NO THIRTEEN FOR NEILL

PUGILIST REFUSES TO TRAVEL ON UNLUCKY DAY.

For That Reason He Delays Starting From San Francisco-He Arrives This Morning.

Al Neill, the well-known boxer, was due to arrive in Portland Tuesday morning, and his failure to appear caused no little uncasiness among Portland sports. However, their minds were eased yesterday, when letters from Neill explained the situation. He intended leaving San Francisco Sunday night, but missed the train, and rather than begin his lourney on Monday. rather than begin his journey on Monday, which was the 13th day of the month, he remained in the Bay City until Tuesday night's train, which arrives here at 7:5

Nell is evidently superstitious, for he says that he does not wish to begin his battle with any evil omens hanging over him, or the gods of war frowning upon him, or the gods of war frowning upon him. Yesterday Jack Day, of the Pastime Club, re-ceived a letter from Neill, in which the latter states that he is in excellent con-dition and will put up the banner contest of his career. He will resume active training today, and expects to be in the pink of condition for next Thursday's "Mysterious" Billy Smith, who will be "Mysterious" Billy Smith, who will be Neili's opponent, is training faithfully, and expects to carry away the spoils of victory. In speaking of the contest, Smith said: "I am now in better condition than I have been for the past five years. Underrating my opponent's abli-ity came near losing me the decisions in last two contests before the Pastime my last two contests before the Pastime Club, and I assure you that it will not be the case this time. I realize that Neill is one of the best men in the country, and I will enter the ring prepared to put up the fight of my life."

PRESIDENT LUCAS RETURNS. Reports Great Enthusiasm Among

Baseball Players of Northwest. W. H. Lucas, president of the North west Baseball League, arrived home from St. Paul yesterday morning, having stopped at Butte, Helena, Spokane and the ound cities. Mr. Lucas has made satis-ctory transportation rates with the Northern Pacific Rallway Company, and he is very enthusiastic over the prospects for a successful baseball season in the Northwest. In speaking of the situation

'The people of Butte and Helena are backing their teams in good shape, and they are going in to win. McCloskey is hard at work getting things into shape for the season, while Grim promises to turn out a rattling good nine at Spokane. In Tacoma a new company has been organized, and the baseball players will re-ceive every encouragement. Dugdale had signed several players for the Seattle team, and altogether prospects are flat-tering for all the teams. The presence of two new teams and many new players will increase the interest in the game and make the sport more attractive. Both Butte and Helena will appear three times in Portland. Representatives of the league will meet in Spokane next week, when a schedule will be arranged."

Bad Spill in Six Days' Race. PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 15.-Twelve min. utes before the finish of the third day's racing in the six days' bicycle race tonight there was a nasty spill, in which four riders were mixed up. Hatfield's collar bone was broken, Freeman badly sprained his right shoulder, and Fisher and Gougoltz were considerably shaken up. The splli was caused by Leander. He had been spurting, with the other riders close up. Suddenly he swerved slightly, and his wheel struck that of Hat-The latter fell, and the others also went down. Leander escaped, Hatfield, Fisher and Freeman were compelled to leave the track, and their places were taken by their team mates. Gougoitz con-tinued riding after he had been furnished a new wheel. TRAGEDY AT PITTSBURG. Affray at the House of Drunken Polc.

PITTSBURG, Jan. 15.—A ghastly dis-covery was made today when some neigh-lors, hearing cries coming from the residence of Vincent Vencelsick, a Pole, knocked open the doors and found the bedroom of the house saturated with blood. Mrs. Vencelsick lay beside the bed. Her face and head were crushed almost beyond recognition and she was dead. Three little children, their heads and bodies covered with gashes and cuts, and the husband, almost dead, were also lying on the floor. From what could be learned it appears that Vencelsick came ome intoxicated last night and assaulted his wife with a rail-cutter. She defend-ed herself with such weapons as she could find. The three children were asleep in one of the beds, and the brutal father rushed to the bed and rained blow after blow upon the sleeping little ones. The sharp edge of the cutter hacked the children in a frightful manner and the hoschildren in a frightin manner and the hope of their recovery. The attack on the children infuriated the wife, and with a knife in each hand she sprang at her husband and stabbed him a number of times. The husband finally brought the cutter down on her skull and she fell to cutter down on her skull and she fell to the floor dead.

Developments tonight add mystery to the tragedy. Three Poles who were board-ers in the house are under arrest, and ers in the nouse are under arress, and the police are scouring the city for John Okenski, who also was a boarder, but who has not been seen since the murder. It is learned that the woman had over $1200 on her person last night, and this is also missing. Okenski is accused of having set fire to a mattress in the house a week ago, and later Venselsick tried to have him arrested because he had threatened to rob the house. When found the woman was lying across a couch which belonged to Okenski, with her face and head battered almost to a jelly. The man's head was beaten in and his skull fractured. The children's heads were also cruin, and physicians at the hospital say none of the injured can recover,

KERNS, THE THIEVING VALET. Believed to Be Under Arrest at New Orleans. NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 15.—George I. Kline, of St. Louis, and Robert L. West, of Cincinnati, were arrested across the river this marning, charged with robbing the trunk of T. E. Manners, of Chicago, of about $2500 of jewelry. They are alleged to have represented themselves last night as Manners and another guest at the St. Charles Hotel, paid the bills and left with the baggage. They crossed the river in a skiff, and were caught before the train came on which they expected to in a skiff, and were caught before the train came on which they expected to leave. Later in the day, Manners went over to identify the property, and Kins accused him of being a thief under an alias. As the whole affair had a queer look Manners was also arrested. The look. IDENTIFIED AS KID CURRY.

Harvey Logan Was Known as a Desperado of Northern Montana.

HELENA, Mont., Jan. 15 .- Harvey Lo gan, the desperado who was arrested at Knoxville, Tenn., on a charge of having stolen bilis of the National Bank of Montana in his possession, and who made a desperate attempt to escape, is no other than the notorious Kid Curry, of North ern Montana. Logan's picture, which was received by the bank today, was identified as that of Curry by T. A. Mariow, president of the bank, who knows Curry well Mr. Marlow formerly employed Curry as a cowboy, and he says there is no doubt about the identity of the man. The identification of Curry may have an imporant bearing upon his trial. Curry, or Lo-gan, was arrested for having unsigned bills of the bank, that had been stolen in the Great Northern robbery. The thorities of Northern Montana have been confident that Curry was implicated Saving a Murderer From a Mob. MAYSVILLE, Ky., Jan. 15-Sixty would-be lynchers attacked the jail at Fiemingsburg, near here, early today. The object was to get hold of Charles Gaskins, who killed James Ryan, the son of Officer Ryan, of Flemingsburg, last Summer. Gaskins had been kept in jall in Newport ever since the crime, but he had to be removed to Flemingsburg yes-terday, his trial having been set in the Circuit Court there. Every precaution was taken to prevent his seizure. The Sheriff refused the mob's demand for the negro and made stout resistance. Windows were broken in the hope of gaining an entrance, but the attempt proved for tile. Finally dynamite was used, but to Day breaking, the would-be fearing identification, disaplynchers, peared. More trouble is feared.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Jan. 15.-Governor Beckham today ordered the Frankfort military company and a detail of the Lexington Battery to Flemingsburg to pro-tect the negro there against whom a attempt at lynching was made last night.

ELECTIONS ARE RATIFIED

FORMAL BALLOTS IN OHIO, KEN-TUCKY AND MARYLAND.

Senator Foraker's Address to the Legislators at Columbus-The New Governor of Iowa.

COLUMBUS, O., Jan. 15. - The Senate and House met in joint session today and re-elected Joseph B. Foraker to the United States Senate. Senator Foraker had practically no opposition, the division being purely partisan, the Democrats sup-porting Hon. Charles W. Baker, of Cin-cinnati. Every Republican present cast cinnati. Every Republican present cast his vote for Senator Foraker. The election of Senator Foraker was purely formal. There were no addresses, except that of the Senator. He said in part:

Fight Over the Proposition to Form a State Federation-Talk on Immigration.

TACOMA, Jan. 15,-About 150 delegates are here to attend the fifth State Labor Congress, of Washington, which opened today. It is believed there will be only one question which is likely to result in a sharp fight. That is the proposition to form a State Federation of Labor to be affiliated with the American Federa-tion of Labor. The delegates from Seattle are instructed to favor the measure but there will be opposition from other sources. William Blackman, who has served as president of the congress since its formation, will not be a candidate for re-election. He is too busy to devote his time to the office. F. Stacy Whitney, secretary, it is conceded, will be re-elected. It is expected the congress will express itself on the Chinese exclusion lav and some of the state legislation which failed to pass last Winter. Tonight public meeting was held in Germania

HEARTY INDORSEMENT OF 1905 FAIR FROM ASTORIA.

ASTORIA, Jan. 15.-At a regular meeting of the Astoria Progressive Commer cial Association, this evening, a resolution was adopted indorsing the proposed Lewis and Clark Centennial Celebration. The resolution follows: "In view of the effort on the part of the City of Portland to properly celebrate the approaching centennial of the Lewis and Clark expedition to Oregon and the mouth of the Columbia River in the Winter of 1805-6, and the warm sup port this effort is receiving both in Portland and the country at large, and in view of the further fact that it was at or near Astoria that the most memora ble scenes of this great historic expedition were enacted, "Resolved. That this association extend to the directors of the proposed celebration the most hearty approval and indorsement of this association, and reprentatively of the entire community of Astoria and vicinity, and assure the mittee and the people of Portland that Astoria will be second only to the metropolis of the Pacific Northwest in tile interest taken and the work done to carry rated, and that a copy of these resolutions be sent to the directors of the celebra city demurred and claimed that even if the facts set forth in the gas company's petition were true, the city still had the right to regulate the price of gas. Judge Grosscup held that the city had the right but told attorneys for the gas concern that they might amend the bill so as to protest against the 75-cent rate as being too low. Mayor Harrison said the court's ruling meant that the municipality had the right to regulate the rates charged for telephones, electric lights and all other service rendered by public utility
