Lending the surplus.
Secretary Shaw's first commission, made upon Maine, is at length promulgated.

WASHINGTON, D.C. -- Yesterday Abraham H. Thanksgiving, who is called the first Secretary of Agriculture, was commissioned by the President to conduct interviews with members of the Cabinet and the Senate on the subject of the surplus of land in the Department of Agriculture. The Secretary's instructions are to make a report to the President, and the President's instructions are to make a report to the Secretary of the Interior.
