THE MORNING OREGONIAN, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 8, 1902. 7 CITY NEWS IN BRIEF son, Mich., signified in a letter its inten-MANY VOTERS REGISTER mont streets, in his shipyard, but the house of Mrs. Whiting is in the way. He TO HOLD ANNUAL MEETING tion of removing its factory to Gregon, if sufficient encouragement were offered. Starch, the letter stated, may be pro-duced in the Pacific Northwest at less than one-third the cost to the Michigan PIANOS can do nothing toward placing the build-ing on the new foundation until the The Oregonian's Telephones, ing on the new foundation way. Whiting house is out of the way. 1884 $1.00 OREGON. ELECTORS HASTEN TO LINE UP AT manufacturers, while the charge for the product in this city is 80 per cent greater MEMBERS OF CHAMBER OF COMfanaging hty Edite 1902 $1.50COUNTY CLERK'S OFFICE. CHINOOKS BRING RAIN. MERCE WILL GATHER TONIGHT. $15.09 for good upright pinno. $118.09 for another one, mahogany case. Composing Res East Side Official than in the Eastern state. The matter was referred to the secretary for furthe Reliding $2.5060.09 for nice square plano. Winds Also Cause Balmy Air and vestigation. Would-Be-Benedict Gets Registered COLUMBIA. Election of Officers Will Be Held-$ 45.09 for another one; in good order, Mild Temperature. orial Ro $ 28.00 for a good organ now. When He Thinks He Is Getting Good, serviceable spectacles and Reports Show Increasing In-.106 BALL'S MEN TAKE MEDALS For two days past Portland and vicin-Aud many other bargains in new and sec-ond-hand planos. See us at once. a Marriage License. for two days past Fortand and vicin-ity has been enjoying unusually warm weather and growled at more than copi-ous rains. Both seemed unseasonable, more particularly the former. There is no trace of Winter in the atmosphere. eye-glasses are supplied by the come and Membership. Portland Optical Institute at above Steinway planes, Emerson planes, Rich-mond planes, Estey planes, and several other well-known and reliable makes. Finest line of high-grade planes in the Scratchmen Lose in Multnomah quotations, Gold frames, of course, Amusements. The registration of voters at the Coun-ty Cierk's office is proceeding rapidly. Yesterday the total number registered was 174. Several applicants were reject-ed, and their cases will be submitted to the District Attorney for a legal opinion. One man came here with his mother cannot be expected at these figures. Bowling Contest. The outgoing trustees of the Chamber of Commerce heid their final meeting yes-MARQUAM GRAND THEATER - Fraderick Wards and Company in "Virginius." Quality considered, however, our Ball's team came to the rescue and CORDRAY'S THEATER-'What Happened t and while the East is snow-bound Oregon is blessed with balmy winds that awake reminiscences of Southern California, the erday morning, all members present, prices rule lower than elsewhere. took the medals away from the scratch men, who had won them for the past two city. President Hahn presiding. The annual reports of President Hahn, Secretary Fleischner and Chairman Lewis, of the Most important of all, sight goes Small cash payment; balance at $6, $8 weeks, in the weekly bowling contest at the Multhomah Club this week. Six teams contested for the medals-three on Mon-day night and three hast evening. On Monday night Ball's team gave an "ex-bilition" on the second star way and the second secon with every pair of lenses preand $10 per month. land of summery Winter. "Prevailing Chinook conditions" is the explanation given by Forecast Official THE OREGONIAN'S HANDBOOK. scribed. Not haphazard, guess-OPEN EVENINGS. One man came here with his mother, was was a widow, when he was 11 years transportation committee, were consid-ered. They are very favorable, showing work sight, but the identical sight The Oregonian's Handbook tells all about each individual case demands. Our old, from Europe. He has lived here Beals in accounting for the vagaries of the weather. The term is an accepted part of local meteorological vocabularies. Portland, the entire Columbia River watershed a probable income from all sources this year of over $9000. These will be read at SOULE BROS. PIANO CO. ever since-a period of 30 years -and never took out any naturalization papers. reputation for accuracy, carned by and the 1905 World's Fair, commemorative hibition" on the unused alley. Beck was put in to fill Zelier's place, and he showed the annual meeting in the rooms of the 17 years of painstaking work, is too the Lewis and Clark expedition to Oregon. The His mother married a citizen, but this Commercial Club, on the eighth floor of the Chamber of Commerce building at 8 o'clock tonight. The board also adopted $26 Washington St. Near Sixth. With all his high score the "exhibition" team could not bowl more than 611. Ab-endroth greatly helped to get that score by bit 199 though to the Eastern observer it would valuable to take chances with even book contains over 150 handsome illustrations occurred after the son was of legal age. The man was informed that he is not a probably be meeningless. Expressed terse-ly, it is dynamically heated air, caused Fine plano tuning. Telephone Main 677. in a single instance. and it is printed on enameled book paper. I will be mailed to any address in the United citizen, but as he was permitted to reg-ister two years ago, the officials promised to look into the matter. a compression of atmosphere, which cends and produces heat. the recommendations of the non lingting States or Canada for T cents a copy. by his nittee for officers and trustees, to be The temperature yesterday ranged from oted upon at tonight's meeting, when the WORKED IN SPITE OF DOWNPOUR .- EVEN On Monday night the scratch men fin WALTER REED An amusing incident occurred in the af-50 to 61 degrees, and from 4:30 A. M. to 6 P. M. 92 of an inch rainfall had been recorded, which was largely in excess of the oldest Oregonians admitted cheerfully that it rained heavily for a short time yesished up with 685. But that did not worry them. They had become so used to winnames will be made public. They will be printed in ballot form, with a note saying ernoon. A young man called to obtain marriage license, and by mistake went that members are not bound to the nom-The Optician ning by 680 scores that they thought they had a cinch. Sigler fell down, or they might have made 700. Brigham's team captured second place for the night, with terday forenoon, when for about half an to the registration counter. The clerk, John W. Faddock, immediately began to fill out a registration blank, asking the usual questions: "How old are you? hour it came down at the rate of 18 inch es in 24 hours. In the midst of this down inces and may make any other nominations they choose. 133 Sixth St., Oregonian Bidg. pour one of the fellows who go around armed with short-handled axes, to split Among other matters considered was a Pittock as high man. Leadbetter was back on the alleys, and put up a fair game. Craft, who recently very graceletter from E. P. Bacon, of Milwaukee, Wis., chairman of the executive commit-tee of the Interstate Commerce Law Con. Half-Tones for wood, was seen working away calmly and composedly on a small pile of wood on Alder street, near Sixth. Two of his comresigned from the scratch team, high man on his team, but his highvention. The chamber recently instructed the Oregon members of Congress to assist fully Newspaperand g and watched him with surprise. Half COUNTY COMMISSIONERS ASKED TO Letterpress Illusin the passage of amendments to the inness did not reach to the skies, and the the wood he split was carried away by the river which raced down the gutter, team finished in third place, terstate commerce law only so far as the Pacific Coast is benefited, and to insist upon the division of the country into five NAME FAIR MEN. tration The Tuesday nighters were determined that the medals would not be given up but he paid no attention to it-probably Zine Exching VVV. geographical sections from which appoint-ments to the commission are to be made. Mr. Bacon said the idea of districts strikes to a score like 655. But Ball's te this would save him the to a score like esc. But Ball's team was the only one to beat the score. The others tried, but before the finished they had to tell some hard-luck story. Ball was the star bowler of the tournament, bowl-With the object of insuring fairness in the conduct and count of carrying it. A passer stopped to ask Designing Lowest the competitors what was the matter with in the coming primaries and election, there was presented to the man, and was told that he was so we him as being very desirable, so far as it might relate to future appointments aris-Q A the County Commissioners yesterday a list of six or seven inside and out that a little rain more of Good Work ing from death or resignation. The Inter-state Commerce Commission is now con-trolled by the Atlantic seaboard and the less made no difference. An hour or two later the fellow was seen entering a Chi-nese gin mill, where he probably proing good games throughout. His men gave him good support. The "alley-pounders," with Churchman at the top prominent citizens from each of the 70 precincts with the re-Engraving Department quest that one judge and one clerk be chosen from the list. This Middle West, and the Pacific Coast, hav-ing no representation, and the chamber will not under any condition recede from its request to the Oregon delegation to cured something that dried his clothes of the bunch, fell into second place. Oregonian Pub.Co. Holmes' team came out at the bottom. Holmes made a couple of 50 scores and finished on top. They say that be had strings on the pins, and when his ball went down the alley the boy in the pit action was taken and the recommendation made by leading him in a jiffy. EXAMINATION FOR HULL DRAFTSMAN .business men, and the men on the list are among the most The United States Civil Service Commis-cion announces that on February 11 an All and a second se watch the bill and see to it that the inter-ests of the Pacific Coast are protected. prominent and most representative business men of the city, examination will be held at the Postoffic who are interested in the conduct of the coming primaries and would pull the pins over. At any rate, it is quite certain that he made some very shady strikes. Ford salled along The following 29 merchants were elected, making the present membership 295: ing in this city, for the position TAKE A SURVEY election. hull draftsman. The examination will consist of the following subjects: Applied mathematics, ship calculations, ship draft-ing, practical ship building, technical George Antone, Timms, Edwards & Co. nicely until the final game. He made 59 Oregon Furniture Manufacturing Com-pany, L. Mayer & Co., H. H. McCarthy Before you decide on buying your in the third, but when the fourth came his big score had either turned his head footwear and you will find that our & Co., Luckel, King & Cake Sonp Com-pany, Portland Stove Works, T. M. Sin-clair & Co., Ltd., Coblentz & Levy, Hextraining and experience. From the eligi-bles resulting from this examination it is HEATINE $3.50 shoe is the best shoe value for or else he was jealous of Holmes and he Where were you born? Where do you ocean or over the mountains, and are almade but 15 the money you can buy. The leather ways warm, but do not of necessity bring expected that certification will be made live," etc. The young man answered the to the position of hull drafisman in the lighthouse service at a salary of $4 per The scores: questions satisfactorily, and the blank, after it had been filled out, was handed rain with them. Forecaster Beals said yesterday that ter & May Company, W. H. Mead, L. B. Gorham, Charles Coopey, Imperial He-tel Company, L. C. Henrichsen, W. Friedis good, the making is good, the style is up-to-date, and it gives the best Allow-Allow-Ance, Pourfa game, Third game, game, Chinook winds had been recorded of suffi-cient dryness that a foot of snow had been evaporated, leaving the ground abday, and to other similar, vacancies to him for his signature. kind of wear. they may occur. All necessary blanks and information can be procured on applilander, Session & Simpson, the J. M. Rus-sel Company, Goodman Bros. Shoe Com-pany, S. G. Skidmore & Co. Noticing what it was, the would-be Ben-PLAYERS. edict stammered out: "Why, I did not cation to Z. Leigh, cierk of the commis-sion, at the Portland Postoffice. How Hows Sized UP Houses.-An eldersolutely dry. Another variety of the Chi-nook wind carries in its wake an abuncome to get registered. I came for a FIRST E.C.Goddard & Co. "What's that?" said Mr. Paddock; dance of moisture, which is the sort that PURE 22222 50 46 7 41 188 DOUBLED UP. ly man named William Howe was in the Municipal Court yesterday, charged with "marriage slicense? Over at the other counter," pointing the way, but before is now present. The winds have been unusually severe along the coast, and Habighorst Abendroth Zeller BREAKFAST WHEAT severe along the coast, and Sixth and Washington Sts. 25 16 165 southwest gales have raged, attaining a vagrancy, and he pleaded not guilty, *T the surprised young man had got well Some pretty strong praise has lately arrested Howe around Twenty-first and Quimby streets, early in the morning. He HEATINE

No More Dread of the Dental Chair

TEETA EXTRACTED AND FILLED ABSOLUTELY WITHOUT FAIN by our ate scientific method applied to the sums.

No sleep-producing agents or cocaine. These are the only dental parlors in Portland having PATENTED APPLI-ANCES and ingredients to extract, fill and apply gold crowns and porcelain crowns undetectable from natural teefn, and warranted for 10 years, WITHOUT THE LEAST PAIN. All work done by GRADUATED DENTROPY of the by GRADUATED DENTISTS of from 12 to 10 years' experience, and each depart-ment in charge of a specialist. Give us 'a call, and you will find us to do exactly as we advertise. We will tell you in ad. a FREE EXAMINATION.

POPULAR PRICES NO PLATES

85 THIRD STREET.

138 105 142 107 148 640
 68
 40
 51
 29

 28
 36
 45
 59

 28
 58
 30
 23

 47
 56
 46
 30
0 158 cigars. 0 149 161 190 172 161 0 655 102545 12212 44414 20: 158 20: 164 36: 161 0: 165 128 148 136 159 76 648 30 34 31 51 24 165 44 173

22 159 16 162 uncontrollable temper, and on various occasions flew into a passion and threat-ened to kill her. She asserts that sev-eral months after their marriage he re-129 124 144 146 116 659

ed for the opposite side of the ro Paddock recovered himself a started for the called him back with the remark: "Well, you had better sign your name here, and then you will be registered. Kill two birds at once. See? Thanks," remarked

16 179 16 157 20 149 8 146 Mr. Paddock as the blank was signed. "No, there isn't any charge." The next move was to call the wit-44 3b/ 44 140 44 1/4 16 109 The next move was to call the wit-ness who accompanied the young man to come up and get registered, but he said he did not have time to stay and would call again some other day when the boys were not so frisky, and when he would not be asked to set up the

> FILE SUITS FOR DIVORCE. Mrs. Laura E. Hill and Mrs. Lottle

Durthick Sue Husbands. Laura E. Hill yesterday filed sult in the State Circuit Court against Henry Hill for a divorce. They were married at Lents in June, 1900, and she charges him with cruel treatment and desertion. Mrs. Hill sets forth in her complaint that her husband possesses a violent and scend into the valleys laden with heat and rain or exceptional dryness, as the case may be.

October 2015 from stations on the ines of the O. R. & N. Co. yesterday showed what Colonel Crooks called "a most absurd state of weather for January 7." In the extensive triangle of which the points are portioned. Huntington and Spokens, the Portland, Huntington and Spokane the lowest temperature recorded at 3 P. M. was 47 degrees, at North Powder. The highest temperature was 70 degrees, at Umatilla. It was cloudy at both places records for comparison. . On the line of the Southern Pacific it was also warm and very wet, but the temperature there was not so notable as that east of the Cascades.

meteorological term is Froehn winds. These gales blow over the Alps and de-

Reports from stations on the lines of the

At Heppner the mercury stood at 64, at Walla Walla 65, and at Pomeroy and Oakesdale 60. This is believed to be the warmest January 7 on record for that region, though there are no satisfactory ping, the strong on-shore winds prevent-ing ships from leaving harbors. A counterpart of the Chinook winds is to be found in Switzerland, where the velocity of from 30 to 40 miles an hour. The condition has made it bad for ship-been given the recent features appearing at the Fredericksburg. But this week witnesses double the attractions ever shown there before. Flynn's Galety Giris are still here, and they alone are sufficient to draw crowds. A new booking, however, took the house by storm last night-the Malvern Brothers, Jake Paul and Melton, the "Elffel Tower Ac robats." Their work includes features never pre-sented here before. In grace, strength and agility they have no equals. Their reception was most enthusiastic. Mile. Ilda Orme, the incomparable Franco-American artiste, is another booking for the week who met with immediate favor. This week's run at the Fredericksburg will be a record-breaker.

resort.

he had business in connection with the building of a lighthouse near Juneau. He enjoyed the trip very much, and says the was apparently sizing up houses, as if he wished to go inside," testified Police-man Weich. Howe admitted that he had not worked for several weeks, and that the last money he had was realized from the sale of a blanket he carried. He asked to be allowed to leave town, so that he could get to Vancouver, "We will have no objection. You are a bad man to have around this town," said Munici-pal Judge Cameron. The case was con-

INQUIRES FOR MISSING FRIENDS .- Letters are constantly being received by Postmaster Crossman from persons in all parts of the country, inquiring after lost or long-absent friends. Every reasonable ef-fort is made to furnish the desired infor-

a letter from a woman in Cambridge,

Mass., inquiring for one Edward Dill, her nepbew, and one from a boy in Ottawa, Ill., inquiring for his father, William H.

Cline. These parties were residents of this city a number of years ago, but have not been heard from in a long time. Any one knowing the whereabouts of either of them will confer a favor by informing Postmaster Croasman thereof.

has returned from

MR. DAY RETURNS FROM ALASKA .- J.

Mr. Cronsman has now on hand weather in the North has been mild so far this Winter. His only real discom-fort was at Skagway, where an extreme-ly cold wind was blowing at a tempera-ture of seven degrees above zero. He says the mining development of Prince of Walks Island is color on ance. While of Wales Island is going on apace. While he was there a body of ore was shipped out, which averaged $200 per ton in gold. The mining outlook of the island is very encouraging HERE ARE LARGE POTATOES -N.G. WIDgren, a grocer of this city, who has a farm out near Reedville, yesterday vicinity.

brought some large Burbank potatoes to the Permanent Exhibit, weighing three to four pounds. They were sent in to him by the man in charge of his farm, who wrote that he had one which weighed about six pounds and which he thought of taking to Hillsboro. These are the largest potatoes received at the Exhibit this sea-Next!

FIRE DEPARTMENT CHANGES. - LINCOL Risner, driver of Hose Company No. L. has resigned his position, and William McAllister, pipeman of chemical engine No. 1. has been appointed to fill the va-cancy. Robert king, who has given effi-cient service as extra man, succeeds Mr. Allister as pipeman.

POLICEMAN PICKS UP PURSE -- A woman's purse, containing a small amount of money and a handkerchief, was found by a policeman yesterday at Third and Washington streets. It is now at the police station.

MORE ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL .- The football game between the Ancients and the Portland Football Club on January 18 will be played under association rules. It is found impossible to play under Rugby rules at present.

ACCIDENT TO FRENCH SAILOR .- A French sallor, unable to tell his name, fell last night on Sixth street, near Glisan, and one of his ankles was broken. He was taken in the police patrol to St. Vincent's Hospital.

AMOTHER UNION SUBSCRIEZE.-The local union of Painters, Decorators and Paper-hangers has subscribed for $100 of the stock of the Lewis and Clark Centennial Fair NELLIE M. REDINGTON has taken Mr. Rollins' studio in the Worcester building, and will continue his classes in art.

NET INTEREST 10.57 per cent, attainable by investing $7000 in good brick business property. F. V. Andrews & Co. SPECIAL January prices on fiction-$1 50 books at Sec; $1 25 books at 75c. Ewing's book store, 169 Fourth street. DR. J. D. FENTON has returned. Office

DR. J. D. FENTON has retained 57; res., Black 521. FREE recital this evening, Acollan Hall." GREAT SHOE SALE, MARKE SHOE CO. *

ABOLIAN recital tonight, 8:30. GREAT BARGAINS, MARKS SHOE CO. .

CONSIDER STARCH - MAKING

Manufacturers' Association Receives Proposals From Factories.

At a fully sitended meeting of the board of directors of the Manufacturers' Asof infection of the Manufacturers and sociation has night, Scerctary McIsaac read a letter from Charles F. E. Vost, of Portland, concerning the establishment of a startch factory. The talk ran into dis-cussion of the marits of coast-made starch, and Directors Devers, Ganten-bein Kelleber and others made brief re-Kelleher and others made brief remarks. It was the opinion of several members that the starch made by Mr. Vors gave the best satisfaction for laun-dry purposes, and the matter will be con-sidered further. The Pacific Starch Company, of Jack-

PERSONAL MENTION.

Tota's

Holmes

Totals

Hudson

Godfrey

Totals

"ullison

Totals

Rauert Harlow Statter

Totals

Brigham

Pittock ... Holman ... Leadbetter

Totals

Craft

Beck

ord

Weis

William Hyde Stalker, of Baker City, a nember of the faculty of the High School of that city, is at the Imperial. G. W. Voogt, of San Francisco, a well-known insurance man, is in the city on a business trip, and is staying at the Imperial,

145 190 184 151

114 132 179 146

11111111 11111111

221212

34 30

20222

44 734

60 631

H. T. Hendryx, of Baker City, who is at the Imperial, is a prominent mining man of Eastern Oregon, and is interested in several properties in Baker County and violation.

A. G. Dunn, of Seattle, arrived in the city yesterday, accompanied by S. M. Irwin, also of the Sound city. Mr. Dunn is to be married today to Miss Jeanette Williams, the daughter of Mrs. A. G. Will-

Special Officer Nash, who has lately been on the sick list, has been taken from a private sanitarium to room 2, Good Samaritan Hospital, and is now able to see his friends.

J. N. Hart, of Dallas, is registered at the Imperial. Mr. Hart was formerly County School Superintendent of Polk County, and is now Prosecuting Attorney of the Third Judicial District. Master Fish Warden H. G. Van Dusen was in the city yesterday, en route to Salem and thence to the Upper Columbia to inspect the work being done at the hatcheries and experimental stations. Deputy District Attorney Arthur C.

pencer returned yesterday from a trip his old home at Hartford, Conn., where he went to see his sick father. The latter is now slightly improved in health. Mr. Spencer said he had a pleasant trip, but Spencer said he had a pleasant trip, but was glad to get back to his family and Portland once more.

Colonel F. J. Parker, of Walla Walla, is at the Imperial, on his way home from attending the funeral of Governor Rog-ers, of Washington, on whose staff he was. He gives it as his opinion that Gov-ernor McBride will make a most excellent executive, as he is endowed with good common sense and a reputation for high integrity. W. J. Furnish, the Pendleton banker, who is an avowed candidate for the Republican nomination for Governor, is at the Imperial on a business trip to the city, in connection with his banking interests. Mr. Furnish is not talking poli-tics beyond saying that his candidacy is progressing as well as could be expected progressing as well as could be expected at this early date. William H. Haggerty, formerly connect-ed with the Union Stockyards in this city as a pariner of L. Burke, is now a resident of Oswego, Kan., and rolling in oil and wealth. He owns two farms in that region, and oil has been discovered on them, and the value of his percentage of the output amounts to from $50 to $100 per day. When he gets money enough he per day. When he gets money enough he will come back to Oregon to live.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.-Northwestern people registered at New York hotels to-days as follows: From Portland-M, Towenson and wife, at the Navarre; J. K. Mackle, at the St. Dennis; A. G. Labbe, at the Grand Union; D. C. O'Beilly, at the Waldorf Astoria.

From Astoria-B. Lindenberger, at the Victoria. From Seattle-E. H. Murphy, at the Murray Hill; C. H. Heifner.

CLOSING OUT ODD LOTS.

wearing apparel, and she was comp to return to her mother's home. On December 2, 1900, Mrs. Hill alleges that her husband deserted her, and in April, 1901, returned and choked and shook her without provocation. She states that her spine was injured, and she had to call a physician to attend her.

Lottie Durthick has sued Joseph W. Durthick for a divorce on the ground of cruel treatment. They were married at Victor, Wasco County, in 1887, and af-terwards went to Wendling to live. The plaintiff charges her husband with hav-ing been cruel to her, and alleges that

 The New Year's Oregonian.

The New Year's Oregonian for 1902 contains 64 pages. The subjects covered fully are Portland, including the trade and financial strength of the great city of the Pacific Northwest, every resource of Oregon, Washington and Idaho, the Lewis and Clark journey of exploration and the World's Fair that will be held in Portland in 1905. The price of the New Year's Oregonian by mail to any address in the United States or Canada, postage prepaid, is 9 cents a copy.

he ordered her to leave the house. There is one child, that she is willing that he shall have the custody of, and she does not ask for any share of the property. Mrs. Durthick requests to be restored to her maiden name, Auston.

LET OFF WITH $10 FINE.

John Lensen Has to Pay for Violation of Postal Laws.

Lenzen, who was arrested Monday afternoon on a charge of violating the postal laws by sending a threatening letter to his former wife, Mrs. Mary J. Lenzen, of Montaville, which was calcu-lated to reflect injuriously on her char-acter, was arraigned in the United States Court yesterday, entered a plea of guilty and was fined $10.

Lenzen and his wife have had trouble lately and have separated. Mrs. Lenzen induced Lenzen, son of a former wife, to stay with her. Lenzen wrote a postal card to her, stating that he wanted his boy at a certain hotel by Sunday night and that if she did not let him come he suld have her arrested for kidnaping.

Articles of Incorporation.

Articles of incorporation of the Wash-ougal Timber Company were filed in the County Clerk's office yesterday by S. Benson, S. Farrell and J. A. Buckley. The capital stock is $50,000. The objects are to conduct and operate a general logging and timber business on and contiguous to the Washougal River.

Court Notes.

The Ames Mercantile Company has filed an attachment suit in the State Circuit Court against W. B. Hancock and wife to recover $272 on a claim assigned by Sealy, Mason & Co. The First Hebrew Benevolent Associa-tion has sued H. W. Mitchell and Nellie Mitchell, his wife, to foreclose a mort-gage for $3000 on 13% acres in the Ed-ward Long donation land claim.

Whiting House in the Way.

Following our usual custom, during this month we will close out a big lot of odd-framed pictures at exactly one-half price. SANBORN, VAIL & CO., 100 First street,

YOUNG DOCTORS ON RACK. Sixteen Fledglings and One Patriarch Enter State Examinations.

Seventeen applicants appeared yester. ay before the State Board of Medical Examiners to be examined for license to practice medicine in the state. Dr. H. Goucher, of Mulino, Or., was the patriarch of the applicants, being over 70 years old. He was graduated from a prominent Eastern college in 1854, and since that time has been in active practice

He was located in this state at the time the present law was enacted, and was entitled to receive a license to practice with-out taking an examination, had he registered with the board within the prescribed limit. Forgetfulness carried a penalty and now he is taking the examinations along with ambitious young sawbones who have but recently received their di-The members of the board present are:

Dr. W. H. Saylor, Portland, present are: Dr. W. E. Carll, Oregon City, treasurer; Dr. H. E. Curry, Baker City; Dr. A. B. Gillis, Salem, Dr. Byron E. Miller, the other member of the board, is absent on a trip abroad, and is now in Vienna. The examination will be concluded today, and tonight the members of the board will hold a business meeting at the office of the president, Dr. Saylor. No matters of special importance are expected to come up, and the session will be devoted to

outine business.

Following are the names of the appli-cants taking the examination: Robert Cross, Carlton, Cr.; William C, Spencer, Huntington, Cr.; Robert H. Jen-kins, Fossil, Cr.; Homer I. Keeney, Port-land; Floyd M. Day, Eugene, Cr.; Frank Jongon Gubar Track Or: Albert Carey Joseph Gobar, Track, Or.; Albert Carey, St. Johns, Or.; William T. Rowley, Cor-vallis, Or.; Edwin F. Lehman, Portland; Marcus Cooper Findiay, Grant's Pass, Or.; William N. Kimmell, Lebanon, Or.; David P. Love, Riddle, Or.; R. Goucher, Mulino, Or.; J. W. Luckey, Cheshire, O.; James Hastell Thompson, Ogden, Utah; G. Gus-tav Baar, Chehalis, Wash.

THROAT

Plenty of good things all the time at the Portland Restaurant, 305 Washington, near Fifth. See for yourself.

C. T. ROBERTS, Manager.

all reliable grocers

OSTEOPATHY

DR. L. B. SMITH,

Of A. T. Still's School of Osteopathy, Kirks

ville, Mc. Oldest Osteopath in Oregon. Fourth year in Portland. Consultation free at 400 Oregonian building. Call or write for literature and references. Phone Oak 421. Lady assistant

Jake.

They are simply immense

The Hot Springs of Arkansas.

Owned and controlled by U. S. Govern-neut. The Nation's health and pleasure resort. Splendid Winter climate. Golf.

Elegant hotels-Eastman, Park and Areradicates the disease from the system and restores the mucous membranes to a healthy condition and will cure catarrh, no matter where located. For sale by all druggists. Books on Catarrh free, Ad-dress Smith Bros., Fresno, Cal.

A CLEAN UP.

Several hundred odd framed pictures and panels, from 15c up to be closed out to make room for new goods. Every framed picture in the store reduced from 10 to 50 per cent during the sale. SANBORN, VAIL & CO.,

170 First street.

WHERE TO DINE TODAY.