

TELECOUNTIES VOTE

Primaries Today Throughout the State.

GOVERNORSHIP WAR STILL ON

Mr. Johns and His Candidacy—Porter and Brownell in Clackamas—Moody and Williamson.

Primary elections will be held today in 26 counties and upon the result will depend to a considerable extent the complexion of the state convention. The counties are Baker, Clackamas, Clatsop, Douglas, Gilliam, Jackson, Lane, Sherman, Union and Yamhill. The counties acting today will have a representation of 112 delegates in the convention, out of a total of 348. Candidates are anxiously awaiting the news from such counties as are considered doubtful or uncertain. The county conventions will meet next week to name delegates to the state convention. From what can be gathered here among politicians from the several counties who have been here in conference with party leaders, a fairly accurate idea can be gained of the situation.

In Baker County the issue is anti-Simon and anti-Geer. C. A. Johns is a candidate for Governor and is said to be leading the anti-Geer forces. The Congressional fight has been defined, and it may be that the delegation will be definitely pledged to either Williamson or Moody. Mr. Williamson has made his fight with anti-Simon, and of necessity Moody has thrown in with the Simon-Geer opposition. Mr. Williamson expects to be in Baker City today, and will confer with his friends, who are making the fight for him. In Clackamas County there will be no opposition in the primaries, and State Senator George C. Brownell and his friends will continue the county convention. The issue there has not been defined outside of advocacy of L. L. Porter for State Printer, and the re-election of Senator Brownell. The delegation will not be pledged in the fight for Governor, and will probably be used to further the interests of the two candidates mentioned. In Clatsop County State Senator Charles W. Fulton will undoubtedly carry in the primaries. There is no opposition to him, except that contained in a possible fusion at the June election. The attitude of the Clatsop delegation will depend upon the advantage to which it can be used in furthering Mr. Fulton's desire for Indorsement for United States Senator. It is definitely known that there will not be a vote in the delegation for Governor Geer, unless Senator Fulton has experienced a great change of heart. He has been reported as declaring his antagonism to Geer in emphatic language. It is quite on the cards that Mr. Furnish may receive the support of the Clatsop delegates, if Mr. Furnish can deliver his support to Fulton for Governor. It is expected that Clatsop County not only will be anti-Geer and anti-Simon, but may be pledged to Judge J. F. Fullerton, of Roseburg, for Governor. There is some talk of a fusion with Judge Fullerton looming up as a strong dark horse, if neither Geer nor Furnish wins on the first ballot. Gilliam County is generally credited with siding with the Williamson column, which would indicate an anti-Geer delegation to the state convention. From what can be learned, there will not be any considerable content in Gilliam, and Mr. Williamson's friends will win hands down.

In Jackson County, H. E. Ankeny, himself a receptive candidate for Governor, is making a strong effort. He is making A. H. McKinnon, who has been flirting with the Attorney-Generalship, lead in the anti-Geer anti-Simon force, and will put up with another candidate, being believed, as was stated yesterday, that Ankeny expects to receive Geer's support if the latter cannot secure the nomination. State Senator Kuykendall and Representative Harris are making the fight in Lane County against Geer and Simon, and are reported to have the situation well in hand. It is expected that the anti-Geer forces are without leaders, but they have been waging an active campaign and profess to be confident of victory. In the event of the fusion, the fusionists have been in charge of the Geer fight there, and has been unusually active. Dr. Calbreath is popular in the county, but there is an anti-Simon sentiment that is exceedingly strong. It is expected that workers have had considerable trouble on this account.

WHAT THE DEMOCRATS ARE DOING Chamberlain for Governor—Hunting for Headquarters.

The Democrats have not made up a slate other than District Attorney Chamberlain for Governor. They are hunting for the head of the ticket having been coded from the first. The name of ex-Governor Pennoyer has been used in connection with a hat dozen or more places on the ticket. He has been talked of for Congressmen, for the State Senate, for Mayor, and for other honors. Of a candidate, he cannot accept all, and to make matters worse for the Democratic candidates, the ex-Governor would prefer being the nominee for the Supreme bench in a year when indications point to Democratic victory.

REPUBLICAN PROSPECTIVE HAS BEEN IMPRESSED ON Chairman Sam White, of the Democratic State Central Committee.

Mr. White would have opened headquarters here a fortnight ago if suitable quarters could have been found. But at the desirable locations are taken, and he has been from place to place until he is tired of the seeking. Still he keeps up the search, and when he succeeds in finding the faithful will be notified, and Democratic thunder will come forth. The Democrats are apparently sincere in their belief that this will be an off-year for the Republican party, and they are preparing to flood the mails with campaign literature and make systematic effort to reach every voter. A local leader said yesterday that the Democratic city, county and state tickets will be along straight party lines, and no fusion movement or citizens' ticket will be listened to. But the Democrats are every counting with anything that looks like a defection from other parties, and the present time intensity for stamping Democracy may undergo a change before the time comes for naming the tickets.

D. Sorenson for Constable.

D. Sorenson is a candidate for Constable in the West Portland district. His name was confided to that of George Sorenson in the Oregonian yesterday. Found Through The Oregonian.

OAK POINT, Wash., March 15.—(To the Editor.)—It certainly pays to read The Oregonian for you often see in its columns something that repays you for a whole year's subscription. Having missed a certain Mr. Woods from his accustomed haunts along the Lower Columbia, I knew not who he was until I read in The Oregonian that he was Junkeying on the historic Isle of St. Helena, and that his hotel bills were being paid by the payment of all British throats, the British Government. But he seems to be unappreciative and thankless for the watchful care the British Government is keeping over him, and continually inquires from his friends here in Oregon when he is going to be allowed to pay his own hotel bills and eat salmon and potatoes on the banks of the majestic Columbia. But Mr. Woods can console himself with the reflection that greater than he, yes, a greater than his famous chief, Cronie, was once entertained by the British Government amidst the scenes where he is now rustling, and a more faithful ward and watch was kept over the great Corsican than there is over Mr. Woods and his companions. He has now plenty of time to chew the bitter cud of reflection, and if he ever gets back to Miller's Sands, in his spare moments when he is not hauling in the royal chink, he can amuse himself by taking a shot at the sea lions that sport themselves on the sands on the warm summer afternoons and imagine he is taking a shot at the British, whom he would not shoot at the sea lions that he doubt not that in future Mr. Woods will be quite willing to let those "who make the quarrel be the only men to fight." W. NEWELL.

SALMON STILL CAUGHT.

Close Season Law is Violated on Lower Columbia River. An honest, law-abiding fisherman from the Lower Columbia, who is in the city,

THE DUCHESS DE LA ROCHEFOUCAULD Formerly Miss Mattie Mitchell, younger daughter of Senator John H. Mitchell, of Oregon. Miss Mitchell was married in the Church of St. Clothilde, St. Germain, to the Duke de la Rochefoucauld, in February, 1892, and has since resided in France. Miss Mitchell was not wealthy. She was distinguished for her beauty, intelligence and pronounced amiability. This is from her most recent photograph. The portrait from which this picture is made, and the foregoing sketch occupies a page in Harper's Weekly of March 15.

reports that fishing for salmon is being carried on extensively down there. He says a cold-storage company has a schooner stationed near Brownport to receive fish. Fish Commissioner Van Dusen has apparently not "caught on," although it is reported that a fisherman was throwing out his seine in Westport Slough as Mr. Van Dusen was passing on the train not long ago.

The fish are said to be handled quite openly, as a man was seen with about a ton of freshly caught salmon in his skin going down the river the other day, without having even taken the precaution to cover them. It is reported that eight fishermen were at the "towhead" near Cathlamet a few evenings ago waiting their turns to make a drift. It is also reported on good authority that a cold-storage concern in Astoria has almost three carloads of Spring salmon frozen ready to ship to New York.

The honest, law-abiding fisherman says that poachers now sell their fish to the cold-storage men for four cents per pound and take the chances (not very desperate ones) of having their nets confiscated and being fined. When the season opens they will demand higher prices from the cannerymen, and so put them in unfair competition with those who deal in the unlawfully caught fish.

DEMOCRATS TO RALLY. Faithful Few Will Meet Tonight in Eagles' Hall.

The Democrats will fire the first gun in the campaign tonight in Eagles' Hall, corner Second and Yamhill. The following rather mournful appeal has been issued: Portland, March 20.—To the Democrats of Portland: Eight hundred Democrats voted the straight Democratic ticket at the late primary election in this city. Their constancy and fidelity to duty deserve special commendation. It was said of the "Old Guard" of Napoleon that it died, but never surrendered. So it might be said of the faithful few, who, though in a minority, have not given up their interest and voted the Democratic ticket. You were one of them. It is now proposed that each of these faithful few invite a Democrat to be held at the hall of the Fraternal Order of Eagles, on the northwest corner of Second and Yamhill streets, third floor, Saturday evening, March 22, at 8 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of talking the initial steps toward the organization of such of the voting precincts in the city and county. Your presence is earnestly solicited. Don't forget—Saturday night, this week. We need you. H. B. ADAMS, Chairman. W. N. GAVINS, Secretary. Democratic City and County Committee.

CITY LOSES STREET CASE

MILTON W. SMITH WINS HIS FIGHT AGAINST REPAIRS.

City Council Followed Charter of 1893, Instead of 1895, in Giving Notice of Improvement.

Judge Cleland yesterday in the suit of Milton W. Smith et al against the City of Portland, decided that the ordinance approved October 30, 1893, declaring it necessary to repair Hood street, between Sheridan and Curry streets, and directing the cost to be assessed upon the adjacent property under sections 124 and 125 of the charter of 1893, does not conform to the charter of 1895, and the proceedings must be held to be invalid. The decision was concurred in by Judge George and Sears. The bill for the charter of 1893 was presented to the Governor October 15, 1893, the same day the Legislature adjourned. The Governor deposited the bill with the Secretary of State October 17, 1893, and the court is of the opinion that it became a law at that date, since it contained an emergency clause. This was three days before the Hood-street repair ordinance was approved, so the 1893, and not the 1895 charter was in force at that time. The material question in the case was, concerning the notice. The provisions of

A Marvelous

Spring Health Giver and Invigorator.

Paine's Celery Compound

Purifies the Blood As Nothing Else Can Do.

It Nourishes the Tired Brain and Braces the Weak Nerves.

Paine's Celery Compound purifies the blood as nothing else can do; it is Nature's brain food; it builds up weak and shattered nerves; it is the world's best and surest health-giver.

Paine's Celery Compound, taken during the opening of Spring, has a remarkable efficacy in making sick people well and strong. It makes short work of debility and nervous exhaustion. It quickly drives out neuritis, rheumatism, sleeplessness and dyspepsia from the system. Its virtues promptly banish kidney disease and liver troubles. It enables all weak and run-down men and women to cast off their besetting troubles and gives them a happy and vigorous life. Rev. J. W. Ricketts, Sugar Grove, O., cheerfully testifies as follows: "I have been a sufferer from dyspepsia, attended with biliousness and constipation, for a number of years. During the last year it became so much worse that I had a misery in my stomach nearly all the time, and my flesh left me, until I was a mere skeleton. I have used four bottles of Paine's Celery Compound, and now I am at my normal weight. You cannot recommend Paine's Celery Compound too highly for chronic dyspepsia."

Mrs. Jennie H. Steele, Vaughns, Ga., who has resorted to the agencies of a terrible disease and sure death, says: "I have suffered for ten years with what the doctors called neuritis of the liver, and never had any relief until I began to take Paine's Celery Compound. I have taken about three bottles and have not suffered any since I first began to use it. I feel that Paine's Celery Compound saved my life."

also there. There was some opposition by the latter to the discharge of the guardian and to the appointment of Judge C. A. Jones as his successor. The court decided that it would be an injustice to continue the guardianship longer. The court, however, expressed an opinion that if it were possible to get the best interests of Mrs. Ferris.

This case has been several times before the court, and Ferris sued Gibson for damages for continuing the guardianship of her property. It is reported that a mortgage foreclosure suit now pending in which Mrs. Ferris is the defendant. The money, $500, was lent to her by Gibson and she was to pay it to the mortgagee.

The claim of George L. Gibson for $5000 against the estate of Charles O. Smith, deceased, was dismissed yesterday by Judge C. A. Jones. It is barred by the statute of limitations.

Smith lived in Centrais, Wash., where his estate was administered upon by his wife after his death and closed up. S. B. Houston, attorney, filed a motion for appointment in Multnomah County for the appointment of an administrator of the estate, and asked for an order authorizing the wife to sell certain property in order to realize due to the estate.

Judge C. A. Jones decided that it appeared that Gibson did not own the property, but at the time of the death of the latter he was the owner of the property. The court said that he would not do so.

Patrick O'Connor has filed suit against Annie O'Connor for a divorce, and Judge Frazer has signed an order restraining O'Connor from interfering with his wife or going about the premises occupied by her during the pendency of the suit.

This was done because Mrs. O'Connor filed an affidavit reciting that her husband frequently threatened to kill her should she attempt to get a divorce.

The claim of $377 filed by the heirs of M. W. Fechtelmeier, deceased, against the estate of J. W. Whalley, deceased, on account of repairs to the Casino Opera-house, now Cordray's Theater, was allowed yesterday by Judge C. A. Jones.

ST. LOUIS IGNORANT.

ST. LOUIS, March 16.—(To the Editor.)—St. Louisans seem to know nothing of Oregon. They inquire about it as if it were some region the other side of the north pole. When I say that I am from Portland, not Portland, Me., a number have said: "Let's see—that's in Washington?" "Not on your life," I reply, "as a native Oregonian should. The idea is even more prevalent that it is very cold in Oregon. People stare when I tell them that the past Winter here in St. Louis is the coldest I have ever experienced. And yet I suppose I would be stumped on Alabama or New Mexico. This is a big country to know all about. But I do not know how to get on in Oregon any index to the notion that most of the country has of our state? If it is then it is high time something were done to change this state of affairs. I remember last year some talk of a movement advocated by Governor Geer looking to the advertisement of Oregon throughout the country with a view to increasing immigration. If I recollect his words on some occasion they were: "What Oregon needs is people, more people."

Corresponding to the general ignorance about Oregon there is a lively curiosity to know more about all its commercial and industrial affairs, its agriculture and climate. This curiosity is fine soil in which to sow judiciously sown seeds of information. Whatever the methods may be that are employed to awaken in the East interest in a distant Western State, like Oregon, I cannot see but that they would be richly fruitful if systematically applied.

With my edition of the 1900 New Year's Illustrated Oregonian and this year's also I form an information bureau myself on a very small scale. In fact, I dare say that my friends get very tired of my "hot air" about the wonderful mountains and scenery, forests and rains of that mystic, far-off Western country. When I get far from Oregon, my friends are sure to know that they'll have to be bored for at least five minutes.

Food for Athletes

Rebuilds Brain and Muscle

Food for Athletes Rebuilds Brain and Muscle A young athlete, commenting on the need of well selected food to build up a man after over-study, says: "Two years ago I returned home from the university with my health quite run down from over-study and severe athletic training. I needed a good rest, but it was in an office with very confined duties. My health grew no better; I felt unfit for work and at night would lie awake several hours before sleep would come. The appetite was gone entirely. One morning a new dish appeared on the table, Grape-Nuts with cream. We all thought it an excellent food, and I not only enjoyed breakfast that day, but dinner and supper as well. "This rather surprised me. Since that I have made the food a regular article of diet. I keep a box on hand at the office and often lunch on Grape-Nuts and cream instead of going home to dinner. "Although it was in the summer when I started the use of the food, it was not long before I had gained 15 pounds, and I know it is from the use of this food that I can stand so well the indoor work. My health is now perfect; sleep sound and enjoy my meals, but find I do not need to eat so much volume of other food while eating Grape-Nuts. "A short time ago I thought Grape-Nuts were commencing to disagree with me, but found it was because I was eating more than you recommend. I simply ate too much at a time and more than the system required. When I returned to the regular 'feed' of four heaping teaspoons, the old rest for the food returned. "This young man is a member of quite a famous family. He requests that his name be omitted, but the same can be furnished by application to the Postum Cereal Co., Ltd., Battle Creek, Mich.
