Received No Money From Enterpris ing Dane for Assisting in Sale of Danish West Indies-Secretary Hay Writes.

WASHINGTON, April 7.—Senator De-pew, of New York, appeared today before the special House committee investigating charges in connection with the Danish West Indies negotiations. His statement was brief. He expressed astonishment at having seen his name in the Christmas report. He did not know Christmas and never had seen him, as far as he was aware, although he met thousands of peo ple and could not say just whom he had seen. But as to this Danish Islands question he never had a discussion with anyone on the subject, C. W. Knox, of Gleneig, Md., whose name was mentioned in the Christmas report, told of meeting Christmas, whom he considered a cultured man who had become entangled with sharpers. The witness said he consented to assist Christmae and a contract was submitted to the emmittee by the terms of which Knox was to assist in any proper manner in bringing about the transfer, Knox to receive $15,000 in case of a sale and $350 per month. As to a $5 transaction which had been referred to, Knox said he gave Christmas his check for $5, which was in-dorsed by Hansen, and he produced the check. This was the only financial trans-action in the entire affair. The witness said he never bribed any one and nothing of the kind was ever contemplated. He received no money from Christmas.

In response to questions from members of the committee, Knox specifically denied that he introduced Christmas to W. J. Bryan or that he had claimed to Christ-mas that he was an intimate friend of Senator Hanna. Senator Bacon, of Georgia, told of two casual conversations with Christmas. As to the latter's statement that Mr. Bacon took great interest in the purchase of the Danish Islands, the Senator declared the Danish Islands, the Schator declared it was absolutely untrue, as he did not believe in the acquisition of the Islands, and considered it unfortunate that the United States was in a position where it seemed necessary to take them, Secretary Hay's Story.

In the early part of December, 1899, Captain Christmas called upon at this department, and informed me that through private and personal sources in Copenhagen he had become aware that there was a disposition among some of the leading members of the Danish Government to regard favorably an overture from the Government of the United States looking to the accusistion of the Danish Islanda. He said of the Danish Islands. He said that he had been a naval officer, and spoke at some length in regard to the desirability of the leland of St. John as a naval station for the United States. At my suggestion, he conveyed what further technical information he had on this subject to Admiral Bradford, of the

A letter from Minister Brun states that

"Captain Christmas had no authorization whatever to enter into negotiations in the name of the Danish Government nor to make any promises in the name of the government in connection therewith." Mr. Brun also says he gave Captain Christmas no authority or introductions but refused his requests in this connec-

Representative Richardson said he thought Mr. Hay should come before the committee, and should produce any letters he had in connection with Christmas going to Copenhagen.

Prince of Wales' Visit to New York

Chamber of Commerce. NEW YORK, April 7.- The suggestion that the Prince of Wales attend the dedi cation of the new home of the New York Chamber of Commerce excites the liveliest surprise here, coupled with satisfaction at the indication of good feeling on the part of the leading members of America's industrial community, cables the World's London correspondent. Un-doubtedly it is hoped in political circles that the expected invitation will be accepted. Inquiries have elicited the fact that in court and official circles it is recognized that there are certain obsta-cles in the way, but it is hoped that they may not prove insurmountable. In the first place, a court official of experience says, as the Prince of Wales represents the King it would be unusual for him to visit any foreign country offi-

for him to visit any foreign country offi-cially except as the guest of that coun-try's chief of state or its government. King Edward personally is said to be strongly favorable to such a visit, yet he may be slow to establish a precedent which hereafter might lead to trouble or misunderstanding. Then the fact that other European royal heirs apparent and persons of eminence have been invited raises questions of etiquetic which assume very serious dimensions in the eyes of royalty in court functionaries.

It has been arranged already that the Prince shall go to India next Winter to make a tour of the empire and to attend the proclaiming of his father Emperor of that dependency. The court official heretofore mentioned points out that unless the Prince can visit New York on the way, it will be too great a strain on him to cross the Atlantic and back in the Autumn, especially as heavy demands on his by no means robust constitution will be made by the coronation festivities.

Any way, it is a fact that such a visit ould be extremely popular here, and it believed in court circles that the King, who is well aware of the international advantages of such an interchange of courtesies, will do all in his power to acede to the New York Chamber of Commerce's hospitable invitation.

DOESN'T LIKE OLEO BILL. National Livestock Association Will Fight to Last Ditch.

DENVER, April 7.-President John W. Springer, of the National Livestock Association, when interviewed with reference to the passage of the oleomargarine bill In the Senate, said:
"The livestock interests of the United States are not discouraged at the small vote by which they were beaten in the Senate on the oleomargarine bill. We had hoped to beat the bill in the Senate, and expect to defeat it before we are done with it. It is the most victous measure in principle ever voted on by an American Congress, and we shall contest the matter in the House, where the bill now goes, in conference and before the President, and, if forced to do so, through the Supreme Court of the United States.

"If the Senate of the United States can by a narrow margin of eight votes exact a law which strikes down one industry which has been built up under Federal enactment, to benefit directly the creamery trust of the United States, then any other one industry can be singled out for destruction, and it would only be necessary to spend enough money threaten enough Congressmen and Sen-ators with the 'farmer' vote completely to into communication with the members of the government, whom he mentioned. BIG IRRIGATION OUESTION May Colorado Take Water That Would Flow Through Kansast

WASHINGTON, April 7 .- The United States Supreme Court, in an opinion de-livered by Chief Justice Fuller today, overruled the demurrer of the State of Colorado in the case of the State of Kansas vs. the State of Colorado. The case involves the right of Colorado to appropriate for purposes of irrigation the waters of the Arkansas River, which Kansas sought by an original action to restrain on the ground that the stream flows through Kansas and the people of the latter state are injured by such an appropriation of the water. The Chief Justice said that the case is one in which the court can properly assume jurisdic

Conl and Iron Company Now Says Proposition for Settlement Must Come From Strikers.

DUBOIS, Pa., April 7.—The district offi-cers of the United Mineworkers and the delegates of the mines of the Rochester & Pittsburg Coal & Iron Company today rejected the Indianapolis agreement reached last Friday by their National executive board and General Manager Robinson, of the Rochester & Pittsburg Company. The conference today between the district officers, the delegates and Mr. Robinson was held at Punxsutawney.

After Mf. Robinson had submitted the agreement reached at Indianapolis, which stipulated that the miners should push cars one way, this being a recession from their demand for mule haulage both ways the miners absolutely refused to accept the terms named, and Mr. Robinson finally stated that he had no further offer to make. The conference therefore adjourned and the strike of 10,000 miners goes on, with no immediate prospect of settlement. The district officers say that General Manager Robinson must come to them the next time for settlement.
