THE OREGONIAN'S HANDBOOK.

The Oregonian's Handbook tells all about Portland, the entire Columbia River watershed and the 1000 miles of coast from Astoria to the Lewis and Clark settlement to Oregon. The book contains over 150 handsome illustrations, and is printed on enameled book paper. It will be mailed to any address in the United States or Canada for 7 cents a copy.

IT'S UP TO MR. WILCOX.—Mention was made a short time ago of the Charles Ladd, T. B. Wilcox and J. Bourne, Jr., having gone to Southern California, and taken along a large collection of golf balls, golf sticks, etc., and it was hinted that news of the California golf players might be expected from that region. During the past week several letters have been received, from which it is inferred that some of the most interesting golf contests ever witnessed on the Del Monte links have been going on between the Portlanders and a delegation of Tacoma golf players.

SMALL LOT OF DEERSKINS.—A small lot of deerskins was seen in a front-street commission store yesterday. The dealer stated that they were the first deerskins he had bought in two years, and exhibited the leather tag wired to each, as required by law. The tag is about the size of a silver dollar, and has stamped on it: 'Issued by Oregon Game and Forestry Warden.' It used to be no uncommon thing to see truck loads of bales of deerskins on Front street a few years ago, when the 'skin hunters' were endeavoring to exterminate the deer in this state. As very few deer comparatively have been shot for the last two or three years there ought to be a good many deer hides running at large in this state now. The deer probably find them very comfortable at present.

AN EVENING WITH WAGNER.—The programme at the Current Events Club last night was of Wagner and what he has done for music. Selections from Tannhauser, a mandolin solo by Guy Lovelace with piano accompaniment by Miss Gladys Barr was rendered with taste and expression. Mrs. Rapp read reports of various Wagner operas, and Miss Elsie Barr gave a comprehensive sketch of the great music drama.
