COMMERCIAL AND FINANCIAL NEWS

Receipts of potatoes were again light yesterday, and the price was elightly higher, some buyers quoting up to $1.20 for tancy Burbanks. The last steamer sailing from Portland took out a smaller consignment than usual, and there is some prospect for a better market. New potatoes are coming to hand in improved condition and larger quantities, but they are still held at fancy prices which limits the sale. Asparagus receipts are also heavier, and the price has dropped to $e per pound. Butter receipts were again beavy, and more of the offerings are seeling at 2256 than at the top figure. Unless the outside demand improves, lower prices are certain, as the local market will not absorb all of the offerings are rement quotations. Veal was in this supply again yearedny, and was very weak at quotations. Eggs are going into cold storage at late, 1356 and 14c, and the market is fulfity steady at this time. There are no changes in groceries.

CHICAGO, April 8.-Wheat trading the gre er part of the day was dull and dragging. the outset cables were barely steady, and signers were indifferent. There was almost putside interest, farmers being occupied w their farm work. September was sold ea in liberal amounts, and yesterday's amail g was soon wiped out. The first bit of decis news was the report of 928,000 bushels in news was the report of $28,000 bushels see board clearances. This gave a decided sm to the market for a time and resulted in a upturn in prices. The early short talent covered, and there was some fair buying on the anticipation of a built turn before delivery dar. Receipts continue very light, and drop report in some instances have been rather unsatifactory. The general tenor of the market afte the extreme early duliness was much improved though the advance was trivial. May when opened %6%c to a shade lower, at 714,6714, eased to 71c, and rallied quickly to 71%c. The close was firm, May is higher, at 71% 671%c. Corn started in again today on the down-highest Cables were lower, trade was fairfull, and there was moderate liquidation. To
