CONGRESS MEETS TODAY

PRINCIPAL ITEM ON HOUSE PRO GRAMME IS CANAL BILL.

Debate May Be Longer Than at First Seemed Probable-Very Little on the Sennte Calendar.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 5 .- After a recess of almost three weeks, both houses of Congress will reconvene tomorrow. The principal item on the House programme for the week is the Hepburn intuition canal bill, which is the special order for two years, in which convention one uses canal bill, which is the special order for two years, in which convention one uses gate may represent more than one republic, the voting to be by republics, each lic, the voting to be by republics. but Mr. Hepburn does not contemplate a prolonged discussion of it. It is surprolonged discussion of it. Mr. Burton has given notice of a speech sideration by the House. None of the appropriation bills have yet been passed on by the appropriation committee, but both the urgent deficiency and the pension bills are in a forward state, and the expecta-tion is that they will be considered by the committee during the current week. The present intention is to give first attention to the deficiency bill. The estimates for that bill aggregate $12,000,000. and it is not believed that these figures will be scaled down materially.

The Scaled down materially.

The Senate has no programme for the week, and very little business on its calendar, as the reorganization of the Senate committees did not take place until just before the holidays. There are, however, a few bridge bills reported, and Senator Morgan's bill for the acquisition of right of way for the Nicaragua Canal, which is among the measures in posi-tion to receive attention. It is not prob-able, however, that the right of way bill will receive consideration at this time action of the House upon the general subject and then have the Senate predicate its action on the House bill. If this course should be decided on, the discussion of the canal question in the Senate will be postponed for a few weeks.

The committee on the Philippines will take to the Philippines

SANITARY REGULATIONS.

Quarantine Report of the Pan-Amerlean Congress.

CITY OF MEXICO, Jan. 5.- The con mittee on international sanitary regula-tions of the Pan-American Conference will report this week, unless the conference is broken up by the delegates over arbitration. The recommendations on sanitary matters are perhaps of greater practical importance than any that have hitherto been submitted to the conference. The recommendation that will attract most at-tention in the United States is that which looks to the nationalization of quarantin The report recommends an international arrangement on the following basis: "First-All matters relating to maritime quarantine should be intrusted to the national governments, which shall have the sole right to institute maritime quarantine; to establish the necessary quarantine stations, both local and floating; to define the length of time during which a vessel may be detained, and to adopt such measures as may be deemed necessary to prevent the introduction of contagious diseases,

"Second—In the ports of each of the signatory states there should be estab-lished two kinds of quarantine-first, the quarantine of inspection or observation, and, second, the quarantine of detention and distributions there will also be other speeches in criticism of special features of the measure, but its friends are very sanguine, not only that the bill will pass, but that it will pass speedily. Mr. Hepburn, the author of the bill, thinks that only a few days of debate will be necessary.

It is expected that by the time the canal bill is disposed of, there will be one or more appropriation bills ready for consideration by the House. None of the appears of each republic are to be and expenses of each republic are to be and experts of each republic are to be paid by the respective governments which they serve."

There is no essential change in the arditration situation. The most hopeful feature is that both sides continue to negotiate, porving that they are not anxious to push things to extremes

LONDON, Jan. 5.-The atmosphere on the London Stock Exchange has been more cheerful since the beginning of the year than for a long while past. The activity that developed with the resump business January 2 was greatly aided by the abundance of money with which a stringent market has recently and suddenly become flooded. Professional operators were naturally anxious for a rise, and did their utmost to foster the boom, but, however good were the promises upon which the predicted advance was This hesitancy is due equally to the lack of faith and to the lack of cash with which to speculate. Until the public can be re-enthused the boom is ound to drag.

BRYAN SPOKE FOR BOERS

MAYOR JOHNSON ANOTHER ORATOR AT A CLEVELAND MEETING.

The Nebraskan Belleves the Demo erats Will Insert a Money Plank in Next Platform.

CLEVELAND, Jan. 5 .- Four thousand was enthusiastic applause for every expression of sympathy and encouragement for the struggling Boers. An unexpected occurrence in the meeting was the appearance of Hon. W. J. Bryan, who was in this city for the day as the guest of Mayor Johnson. When the committee in charge of the meeting learned that the Demo-cratic leader was in the city, an invitation was sent to him and the Mayor to attend and address the gathering. Both gentlemen accepted and when, the close of other speeches, Mr. and Mr. Johnson entered the hall, the audience rose en masse and repeatedly shouted the names of "Bryan" and "Johnson," and greeted them with hurrahs and handclappings.

Upon the stage were seven native Boers who had been in some of the early conflicts of their countrymen against the English forces. They were driven from the country and are now residents of this city. The meeting continued for four hours, the principal addresses being delivered by Hon. John J. Lentz.

When the formal speeches were con-cluded, Messrs. Bryan and Johnson were called upon to address the audience. Mr. Bryan spoke for about five minutes, during which time he said:
"Sad will be the day, fallen will be the star of our destiny, if the time ever comes when struggling free men feel that they cannot look upon the people of these states for sympathy."

Mr. Bryan who said that he was in entire sympathy with the intent of the meeting, eulogized the fighting South African farmers, and urged that they con-tinue the struggle. He said he was glad the war had cost England dearly and that the disastrous cost in money and life would be a much needed lesson for the English Government, because it would teach, and has already taught, a lesson that will not be soon forgotton. Mr. Bryan said that he considered it a compliment that the Boers looked to the United States for aid and sympathy in their struggie. He considered it a dis-grace, he said, that no official expression of sympathy had yet been made by this

Mayor Johnson also spoke briefly, He said he was in full sympathy with the intent of the meeting and expressed simi-lar sentiments to those given by Mr.

Regarding his own candidacy for the Presidency, Mr. Bryan said that he was not a candidate for anything. ATTEMPT AT MURDER.

Spokane Cattle Dealer Shot at in His Doorway.

SPOKANE, Wash., Jan. 5 .- A coldblooded attempt at murder was made on Eugene A. Marsh, a cattle dealer, in his shack, corner of Helena street and Des-met avenue, tonight. It is supposed the attack was made on Marsk in order to rob him. He had $400 in the shack, Marsh was shot in the head, but was not seri-ously wounded. He was sitting in his dwelling, when a gentle knock came at the door. Marsh opened the door and was about to bid the unknown to enter. As the door swung open a shot was fired from a revolver held by a masked man. The bullet struck the left and upper part of Marsh's bead, glanced and small hole through an adjoining window Just before the shot was fired, Mars grasped at the revolver and managed to force the barrel of the gun out of a di-rect line for his face. In the midst of the smoke, Marsh made a dash at the would-be murder, but he became frightened and fied,
