THIRD SHIP FOR SIBERIA

STEAMER MARIA WILL CLEAR FOR VLADIVOSTOK WITH BIG CARGO.

Carries Over 37,000 Barrels of Flour -Three Grain Ships Will Finish

Londing Today-Marine Notes.

The Austrian steamship Maria, the third vessel to load at Portland for Si-berian ports within the past 60 days, will complete her cargo this morning and clear this afternoon for Viadivostok and Port The Maria has aboard 37,500 Arthur, s of flour, and a lot of miscellaneous freight. She also takes a deckload lumber. The flour shipment on board is the largest that has been made from this port direct to Siberia this season, the ther steamers sailing taking more lumber and miscellaneous freight. The last to depart was the British ship Oceano, which took nearly 2,000,000 feet of lumber which took nearly adverte windows, fruit, pro-and a lot of doors, windows, fruit, provisions and miscellaneous freight. The Oceano also, carried about 33,000 barrels of flour, which was brought around from Seattle, when she entered here, the greater part of it being for Port Arthur and Chim Foo,

The steamship Hatisu, which was the first of the direct steamers from Portland this season, carried nearly 2,000,000 feet of lumber, 7500 barrels of flour, 583 pack-ages of dredger machinery and several hundred packages of canned and fresh fruit, evaporated cream, provisions, groceries, etc. All three of these steamers were dispatched by the Pacific Export Lumber Company, of this city, who were the ploneers in the Siberian trade out of this port. The next steamer to leave the Pacific Northwest for Siberia will be the Braemar, which is scheduled to sall from Puget Sound May 1.

Ernest LeGouve Fnished and Dovenby Hall and Torrisdale Today.

The French bark Ernest LeGouve finished loading yesterday, and will clear today, with 110,825 bushels of wheat, valued at $73,000. She was loaded by G. W. McNear, and has the distinction of going out under the lowest freight paid since the Spring of 1897, her rate being but 24s 6d. The British ship Dovenby Hall and the British bark Torrisdale will finish loading this afternoon, making four cargoes for the month to date. These cargoes are all above the average, and will in the aggregate reach nearly 500,000 bushels of wheat. Not more than one or two more wheat cargoes will get away this month, and the business will be of small proportions, compared with last April, when 13 ships were cleared. The Dovenby Hall, which finishes today, has been a regular trader in this port for a number of years, and the cargo now aboard of her is the fifth that she has taken out of Portland since 1895. She sailed in January, 1895, with 112,750 bush-els of wheat, valued at $52,690, cleared by J. R. Cameron & Co. She made a fast outward run and loaded back for Portland reaching here in time to load again and clear in November, being one of the few ships that have earried two wheat cargoes out of Portland for Europe in one calen dar year. Cameron loaded her on this second 1895 trip with 112,860 bushels of whent, valued at $56,600. Her next visit to Portland was in 1829, when she was loaded by Balfour, Guthrie & Co., with 112,662 bushels of wheat, valued at $88,000. She was next cleared by Eppinger & Co. in March, 1900, with 112,742 bushels of wheat, valued at $60,880. Her present freight rate, 25 shillings, is the lowest paid on any of the five trips. The Torrisdale, which will also finish today, is no stranger in the port, as she loaded for the Pacific Coast Elevator Company in November, 1894, with 121,246 bushels of wheat, and again in October, 1897, with 133,285 bushels, Balfour, Guthrie & Co. loading her when she was here in ming Ship Off the Co BAN FRANCISCO, April & .- The tug Relief sailed today in search of the burning British ship Frankistan, for the purpose of bringing the derelict into port. The barkentine George C. Perkins, arriving today from Eureka, reported to the Merchants' Exchange that at 6 o'clock on the morning of April 5, 105 miles west by south of Point Arena, a dismasted vessel was seen on the port bow. The Perkins stood over for the wreck and at 8:39 o'clock passed within 400 yards of the yes sel, which was on fire and whose name could not be made out, though there is no doubt that it was the Frankistan. Captain Jensen reports that the cargo was still burning, and the rigging and masts were all gone, except the bowsprit. All woodwork apparently had been burned out of the vessel. The hull was slightly down by the head, and was about 16 or 18 feet out of the water. The derelict is regarded as a serious menace to nevigation.

The schooner S. Danielson sailed from the Siusiaw for San Francisco last week after being barbound for over three months. There are five other lumber carriers still held there, but with an im-provement in the weather they will probably soon be released.

Merchants' Exchange advices yesterday reported the Norwegian bark Albania at Antwerp with part of her cargo damaged. The dispatch stated that she had jettisoned 10 tons on the voyage, and part of that still on board was in a damaged condition The Albania was dispatched from Portland in November by A. Berg.

THE LATE ROBERT MAYS, OF THE DALLES.

THE DALLES, April 8.-Hon. Robert Mays, who died at his residence in this city yesterday, was one of the best-known pioneer citizens of Oregon. He had lived in this state since 1857. He was born in Tennessee in 1830, and while a little boy moved with his faiher's family to Illinois, where he received his education. In 1849 he married Miss Lowdema Fowler. They started, with their infant son, from McDonough County, Illinois, in the Spring of 1852 for the West, making the journey to Oregon by ox team in about six months. Passing through The Dalles in the Fall, Mr. Mays went on to the Willamette Valley. He spent the Winter in Benton County, and settled on a donation claim in Lane County on the Long Tom. In 1858 he brought his family to Eastern Oregon, taking up his residence on a ranch near the town of Dufur, which for many years was the family homestead, and is still in their possession. In 1875 Mr. Mays moved to The Dailes, and in 1880 built the commodious home which he has since occupied

From his earliest residence in Wasco County he was one of the foremost raisof livestock. His extensive ranches in the Tygh Valley and other sections of Eastern Oregon were well stocked with horses and cattle, and in late At one time he was one of the largest horse owners in the Northwest. In 1891, in company with E. C. Pease, he engaged in the mercantile bush ness, known as Pease & Mays. Mr. Mays was a lifelong Republican, serving his party in various capacities. He was elected a member of the Legislature in 1860, and again in 1874; was Mayor of The Dalles in 1891-82, and County Judge from 1896 to 1900. He was one of the chief organizers of the Dalles, Portland & Astoria Navigation Company, and of the Wasco Warehouse Company. At the time of his doath he was president of the Second Eastern Oregon District Agricultural Fair Association and The Dalles Driving Association. Berides his widow, Mr. Mays left eight children - Benton Mays, of Tygh Valley; Polk Mays, of Joseph; Franklin Pierce and Edwin Mays, of Portland; Robert Mays, Jr., of Antelope; Grant Mays, Mrs. A. R. Thompson and Mrs. L. E. Crowe, of this city.

OPENING OF KETTLE VALLEY. Railroad to Republic to Be Completed by Saturday.

GRAND FORKS, B. C., April 8 .- Satur day, April 12, will be a red-letter day in the history of Grand Forks and Republic. The occasion will be the formal opening of the Kettle Valley Railway line. A special train will leave Grand Forks in the morning and return the same day. The invited guests, about 400 in number, will come from Spokane, Grand Forks, the Pacific Coast and all points in the Kootenai, and prominent capitalists will come from Eastern Canada. Officials say the rails will be laid into Republic a day or two before the day fixed for the opening.

Movement of Settlers.

More than 1200 persons bearing settlers' tickets have gone out on the Southern Pacific lines in Oregon this Spring, and the movement continues steady. General Pasenger Agent Millersays he is certain more than 2000 new settlers will have been add-ed to the Willamette Valley by the end of this month, when the settlers' rates will be discontinued. This is a new experience for the Valley. It is the first time cheap transcontinental rates have been available to put settlers into this section of the state, and the result is regarded as highly

All the trains from the East continue to bring settlers and homeseekers in large ers, though most of them drop off before getting through to Portland. The population and wealth of the Columbia Valley will be greatly increased by this Spring's movement.

Locomotive for Columbia Southern. A new freight locomotive for the Co-lumbia Southern Railroad is expected about the middle of the month. It has been shipped from the Baldwin works in Philadelphia. This is the fourth locomo-tive for that road, and it is a first-class, modern machine in all respects. Its weight on the drivers is 146,000 pounds, and the entire machine in working order will weigh 163,000 pounds. The traffic of the Colum-bia Southern is increasing so rapidly that all its rolling stock is kept fully employed. and considerable expenditures for addi-tions are required. A few days last week the movement of settlers to Columbia Southern territory was so great that an extra coach was needed to accommodate

Well Known in Portland.

The British ship Frankistan, which was burned at sea a few days ago, was a well-known vessel in this port, having taken several cargoes from here. She was dispatched by Balfour, Guthris & Co. in September, 1855, with a cargo of sal-mon and wheat, and the same firm cleared her from Portland again in August, 190), with a full cargo of wheat. The press dispatches giving the value of the ship and cargo at $200,000 were considerably overdrawn, as the ship was not worth to exceed $75,000, and her coal cargo could not have been worth to exceed $20,000. The Frankistan was a vessel of 1900 tons net register, and was built at Southampton Her dimensions were: Length, 270 feet; beam, 39.5 feet; depth of hold, 24 feet.

Sailors Scarce in San Francisco.

Six vessels laden with freight for foreign ports are now lying at anchor in the stream, unable to sail because of the scarcity of sailors, says the San Francisco Examiner. The vessels are the ship Rohane, bark Bayard, ship Tille Seatt Starbuck, Benlarig, Salvatore Clampi and pool. the Drummuir. The vessels have been unable to secure crews and will possibly be compelled to remain in port for some Because Captain Scott, of the Rohane, attempted to secure nonunion sailors, the shipping masters have re-fused to ship men on board his vessel unless he pays them a heavy bonus. The captaint persists in holding out against their demands, and his ship is without & crew.
