THE BEST INFORMATION.

The Oregonian's Handbook contains the best and most available information of a strictly reliable character, relating especially to Portland and the entire Columbia River watershed. The book is printed on enameled book paper, it contains over 150 illustrations, and it is attractively bound. The price by mail to any postoffice in the United States or Canada is 7 cents a copy

GOOD WORK OF WOMEN'S UNION.-At yesterday's meeting of the Women's show.
Union a full attendance was present. The president Mrs. C. R. Templeton, called the meeting to order, and all the committees reported on their various lines of work. Davis streets, which has enrolled over 70 pupils. The kitchen-garden meets Monday afternoons with a class of more Monday afternoons with a class of more than 50. It is a most interesting class and a pretty sight to see over 50 little ones learning the various arts of house-keeping. Much of the work is merrily done to the accompaniment of the piano and in song. The sewing class meets Tuesday afternoons and at that time transfer to the control of the piano and in song. The sewing class meets are the sewing class meets are the sewing class meets are the sewing about here have gone up the valley and a cold snap will bring them hack. nearly 30 little girls are taught sewing. nearly 30 little girls are taught sewing, tiny fingers eagerly trying to excel each other. This most excellent work is under a committee from the Women's Union and led by the chairman of the committee, Mrs. S. A. Brown. The union is much gratified over the success of the School of Domestic Science recently opened at 602 Washington street, and hopes to graduate the purity from the hopes to graduate the pupils from the Industrial School into this school. The The physical culture class has opened in the boarding-house under the leadership of Dr. Jennie Collin. The household committee reported some new improvements to be made in the boarding-hor A TRIO OF SMALLPOX CASES.-Three men suffering from emailpox were discovered in the city, yesterday, and taken to the pesthouse. One of them had just arrived from Idaho, and the two others were found in a workshop, from which a man afflicted with smallpox was taken to the pesthouse about two weeks ago All the men in the place were vaccinated at that time, and the two discovered with a very mild form of the disease to-day were the ones who had worked near the man who was formerly removed. The mild nature of their attack and the fact that none of the other men in the place have shown any symptoms of the discase, gave an idea of the benefits of being vaccinated. There are five small-pox patients now in the pesthouse, but pox patients now in the pestiones, two will be discharged in a day or two, two will be discharged are not serious. It and the other cases are not serious. It is more than likely that there will be some patients in the pesthouse for the remainder of the Winter, as cases keep straying in from the upper country as long as Winter lasts.

BRAVERY HANDSOMELY REWARDED .-Eugene Shelby, local manager of Wells, Fargo & Company's Express Company, resterday received a letter from Charles F. Charles, the express messenger who so bravely and successfully stood off the men who attempted to rob the express men who attempted to rob the express car on the Oregon & California Railroad near Cottage Grove, some six weeks ago. Mr. Charles has since that time been transferred to the Central Pacific line; with his home station at San Francisco, where his relatives live. He writes to Mr. Shelby that on Thanksgiving day he was called into the office of the manager of the company in San Francisco, and was presented with a handsome gold was called into the office of the manager of the company in San Francisco, and was presented with a handsome gold medal, a gold watch-chain and charm with diamond setting, and a check for to attend if in city. It was in evidence that Wilson realily owned the horse, and that the animal strayed about one year ago, and was found by Strebin, but no claiming the property of the strayed about one year ago, and was found by Strebin, but no claiming the property of the strayed about one year ago. and was found by Strein, but no claim-ant appeared until some months after-ward, when he met Wilson, who was out driving. Wilson recognized his lost horse, but Strebin would not give the animal to him until a sum had been paid for board, horse feed, etc. In the inter-val Wilson secured temporary, recognizing val Wilson secured temporary possession of the horse. Yesterday, Wilson was of the horse. Yesterday, Wilson held in $250 ball for the grand jury.

THE COMING OF THE SMELT.-Columbia River smelt were in the markets yesterday. Usually only a few pounds are caught at first, but this time some 75 pounds came in. They looked very tempting and at first sold for 50 cents. The fact that the smelt are arriving in large numbers may be considered to indicate that there is to be no freeze-up this Winter, but, should a cold snap come, they will just fall back and wait for warmer weather. They will probably be down to 25 cents per pound in a short time, and after a while 5 cents will buy a whole lot of them, and they will be just as good then.

STOLE HIS DIAMOND STUD.-John Seed, the well-known contractor, was among the victims of the gang of thieves who were gathering diamonds at the Expo-sition building last Friday evening. He had a handsome diamond pin, for which he paid $85, extracted from his scarf, and consequently has a grievance against the thieves. The best thing, apparently, for people who have diamond pins or studs is to keep them locked up in a safe, and take them out once in a while to admire their gitter. They will last much longer, kept this way, and the owner will have the sole enjoyment of them.

BRUTALLY BEAT A HORSE.-C. Merrigus, the owner of a ranch in Multnomah County, was fined $25 yesterday by Municipal Judge Cameron, charged with cruelty to a horse. The evidence was that Merri-gus drove a balky horse last Saturday night on Third street near Yamhill, and his Journey, he whipped him excessively. Merrigus pleaded guilty, but asserted that he did not intend to be cruel.

HARBOR LIMITS TOO SMALL -A meeting of the Council committee on commerce, landings and wharves was held yesterday at the request of Harbormaster Laird. Mr. Laird was in attendance ac-companied by Pilot Empkens and Captain Popc. They explained to the committee that, owing to the great increase in the commerce of this port, the present limits of the harbor do not furnish sufficient accommodation for the shipping, and asked that the harbor lines be extended to some point below Swan Island; and that the Harbormaster be given authority to com-pel ships which have completed their cargoes to anchor in the lower harbor These requests being deemed reasonable and proper by the committee, they agreed to make a report to the Council recommending that they be granted, and City Attorney Long was directed to precity attorney Long was directed to pre-pare an ordinance in accordance there-with, which will be presented at the meeting of the Council tomorrow. There is enough room in the harbor of Port-land to accommodate a much larger com-merce than the city has at present, but it is not all included within the present harbor limits. This is the first time the committee on commerce, landings and wharves of the present Council-Messrs. Nealond, Branch and Bronaugh-has had occasion to hold a meeting, but the members are likely to be called together more frequently in future. Fog Too Much For Ducks.-Sunday was a regular sportsman's day for shooting ducks, and the game hogs stood no show. A large number of hunters went out, and they all proved to be genuine sportsmen, and shot only about three ducks apiece. > SLEPT IN A MAIL CAR.-C. R. Brady and F. W. Williams were in the Municipal Court yesterday charged with tres-pass in having slept in a mail car in the yards of the Terminal Company, Sunday night. Brady is lame, and he stated that a railroad man had told him and Williams that they could sleep in the car. "Do you men belong to this part of the country?" asked the Judge. "We're from the East." Brady and Williams replied, in chorus. "That's just it," said the Judge. "You land here broke and become a public charge soon afterward. You know you had no right to sleep in that car. It is just from such young men as you that we get our hold-up men. Brady is discharged, on condition he leaves town now. Williams is fined $50."

HELP FOR THE DESERVING .- The Portland Medical Mission, at 1 North Fourth sirect, has, in connection with its other philanthropic and charitable work, a free employment agency where appli-cations for positions will be attended to without charge. The mission also ex-tends a helping hand to the needy, cheer and hope to the friendless, medical care to the sick and food to the hungry. No truly deserving person is ever turned away. The mission also conducts a lodging-house where rooms and baths can be obtained at a slight cost. Donations of all kinds will be thankfully received. The home is in charge of Warren J. Buradvisor.

IS THIS THE LONE ROBBER?

Man Arrested Suspected of Being Slavin Road Highwayman.

A well-dressed young man named W. F. Paul, who said that he lived near the Slavin road, was arrested yesterday by Detectives Snow and Kerrigan on Third street on suspicion of being implicated in some of the hold-ups which have recently occurred along the Slavin and Oswego roads. Paul is about 23 years old, tall and slim, and he admitted that he had not worked at any occupation for some little

A farmer named Short saw Paul at the police station and unhesitatingly identified him as the highwayman who was recently seen to hold up an elderly man on the Slavin road. Policemen and detectives because the animal would not proceed on have been working on the case for the past 10 days, and they say that suspicton strongly points toward Paul as one of the guilty men. They will endeavor to have those who have been held up on the bridge will be closed today in order to make connection between the new bridge and that part of the old structure which Paul today. #### THE LATE ROBERT H. WEEKS.

Robert H. Weeks, the well-known hardware merchant, who died in this city on November 25, was born in Canada in 1886.

At an early age he moved to Danville, Ill., where he learned the trade of printer. Imbued with the spirit of adventure, he crossed the plains, arriving at The Dalles, Or., in the Fall of 1861. He there engaged in business with Thomas Miller, a fellow immigrant and friend. In 1863 he visited several new mining camps, finally settling in 1864 in Silver City, Litabo, engaging, with J. R. Brigham, in the tinware, stove and hardware business. In Septem-ber, 1881, he moved to this city, where he lived continuously, engaged in the above-named line of bush In 1868, he married Miss Annie Tompkins, of Albany, Or., who is only surviving member, of his family. Nettie, an only daughter, died in this city in February, 1896. Mr. Weeks possessed the attributes that contribute to make an honorable name and record. Weeks helped organize Owy-

bre Lodge, No. 5, A. F. & A. M. at Silver City, Idaho, and was a prominent member thereof, having served as master of the lodge for four years. He was also a member and past master of Portland Lodge, No. 55, A. F. & A. M., under whose auspices his funeral was Footprints were deep in the soil. It is evident that there are some smart second-story thieves now in the city. One of the neighbors states that she observed person in the next yard Sunday night about 6:30 o'clock, near the trellis work, but, thinking it was one of the family, thought no more about the matter at that time.

But There Is Great Need for AmerieanBanking Facilities.

F. J. Morse, who formerly resided in this city, but now divides his time be-tween Japan and the United States, is Portland and is a guest at the Hotel
Portland. Mr. Morse said that Japan is beginning to recover from the hard times which followed the financial depression of a few months ago, and that business was becoming normal.

"One result of the recent troubles in China was to throw the cotton spinners of Japan out of employment," said Mr. Morse last night. "This industry has heretofore given employment to a large number of people, in fact whole families are often found engaged in it. The raw cotton comes from China and the United States, is spun into cotton yarn by the Japanese, and is then sent to China to be made into cloth. The unsettled con-ditions in China resulted in the milis closing down, and in consequence there is n demand for the products of the Japanese
