IDAHO SENATOR INFORMS POPU-LISTS HE WAS QUIT THEM.

He Will Amliate With the Democrats in Future-His Letter to the Populist Committee.

BOISE, Idaho, Nov. 28.—United States Senator Henry Heitfeld, of this state, has addressed a letter to D. H. Andrews, of this city, chairman of the Populist State Central Committee, announcing his withdrawal from the Populist party and his affiliation with the Democracy. After re-citing the history of the Populist party, the letter says:

"Since both the Democratic and People's parties are now striving for the same purpose, I am unable to see why we should keep up separate organizations, since by combining forces in name as well as in fact we can better subserve the interests of the great principles we advocate."

He winds up by asking Mr. Andrews to call the state committee together, expressing the hope that it will approve his ac-tion and unite with him in an affiliation with the dominant element of the Demowhen seen tonight about the letter, Chairman Andrews indicated that he did not approve of Senator Heitfeld's action, and that he would reply to the Senator's jetter instead of calling the committee to-ALBANT BEAT M'MINNVILLE. Victory Gives It Collegiate Athletic Union Championship.

ALBANY, Or., Nov. 28,-The closing letic League of Oregon was played here yesterday before a large crowd, between Albany College and McMinnville College. Albany's splendid team work told in a marked manner. A 60-yard run by Francis in the first half was followed by a goal by Morrison, for Albany, and a 20-yard run by Coates with interference by Stewart, in the second half, added another goal to the record. Coates kicked a goal and the game ended il to 0 in favor of Albany College, which is proud in the distinction of being cham-pion of the Collegiate Athletic League The other members of the league are Monmouth, Dallas and Newberg. Until this game, McMinnville had won every game of the season. Two of its players, Plikington and Adams, are among the strongest players in the state.

Long Hair Ayer's Hair Vigor doesn't make every one's hair grow to a remarkable length. But it does sometimes produce the most marvelous results.

This is because it is a hairfood. It feeds the hair, nourishes it; hence stops falling of the hair and always restores color to gray hair.

"Ayer's Hair Vigorstopped my hair from falling and made it grow, until now it is 45 inches long." Mrs. A. Boydston, Atchison, Kans. J. C. AYER CO., Lowell, Mass.

Messrs. Earle and Magnesen.
