SOLDIERS' XMAS BOXES.

How Those Sent to the Philippines Should Be Prepared.

In response to an inquiry as to how to send Christmas boxes to soldiers in the Philippines, Colonel W. Hi Jordan has furnished The Oregonian with the following Army circular giving the necessary data:

"The Secretary of War, having author-ized the Quartermaster-General to forward from San Francisco any Christmas boxes or boxes of reading matter which may be delivered there for officers and soldiers in the Philippines, it is requested that the following directions be accurateobserved in order to insure promtp ac-

"L Boxes should be consigned to Major O. F. Long, General Superintendent of Army Transport Service, San Francisco, for whom intended, with the company and regiment or other organization to which he belongs, should be plainly marked on the box; also the notation, 'Christmas box' or Reading matter, as the case may be. Example: Private John Brown, Company C. Thirty-eighth Infantry, Ma-

la, P. I. Christmas box."

2. These boxes should contain no perishable matter, should not exceed 25 pounds in weight, and all freight or express charges must be prepaid on them to San Francisco. The Quartermaster's Department assumes no responsibility for the condition of these boxes when delivered, but will exercise every care to de-liver them safely and in good order." The transport Crook will sali from New York, December I, for Manila, and will

COMMERCE OF GERMANY.

Effect of the Overwhelming Competition of the United States.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 19.-The State Department has received from Consul-General Frank Mason, at Berlin, a long report upon the commerce and industries of Germany. Netwithstanding the fact that in 1900 Germany passed the culmi-Athletes Are Training for Wrestling nation point of a period of phenomensi development and entered upon a period of reaction and depression, he says, a giance at the statistics of her foreign commerce shows that in respect to bulk and value of exports and imports, her foreign trade that year was the largest in the history of the empire.

The two outside influences fo mementous importance to the present situation fin Germany, eays Mr. Mason, are the overwhelming competition of the United States and the tariff legislation now pending in the Reichstag. The experiment of recent years, he states, has shown be-
