THE LAW WAS TOO SLOW

WOODWARD, SHERIFF RICKER'S MURDERER, LYNCHED BY MOB.

They Took Him From Jail and Hanged Him on the Scaffold Built for His Execution.

CASPER, Wyo., March 28.—Charles Francis Woodward, the condemned murderer of Sheriff W. C. Ricker, of this county, was hanged in his night clothes at 1 o'clock this morning by a masked and armed mob on the scaffold erected for his legal execution.

Wanted in Bavaria. CINCINNATI, March 28.—Judge A. C. Thompson, in the United States Court, today refused to release Heinrich Herrie on a writ of habeas corpus.

NOMINATED BY REPUBLICANS FOR STATE SENATOR FROM BENTON COUNTY

JOHN D. DALY.

While this was going on, Woodward talked rapidly. His words were partly incoherent, but this was gathered from his talk:

"Boys, let me kneel and pray. I want to pray for all of you and send a message to my blessed little wife. I love her dearly and want you to tell her that I pray that you will have the papers printed. I pray for you, Charles Ricker, and for all of you. I never had a grudge against Sheriff Ricker, never in God's world. I never meant to shoot him. For God's sake don't choke me to death. Oh, let me go. Murderers and thieves beware—People's verdict."

Early this morning Sheriff Tubbs took the body down and removed it to the City Hall, where the rope was cut from the neck. It was then turned over to the coroner.

The crime for which Woodward paid with his life was committed the evening of January 22, 1901, at the ranch of the Rattle Snake Mountains, 25 miles west of Casper, when he cruelly shot to death Woodward, with his wife, Bertha, and brother, Clarence, was arrested last November on the charge of stealing clothing and provisions from a ranch. It was alleged that Woodward had stolen $10,000 worth of property from the ranch.

Instead of finding friends ready to assist him, he found Sheriff Ricker and two deputies at the house, who were looking for him. He went to the barn, intending to abandon his horse and steal one of the officers' rifles. It was about 1 o'clock in the evening and was quite dark. He mounted one of the Sheriff's horses and was ready to ride away when the Sheriff came out of the house, and, approaching the barn, ordered him to surrender.

Woodward was released from custody. The brothers were held to the District Court, but were unable to furnish bonds. On the night of December 30, 1901, they sawed off the bars of their cells and a window and got away. At the stockyards east of town Charles Woodward secured a pistol, which had been placed there by a friend. Near Casper he stole a horse and rode to his ranch, reaching the place on the evening of January 1, 1902.

THE DANISH SCANDAL

CHRISTMAS SAYS NO AMERICAN CONGRESSMEN ARE INVOLVED.

Matter is Not Taken Seriously at Copenhagen—State Department Will Take No Steps.

NEW YORK, March 28.—The Daily Mail's correspondent in Copenhagen has had a talk with Captain Christmas, who is not the least astonished by the American scandal, says the London correspondent of the Herald.

"The Danish 'no sale' party," he said "is a party which has no connection with the Danish Government. It is a party of American citizens, who are interested in the sale of the Danish islands."

Captain Christmas gave out here February 28 a declaration under protest of an oath, that no member of the American Congress was either directly or indirectly interested in the sale of the Danish islands. He says he sent this declaration to the Danish Ambassador, M. Brun, in Washington. It was also published in all the Danish newspapers.

"I never had any arrangement about a provision with any American authority," he said. "I have no claim whatever on America, but only on the Danish Government for my work and expenses. The present government has nothing to do with any possible scandal, as all the arrangements regarding me and my work were made by the former government three years ago, when I, by an order from the American State Department, had brought Secretary Henry White into communication with the Danish Government."

"The existing government has accepted the present situation from their predecessors, M.M. Ahested and Hoerring, and have never blamed me with word for anything I have done."

"It seems to me that the 'no sale' party is not acting for the benefit of its country in trying to disturb the entente cordiale between America and Denmark, an understanding which our Premier, M. Deumter, officially stated the other day has been remarkably good."

EVANS HAS RESIGNED.

But Roosevelt Will Not Let Him Go, for the Present.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The following letter from H. Clay Evans, resigning the Commission of Penalties, together with an appended statement, was made public at the White House tonight:

"Department of the Interior, Bureau of Penalties, Washington, March 15, 1902.—To the President: For some time I have been considering the question of resigning. It will soon be five years since I assumed the duties of this office, and I now have the honor of tendering you my resignation as Commissioner of Penalties and will thank you to accept the same as early a date as may suit your convenience."

"Thanking you for your kindly consideration and with assurances of my best wishes, I am, very respectfully,
"H. CLAY EVANS."

The statement appended to the letter is as follows:

"Mr. Evans some months ago verbally expressed his desire to resign, and finally put it in writing on March 15. The President, however, has told him that he will remain as Commissioner, in the first place, until his term of office has expired, and secondly, until there is some position to tender him which the President will regard as a promotion and as fitting a reward for his excellent services in the department."

The pension committee appointed at the last annual encampment of the G. A. R. to investigate the affairs of the Pension Bureau has made its report to the President. It has not yet been decided when the report will be made public, if at all.

THE CABINET MEETING.

Considered Withdrawal From Cuba and German Meat Inspection.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—The session of the Cabinet today was largely taken up in discussing the details of the withdrawal from Cuba.

Secretary of Agriculture Wilson made a statement regarding the discrimination by Germany against American food products, especially meat. He pointed out that the German analysis of the food products undoubtedly was very severe, and intimated that if similar analyses were made by American officials against German food products coming into the United States millions of dollars of German goods would be shut out of this country every year.

The position taken by Secretary Wilson was regarded as a mild intimation to Germany that the present situation cannot continue.

Assistant Secretary Spaulding, of the Treasury Department, announced that hereafter, in the case of Americans going abroad and taking sundry articles with them, the rule will be that "personal effects may be examined by customs officers before leaving and an itemized descriptive schedule prepared, and then, upon the return of the person, the goods will be exempt from duty, provided they will fit the bill."

The attention of the President having been called to alleged interviews with Assistant Secretary of the Treasury Taylor in a number of newspapers, in which he has put himself in the position of opposing certain provisions of the Chinese exclusion bill now pending in Congress, the President to examine into the matter and report to him as to the truth of the allegations. As Secretary Shaw is in New York, no action will be taken by him in the direction of carrying out the President's instructions until his return.

A Boy's Life Saved!

A Grateful Mother Writes About the Rescue of Her Child.

Paine's Celery Compound

Triumphed After the Failures of Physicians.

Mrs. Tallman, of 191 Redmond St., New Brunswick, N. J., grateful for the rescue of her little boy from suffering and death, writes as follows:

"I have used Paine's Celery Compound for our little boy. He had been under the doctors' care for five months, but did not seem to get much better. The physician said the child had spinal trouble. He is three years old and was obliged to creep on his hands and knees, and was too weak to sit up long at a time. We bought a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and before it was half gone we saw a big change in the boy. He is now real fat and strong, and can walk all around the house, and his red, plump cheeks. Paine's Celery Compound cured him."

In the face of such testimony, who can deny the fact that Paine's Celery Compound restores to strength, vigor and new life? Hundreds of such letters as Mrs. Tallman's are on file for the inspection of doubters.

When your children are weak, run down, nervous, fretful, despondent, have loss of appetite, slow circulation of blood, give them Paine's Celery Compound for a week or two, and note well the cheering results in returning health and vigor. We strongly urge the immediate use of the great medicine for all sickly and weak boys and girls.
