FORTY-NINE TO NOTHING

MICHIGAN'S DECISIVE VICTORY OVER STANFORD AT PASADENA.

Playing of the Ann Arbor Men Was So Fast and Furious That the Californians Were Bewildered.

PASADENA, Cal., Jan. 1.—By the decisive score of 49 to 0, the Michigan University football team today defeated Stanford University. The score is quite in proportion to the general superiority of the Eastern men at the game of football. It does not, however, tell the story of Stanford's desperate but futile efforts against defeat. Michigan's superior knowledge of the game showed in every play. At kicking, general team work, running, tackling and bucking the line, the Michigan men excelled. Perhaps the strongest feature of their playing was the phenomenal punting by Sweeley, Michigan's right end. In every exchange of punts Stanford lost ground, which she could not regain. In the first half Stanford showed well for the first 20 minutes, forcing Michigan's line for small gains and holding her opponents when they went against her line. Gradually the Michigan boys forced the ball down the field for steady gains through center and around the left end. By a series of brilliant plays that never failed to score, and again by the most superb team work ever shown on a football field in California, Michigan took the ball to Stanford's three-yard line. Here the Californians took a determined stand, and, encouraged by the shouts of their partisans, withstood the terrible battering of their line until they secured the ball on downs, and then began a systematic and determined assault on Michigan's invulnerable line. Stanford tried every trick known to their men to advance, only to resort to punting with consequent loss of ground. Again Michigan hammered the line for steady gains. Clark, Stanford's left end, was disabled in a fierce scrimmage, and was replaced by Preston. Michigan's star fullback, Snow, scored the first touchdown, and Shorts kicked a goal. Score: Michigan 6, Stanford 0. Three times in the first half Michigan succeeded in sending a man over the line, but once failing to add a goal. The first half ended with the score: Michigan 17, Stanford 0.

The second half was an exhibition of fast football. Michigan went at their opponents with all the knowledge of the game and the weight of their players. They hit Stanford's line in the middle and they went around the ends. They advanced 10, 15 and 20 yards on a play, on fake passes, fake kicks and every other known football device. In fact, so fast and fierce was their play that Stanford was bewildered, and knew not how to stop the encroachment on her goal. Once or twice again the Californians held the conquerers for downs, but the arrested progress of the Ann Arbor men was extremely brief. Again and again Snow for Michigan went over the line for touchdowns, and Shorts kicked goal until 49 points had been scored. For Michigan the brightest star in her ranks was Snow at fullback, though he scarcely eclipsed Sweeley and Hernstern. Traeger, for Stanford, played a brilliant game, his tackling being one of the features.

The day was perfect, though possibly a trifle warm for football. The field upon which the teams met was as level as a floor, but very dusty. The crowd, the largest that ever attended an athletic event in Southern California, numbered about 7000. It presented all the animation and much more of color than the average football crowd.

Ilwaco Eleven Won.

ILWACO, Wash., Jan. 1.—The game of football here today between Ilwaco and Fort Canby resulted in favor of the home team by a score of 13 to 0.

EASY TO WIN MEDALS.

Poor Work on the Alleys of Multnomah Club.

The medals went cheap in the weekly bowling contest at the Multnomah Club. The scratch men won them with the low score of 688. Four teams, including the winners, bowled on Monday night. Bailey made a single run of 69, but the remainder of his games were rather poor. Rauert made a total of 200, but the others on his team gave him no support. Harry Montgomery bowled a good game, and now the committee is beginning to imagine that Montgomery's low scores of the past few weeks may have been for a purpose. He wanted a liberal allowance, and he got nearly the limit.

Only two teams showed up on Tuesday evening. They were Ball's men and the "alley poundera." It was reported that Holmes had taken his men out to see the disappearance of the old year. That 688 score looked easy for the two teams that did make their appearance. Even Churchman's men thought they had a chance. Habighorst made the highest total, 188, but the rest of them were not there. After it was all over, and the medals had been awarded, the Tuesday nighters blamed their work on the change of lights in the alleys, and said that they could not see. That isn't much of an excuse for not being able to make 689. Next week the competition will be keen. The scratch men have won the medals two times going now, and if some one doesn't brace up next week, the bowling committee will have to invest in some new jewelry.

BUTTE AND HELENA WILL JOIN.

Prospects That Montana Nines Will Enter Northwest League.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 1.—Definite advices were received here today that Helena and Butte had been admitted to the Pacific Northwest League. Although the question of rates has not been settled to the entire satisfaction of the league managers, there is some prospect that it will be. The Helena club has received word from Charles S. Fee, general passenger agent of the Northern Pacific, that he would endeavor to give a rate that would be satisfactory.

[President Lucas has been negotiating for some time with the Montana baseball officials with a view to securing Butte and Helena for the Pacific Northwest League. The teams have been asked to join, and the only question was that of securing satisfactory rates. If these are assured, the six-team league is assured.]

SAILORS COULDN'T SCORE.

Portland Wins Football Game by Four to Nothing.

After a hard-fought game, attended by quite a crowd of spectators, the doughty tars of the Seamen's Institute could do nothing with the Portland Football Club at the association football match yesterday, at the Bishop Scott Academy grounds, and the result was: Portland 4, Institute 0. The sailors played pluckily, but they were outclassed by the checkerboard-like combination of the shore folks.

Although the game was slated at 10:30 o'clock the kick-off did not take place until 11:19 o'clock, and the crowd waited 49 minutes in the cold. The Portlands were not to blame, as they were ready to start on time, but the sailors were kept at work on their ships until the last minute, and consequently were late in starting. This should be remedied in future games. The referee should blow the whistle on time, else interest in the sport will lag.

Portland started by kicking up hill, and Martin replied by returning the leather nearly to the Portland goal, and the contest waxed warm for the first 10 minutes, mostly in Portland territory. Shot after shot was sent to the backs, Municipal Judge Cameron and Rae, but they were returned every time. Then Jim Mackie got the ball by a pretty bit of play and ran it close to the sailors' goal, but missing the chance by three feet. Shots at the sailors' goal by King, Young and Jim Mackie followed, but no score resulted.

When ends were changed and the Portlands kicked down hill, they had their opponents completely at their mercy. Elliott, Barnes and Martin, however, made a gallant defense until King and Jim Mackie got the ball, shot it ahead, and Young scored the first goal. In the meantime Judge Cameron had elected to play forward, and his place at back was taken by Honeyman, Jr., who made a number of good stops, and frequently took the ball from opposing forwards. Captain King was the next to send the leather through, and in three minutes afterward King scored the third goal by a dashing piece of play, in which he tore past the whole line of Institute forwards.

Give and take play followed, and twice the sailors ran away with the ball, but they could not pass the back division. Judge Cameron then caught the leather by a stop kick, and dribbled the ball within three yards of the opposite goal, but Hebford prevented the score. About the end of the half King caught the ball in midfield, passed it to Young, and a voice with the dash of the brine in it called out: "Watch that boy with the red sweater. He can shoot for goal." This referred to Young, but the warning came too late, for Young sent in a shot that Hebford could not catch, and the fourth goal was scored. That ended it. The field was dry, and the Portlands excelled in combination play, in which Young and King bore off first honors. Jim Mackie played a clean, aggressive game, as also did Martin Bloxsome and Imley for the sailors:

Bernstein Bested White.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 1.—Joe Bernstein, of New York, was awarded the decision over Tommy White, of Chicago, today, at the end of 15 rounds before the West End Club. The decision in the opinion of many was an injustice to the Chicago boxer. White landed repeatedly with left jabs throughout the fight. In the early rounds Bernstein attempted to rush, but left counters, beautifully timed, stopped him. In every round White landed repeatedly with his left on Bernstein's face. Bernstein would rally near the end of each round, and for about 30 seconds would rush and rough matters, doing, however, little or no damage to White.

Gift to Employes.

CHICAGO, Jan. 1.—In recognition of the services rendered the firm, and with the desire of giving its workers some share over and above their wages, the Crane Company, the manufacturing concern of which Richard T. Crane is president, distributed among its employes the sum of $125,000 as a New Year's gift. Every person in the employ of the company, from office boys up to the treasurer—3500 men and women in all—receive a sum equivalent to 5 per cent of the money each earned in 1901.

RELIANCE IS THE VICTOR

ders caused the spectators to fill the air with urging cheers. The playing was clean, and free from unnecessary roughness, and there was little disposition to wrangle and question the decisions of the officials, who were perfectly fair and conscientious. It was a gentlemanly exhibition of sport, and the game was one of the closest ever seen on Multnomah Field. Although the local players seemed to do better work than their opponents, there were critical times when they went to pieces, making victory out of the question. Had it not been for Sanders' unfortunate fumble, the score would have been 6 to 6, for the visitors found it impossible to buck Multnomah down the field. The work of Captain Kerrigan and George McMillan was of a high order, especially so, because both men were considerably bruised early in the game. Dolph sustained a severe shoulder bruise early in the first half, but played a gritty game throughout, as did Kirkley, who was pitted against Hamilton in the first half. Downs was unaccustomed to the end position, but did clever work, except when running down under punts.

Story of the Game.

The game began at 2:45 o'clock, Multnomah kicking off to Reliance's 15-yard line. The Californians could make no impression on Multnomah's line, and Percy punted for 40 yards. A series of scrimmages, in which Downs, Dolph, Sanders and Pratt played an important part, landed the oval on Reliance's 17-yard line, where Multnomah had to give it up on downs. Reliance battered Multnomah's right wing for a total of 21 yards, but was finally held for lack of yardage. Sanders made a magnificent punt of 40 yards, and Percy returned a short kick from behind his own goal-line. Kirkley fell on the ball, and Multnomah tried for a touchdown, with only 12 yards to go. The ball went back to Reliance on downs, and Percy punted out of danger. During the remainder of the half, the ball surged to and fro near mid-field.

In the second half, Reliance kicked off, and, on the third play, Downs got away for his 70-yard run, and Multnomah was within scoring distance again. Instead of attempting line plays, both teams adopted a punting game, and one of the prettiest battles ever seen on Multnomah Field ensued. After the Californians made their touchdown, Dr. Woodruff kicked off for M. A. A. C., but time was soon called, with the ball in Multnomah's possession, near the middle of the field.

Following are expressions of opinion on the game:

How the Men Lined-Up.

Officials—C. E. McDonell, of M. A. A. C., and H. O. Stickney, a Harvard graduate; linemen, Heardman and Russ; timekeepers, McAlpin and Pete Smith. Time of halves, 25 and 20 minutes. Attendance, 2000.

Opinions of the Game.

Dr. W. G. Woodruff, of M. A. A. C.—It was hard luck to lose the game, after our team outplayed Reliance from start to finish. We had the ball within their 20-yard limit several times, while they were unable to buck us down the field at all. Sanders' fumbling was unfortunate, for he played a good game otherwise, and did exceptionally good punting. I found Collins a very worthy opponent.

Pete Smith, manager of the Reliance eleven—I am satisfied with the result and think that the victory was due more to the good playing of our forwarders than to the hard luck of Multnomah. Our team did exceptionally well, inasmuch as the men have not practiced since Thanksgiving day. Little Vos Burgh is one of the best players on the Coast today. This is the first game we have won this year, although we have tried both Stanford and Berkeley.

SAVED FROM A KNOCK-OUT.

Jimmy Handler Defeated by Young Peter Jackson.

WATERBURY, Conn., Jan. 1.—Before 2000 people this afternoon, Young Peter Jackson defeated Jimmy Handler, the Newark welter-weight, in thre rounds. Handler acted like a novice in the first round. In the second he improved a trifle, but was clearly outclassed. In the third round Jackson sent the Newark man to the platform with a crash. He struggled to his feet, but Jackson smashed him all over the ring. A left inside hook to the jaw sent Handler to the ropes, which saved him from going down again. He was groping helplessly around the ring when Referee Charley White stopped the fight.

Go-as-You-Please Race at St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 1.—Fully 1500 people saw the start of the go-as-you-please race at the West End Coliseum tonight. Representative pedestrians from all over the country are entered. The Coliseum track is 16 laps to the mile. Fifteen men got the word at 10 o'clock tonight and began their long journey. At the end of the first hour Peter Hegelman, of New York, led the bunch by three laps, with George Tracey, also of New York, second.

MICHIGAN'S CRACK HALFBACK AN OREGON BOY.

GRANT'S PASS, Jan. 1.—William Martin Heston was born on September 9, 1878, at Aledo, Mercer County, Ill. He moved with his parents to Iowa in 1883, coming to Grant's Pass in the Spring of 1895. He attended the Grant's Pass High School, graduating in 1898, and finished a four years' course at the San Jose Normal School in two years and eight months. During the past Summer he taught a three months' term of school at Wolf Creek, Or., and left for Ann Arbor in September to study law for three years. His first game of football was played at San Jose, and from the first he showed a remarkable aptitude for a new player. He was captain of the school team for one year, and made a record as a halfback. Heston is well built, standing about five feet seven inches, and weighs about 180 pounds. He is especially quick on his feet, and has a record very close to 10 seconds for 100 yards. He comes of a family of foot-racers, his father, J. W. Heston, being the unbeaten champion of the One Hundred and Thirty-eighth Regiment, Illinois Volunteer Infantry, during the war. Young Heston's work on his father's Oregon farm, where he helped grub out the pine and fir stumps, no doubt did much to strengthen and build him up. At San Jose he worked his way through school, spending his vacations in the threshing field or at some factory.

At Ann Arbor he has played on the 'varsity team from the first, and has shown himself a halfback who can always be counted upon to make his gain. This being his first year on the team, he can play for three years more, and Ann Arbor is fortunate in having him on its crack team. He plays no game but football.

MURDER AND TRAIN WRECK

Miner Shot His Wife, His Child and Himself.

KALISPELL, Mont., Jan. 1.—Patrick Sullivan, of Jennings, Mont., shot his wife and grand-child and himself last night with fatal results to himself and the child, while his wife is in a very dangerous condition. He was an old miner well-known around Butte. His wife runs the section-house at Jennings. The citizens of Jennings sent to Kalispell for medical aid and a special was sent this morning with two physicians and the Coroner. At a point just west of the side-track at Lucerne the engine jumped the track, instantly killing Engineer Herzon and seriously wounding Fireman Wilcox, who was scalded. The caboose did not leave the track and the doctors proceeded to Jennings, while the dead and injured were brought to Kalispell.

THREE PEOPLE KILLED.

Result of a Fight at a Watch Party in North Carolina.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Jan. 1.—Three people were killed and two wounded last night at Robbins, N. C., in a fight which occurred during a party given at the residence of Jesse Griffen. The participants in the fight were prominent and well known in this part of the country. The dead are:

GEORGE DUNBAR.
HARRY DUNBAR.
FLETCHER BENNETT.

A "watch" party was given at the residence of Jesse Griffen, and during the evening William Cobb became involved in a dispute. Cobb later left the house. After his departure the quarrel was taken up by Fletcher Bennett, and Dunbar drew his pistol. Griffen, the host, interfered, taking Dunbar's pistol from him. Fletcher Bennett suddenly seized the weapon and shot George Dunbar, killing him instantly. The latter's son, Harry, came to the defense, but was also killed by Bennett. Arthur Dunbar, another son, also joined in the fight, and shot Bennett.

The shooting became general, and Bennett received a second shot, which killed him, and Arthur Dunbar received a wound which may prove fatal. Mrs. Dunbar was also shot, but she will recover. Arthur Dunbar was brought to the hospital in Augusta, where the physicians pronounced his wounds fatal. The Dunbars are cousins of W. H. Dunbar, former postmaster of Augusta.

The German law forbids teachers in the school to pull the ears of their pupils. Many cases of deafness have been shown to have resulted from such punishment.

NICHOLAS AND LOUBET.

Exchange of New Year's Greetings Between Paris and St. Petersburg.

PARIS, Jan. 1.—New Year's day was observed throughout France as a public day. In Paris the weather was muggy. President Loubet received the usual visits from the Cabinet Ministers and the Presidents and Vice-Presidents of the Senate and Chamber of Deputies. Mounted republican guards, drawn up in the courtyard of the Elysee Palace, rendered the customary honors to the visitors. Later the President, escorted by a detachment of cuirassiers, returned the visits. He was warmly cheered by the people. The large number of Americans who thronged the saloons of the United States Embassy this afternoon attested to the popularity of the United States Ambassador, General Horace Porter, and Mrs. Porter, who issued an open invitation to all Americans to attend their New Year's reception. Practically the entire American colony here responded.

The customary exchange of the New Year's greetings between St. Petersburg and Paris occurred today. The Czar telegraphed as follows to President Loubet:

"Tsarkoe-Selo, Jan. 1.—On the occasion of the new year, the Empress and myself desire to express to you our best wishes for France and for you personally. Among the most agreeable remembrances of the year just closed, that of the few days passed in the beautiful country, friendly and allied to us, is specially dear."

President Loubet, in reply, sent the following message to the Czar:

"I am deeply touched by the good wishes of yourself and Her Majesty, for France. My country preserves a grateful remembrance of the second visit you deigned to devote to her, and will rejoice to learn of the happy and lasting impression that your recent stay in France has left in your mind."

General Andre, the Minister of War, telegraphed to the Russian Minister of War, General Konropatkine, the greetings of the French Army to the Russian Army, and to Their Majesties.

FRENCH SHORE QUESTION.

No Steps Taken to Renew the Modus Vivendi.

LONDON, Jan. 1.—The Daily Express tomorrow will publish a cablegram from one of the highest officials of the New Foundland cabinet as follows:

"St. John's, N. F., Jan. 1.—This government has not considered the renewal of the modus vivendi, and hopes there will be no occasion to consider the re-enactment of a measure so detrimental to the interests of the empire and the colony. The government has not received any advice from the Imperial Government as to what has been done with regard to the negotiations with France since the Newfoundland delegation left London last May. All the colony's representations to the Colonial Office have been unanswered, and no reply has been received regarding reciprocity with America, although the imperial government's desire respecting discussion of that question between Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sir Robert Bond has been fully complied with, and the result has been reported to the Colonial Office. The successful management of the colony's affairs by the present administration is manifested by a financial condition unparalleled in its history. We only require justice at the hands of the imperial government, in the removal of the restriction as to treaty, shore and trade relations with America, to assure us a position of permanent prosperity."

The Anglo-French modus vivendi covering the lobster question on the French shore of Newfoundland expired yesterday, and apparently no arrangement with France is in sight.

French Professor to Lecture.

PARIS, Jan. 1.—Professor Leopold Mabilleau, of the College of France, will sail for New York on the steamer La Savoie January 11, to deliver a series of lectures at American universities under the auspices of L'Alliance Francaise, on French society and social questions. Professor Mabilleau is also intrusted with missions in behalf of the ministries of public instruction and commerce. He will investigate and draw up a report on the social side of American education, and will also report on the best site for and means to be taken to organize the proposed French Industrial College in the United States. The professor will put himself in communication with various American technical institutions. He will stay three months in the United States.

Uribe-Uribe Invades Colombia.

NEW YORK, Jan. 1.—According to cablegrams just received by Dr. Restrepo, head of the Colombian Revolutionary Junta here, General Uribe-Uribe, the revolutionary leader, with 3000 men, has invaded Colombia for Venezuela. The invasion was made in the Colombian Province of Santander. The dispatch came from General Vargas Santos, a Liberal chief living in Curacao. Uribe-Uribe is confronted by General Gonzalez Valencia, according to the advices. In the rear of the government force is said to be a Liberal army which recently took possession of the town of Bucuramanga. Four battalions of government troops in that town, it is said, joined the Liberal forces in a body.

France and Italy.

ROME, Jan. 1.—The French Ambassador, M. Callebarrere, speaking at a reception of the French colony here today, took occasion to allude in the most friendly terms to the relations between France and Italy. Double Duty on Bounty Sugar.

LONDON, Jan. 2.—On the ground that in spite of the sugar duty imposed last year, the price of sugar is now lower than ever, owing to the enormous imports from Germany, the Daily Mail today advocates doubling the duty on bounty-fed sugar, but leaving the duty on colonial sugar unchanged. The paper says such a course would avert the ruin now threatening the West Indies and would be an effective means of persuading foreign nations to abolish sugar duties.

The Situation in Ireland.

LONDON, Jan. 1.—The Times, commenting editorially on its Dublin correspondent's survey of the situation in Ireland, declares that although the Unionist Government, with a big majority, has been in power for six years, the situation there is now worse than when Mr. Morley resigned the Chief Secretaryship in 1895. In short, says the Times, the policy of "killing home rule with kindness" is completely discredited and Mr. Wyndham has failed to realize the hopes formed of him when he was appointed Chief Secretary.

Mr. D. P. Mitchell, 151 Seventeenth Street, Portland, cured of catarrh of head, throat and stomach. Hearing Restored.

CATARRH AND DEAFNESS

Mr. T. J. McClure, Mosier, Wasco County, Or.: I have already recommended the Copeland treatment to many friends, and feel that I can conscientiously recommend it to the public at large, because of the great benefit I myself have derived from it.

For several years I had a severe catarrhal trouble of the nose and throat, which had extended to the ears and almost destroyed my hearing. I was greatly annoyed by noises in my head, which at times seemed to close out all other sound.

Upon the advice of an acquaintance I began treatment at the Copeland Institute, resulting in the restoration of my hearing and a cure of the catarrh.

his restoration to health by Copeland treatment he said:

"When I began treatment at the Copeland Institute I was in a wretched state of health, the result of catarrh, which had affected my stomach to such an extent that I was in Constant Misery.

"I was so reduced in weight and strength, and suffered so severely, that I was able to do only the lightest kind of work.

"My head and throat were in bad shape for a long time; also my ears, the hearing being impaired and a constant ringing and buzzing; but it was not until my stomach became involved that I gave my condition any serious thought.

"It is hard to find words to express the misery I endured for 18 months. At times I had a severe aching pain in the stomach, and shortness of breath. At other times there seemed to be a

and again the stomach and bowels would fill with gas, which would cause me to feel so nervous that I could not rest. My Appetite Was Changeable.

"At times I would be ravenous, with a weak, all-gone feeling in the stomach, and could eat but little on account of the pain.

"I could not sleep, and this, together with my suffering, told terribly on my nervous system. I was and lost 30 pounds.

"I saw a great deal in the papers about the cures being made at the Copeland Institute, and one day came across a case that seemed just like my own. This decided me, and I immediately placed myself under treatment. I had been under treatment but a short time when I found it was

and in a few months I quit the treatment a well man. It is now some months since I finished my course, and I feel as as I did then, and am doing the same work I was before my health gave out.

"I have been so greatly benefited by the treatment that I feel it is a duty I owe to the Doctors, as well as other sufferers from that terrible disease catarrh, to give the public the facts of my cure. I will gladly answer any letters or inquiries."
