London Stock Market Quieter and

Less Buoyant, NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The Commercial Ad-ertiser's London financial cubiegram says: The stock market today was quieter and less buoyani. The somewhat changed mood was due to week-end realizations, and Chamber-lain's statement that our terms for peace are still the unconditional surrender of the Boers.

Consols relapsed 5 to 94%, and Kaffirs also had a setback, but railled in the street after the close of the stock exchange.

American shares were firmer than of late, but neglected, save Southern Pacific, which was very strong. Sharps bought thousands of shares, and leons offered the stock with equal freedom. The market margin consequently is only & throughout. It is suspected that there are two factions on the board, a condition the same as when Union Pacific bought blocks of

The Wheat market was fairly steady yester-ay, with not very much business reported. While the and these were the usual quotations given out in this city, there were the same old repairs of from 162c more being paid in the interior. Very little wheat is selling, even at these fancy prices, and the new business transmited in the past week has, in the aggregate, been of such small propositions that it has ind no appreciable effect on the general situation. Freights are still week, and the effect of taking the Pairwood off the market for lumber business will be mullified to a lurge extent by two or three high-priced vessels missing their chariters yesterday and going back to the free list. given out in this city, there were the same old

The London County Council loan was subini and inconsequential. NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—The market today re-lected the discouragement of operators over sorthed nine times over. The Chartered Trust & Agency Company, formed under the suspices of the Chartered Company, with a capital of £2,500,000, offered £1,250,000 at par, the Chartered the persistent determination of the outside public and the large money interests to refrain from speculation in stocks. The failure of suc-cessive new developments to induce any in-terest in the speculation causes increasing tered shareholders to get a preferential allotment of one-half this amount.

The English Sewing Cotton Company has passed its interim dividend, and the chairman neglect, even on the part of the professional neglect, even on the part of the professional operators. There were rome notable individual movements today, but the market as a whole was trivial and inconsequential. The most conspicuous movement was in Delaware, Lackgeanna & Western, which rose by rapid siages, making a new high record at each singe, to 2815. Metal Markets.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.—There was an excited copper market today. At the Metal Exchange, lots of 100,000 to 2,000,000 pounds were bid for and offered. But few sales were officially reported; though a considerable business was done by private deals. One seller offered 2,000,600 pounds of electrolytic at 123,6 but the best bid was 123,6. Lake closed with spot quoted at 123,623,6. electrolytic at 123,6136, and was offered at 1336, with 1236 bid, and castling at 123,61256. Lake for spot for July delivery was offered at 1336, with 1236 bid, and electrolytic spot for July was offered at 135. The London market for copper was 125 higher, closing with spot and futures at 125. The London market for copper was 125 bidsher, closing with spot and futures at 125. higher, closing with spot at 1669 and futures

Surety Company's Bond Returned. HELENA, Mont., Jan. 31 .- The Supreme Court today made an order returning to the Delaware Surety Company the $550. 909 cash bond put up by that company for the Montana Ore Purchasing Com-pany in the Pennsylvania mine suit. Yes-terday the Clerk of the Court approved a new surety bond given by the mining company in lieu of the cash bond. This bond is for $1,500,000. On, it were Charles W. Clark, son of Senator Clark, and H. L. Frank.

The attorneys for the Boston & Mon-tana Company today opposed the accept-ance of the new bond, holding that of the sureties but three were good for the amount for which they qualified. F. A. Heinze was on the bond, and the lawyers made the statement that the contents made the statement that the court had in a previous bond proceeding said he was not good for any amount in excess of the amount stated in that bond. The Judges said the lawyer was laboring un-der a misapprehension, as they had not passed upon the amount for which Heinze was good.

Butterfly Deal Broken Off.

NEW YORK, Jan. 31.-Negotiations for the sale of the Strecker collection of but-terflies, which was to have been pur-chased by Dean E. A. Hoffman, of the General Theological Seminary and pre-sented by him to the Museum of Nat-ural History, have been broken off, and at present it seems doubtful if the collection will come to this city. The trouble over the deal was, it is understood, due over the deal was, it is und to an advance in the price.

Harry S. New, vice-president of the Indianapolis Journal, tosses the following bouquet into the Burlington conservatory:

"I think I have never made a railroad journey, freer from annoyances of every character, or more satisfactory in every respect than that which I have just completed over the Burlington Route rom St. Louis to the West and return. The roadbed itself is fine, its passenger equipment, new and well cared for, the employes of the road are particularly attentive and polite and the dining-car service is the best I have ever seen anywhere." Hours the quickest and hundreds of miles the shortest line to the South and Southeast, Through trains to Kansas City and St. Louis. TICKET OFFICE: Cor. Third and Stork Ste
