Miss Charleston, president of the local union, was present, and plans were made to receive John Willis Bacr, of the United Society, who is to come to Portland on March. 2019 March 22 and 23.

A RUSH FOR GUNS .- If the present rust continues at 130 Sixth street, every man and a great number of women in Portland, will own a rifle or sword. The first announcement of the sale was made in The Oregonian last Sunday, and since that time the large store-room has been crowd-ed from early morning until late at night. Mr. Kirk, who is conducting the sale, purchased from the United States Government all of the old arms stored in Benicia Arsenal and is retailing the same at one-tenth the actual original cost. it is an excellent opportunity to secure souvenirs, or a United States Army Maynard carbine that shoots accurately at 500 yards, for $2. The sale will continue for several days at 130 Sixth street, FIRST PRESETTERIAN CHURCH RECEP-TION.-A pleasant reception was given the new church members last night, at the First Presbyterian Church, The Warren Mandolin Club of 10 members furnished ome delightful music, under Mr. Pala clos; the Bible class chorus, under the leadership of Mrs. Edgar Coursen, also ted to the pleasure of those present. This is an organization comprising 50 young women, and though formed only about Christmas time, is doing excellent work. Miss Duff gave a song, also Miss Protaman, while Miss Fliedner contrib-uted a plane sole. A sole number for the mandelin was given by Mr. Palacies, JUDGES AND CLERKS TODAY. - County ner Showers vesterday said be had received word from Judge Cake that he would return from the coast and attend the meeting of the County Court to day. Mr. Showers said the matter of the appointment of judges and clerks of election would probably be disposed of, as they desired to get through with it. He and Mr. Mack wish to have Judge Cake present. Mr. Showers also said that the Democrats have not yet filed their recndations, but the committee promised to have them on hand in time.

SAWMILL CLOSES DOWN.—The mill of the Portland Lumber & Manufacturing Com pany, formerly Pennoyer's Mill, was provements to the equipment might be made. The improvements will consist of a new carriage, carrying 110-foot timbers, as against the old carriage of 70 foot capacity; a new log-turner, slab slashers, stationary saws, live rollers and slide. Some minor improvements will be made, and Manager Everson says logslide. Some mi the mill, with an enlarged capacity, will be reopened in 15 days or so

CHARGED WITH SELLING ADULTURATED Milk.—A warrant from the office of Jus-tice of the Peace Kraemer has been served by Deputy Sheriff Wagner, on W. C. Dey. 429 Washington street, charging him with selling adulterated milk, on the complaint of State Dairy and Food Commissioner Bailey. It is alleged that Dey sold to Herbert W. Cardwell last Friday adulterated milk, and that the bottle or cover containing the milk was not marked so that its true character could be established to distinguish it from the pure

ONE BID ON AN ALASKA LIGHTHOUSE. Captain Langfitt, engineer of the Thir-teenth Lighthouse District, yesterday opened bids for the construction of the Lincoln Rock light station, Alaska, and for furnishing the lantern for the same. The only bid for the construction of the station was submitted by M. J. Carkees, of Seattle, $33,700. TO DISCUSS CHARITIES.

Conference is Planned by Prominent Citizens.

State Conference of Charities and Correct tion met yesterday afternoon in the par-lors of the City Board of Charities, when there were present: W. T. Gardner, Thomas N. Strong, Dr. Stephen S. Wise, Dr. T. L. Eliot, Mrs. L. W. Sitton and Mrs. Ernest Bross.

Mr. Thomas N. Strong, who was ap-pointed as a committee of one to draft a constitution and by-laws, made his report, which was adopted. It starts with a statement of the objects of a conference of charities and correction, which are to afford an opportunity for those en-gaged in charitable and reform work to confer respecting their methods, principles of administration and results accomed; to diffuse reliable information re specting charitable and correctional work and encourage co-operation in humani-tarian efforts, with the aim of further improving the system of charity and cor rection in the State of Oregon. With this end in view, an annual State Con-ference will be held at a time and place to be agreed upon at the preceding annual session, at which addresses shall be made, papers read, discussions carried on, and general business transacted in accordance with the by-laws of the Conference. The Conference shall not, however, formulate any platform nor adopt resolutions or memorials having a like effect. It further states that the qualifications for membership of the Conference are: All who have an active interest in the public or the private charitable or correctional work in the State of Oregon are invited to enroll themselves as members of the Conference. No other tests of membership shall be applied, and no membership fee charged, the expenses of the Conference being met by voluntary contributions The constitution then goes on to provide for the officers of the Conference and standing committees. A short discussion ensued on the adoption of the constitution as to whether a conference should be "A Northwest Conference," "An Oregon State Conference," but the committee decided to call it the latter as it was felt that the name of the state would be an advanage and that it would be better to confine the membership within its limits. The committee on programme reported progress and read communications from different interested parties pledging aid. A letter was also read from Governor Geer, in which he has promised to appoint delegates from the several state in-stitutions to attend the convention. He also hoped to be there in person. The members of the committee expressed thmselves of the opinion that the Govern-or would probably attend, as it is the practice all over the United States, for the chief executive to attend these con-A letter was read from Miss Anita Whitney, secretary of the Associat-ed Charities of Oskland, California, who informed the committee that California would hold a conference of charities and correction in San Francisco from February 14 to 17, and that Mrs. Falconer, the chief children's probation officer, of Chi-cago, and Dr. S. G. Smith, of St. Paul, president of the State Board of Charities and Correction, of Minnesota, would also attend and address the Conference. Dr. Smith is well known in charitable and correctional work. He made the oper ing speech at the last National Confe ence of Charities and Correction held at Washington, D. C., and on that evening the Foundry Methodist Church was crowded to overflowing. Dr. Smith is also known in Portland, and a few

The committee on hall reported that the only available place of meeting was some church. Several were spoken of but it was finally decided that the First Bap-tist Church would be the most suitable. It was then unanimously decided to hold a two days' session and to devote one session to state institutions, at which meeting Dr. Williamson, of the Oregon State Insane Asiyum, will be asked to make a short address on the work among the insane, and Superintendent Lee, of the Oregon State Penitentiary, will also be asked for a short paper on "Modern Ex-Governor and Mrs. Moody will be invited and many other prominent speakers, as it will be the endeavor of the committee to make the work of the Conference of great benefit to the entire

AT ITS BEST.

In "The Dromonoes," at the Fredericks-burg this week, the London Galety Girls burg this week, the London Galety Girls introduce a startling feature. As a result the house is crowded, and the crowd waits for the climax, which appears about 10:30 P. M. No bookings ever made by the Fredericksburg management have proved such drawing-cards as those on hand now. The Galety Girls are gay and the Malvern Brothers, in their upto-date acrobatic feats, cannot be sur passed anywhere. All in all, the Fred ericksburg is at its best, and that is saying much for the best free show in

WORKMEN TAKE ADVANTAGE OF MRS. WHITING'S ABSENCE.

Her Little Home Is Taken Out of the Way to Make Room for Supple's Building.

Preparations are being made to move the two-story building that stood on the corner of East Second and East Morrison streets on to the foundation in Sup-ple's shippard. At the foot of Belmont street Mrs. Whiting's house still obstruct. ed the way, and yesterday while she was about 15 feet so as to have room for the large building. It was found that they could not get the large structure on to the foundation while her house remained. It was moved back, but not out of the street. The men worked with a little nervous haste so they could get through the job before Mrs. Whiting should return, for they were not sure what would happen when she returned. Mr. Supple offered her $20 for the house, but she was advised by Governor Pennoyer that she should have $50.

It is Mr. Supple's intentions to clear imont street between East Water and the river so that it may be used by the general public. The large building will stand on the south side of Belmont and face East Water street. He will move everything he has in the street, thus givwill then be the only street for many blocks open to the river which may be used by the public. A roadway will be built from East Water street on an easy grade to the low ground

tion-Movement to Clean Up. At a well-attended meeting of the Brooklyn Sub-Board of Trade, held last night in the hall on Powell street, the matter of securing better school facilities and also cleaning up that portion of the city, were considered. Attention was called to the overcrowded condition of the Brooklyn schoolhouse In the dis on it was remarked that already 30 s were compelled to recite out in the hallway, and by the February term there would be a considerable increase it attendance. It was decided to ask the taxpayers' meeting to vote a tax sufficient provide more rooms to the Brooklyn uilding. Waldemar Seton was elected to represent the community at the meeting, and an effort will be made to have large delegation of citizens present.

The following resolutions were then passed, bearing on the cleaning up of the community and the American Civic Improvement League: Whereas, A considerable portion of the East warrans, A considerance portion of the East Side is disfigured by unsightly piles of rubbish of every description, rotten sidewalk board, tin cans, wire and scraps, and in many places the ravines are dumping places for vegetables and household refuse; and

Wherens, The Mayor has declared in his remessage that there is great need of a eral cleaning up of the city by the removal destruction of all perishable rubbish; therefore, be it Resolved, That it is the sense of this Sub-Board of Trade that a concerted effort should be made in every community to carry out the suggestions of the Mayor; that an appeal should be made to the school children to take part in this inovement in that they may be encouraged in habits of order and thrift; and

Resolved, That we indorse the purposes of the American Civil Improvement League, which it is proposed to organize in Portland in the near future, so that our city should become noted for cleanliness and good order; and be

Resolved, That we make a special appeal to that part of the East Side south of Division street to engage in a general cleaning up of rubbish, and to this end that a strong committee be appointed to ask property-owners and residents to engage in this work, and also to visit the Brooklyn and Clinton Kelly Schools and ask the pupils to aid in this work, so that this district shall be thoroughly and systematically cleared up.

A committee was appointed to visit the Brooklyn and Clinton Kelly schools, and ask the pupils and teachers to co-operate neighborhood.

FOR CIVIC IMPROVEMENTS.

President Donaugh, of Sellwood Sub-Board, Favors Movement. D. M. Donaugh, president of the Sell-wood Sub-Board of Trade, says that he heartily approves the purposes of the American Civic Improvement League. To some extent that organization has in operation a movement to clear up and clean up all that portion of the city. Along this line much has been accomplished, "We are going to do more," said Mr. Donnugh yesterday, "and I think that now is the time for starting in everywhere. All should help. We are going to press the matter up here the best we can. It takes time to get people to appreciate the bene-fits from a clean neighborhood, but they are coming to it. We are in sympathy with the purposes of the American Civil Improvement League. I think, however, that each neighborhood will have to look out for itself, perhaps through local or-ganizations. At present nothing is more important than to get rid of the unsightly rubbish. It will cost little or nothing to do this if all put their shoulders to the wheel and do a little. Let every resident make it a point to clean up his own premises and some of the surroundings, and it will not be very long before a vast improvement will be made. The reason that now is the time is that it is safer to burn up rubbish than in the Summer when there is danger."

MOUNT TABOR TEACHERS IN LINE. They Too Ask for Increase of Sal aries From District.

At a meeting of the Board of Educa-tion of the Mount Tabor School District, No. 5, held Monday evening in the main building on West avenue, a communicadistrict asking that their salaries be readjusted so as to correspond to some ex-tent with those paid in the city. The maximum salary paid to the teachers is $50. No specific demand was made, and 10 per cent increase was named. All that was left to the directors and the taxpayers of the district. No action was ter will be laid before the annual meeting of the taxpayers, who will decide whether the request will be granted or not. Any increase would probably not apply this year. The total of salaries for one month for all the teachers and that of the janitor is $680. It was decided at this meeting that the next annual meeting should be held in the main building on Monday evening, January 27. Clerk Field has begun preparations for the annual report. As far as he has gone it is shown that the finan-cial condition of the district is better than at any time for a number of years,

BABY HOME AFFAIRS.

Need of a Hospital Building on the Grounds Is Urgent.

The managers of the Baby Home the regular monthly meeting Monday atternoon. Mrs. Sitton, president of the board of directors, presided. All bills for the past month were audited and ordered paid. The month were audiced and ordered paid. The monthly expense foots up to about $300. Great economy is exercised in the management of affairs. In the Home there are 25 children, which is a larger number than has been in the institution at one time for several years. On hand are applications for others.

The board has not yet been able to do anything toward the erection of a hospital, which is greatly needed. It would cost $500, but the expenses of the institu-tion absorb all the income, leaving noth-ing for the hospital building. It is hoped that some benevolent person will see the gle manufacturers, of Mayger, was in

PIANOS AND ORGANS

The very best American pianos and organs are manufactured in the cities of Boston, New York and Chicago. The old time-honored "CHICKERING" is the finest and most costly piano made in Boston. The world-renowned "WEBER" is the finest and most costly piano made in New York.

The now famous "KIMBALL" is the finest and most costly piano made in Chicago.

These three makes of pianos are our leaders. We have also a dozen other good makes, such as the "DECKER," "VOSE," "WHEELOCK," "WHITNEY," "HINZE," "MILTON,"
"SCHUMANN," "MARSHALL," not to forget the new "HOBART M. CABLE," the "WESER ORCHESTRAL," and the many-toned "CROWN ORCHESTRAL" pianos. Kimball organs lead the world, ranging in price from $65.00 to to $25,000.00. We sell also the Needham organs, the Great Western organs and the old famous "Burdett," organs. Prices $35.00 and up. We sell instruments on easy payments if desired. For price lists and catalogue, address

LAMBERT SELLS FOR $40,000. Tract of 160 Acres Goes to Waverly Association.

OREGON CITY, Jan. 14 .- A $40,000 transfer was filed for record in the Courthouse today by William Whidden, secretary of the Waverly Association, by the terms of which J. H. Lambert conveys to the association about 160 acres of land adjoining and lying south of the golf grounds. The tract lies east of the Portland City & Oregon Railway Company's track and will be divided into five-acre tracts and sold for homes. Several minor reserva-tions accompany the deed, among them a two-acre cemetery and certain Cambridge. All of the tract abuts lots in Cambridge. on the Wilamette River, and the ferry, on the Whamette River, and the ferry, wharf, riparian, and water rights, franchises and privileges are conveyed with the property. Still Thinks Hogs Were Poisoned. Edward Close, one of the proprietors of a farm and hog ranch on the Base Line road, emphatically denies the statement made by a farmer of that vicinity, to the effect that $50 hogs which recently died on Mr. Close's ranch were victings of hog choiers. He says that no one has been at his place to examine the dead except his neighbor, William Reames, who is convinced that they were poisoned. Mr. Close says he examined the stomachs of some 25 of the hogs, and found tarred paper in them. This is a sure poison for hogs, and one that they will eat, but in this case some kind of ground grain was put on the paper, to make the hogs tat it more readily. The hogs did not exhibit any symptoms of cholera, and after they were poisoned, lingered for three to four weeks before dying. Mr. Close says that some of the people in the section where his ranch is appear to want to drive him and his partners away. They were told that it was no place for a hog ranch there, and a horse was stolen from them and afterward a number of young piks. He says they have the place leased for three years and that they have used their neighbors right, and can see no reason for any one wishing to injure them, Boulevard Is Graveled.

The county has graveled the center of the Willamette Boulevard nearly all the way to St. Johns. For the present the gravel is a little soft, but it will pack into a solid roadway.
