

MARCONI'S NEXT TESTS

WILL INCLUDE TRANSMISSION OF WORDS AND MESSAGES.

Chain of Wireless Telegraph Stations to Be Established Along the Entire German Coast.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—At a general meeting of the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company today, Mr. Marconi, referring to the Trans-Atlantic experiments, announced that the next series of tests would include the transmission of words and messages.

Mr. Marconi complained that obstructions were thrown in his way on this side of the Atlantic in marked contrast with the generous encouragement which he had received from the Government and press of the United States and Canada.

Wireless Telegraph in Germany. BERLIN, Feb. 20.—The Navy Department has decided to establish a chain of wireless telegraph stations along the entire German coast.

ITALIAN PARLIAMENT OPENED.

King Victor Discusses Foreign and Domestic Questions.

ROME, Feb. 20.—King Victor Emmanuel opened Parliament today with considerable ceremony. The king, in his throne, referred to the tranquillizing effect on the country of the government's liberal policy and to the excellent relations existing between Italy and all the powers.

"A policy," said His Majesty, "which bears in mind all our rights and all our duties has earned us a large share of good will and increasing estimates of the esteem in which our country is held by foreign nations."

"In the relations of state and church, my government intends to maintain strictly the separation of the civil from the spiritual authority; to honor the clergy, but to confine them in their own domain; to extend unrestricted respect to the rights of the church, but to involuntarily preserve intact the prerogatives of civil power and the rights of national sovereignty."

ROSEBERY IS OUT.

A Definite Separation From the Liberal Party.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—As an outcome of the polemic concerning the relations between Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, Lord Rosebery and the Liberal party, Lord Rosebery has written to the Times declaring frankly that he remains outside Sir Henry's tabernacle, but not, he thinks, in solitude.

"Let me add," continued Lord Rosebery, "one word, at this time definite separation, nobody appreciates more heartily than I do the well-intentioned devotion of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman to the Liberal party, and the respect he attaches to its interest. I only wish I could have shared his labors and supported his policy."

CUT UP BY BOERS.

Disaster to a Dragoon Detachment at Klipdam.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—A detachment of the Scots Greys (Second Dragoons), one of Great Britain's crack dragoon regiments, has been cut up by the Boers at Klipdam. Major and Captain Kuesher were severely wounded; two men were killed, six were wounded, and 46 captured.

The Scots Greys formed part of General Gilbert Hamilton's column. The latter, while moving on Nigel, February 18, engaged a force of Boers at Klipdam. The Scots Greys became detached, were surrounded and cut off. General Hamilton was unable to dislodge the Boers from their position, so he continued his march toward Nigel. The Boers released the Scots Greys who had been made prisoners.

Boers Hard Pressed.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—In a despatch from Pretoria the correspondent of the Times says there is no doubt that the Boers in the Eastern Transvaal Colony are greatly demoralized, and that they are so hard pressed that many are reluctant to continue the struggle.

ENDORSES THE ALLIANCE

AMERICAN NOTE TO RUSSIAN AND CHINESE GOVERNMENTS.

Moral Support of This Country Is With England and Japan in the Far East.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—The Tribune today prints the following cablegram from Peking, under date of February 19: "A sensation was caused in diplomatic circles here today when it became known that the United States, through Secretary of State John Hay, had sent a note to the Russian and Chinese Governments, following closely along the lines of the Anglo-Japanese treaty of January 20."

Austrian Neutrality.

VIENNA, Feb. 20.—In the Reichsrath today Herr Wolf, the Pan-German leader, gave notice of an interpellation inviting the Austrian Government in conjunction with the German Government to prohibit the export of horses from Austria and Hungary to South Africa and thus maintain neutrality.

WILL REJECT COMPROMISE.

German Government Maintains Its Attitude on the Tariff Bill.

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—At the opening of today's session of the Reichstag, the chairman declared that the statements to be made by the Imperial Secretary of State for the Interior, Count Posadowski-Wehner, and the Secretary for Foreign Affairs, Baron von Richthofen, regarding the government's views of the tariff measure, must be treated as confidential.

Subsequently, however, a semi-official statement was issued showing that Count Posadowski-Wehner emphatically declared that under no circumstances would the federal government accept the proposed compromise amendment to the tariff bill in regard to the grain duties.

The Pope's Jubilee.

ROME, Feb. 20.—The pope today entered on the 25th year of his pontificate. Although the celebration of the jubilee is postponed until March 2, when the combined festivals of the jubilee and coronation will be observed, the day was marked by the singing of "The Deum" in St. Peter's and other observances. The pontiff was the recipient of congratulations from all sides.

Liverpool Bank Frauds.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—At the resumption of the General Assembly, on the charge of the Bank of Liverpool frauds at the Old Bailey today, F. T. Kelly, a bookmaker of Bradford, and Stiles, another bookmaker, both charged with complicity in the frauds, pleaded guilty. Sentences in their cases were postponed until Thursday.

In return for a mitigation of the prisoner's sentence, counsel for Kelly promised the restriction of his appeal. "Dick" Burge and Stiles also promised that their clients would restore all the money they had, but the judge remarked that he would not make promises and the postponement of the sentences until Saturday.

Trial for High Treason.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 20.—The trial of General Osman Pasha, on the charge of high treason, began today behind closed doors. Osman, who is a son of the famous Kurdish chief, Bedranhan Pasha, fled to Europe, and thence to Cairo, but he was induced to return to Constantinople by the Sultan's promise of pardon. On arriving here Osman was immediately arrested.

The Turkish government's methods of saving expenses have again been exemplified by the payment of indemnities due to British subjects under the guise of a payment to the navy. Out of $100,000 just paid to the Armstrongs on account of a contract for a new cruiser, $600,000 was handed over to the officials of the British Embassy to pay indemnities.

Many Were Buried Alive.

BAKI, Transcaucasia, Feb. 20.—During the course of the search today for bodies of victims of the recent earthquake at Shamakha, 22 persons were disinterred alive.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—Cabling from St. Petersburg, the correspondent of the Daily Mail says the seismic disturbance at a fresh volcano began to erupt vigorously last Wednesday. The correspondent adds that the number of killed in the Shamakha district is now estimated at 500.

German Mines Bill.

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—The lower house of the Prussian Diet today referred the mines bill to the budget committee, after Herr Mueller, the Minister of Commerce, had explained that the object of the purchase was to enable the state to counteract the monopolistic power of the coal syndicate in the interest of the navy, the railroads and the community generally. The mines bill places $8,000,000 marks at the disposal of the Prussian Government for the purchase of mining property in the district of Dortmund, Westphalia.

St. Petersburg University Closed.

ST. PETERSBURG, Feb. 20.—The university has been officially closed. In spite of the police force the students of St. Petersburg held a meeting February 18. At this meeting the government's concessions respecting student organizations and meetings were rejected and the strikers proclaimed that they would strike unless their demands for complete autonomy and freedom of speech were granted.

Pays No Dividend.

GLASGOW, Feb. 20.—At the annual meeting of the Wilson & Union Tube Company the chairman said no dividend could be declared on account of the unparalleled slump in prices due to American competition and the dissolution of the combination of tubemakers. The directors decided to close the works at Govan.

Restriction of Rats in Germany.

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—The destruction of rats throughout the empire, so far as this is practicable, is under consideration by the Imperial Health Department. The object of the Health Department is to mitigate the danger of contagious diseases.

INDORSES THE ALLIANCE

AMERICAN NOTE TO RUSSIAN AND CHINESE GOVERNMENTS.

Moral Support of This Country Is With England and Japan in the Far East.

CHICAGO, Feb. 20.—The Tribune today prints the following cablegram from Peking, under date of February 19: "A sensation was caused in diplomatic circles here today when it became known that the United States, through Secretary of State John Hay, had sent a note to the Russian and Chinese Governments, following closely along the lines of the Anglo-Japanese treaty of January 20."

Hay's Note Approved.

LONDON, Feb. 21.—In an editorial on Anglo-Japanese relations the Times says that the protest which Secretary Hay has sent to the Russian and Chinese Governments is proof, if proof were needed, that the Russian and Chinese Governments are most friendly relations with Russia, continues the Times, yet Secretary Hay formulates in the plainest and most trenchant terms the very objections to the Russian projects in Manchuria which have been entertained and urged here. Secretary Hay's dispatch shows how well founded was the belief of Lord Cranborne, the Under Secretary of Foreign Affairs, that the Anglo-Japanese agreement would be the best of all possible arrangements.

FUNERAL OF LATE CAPTAIN EDWARD CHAMBREAU SATURDAY.

The funeral of the late Captain Edward Chambréau, pioneer citizen and noted Indian fighter, will be held at 2:30 P. M. Saturday from the Calvary Presbyterian Church, at the undertaking rooms of Finley & Son, for the purpose of attending the services in a body, an order to that effect having been issued by Grand Commander T. A. Wood. The accompanying picture is an excellent likeness of Captain Chambréau. The funeral will probably be one of the largest held in this city for some time, and many persons will take the opportunity of paying their last respects to the brave and intrepid soldier, who was as earnest and effective in peace as in war, and who played his part in the developing and upbuilding of Portland and of Oregon.

INDIAN WAR VETERANS WILL PAY LAST TRIBUTE TO HIS MEMORY.

The funeral of the late Captain Edward Chambréau, pioneer citizen and noted Indian fighter, will be held at 2:30 P. M. Saturday from the Calvary Presbyterian Church, at the undertaking rooms of Finley & Son, for the purpose of attending the services in a body, an order to that effect having been issued by Grand Commander T. A. Wood. The accompanying picture is an excellent likeness of Captain Chambréau. The funeral will probably be one of the largest held in this city for some time, and many persons will take the opportunity of paying their last respects to the brave and intrepid soldier, who was as earnest and effective in peace as in war, and who played his part in the developing and upbuilding of Portland and of Oregon.

with the gravest concern by the Government of the United States. This declaration of policy and views of the United States Government ought to help clear away much of the nonsense which has been talked about the Anglo-Japanese agreement. The Times editorially concludes by highly complimenting Lord Rosebery as the originator of a far-seeing policy and understanding with Japan, and says: "It was Lord Rosebery who sowed the seed of which Lord Lansdowne has gathered the harvest of the empire."

Russia's Sincerity Not Doubted.

LONDON, Feb. 20.—In the House of Commons today the Under Secretary for the Foreign Office, Lord Cranborne, said in reply to a question by Henry Norman (Liberal) that the Anglo-Japanese agreement did not doubt the good faith of Russia's promise to restore the administration of the customs at Niu Chwang to the Chinese as soon as circumstances permitted this to be done.

Lord Cranborne declined to be drawn into an announcement of the steps the government would take under the Anglo-Japanese treaty to effect such restoration.

Abolishment of Sugar Bonnettes.

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—Telegrams received from Brussels at Magdeburg, the center of German sugar production, say that the International sugar conference, which reconvenes at Brussels next Saturday, will most probably reach an international agreement on the basis of Great Britain's proposals to abolish sugar bonnettes and reduce the import duties on sugar to 2 shillings per hundredweight. The great China and the nations of Europe appear to be in somewhat of a panic over this intelligence.

The spokesmen of the Agrarian party are energetic in their language against the government, and threaten it with the weight of the majority in the Reichstag should the legislation required by Great Britain's proposal be adopted.

"Germans to the Front."

BERLIN, Feb. 20.—Emperor William has commanded Professor Roeschling to paint a picture of the scene near the Chinese frontier, when Admiral Sevmouch, commander of the Peking relief expedition, gave the order, "The Germans to the front." This phrase has thrilled Germany, and President Roosevelt, who, through Emperor William's order, accompanied the German expedition to China, has made a study of the battle-field and the arsenal with the painting of this picture in view. The picture will be hung in Emperor William's gallery, and will represent the German forces on the double quick to the front, with the American and British troops cheering them.

Brook's Memorial Sarcophagus.

NEW YORK, Feb. 20.—Thomas Brook's memorial sarcophagus in honor of Lord Leighton, just unveiled, says a London dispatch to the Tribune, is a splendid addition to the sculpture of St. Paul's Cathedral. There was a large attendance of academicians and literary men and Sir Edward Poynter's panegyric, delivered in view of the memorial, was highly commended as Lord Leighton's own rhetorical address had been on academic occasions. The religious service was simple and the academicians were allowed to honor their beloved chief in their own way.

PRICE AT THE CAPITOL

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE VISIT TO THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE.

The Royal Visitor Will Also Meet Personally the Leading Statesmen—No Naval Reception.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—After conferences between State Department officials and members of the Senate and House, arrangements have been completed for the reception of Prince Henry when he comes to the capital next Monday afternoon. The Prince will be accompanied by Ambassador von Hohenlohe, Count Quadt and the members of his staff.

The party will arrive at the eastern main entrance about 4 o'clock, and will enter the building by the rotunda. Here a committee of members of the House will be in waiting to receive him, as the visit to the Senate will have to be made later, owing to the taking of the vote on the Phillips bill at 4 o'clock. Honorable representatives Grosvenor and Hitt and one Democratic member, probably Representative Dinwiddie, will constitute the committee. The Prince will be escorted first to Speaker Henderson's private office, where greetings will be exchanged, and the speaker will then invite the Prince and his party to occupy the speaker's reserved seats in the Senate and House. They will give the Prince an opportunity to observe the conduct of affairs in the House, the probability being that one of the appellate bills will be under consideration at that time.

After looking down upon the business of the House Prince Henry will return to the main floor of the House, and later will occupy the Senate and House committee's rooms for a time. In order that members of the House may be presented to him in person, it is understood that this part of the programme carries out a wish expressed by Emperor William that his brother should see not only the legislative branch in session, but also should meet in a personal way the members of the House. The government of the Prince will be escorted the Prince through the corridors to the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

PRICE AT THE CAPITOL

ARRANGEMENTS FOR THE VISIT TO THE SENATE AND THE HOUSE.

The Royal Visitor Will Also Meet Personally the Leading Statesmen—No Naval Reception.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 20.—After conferences between State Department officials and members of the Senate and House, arrangements have been completed for the reception of Prince Henry when he comes to the capital next Monday afternoon. The Prince will be accompanied by Ambassador von Hohenlohe, Count Quadt and the members of his staff.

The party will arrive at the eastern main entrance about 4 o'clock, and will enter the building by the rotunda. Here a committee of members of the House will be in waiting to receive him, as the visit to the Senate will have to be made later, owing to the taking of the vote on the Phillips bill at 4 o'clock. Honorable representatives Grosvenor and Hitt and one Democratic member, probably Representative Dinwiddie, will constitute the committee. The Prince will be escorted first to Speaker Henderson's private office, where greetings will be exchanged, and the speaker will then invite the Prince and his party to occupy the speaker's reserved seats in the Senate and House. They will give the Prince an opportunity to observe the conduct of affairs in the House, the probability being that one of the appellate bills will be under consideration at that time.

After looking down upon the business of the House Prince Henry will return to the main floor of the House, and later will occupy the Senate and House committee's rooms for a time. In order that members of the House may be presented to him in person, it is understood that this part of the programme carries out a wish expressed by Emperor William that his brother should see not only the legislative branch in session, but also should meet in a personal way the members of the House. The government of the Prince will be escorted the Prince through the corridors to the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who, with Mrs. Roosevelt, will be in the area to the left of the speaker's desk in the House of Representatives. On this occasion the Prince's suite will not be with him, but will occupy chairs further back in the rotunda, where a committee of Senators will meet them and give the visitor the courtesies of the Senate.

The following Thursday, when Prince Henry attends the McKinley memorial services in the House of Representatives, he will occupy a seat immediately alongside of President Roosevelt, who,