Today the Grand "Doll Show"

Between the hours of 8 A. M. and 5 P. M. All day yesterday a continuous stream of little tots, mothers, sisters and grandmas, bringing in the exhibition Dolls, until we thought all the Dollies in town were going to compete, and all dressed in their very best. Big dolls, little dolls, comical dolls, belonging to hundreds of little mothers around town, combined with our own massive display, makes a Doll Show worth coming miles to see. Don't deny the children the pleasure of attending. The eight grand prizes will be awarded at 5 P. M. on the third floor, the following ladies acting as judges: Mrs. J. Wesley Ladd, Mrs. H. L. Pittock, Mrs. Fred B. Rothschild.

NOW FOR CHRISTMAS

Thanksgiving over, all thoughts are now to the commanding occasion, not quite four weeks away—Time for the gathering of holiday gifts—Not a bit too early, as experience has taught, and of course, all roads lead here because this is the unrivaled holiday goods store—Three principal reasons join in making this the best Christmas store. First—The greatest stocks, which means the greatest varieties. Second—Range of prices to satisfy every purse.
