Says the Glare and Glamour of the Pootlights Is Poor Preparation for Minister's Work.

"The Preacher and the Theater" was the subject of an interesting sermon preached last night by Rev. J. F. Ghormof the First Christian Church. took the ground that personally he did not care to attend theaters, but that other people could do as seemed best to them.

"On arriving from La Center last Wednesday, and desiring to acquaint myself with the news since having left the city," he said, "I picked up The Oregonian of March 4, and, to my utter astonishment, found that I had been quoted as saying that I had burned my invitation to attend the play, 'The Sign of the Cross,' at the Marquam Grand. In The Oregonian of March 5 I found that the manager of the theater had expressed himself as feeling hurt because of the treatment he had received at the hands of the ministers. I speak for myself only. My setion in this matter was not intended as a law for anybody. I did not burn my invitation, and had no desire to insuit the manager of the theater. He is to be commended for not allowing plays to be performed in his theater Sundays, and for the liberal donation of the same, almost free of charge, to religious and charitable purposes. We condemn the Sunday theater in unqualified terms. On receiving the invitation, and being very busy and preparing to go with one of our families to bury a husband and father. I submit to you whether or no it would have been in keeping with my po-sition to have attended this theater on this occasion. Such occasions are con-stantly occurring in the work of every consecrated minister, and the glare and glamour of the theater is, perhaps, not the best preparation for the kind of work he has to do. Let other ministers do as may seem best to them, but, as for my-self, I cannot see my way clear to attend theaters.

The reasons for my not attending the aters, briefly stated, are as follows: First, I do not have the time. Had I the time and the inclination, I certainly should discriminate between theaters, but a second reason for my not going is the fact that all people do not discriminate between theaters. So the safe thing for me to do is to attend none. The third res-son is the expenditure of money by people who can fily afford this seeming luxury. The fourth reason is the operation effect it has upon those constantly attending. It unfits them for religious impressions. I do not have any patience with Sunday theaters, one way or an-other-not that we can, however, compel people to come to church.

"The invitation or order for a ticket to attend the theater did not show that it came from the manager referred to. Had this been clear, I would have undoubtedly returned the invitation to him. It probably went the same way as dozens of circulars I am constantly receiving—into my waste-paper basket. There is a sentiment that man must be in keeping with his work, and in harmony with it. I might attend a theater, and it might do me no injury, and what of the harm it can do to hundreds of others if it did me good? I love Shakespeare, and might enjoy the presentation of 'Julius Caesar' or 'Richard III.' But the people do not discriminate. I want to say that I have not been in a theater in all my life. No one in my congregation can say: 'My pastor has gone to the theater, and I have been led to do wrong by his having gone What of the wrongs behind the

In closing, the speaker drew a vivid picture of what the world owes to Christianity, and stated that the beautiful language found in the writings of Robert G. Ingersoli had been taken from the Bible. "If you will examine the lives of such men as Webster, Henry Clay, Calhoun, Lee, Grant, Garfleid, McKinley or Washington," he said, "you will find that the inspiration for the good they did came from their Christian acceptance. inspiration for the good they from their Christian ancestry.

VISIT OF BISHOP BRONDEL.

Hend of Montana Diocese Preaches on "Why I Am a Catholic."

At St. Mary's Cathedral yesterday morning, the Right Rev. John B. Bron-del, bishop of Montana, delivered a sermon on the subject, "Why I Am a Cath-olic." The bishop spoke eloquently on all matters pertaining to his belief, and his sermon was highly appreciated by the large congregation. Bishop Brondel was formerly well known in Portland, but during the past few years his visits to the city have been so infrequent that the younger generation of Catholics know him now only as the head of the large diocese of Montana, Older members of the church | One Passenger and Several Trainmen vill remember him as an earnest worker before his appointment to the bishopric and a zealous prelate since his promotion. His visit to Portland revives many old memories which, were he to tell the story of his missionary experiences in the Northwest and British Columbia, would add an interesting chapter to the history of the Pacific Const. Bishop Brondel left for home last night.

NORTHERN PACIFIC TAXES.

Judge Hanford Confirms the Settlement Recently Made.

OLYMPIA, Wash., March 9.—In the United States Court at Tacoma yesterday Judge Hanford entered a decree confirming the settlement made some time ago by the Northern Pacific Railway Company with the Commissioners of this county, whereby the company is to pay into the county trees were the county. e county treasury the sum of $20. 600 in full of all taxes on its trackage and rolling-stock for the years 1897-8-9. The taxes, with penalty and interest added.

Maxson Wreck Victims Doing Well. amounted to approximately $56,000, but the railway company claimed the assessment was entirely too high and out of proportion with what it had been compelled to pay in other counties. Before the stipu-lation was agreed to the company brought suit to bring about a reduction from the original amount, offering to pay $23,000 in full of all arrearages. After a little time the agreement was reached to accept $30,enter into the agreement. The Commissioners then employed a special attor-ney to represent the county, with the re-sult as determined yesterday in the United States Court.

COLLISION IN ARIZONA.

Hurt and Three Cars Burned.

BISBEE, Ariz., March 9.-Two cars and a special coach of the general superin-tendent were burned yesterday after a collision near Bisbee, on the El Paso & Southwestern. J. Eberhardt, a passenger, and several trainmen were injured. Eberhardt's skull was fractured. The collision occurred at Lowell, one mile west from Bisbee, Train No. 3, backing into the junction of Don Luis, met No. 6, coming to Bisbee from Douglass. They were not much more than 100 feet apart when the trainmen first saw their danger and the two trains crashed together at full speed. The trainmen on the rear coach of No. 3 and the firemen and the engineer of No. 6 saved themselves by jumping. The shock of the collision threw Eberhardt through the roof of the coach. The coaches of No. 2 were piled into a confused mass, caught fire and were slowly consumed. The engine of No. 6 was badly crushed and dis-

Announcement to the Public.

Owing to the favorable criticism and many inquiries received by us from the medical profusion and others interested regarding out statement that the so-called weakness of men is not a weakness, but symptoms of inflammation of the prostate gland (neck of bladder), caused by contracted disorders and early dissipation, and the Loss of Vitality, Prematureness, etc., are invariably cured by procedures directed toward correcting this inflammation, we wish to state to these many inquirers, in the columns of the press, that it takes, approximately, 10 weeks to cure these disorders of the male. The treatment is entirely a local one, as no drugging the stomach is necessary, and that the patient may treat himself at home under our directions. The effect of this treatment is not only gratifying, but immediate, and the patient is not discouraged by waiting too long for tangible results. We will cheerfully explain the plan of treatment to any reliable physician on request. The colored charts of the organs which we send free on application to any one interested in the subject will be found a great advantage in "Home Diagnosis," as well as a study for all interested in their anatomy. Very respectfully,
