APPARENTLY WELL SATISFIED WITH ANGLO-JAPANESE TREATY.

But Hopes the United States Is Not a Party to the Agreement-Comment of the Press.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 11.-The Russian official view of the Anglo-Japanese treaty was communicated to the correndent of the Associated Press as fol-

"We accept the news of the entente with complete equanimity, and are happy to ascertain that England and Japan are pledged to maintain the integrity of Chi-na and the independence of Corea, two principles which Russia was the first to establish as the basis of her foreign pol-icy in the Orient. Russia would willingly have subscribed to the agreements in the preamble. The English-Japanese say their convention has only essentially pa-cific aims. This makes it all the more astonishing when they speak of war and coalitions. What power they have in view we cannot say. But in any case If peace is menaced in the extreme Orient, Russia, for her part, will not fall to take all the measures necessary to safeguard

'All Russia's conventions with Japan have aimed at the preservation of the intearity of China and the independence of Corea and it is true that Minister Kurino came to us immediately to communicate the text of the agreement and give the most amicable assurances. We have reason to believe it is not true that America, with which we remain in perfect ac cord, is a silent partner in the affair. We have given America positive assurances that Russia will do nothing which will disturb the interests of America in China. We do not believe America is auxious about the situation. Furthermore, we have received satisfactory assurances that America is not taking any steps against us in China."

The few morning newspapers which commented upon the treaty intimated that Russia was a party to both the pre-liminary negotiations and the treaty itself. The St. Petersburg Zeitung wel-comes the general intent of the agree-ment to preserve the integrity of China "which Russia has so frequently, fully and entirely expressed it-self in favor of. The aims of the two Island powers, therefore in no wise clash with Russia's intentions. So the agree-ment raises no anxiety whatever."

The Herald deciares the alliance was by no means unexpected, "as the Japan-ese representative kept the Russian Foreign Office fully and liberally informed of the progress of events. At the time of the Chinese troubles, Russia hild down its programme for the integrity of China, so it can have no objection to Great Britain and Japan formally adhering to the same policy." "We hope," the Her-ald proceeds, "that we now have before us a period of five years of undisturbed peace in the far East, which we shall not fail to utilize in consolidating relations with our Asiatic neighbors."

The Herald concludes with halling with the highest satisfaction the recognition of the integrity and independence of Corea, "as fears of Japan's designs Corea, "as fears of Japan's designs against Corea had heretofore caused anxiety in Russia."

A Thrilling Account as Told by a Veteran of the One Hundred and Fifty-fourth Indiana Volunteers.

Jacob T. Keller, of Girard, Kan., is a veteran who saw long and hard service in the Civil War with the One Hundred and Fifty-fourth Indiana Volunteers, and he tells many a story of bivouse and battle. He was recounting some of his adventures to a reporter the other day. "Of all my experiences in the war and out of it," he said, "one is most often uppermost in my thoughts. I had strained my hip in some manner, but I thought I had got over it all right. About Iwo years after that, however, when I was plowing for wheat I gave out again in that spot. Rheumatism set in, and I had to quit work. I tried one thing after the other to get some relief from the pain, but nothing that I took helped me at all, and I became discouraged.
"The cords of my left leg were drawn

so badly that I could not straighten it out at all, nor could I sit down. My hip and knee palned me and I suffered hor-ribly. At times also I had nervous headactic. After trying a number of things, my daughter, Mrs. Fry. who had been cured of rheumatism by Dr. Williams Pink Pills for Pale People, induced me to try that remedy. My case was a very stubborn one, and I took five boxes of the pills before I could see much change, but I kept on and they certainly did wonders for me. The cords in my leg began to slacken, and before long it lim-bered so that I could use it again and be able to sit down. My kidneys had been bad and the pills soon made them bet-ter too. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People are a grand, good medlelne, and I recommend them to all who suffer
