THE GUEST OF GERMAN.

Prince Henry Reviews a Torchlight Procession.

NEW YORK, Feb. 26.—Prince Henry of Prussia remained on the Hohenzollern this morning. A visit to Grand Central, which the Prince had desired to make early in the day, was postponed because of the weather...

Prince Henry replied briefly in German that it gave him great pleasure to find himself in the house of a German society and to be afforded the opportunity of witnessing the parade of the German societies...

"Gentlemen, most of you are citizens of this splendid country, the United States. From your old fatherland you have brought over a sense of duty which has undoubtedly to a large extent helped you to the success you have attained as citizens of this country...

"The procession, which had started immediately, commanded the attention of the Prince, who seemed immensely pleased and impressed with the spectacle...

The luncheon was served in the banquet hall. The floor was covered with crimson rugs, and the walls were concealed by tapestry...

The dinner was concluded at 11:45 P. M., and the Prince immediately left, accompanied by his suite...
