WEATHER CONDITIONS.

Fair and cool weather has prevailed today in the North Pacific States, the temperatures averaging nearly 10 degrees below normal.

The area of high pressure, central over British Columbia during the last several days, and which has caused the present cool weather in this district, is slowly moving eastward this evening. The pressure has begun to fall slightly along the Northwest Washington coast, and a storm center is apparently moving in from the ocean, although not yet sufficiently developed to be given much weight in the forecasts.

The indications are increasing cloudiness in this district Friday, with probably rain or snow west of the Cascades. It will be warmer in Western Oregon and Western Washington.

WEATHER FORECASTS.

Forecasts made at Portland for the 28 hours ending at midnight Friday, December 13:

Portland and vicinity—Increasing cloudiness, probably followed by snow or rain; warmer; northerly winds, becoming southerly.

Western Oregon and Western Washington—Increasing cloudiness, probably followed by snow or rain; warmer; northerly winds, becoming southerly.

Eastern Oregon and Southern Idaho—Fair and continued cold weather; variable winds.

Eastern Washington and Northern Idaho—Increasing cloudiness; winds becoming southerly.

A. B. WOLLABER, Acting Forecast Official.

Evidence of Walla Walla's Growth.

WALLA WALLA, Dec. 12.—The postoffice receipts of a city are official evidence of its growth. In 1896, the total receipts of the Walla Walla postoffice were $12,747 19. In 1900, the receipts were $17,437 17, an increase of $4689 98. The receipts of the first three quarters of this year were $13,896 27. Postmaster Brunton says that the receipts for the entire year will nearly, if not quite, reach $20,000.

Walla Walla City contained 10,694 inhabitants according to the last Federal census. The Walla Walla postoffice serves, in addition to the population of the city, a large number of farmers. Postmaster Brunton estimates the total population regularly served by the Walla Walla office at about 15,000.

New American Cardinals.

NEW YORK, Dec. 12.—A dispatch from Rome to the Tribune says:

To maintain the decision of the pope not to create any new cardinals in America while Cardinal Gibbons lives, and satisfy at the same time the urgent solicitations which some have even attributed to President Roosevelt, it has been suggested to create Archbishop Ireland a cardinal, to reside in Rome, and to make Archbishop Corrigan a cardinal, reserved "in pectore" for announcement after the death of Cardinal Gibbons. It is reported that Dr. Farley, auxiliary bishop of New York, is now here pushing this plan.
