

A PERILIOUS MARCH

Terrible Hardships Suffered by a Party of Marines

IN THE INTERIOR OF SAMAR

Men Were Without Food For Several Days—Relief Party Found Several of the Company Delirious.

MANILA, Jan. 28.—General Chaffee curtailed his trip and returned here this morning. He says he found the conditions satisfactory everywhere except in Samar, where continuous rains during the past two months has retarded the campaign, especially against such an elusive enemy.

The condition of Captain David P. Porter's marines, who took part in the expedition into the interior of Samar, is much worse than previously described. They suffered fearful hardships, and were without food for several days. They had been provided with rations for only five days. The natives who accompanied the marines declared they were unable to distinguish the edible roots, which the marines did not believe. The anger of the natives against the marines is intense. None of the latter returned with the marines. The marines suffered so acutely from starvation that they ate raw the flesh of two dogs.

When Captain Porter and 25 of his men staggered into camp January 3 they were delirious, and difficulty was experienced in ascertaining the whereabouts of their companions. Williams, of the First Infantry, headed the relief expedition in the face of a terrible storm which flooded the rivers. He succeeded in reaching the remaining 10 men, who would otherwise have certainly perished. He found them all delirious. Two of the men were discovered in the branches of trees, barking like dogs. Some of the marines are so ill that they are not likely to recover.

General Chaffee has endeavored to obtain full details of the trip of the marines, but Captain Porter is not yet able lucidly to explain matters.

Filipino Officers Surrender.

Major Lot and three Filipino Lieutenants, with 10 rifles, three revolvers and 24 bolts, surrendered to Major Anderson, of the Sixth Cavalry, yesterday at Lipa, Province of Batangas. Lot was brought in sick on a litter. He is cordially hated at Lipa, where he looted $5,000 worth of jewelry from prominent families. Nickerson's scouts have captured Colonel Lot, a brother of Major Lot, near Batangas.

Lieutenant Larned of the Sixth Cavalry, had a slight engagement with some Filipinos, during which he killed two insurgents and captured a Captain and two soldiers. The general outlook in Batangas Province is decidedly favorable.

Led by Renegade Americans.

A party of insurgents, led by two renegade Americans, recently entered Alangalang, in Leyte Province, claiming they were consularly, but not yet uniformed. The insurgents were taken to police headquarters and were royally entertained by the native Sergeant in charge. At a given signal, the renegades and insurgents fell on the police, who, though outnumbered more than two to one, fought desperately, and drove off their assailants after a hand-to-hand fight, in which both were the chief weapons. The victory was notable, as the police were completely surprised and outnumbered. They lost two men killed and had one man wounded. The insurgents left one man dead.

General Wheaton's Case.

The criticism of the Senate minority report on the Philippine tariff bill has been general, both in public and in private here, though many persons admit the statements made in the report are correct. General Wheaton's vigorous criticisms referred entirely to Professor Schurman's speech at Boston, though he holds the professor in high personal esteem. The statement that the professor made such remarks here as those credited to the professor during his Boston speech would be sent to jail referred merely to the recent edition law.

LETTER FROM A SOLDIER.

Alleges Inhuman Treatment of Philippine Natives.

SEATTLE, Jan. 28.—Clarence Clowe, of Seattle, who recently arrived home from the Philippines, where he served as a private in Company H, Twenty-fifth Infantry, U. S. V., has authorized the publication of a letter, written by him to Senator Hoar from the islands June 10, 1900. Clowe asks in the letter honorable discharge from a service that is outrageous in its character and inhuman treatment by American soldiers toward Filipinos he says in part:

"At any time I am liable to be called upon to go out into the field and help prisoners, to strike them in the face, to knock them down when so bound, to bear them away from wife and children, at their very door, who are shrieking helpfully the while or begging for mercy from the hands of our officers, imploring mercy from those who seem not to know what it is, and then, with a crowd of soldiers, hold our helpless victim head downward in a tub of water in his own yard; or bind him hand and foot, attaching ropes to head and feet, and then lowering him into the depths of a well of water, till life is well nigh choked out, and the bitterness of death has been tasted, and our poor, gasping victims ask us for the poor boon of being finished off, in mercy to themselves.

FUNSTON IN KANSAS.

His View of the Metcalfe Incident in the Philippines.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 28.—General Funston this afternoon submitted to an examination of the wound from which he has experienced trouble lately. Whether or not another operation would be necessary the physician was not ready to state, saying that it might be two or three days before that question could be determined. In the meantime General Funston said he would remain in Kansas City, resting quietly, but he expressed himself as feeling perfectly well. He said that after undergoing treatment here and visiting his parents he would return West in time to take a transport for Manila early in February. His leave of absence expires March 10.

BOER PEACE PROPOSALS

ENGLAND APPROACHED THROUGH THE MEDIUM OF HOLLAND.

Dutch Government Asks That It Be Permitted to Act as a Sort of Diplomatic Agent.

LONDON, Jan. 28.—The Government leader, A. J. Balfour, announced in the House of Commons today that no overtures for peace had been received from any one authorized to speak in behalf of the Boers. A communication was, however, received late Saturday last from the Dutch Government, which was now under consideration. Mr. Balfour hopes "the Boer issue" that gave a lift to a book of short stories of Western life, which was published about the same time. Since then he has written more remarkably good tales of his early life in the West, called "The Boyville Stories," and recently he has attracted attention by a series of pungent articles in McClure's Magazine on political celebrities. His article on Row Pickett was so full of ginger that Pitt made complaint to President Roosevelt, and he was going to sue White and McClure, but on a later second thought he concluded not to draw any more lightning in his direction.

WILLIAM ALLEN WHITE SERIOUSLY ILL.

KANSAS EDITOR SUFFERS FROM NERVOUS COLLAPSE.

William Allen White, well-known Kansas author and newspaper man, is sick, and has given up work for the present. He left Emporia with his family, going to Colorado Springs for a rest. A week ago he had an attack of grip, which has left him in a state of nervous exhaustion.

Mr. White gained National fame during the Presidential campaign of 1896 by an editorial in his own paper, the Emporia Gazette, entitled, "What is the Matter With Kansas?" That gave a lift to a book of short stories of Western life, which was published about the same time. Since then he has written more remarkably good tales of his early life in the West, called "The Boyville Stories," and recently he has attracted attention by a series of pungent articles in McClure's Magazine on political celebrities. about peace in South Africa. In a communication to the British Government the Dutch Government suggests that it might be permitted to act as a sort of diplomatic agent for the Boer delegates. The Government, however, expressly disavows any attempt at intervention, and does not mention any terms.

No Action on Wheaton's Case.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The War Department is not disposed to take any action respecting General Wheaton's utterances, which were quoted in the Senate yesterday. This is because the official report of the dispatch in which General Wheaton was quoted, are satisfied that the debate in the Senate proceeded upon an entire misapprehension of what General Wheaton was reported to have said. It is found that General Wheaton did not criticize the United States Senate or its committee, and it is thought that the Department has the misapprehension on that score arose from a general statement in the dispatch attributing such criticisms to other persons than General Wheaton.

Lieut. Brown's Sentence Commuted.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—Secretary Root today acted on the case of Lieutenant Preston Brown, Second Infantry, who was sentenced by court-martial to be dismissed from the service. It appears from the evidence that Lieutenant Brown shot a native Filipino because he allowed an American soldier to drown when he might easily have saved him. Secretary Root commuted the sentence of dismissal to be commuted, that he lose 35 numbers in his grade, and that he forfeit one-half of his pay for a period of nine months.

AN UNFAIR EXAMINATION.

Candidates Were Assisted in Their Preparations.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—The civil service commission has canceled the examination for special statistical compiler of the Department of Agriculture, held June 18 and 19 last, and has made public its report on its investigation of the integrity of that examination. The report says that employees of the Division of Statistics were improperly and unfairly assisted in their preparation for the examination by disclosures made by Mrs. Bertha Burch, an employe, in pursuance of instructions from John Hyde, statistician of the Department of Agriculture, directing her to give all the help in this examination which she "legitimately" could.

GREATEST OF ALL PHYSICIANS.

Discoverer of Paine's Celery Compound to Whom Thousands Owe Life and Perfect Health.

Professor Phelps was born in Connecticut, and graduated in medicine at Yale.

His unusual talent soon brought him reputation and prominence among his professional brethren. First he was elected to the professorship of anatomy and surgery in the Vermont University. Next he was appointed lecturer on materia medica and medical botany in Dartmouth College.

The next year he was chosen professor of the chair then vacated by Professor Robby, and occupied the chair, the most important one in the country, at the time when he first formulated his most remarkable prescription.

In view of the overwhelming testimony to the value of Paine's celery compound that has recently appeared from men and women of National reputation, the picture of Professor Phelps is particularly interesting.

Paine's celery compound makes people well. It is the one true specific recognized and prescribed today by eminent practitioners for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system. Professor Phelps gave to his profession a positive cure for sleeplessness, wasting strength, dyspepsia, biliousness, liver complaint, neuralgia, rheumatism, all nervous diseases of kidney troubles. From all such complaints Paine's celery compound has succeeded again and again where everything else has failed.

No remedy was ever so highly recommended, because none ever accomplished so much.

Today Paine's celery compound stands without competition for feeding exhausted nerves and building up the strength of the body. It cures radically and permanently. The nervous prostration and general debility from which thousands of women suffer so long that it finally gets to be a second nature with them—all this suffering and despondency can be very soon removed by properly feeding the nerves and replacing the unhealthy blood by a fresher, more highly vitalized fluid. A healthy increase in appetite and a corresponding gain in weight and good spirits following the use of Paine's celery compound.

Paine's celery compound is the most remarkable medical achievement of this generation.

Excepting its handful of magnificent statesmen and its military heroes," says the most recent writer upon America, "the people owe more to Dartmouth's physician-teacher than to any one man.

"In every walk of life, among the highest office-holders at Washington, in the homes of the best people in the large cities, among the every-day folks of the country, families in comfortable circumstances, families that live from hand to mouth, and could not, if they wished, afford the services of any but an ordinary physician—everywhere I have met people to whom Paine's celery compound has been a blessing."

The story of the life-work of this giant among men has been often told and is familiar to most readers. The likeness above is probably the best portrait of him yet printed.

It was the world-famed discovery by Professor Phelps of an infallible cure for those fearful fits that result from an impaired nervous system and impure blood which has endeared the great doctor to the world, and made his life an era in the practice of medicine.

It has been estimated that an appropriation of $500,000 could probably be expended in presenting the commercial, industrial, educational and other interests of Ohio at the great exposition, in providing a building, and in assisting in the proper location of exhibits. A written guarantee, to be signed by the General Assembly, is required for the appropriation. Among the numerous letters received at Germany Favor Retaliation. BERLIN, Jan. 28.—The feeling of Germany is for a tariff war rather than for a tariff peace, said Baron Heyl Zu Herin, a member of the Reichstag, in a debate before the tariff commission today. "The only way to deal with America and the British conditions which Lord Rosebery suggested, namely, to grant the Boers self-government on the Canadian model, no unnecessary prolongation of the military occupation, complete amnesty to the Boer and colonial rebels, and grants of money to enable the Boers to restart their farms. Dr. Hisschop had long conferences with the Boer delegates on the Continent, with the exception of Mr. Kruger. But he was assured that the ex-President had delegated his authority and that it was not necessary to see him. According to the paper, Dr. Hisschop persuaded the delegates to hold a conference and discuss the proposals. Then followed the visit of Dr. Kruger to London. The Daily News declines to reveal the outcome of the conference, but partially avows that the Boer delegates still insist upon independence, and it is said that the government ought to reply, setting forth Great Britain's terms and leaving the responsibility of a refusal to the Boers.

Referring to this matter editorially, the Daily News draws the inference that the government has already replied and has rejected the Dutch overtures as un-
