VAN SANT'S VIEW OF FEDERAL ACTION AGAINST MERGER.

Attorney-General Douglas Expresses Opinion of Proposed Movement—New York Bankers Surprised.

ST. PAUL, Feb. 20.—Governor Van Sant this afternoon, in an interview with a representative of the Associated Press regarding the Federal suit against the Northern Securities Company, said: "We expected this action by the Attorney-General of the United States to be taken. He has never intimated that he would not or would not proceed against the Northern Securities Company, but, on the contrary, says he would examine the facts and if the law was being violated he would proceed."

NEW YORK BANKERS SURPRISED.

Say a Long Legal Battle is Now in Sight.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Bankers of this city identified with the formation of the Northern Securities Company were greatly surprised to learn, and at first unable to believe, that Attorney-General Knox is preparing a case against the company. They pointed out that a decision on a cognate case from the Supreme Court of the United States is expected in March, and they were unable to understand why notice of another action should be given pending this decision.

TO THE MAN WHO THINKS.

LOOK yourself squarely in the face and see if you are not half ashamed to be without Ivory Soap in your house. Worse than this, your wife is without it. It is bad enough for a man, though a man often doesn't care how his comfort is mis-spelled. But a woman misses all these little helps to housekeeping. And Ivory Soap is one; its great potency makes it actually cheaper than yellow soap for general work. It floats.

weather, the excursion will return to Portland, expecting to arrive back about 4 P. M. The visiting traffic men from the interior are particularly pleased with the prospect of the river trip. They get a surfeit of railroad excursions, but a boating party in the gorge of the Columbia will be to them a refreshing novelty.

COMAN MAY GO UP A STEP.

One Solution of the Problem of Portland Traffic Officials.

A number of the railroad men have figured out a new programme to succeed the present Court decreeing the writ of mandamus in every respect. Mrs. Roosevelt is unwilling to take any step which might prove detrimental to him, and expresses a doubt if she will start for Washington with the lead before Saturday.

Taxation of Franchises.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Feb. 20.—A decision has been handed down by the Supreme Court denying the writ of mandamus against the State Board of Equalization, asked for by the St. Louis School Board, to compel the taxation of public franchises at their true value.

Many Persons Keep Carter's Little Liver Pills on hand to prevent bilious attacks, sick headache, dizziness, and find them just what they need.

Ted Roosevelt's Condition.

GROTON, Mass., Feb. 20.—The condition of Theodore Roosevelt, Jr. was pronounced excellent today, and the arrival of Dr. P. M. Rixey, the President's medical adviser, from Washington, was the only feature of interest here. While the progress of the sick boy has been satisfactory in every respect, Mrs. Roosevelt is unwilling to take any step which might prove detrimental to him, and expresses a doubt if she will start for Washington with the lead before Saturday.

Santa Fe and Mexican Central.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., Feb. 20.—E. P. Ripley, president of the Santa Fe system in Santa Barbara, to spend the winter, accompanied by his family. When asked regarding rumored negotiations for the purchase of the Mexican Central road by the Santa Fe, he said:

"The Santa Fe not only has not opened negotiations for the purchase of the Mexican Central road, but it has no desire to get below the American border. We already have a big system in operation in the United States, and it will be the policy of the company to improve the road it now has."
