OLYMPIA, April 10.-A project is started to secure proper representation of this state at the St. Louis exposition next year. The matter has received the consideration of various Chambers of Commerce and Governor McBride. It is proposed to hold a convention of repre-sentatives of various commercial bodies sentatives of various commercial bodies in this city in the near future to confer with the Governor and to consider means for raising funds. Some plan will be devised to secure the help of the state, to the extent at least of having the Governor appoint a temporary state com-mission, in the hope of an appropriation by the Legislature to defray the expense. Governor McBride has expressed himself on the matter as follows:

on the matter as follows: "I am, of course, in favor of the state's being well represented at St. Louis. If the fair is not postponed, and no action is taken until the Legislature meets and makes an appropriation, the time remain-ing will be short. If the Chambers of merce of Seattle, Tacoma and the other cities of the state get together and appoint a committee, I will be glad to onfer with them on the subject. The state or the Legislature is in no way bound by any action that may be taken, and the various Chambers of Commerce will have to take the responsibility for any expenses incurred, although it is expected that the Legislature will reimburse them. There will be ample time to make preparations for the Lewis and Clark Fair after the meeting of the Leg-

Yesterday a letter was received by Postmaster Cavanaugh from the Postmaster-General refusing the from the Postmaster-General returns the petition. #### Rich Strike on Sanke River.

The news of a rich strike made on River has been brought to Baker City by Joe Smith, a veteran prospecto and miner. What he had to say and the nuggets he exhibited created intense ex-citement. Smith is a well-known character and formerly ran a blacksmith shop in ter, and formerly ran a blacksmith shop in Baker City. During recent years he has been prospecting for the precious metal, and says that he now has it. To a Demo-crat reporter Mr. Smith said that for some months past he and his partners have been working on a group of 12 claims 22 miles down the Snake River on the Idaho side. They have developed their property by about 1000 feet of work, and recently un-earthed some very rich ore. Mr. Smith opened up a leather bag containing a dozen nuggets of pure gold and some places of pure copper extracted from the veins which traverse his property The cinims are all quartz claims, but the samples had the appearance of the rich est placer diggings ever known. There was not a nugget weighing less than $22, and the sample of copper ore was pure metal. The ores also run high in silver values, and the ledges vary from two to 29 feet in width. Out of six assays made from the gold ledges the returns averaged 2150 to the ton. Mr. Smith invited any one contemplating a trip to Thunder Moun-tain to visit his part of the country.

New Power Plant Planned. What the big Red Boy merger light and power plant will do for Sumpter, Granite, Bourne and the mining districts contigu-ous thereto is just what the electric light and power plant proposed to be erected by A. B. Frame and his associates under the charter recently granted them by the City Council will do for this city. The immense water power of Engle Creek will be the basis for furnishing cheap lights and cheap power to Baker City.

The trend of medical progress is not only toward the accomplishment of thor-ough cures, but toward their accomplishment in the brisfest pussible time. Never before in the treatment of men's diseases have these considerations been met as they are by my own original and strikingly distinctive methods. This is a fact that stands proven. For years I have been demonstration in a majority of in-stances. I am able to effect a complete cure in less than half the time com-monity required to produce even partial results. This is not an exaggerated state-ment. These is nothing unreasonable about it. It is in direct accordance with reason, and it is just what should be expected where the treatment is accurate and scientific.

reason, and it is just what should be expected where the treatment is accusate and actentific. Wrong treatment not only falls, but in many instances it works harm. Treat-ment that is partially correct may also harm, or it may partially cure, or it may, in rare instances, cure entirely if given time enough. Correct treatment meither falls nor harms. It must cure completely, providing the case is curable, and is sure to cure just as prompily as conditions will allow. My prompt and thorough cures prove the correctness of my treatment. They prove that my methods are absolutely scientific. The fact that like results are obtained by no other physician, establishes my claims to originality and dis-tinctiveness. For fitten pars I have been earning my success and my reputa-tion as a specialist in men's diseases. I have pursued collage instruction to the limit, have exhausted medical works upon men's aliments, and have added to the knowledge thus gained by the closest observation in the treatment of thou-sands of cuses. As a result of this carnest labor, I have been enabled to develop and perfect the methods that cure so thoroughly and so promptly, and that are ods that cure so thoroughly and so promptly, and that are perfect the methods the
