Suppressed Statement Laid Before the Senate Philippine Committee -Taft's Explanation of It--MacArthur Testified.

WASHINGTON, April 10.—When the Senate committee on Philippines met today Senator Lodge, the chairman, laid before the committee the report of Major C-glus Gardener, Civil Governor of the spine Province of Tayabas, to which reference was made by General Miles in his correspondence with Secretary Root. This report had been withheld, and this caused the adoption of a resolution at the last meeting of the committee requesting the Secretary of War to send the report to the committee. The report is dated December 15, 1901, and is largely a review of conditions in the province. In the course of the report the Governor says:

vigorous campaign was at once or, ganized against insurgents in arms, with the troops acting under positive orders to shoot no unarmed natives and to burn no houses except barracks. Looting was pro-hibited under the strictest penalties, Comand other commanders were ordered ly for everything taken for necessity

The Governor in detail tells about what has been done, and then recommends that the operations against the insurgents should be by a force of natives. He has traveled all over the province, with no other escort than natives. In another recendation he says: Civil Governor I feel it my duty to that it is my firm conviction that the United States troops should at the earliest opportunity be concentrated in one or two garrisons, if it is thought desirable that the good sentiment and loyalty that for-merly existed towards the United States among the people of this province should be conserved and encouraged. Being in close touch with the people, having visited all the pueblos one or more times, having lived with them in their homes. I know that such sentiment once existed. "Of late, by reason of the conduct of the troops, such as the extensive burning of the barrios in trying to lay waste the country so that the insurgents cannot oc-cupy it, the torturing of natives by the so-called water cure, and other methods, ler to obtain information, the harsh ment of natives generally, and the e of inexperienced, lately appointed a snanta commanding posts to distinguish between those who are friendly and those unfriendly and to treat every native of the state of the stat as if he were, whether or no, an insurgent at heart, this favorable sentiment above referred to is being fast destroyed and a de., hatred toward us engendered. If these things need be done, they had best be done by native troops, so that the people of the United States will not be

'Almost without exception, soldiers and also many officers refer to natives in their pre: nce as 'niggers,' and natives are beng to understand what the word 'nig-

Sowing Seeds of Trouble.

"The course now being pursued in this province and in the Provinces of Batan-gas, Laguna and Samar is in my opinion soving seeds for a perpetual revolution against us hereafter whenever a good op-portunity offers. Under present conditions the political situation in this province is slowly retrograding, and the American ament is decreasing and we are daily king permanent enemies.

in the course above referred to, troops make no distinction often between the property of those natives who are insurgents or insignificant sympathizers and the property of those who heretofore have risked their lives by being loyal to the United States and giving us information against their countrymen in arms. Often every house in a barrio is burned. "In my opinion the small number of ir-reconcliable insurgents still in arms, al-though admittedly difficult to catch, does not justify the means employed, especially when taking into consideration the suffer-ing that must be undergone by the innocent and its effect on the relations with these people hereafter, "The work of the Philippine Commission and the laws that have been enacted by it are everywhere favorably commented upon by the native. The efforts being made for the general education of the people are appreciated by all. The provincial government and the municipal govern ment established are slowly bringing or-der out of chaoe and anarchy, and there begins to be visible everywhere in this province progress and prosperity. True loyalty and contentment can only come under a benign civil government.

"The attitude of the Army, thereby meaning most of its officers and soldiers, is, however, decidedly hostile to the provincial and municipal government in this province and to civil government in these dands in general. In Manila especially It is intensely so, even among the higher officers. The work of the commission in the establishment of provincial governments is ridiculed, even in the presence of the natives. It is openly stated that the Army should remain in charge for the next 20 years. Outrages committed by of-ficers and soldiers against natives in an organized municipality or province, when reported by the Presidente or Governor to the military authorties, are often not pun. ished. This in my opinion, is unfortunate. eccuse loyal natives begin to fear the local self-government promised them will not last long, and that any slight disturbance in a province may at any time be made the pretext to again place it under military rule, and this is just the thing the insurgent at heart most desires.

Kindness the Best Policy.

"It has been stated that a Filipino or an Oriental dues not appreciate just or kindly treatment, and that he considers it an evidence of weakness, and that severe and harsh measures are the only ones that are effective with the Filipinos. I have found that just and kind treatment, uni-form and continued, is the only way by which these people can become our friends nd satisfied with United States sover-laving been stationed six years on the Grande, I am well acquainted with natives of the State of Tamaulipas, Mexico, and while in the Province of Santa ra, Cuba, I visited every town in that wince and was able to observe the inigence and education there. I believe at the people of Tayabas Province are a every way superior, in education, inligence, morals and civilization, to the ple of Tamaulipas or Santa Ciara, As an officer of the Army, I regret that my duty as Civil Governor of the province impels me to state the attitude of the majority of my fellow-officers toward civil government in the islands and its effect upon the people, but I feel that the interest of the Government is involved and the future of these people, for ch vast importance that I ought to re-ort things as I see and know them, in order that my civil superiors may be able make the investigation with all speed possible.

In connection with the report on Tabayas, Secretary Root also forwarded to the committee a telegram from Governor Taft, dated Cincinnsti, the 8th Inst.,

in which he said:

Harsh Treatment of Natives

Major GARDENER'S REPORT

Major GARDENER'S REPORT

In Which he said:

"This report was handed to my secretary just before I sailed from Manila. On reaching Washington, I submitted it to Secretary Root with the statement that Colonel Gardener was successful as a military commander at Tabayas in keeping it peaceful; that he was a good Governor and was popular with the people, and that I would believe implicitly anything stated of his knowledge, but I feared that the great friction between him and those officers succeeding him in military command has an influenced his commission has exalted to the highest pohim and those officers succeeding him in military command has so influenced his judgment that charges made by him, nec-essarily based on the evidence of others, against the conduct of military affairs in the provinces ought not to be acted upon without giving those accused an oppor-tunity to be heard, and that had I read the report before leaving Manila, I should have referred it to General Chaffee for investigation and comment. The Secreinvestigation and comment. The Secre-tary of War accordingly directed me to transmit the same to him for the pur-pose of forwarding it to General Chaffee, and I did so under date of February 27." Governor Taft also said that, while in his testimony he had produced reports from the Governors of 23 organized provinces, he had "expressly limited them to those in which there was no insurrec-tion." True, Tabayas had not been turned over to the military authorities, but the writ of habeas corpus had been suspended there in the case of military prisoners. He added that he had pro ised only to submit reports from pacified provinces, and that, in accordance with this promise, he had submitted all such reports received. Hence, he asserted that he had not disobeyed the rules of the committee Commenting upon these explanations of Governor Taft, Senator Culberson read from the record of the Governor's tes-timony before the committee where he had said, after submitting the 23 reports referred to, that it was "quite possible there might be in the mail other reports," and that if so he would produce them Senator Culberson also said that no claim had been made that Tabayas was not an organized province and that it was evident that Governor Taft had been in possession of the report concerning that province when he was before the committee. "I am willing to submit to the record," said Senator Culberson, "whether Governor Taft was entirely candid and did submit all the reports in his possession."

MacArthur Again Testifles. General MacArthur was again the witness before the committee today, and he began his statement with reference to the burning of villages by the native forces in 1899. He said that the order for this destruction had been issued by General Luna, and he found that this was due to the fact that Luna had been a student of Napoleon's campaigns and had conceived the idea that he could compel the American forces to retreat as the Russians had forced the French conqueror to retreat from Moscow. In this connection General MacArthur read a number of orders issued by himself, directing the conduct of troops in the field and enjoining the utmost kindness in the treatment of captured and wound-ed members of the enemy's forces. In one of these orders the American forces were instructed to kill, if possible, the enemy with arms in his hand, and, in re-ply to questions, General MacArthur said that in war the prime object is to disable the enemy and to kill him, if passible, when in battle. To the good marksmanship of the Americans he attributed the large proportion of Filipinos who were killed in battle to the number questions in this connection, intended to bring out the fact that the number of killed among the Filipinos was so much out of proportion to the number wounded as to require an explanation. General MacArthur held to his position that the disproportion was no greater than was to be expected under the circumstances.

"An increased death rate in the Ameran increased death rate in the American Army might have been more satisfactory to some arguments," said he, "but I nevertheless consider it very fortunate that such was not the case."

Pressing his question, Senator Patterson asked if the killing of 20 Filipinos to one American was not "simple slaughter."

"No," replied General MacArthur, "Not when your adversary stands up and fights." "Then if under these conditions, with such disparity of casualties, the Filipinos stood up and fought, are they not the bravest people that ever went to war?" asked Senator Patterson.

"They did not stand up and fight after the first battle," replied the witness.
"Then if they did not fight, is it not true, as I have asked, that their killing was nothing more than slaughter?"
"No; that is not the case. The war the most humane that ever was fought. It is simply a question of efficiency against inefficiency."

Chinese in the Islands. Senator Carmack questioned General MacArthur as to his meaning when he stated in his report of 1991 that there was an organized and systematic effort to have Chinese immigration continued for the purpose of exploiting the islands. General MacArthur said he had intended to bring out the fact that the large Euro-pean and American establishments in the archipelago all demanded their labor, as the Chinaman is the cheapest and most indefatigable toiler in the world. Their hope was, he said, to continue the flood of immigration from China, as they were reluctant to come to the American stand-ard of wages. He did not believe it would be difficult to keep the Chinese out, and he was of the opinion that when better wages should be established the natives would prove acceptable as laborers. Speaking of the educated Filipinos, General MacArthur said that many of them were men of good character and generally showed ability. Among others of whom he spoke was Mabini, who, he said, had a dream of a Polynesian con-federacy, "an able man, but a dreamer, and unfortunately paralyzed," he added. "Where is he now?" asked Senator Pat-

"In Guam," laconically responded the

"How did he get there?"
"I sent him because he was an agita-

Then followed a long colloquy, in which General MacArthur explained that after he had released Mabini he had continued "His agitation in support of Filipine independence?" suggested Senator Pat-"His agitation was in support of the insurrection," insisted General MacAr-

The committee adjourned until tomor row. The statement was made at tode session that next week a number of listed men would be heard as to The statement was made at today's practice of the "water cure" in the Philippines, and that soon afterward Admiral Dewey and General Anderson would be requested to testify.

General Corbin today received a telegram from General Chaffee stating that Major Gardener, Civil Governor of the Province of Tayabas, had been directed to submit specific charges, but that these had not yet been received. General Chaffee adds that when the specifications are at hand the investigation will be hurried as fast as possible.

when it started in July last, every paper in the city upheld it, since which they had all dropped by the wayside, as they would not support arbitrary government, "especially when evidences of carpet-bagging and rumors of 'graft' were too thick to be be pleasant." The main charges made were that in many cases the Filipino office-holders are rascals and that the commission has evalted to the bighest po.

sitions Filipinos who are notoriously corrupt.
The editors of the Volcano also have been arrested on a suit of the Government for demanding the removal of the Judge who recently tried Senor Vaidez (the editor of a local Spanish paper, who was fined 4000 pesetas for libeling two Fill-pino members of the commission), and who is now trying the editor of Freedom under the sedition law.

These proceedings have aroused the entire press of Manila and its representatives met today and resolved to send a committee to the Commissioners to argue against the injustice of the proceedings The meeting also determined to send a cable message to President Roosevelt, urging him to take steps to prevent the commission from using the sedition law in such cases to prove less majeste against editors. The meeting, which was enthusiastic, was also largely attended by law-yers, doctors and others.

The appearance of the baby stopped all this, for the reason that the brigands of Turkey believe that a curse will settle on one of them if they do harm to a child or its mother. Gentlemen—It gives me great pleasure to add my testimonial to that of hundreds of others regarding the wonderful curative properties of Swamp-Root. I had a lame back three years ago before leaving North Dakota for the Coast. Soon after my arrival in the Puget Sound country it became very much worse. I felt certain that the Coast climate had given me acute rheumatism, and came to the conclusion that I could not live in this climate. Later I became convinced that what I really had was kidney trouble, and that the rheumatism was due to my kidney trouble. The lameness in my back increased rapidly, and I had other symptoms which indicated that I would goon be prostrated unless I obtained relief quickly. HOUSE PHILIPPINE BILL:

in the Senate Measure.

WASHINGTON, April 10.-The report of the committee on insular affairs on the the committee on insular analys of the bill for the administration of civil af-fairs in the Philippines was filed today by Chairman Cooper. The report devotes much attention to the advantages of the proposed coincge system based on the gold standard, which differs from the silver system proposed by the Senate bill. The purpose, it says, has been not to run counter to the customs of the people in regard to the currency of to alier radically the unit of exchange, but to present a conservative and at the same time a sound financial measure for the islands. As against this plan, the report says, the principal alternative plans presented are for the introduction of American currency as the sole legal tender of the Philip-

The report says that the strongest obections to the introduction of American currency are the changes it would make in the existing standard of value, the ex-cessive size of the unit which it would introduce into the transactions of the natives and the difficulty of maintaining
