MEERSCHAUM PIPES. There is as much difference between the meerschaum pipes usually sold and those carried by our house that it's easy to see the superior quality of ours.

TREES FOR MONUMENTS

"PLANT SEQUOIAS TO LAST 4000 YEARS," SAYS L. L. HAWKINS.

He Gives His Ideas on Beautifying City's Parks and Erecting Memorial for Year 1901.

Park Commissioner L. L. Hawkins has a project in view whereby a series of monuments may be erected, which will endure for at least 4000 years.

"The oldest living thing on earth is the sequoia tree," Mr. Hawkins said yesterday.

SALEM, Or., Dec. 20.—Superintendent of Public Instruction J. H. Ackerman will go to Portland tomorrow to attend the meeting of the Oregon Historical Society.

NO RAILROAD TO NEHALEM

And It Remains an Isolated if Productive Region.

John Campbell, a stock raiser of the Nehalem Valley, who is City Surveyor of Albina before consolidation, is visiting Portland.

"Vernonia, near where I live, is 23 miles distant from the Northern Pacific at Seaside," he said, at the Portland yesterday.

Although the Nehalem Valley is heavily wooded in places, there are very few wild animals to prey upon the stock, he says.

"There is no known cure for the dog that has been 'saimoned,'" he said, "and the animal begins immediately to droop."

CLASH IN MUNICIPAL COURT

Deputies of City and District Attorneys Resume Hostilities.

There was a resumption of hostilities between the District Attorney's office and the City Attorney's office in the Municipal Court yesterday afternoon.

The exchange of courtesies took place when Officer Church asked that the case against John Fuog, charged with operating a slot machine, be transferred from the city to the county docket.

Assistant District Attorney Gates said that he could not consent to the transfer until he had consulted his chief, Assistant City Attorney Davis.

The Public Defender argued Monday before Judge Cameron. It is understood that the case will be a test one, and that the owners of the slot machines are back-
