican candidate, the campaign in this state preliminary to the election of Tuesday, when half a State Senate and a new Lower House will be chosen, has been without special feature In Louisville the Democratic and Repub lican executive commmittees have worked hard for their municipal tickets, as the Mayoralty, now held by a Democrat, is at stake. She was born in 1868, a daughter to the late Jay Gould, the celebrated financier. She took the law course of New York University in the women's class. At the outbreak of the Spanish-American War she gave $100,000 to the United States Government, to be used to relieve the sufferings of the sick and wounded. Shortly afterward she gave $25,000 to the Woman's National Relief Association, When Camp Wikoff was established and soldiers were landed there by the thousands, including sick and wounded, Helen Gould was one of the first She made the care of the sick and convalescent soldlers her personal duty, and gave $50,000 for needed supplies. Her residence at 579 Fifth avenue and her country home near Tarrytown were turned into hospitals for sick and wounded soldiers. She is the founder of the Sallors' Club, near the Brooklyn Navy-Tard, to which she has given more than $400,000. She made her home the temporary hospital after the Windsor Hotel fire, and was among the first to give money for the relief of Gaiveston. As an active partisan of education, she has contributed handsomely to Columbia University, has endowed many educational stablishments, besides privately aiding many young people in their studies. Associated Press is authoritatively informed, to present today to Tewfik Pasha. Ottoman Minister of Foreign Affairs, a note asking how the Turkish Government proposes to pay the Lorando claim and lemanding the execution of the Sultan's rade dealing with that matter. The note will also require satisfaction regarding the rights of France, which are defined in the various capitulations and treaties, and which in some cases have not been re spected and in others have been encroached upon by Turkey. This declara-tion of what has been done bears out the statement cabled yesterday to the Associated Press about the intentions of the French Government.

Admiral Gaillard is expected to reach his destination tomorrow. The Foreign Office has received no news from him since his division left the other divisions of the Mediterranean squadron en route for Turkish waters, four days ago. It is pointed out that the absence of news is not surprising, as the instructions to Ad-niral Galliard were to steer due south and to avoid passing in sight of Bonifacio Corsica, or traversing the Straits of Mes-sina, in order to prevent his movements being signaled. The vessels of the division carried only a normal supply of coal, but this would be much more than nough to enable them to steam 1500 miles the estimated distance they must cover before reaching their destination.

It is expected that Admiral Gaillard will be joined en route by the torpedo cruiser Condor, which is stationed in Cretan waters, and may be met by the torpedo dispatch-boat Vantour, which is stationed at Constantinople. It is also probable that the armed cruiser Admiral Charner, which arrived at Port Said Oc-tober II from the far East, is being held there, in order to join Admiral Gaillard, if needed. It is also said that three other to reinforce him, should their presence

It appears that the Greek warships Paara, Hydra, Spetsal and Eurotas are now at Smyrna, where is also the Russian Mediterranean squadron. It is be-lieved that the British squadron, now at Piraeus, Greece, will be ordered to proceed to Beyrout, Syria,

Mr. Redm was accompanied by Patrick McHugh and Thomas O'Donnell, his fellow-delegates from the National League. William Mc-Adoo, ex-assistant Secretary of the Navy, was chairman of the evening and introduced Mr. Redmond, who said in part: "When I last spoke here, Ireland was torn by dissensions. She was divided, distracted and weak. The great leader who had banded the Irish race together all over the world and had brought the cause of Ireland to the very threshold of victory had disappeared, the great movement which his genius had created had been wrecked, the hopes of the Irish race had been dashed to the ground and the enemies of Ireland were exultant and triumphant. Tonight thank God, the situation is changed. It is true unfortunately, that the grave cannot give up its dead; it is true that there is no great political genius today presiding over the councils of the Irish Nation, but over the councils of the Irish Nation, but the Irish people themselves have come together again.

object in coming here is, in the first place, to proclaim the unity of the Irish people at home; secondly, to ex-plain the policy which these people at nome have unanimously adopted, and finally, to say to the Irish race in Amer-ica that if they approve of that policy they ought to support it, but that whether they support it or not-whether the Irish people at home are left in this crisis of their country's history to carry on this struggle ugainst England without the aid of their brethren throughout the world or not, we at home are disciplined enough and strong enough and carnest enough to carry on this movement ourselves, and at any cost we shall do

Mr. Redmond said that the policy of the United Irish League movement was to advance the national cause of Irishmen by making the government of ire-land by England in every department both in Parliament and out of Parlia ment, difficult and dangerous, and, finally, impossible. He said it was proposed to accomplish this by means of United Irish League organization, lineal successor of the Land League. Mr. McHugh and Mr. O'Donnell lowed Mr. Redmond in speaking, and resolutions were adopted indersing the policy of the league and pledging the sup port of the meeting to its policy.

Exciting Experience of San Francisco Balloonists.

IN THE AIR NEARLY TWO HOURS

Once They Were Carried Out to Sen. but Were Blown Back Over the Land-Finally Rescued by a Farmer.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 1.-The nine occupants of the car of the balloon which escaped from this city yesterday afternoon returned safely today. The balloon landed near Pescadero, 50 miles from this city and but a short distance from the ocean. The balloon was in the air nearly two hours, and at one time was out at sea, but was blown back over the land.

Those who made the involuntary trip were: Ed P. Dudley, the aeronaut; A. L. Dodge, Ed Foster, Jr., Walter Leon, C. P. Vildecoq, J. A. Leonurd, M. L. Howarth, John A. M. Swift and Mrs. J.

When the balloon broke its bonds is South of Redwood City it struck another air current which took it towards the ocean over the summit of the Coast Range. Nine miles from Lahonda and about six miles from Pesca-dero lies Beatty Thompson's place. Thompson was up and out when the balloon came along by Wurr's mill, the grappling hooks slipping through the trees and raking along brushy patches of ground. By this time much of the the power was weak. The rope that had snapped and caused the captive to run away was sweeping along the ground, and when it came within Thompson's reach he grasped it and bore down with all his weight. This stopped the flight. Soon the balloon was brought to the ground, and the overloyed passengers and the aeronaut alighted and took supper with Thompson

A. L. Dodge, one of the passengers, describing the trip, said that the balloon first started toward Oakland, and after circling about for a time drifted south-ward and became stationary for a short period. Then, in response to a breeze from the eastward, it salled over the San Mateo hills and stood far out over the ocean. The hearts of all the occupants of the wicker cage were filled with fear as the prospect of being dumped into the ocean stared them in the face. Twise, according to Dodge's story the balloon dipped close to the surface of the water, but rose again each time to n considerable altitude. Finally, a breeze from the sea caught the balloon and carried it back over the land and, after dragging the cage through the tops of a grove of trees, landed on a side hill six miles from Pescadero.

"It was a terrible experience," said Dodge, "and I wouldn't undergo the same adventure again for any consideration. Everybody was more or less shaky, while the lady passenger and two or three of the men were so frightened and sick that they sat in the bottom of the bas ket throughout the trip. We were all pretty glad when we finally landed without sustaining any injuries except from
