

ARID LAND COMPACT State and Irrigation Companies at Last Agree.

NOW COMES RECLAMATION WORK On Big Tracts, It Must Be Completed in Ten Years—Cost Per Acre is Expected to Be $10 to $12.50.

The Oregon State Land Board has agreed upon a contract for reclamation of 200,000 acres of arid land. The irrigation companies will have a lien on the land for the cost of the improvement and 6 per cent interest. By paying this amount, any settler can secure not to exceed 100 acres of any tract reclaimed.

SALEM, April 16.—The State Land Board and the attorneys for irrigation companies have at last agreed upon a form of contract which shall be subject to amendments to be made for the reclamation of arid land under the Carey act and the Oregon arid land law. There were several points upon which the irrigation companies and the members of the State Land Board differed. Some of these were satisfactorily adjusted, and the others have been settled, presumably with satisfaction to all concerned.

Under the contract now to be given, the irrigation companies will be permitted to take possession of the arid land and reclaim it. In the case of large tracts they will have 30 years in which to complete the work, but in the case of small tracts a time that may be deemed reasonable will be designated. Work must be commenced within six months after the contract is signed, and at least 10 per cent of it must be completed within the first year. All expense of reclamation must be paid by the company accepting the contract, and the State Land Board will give a lien upon the land for the cost of reclamation as estimated by the State Engineer.

Water for Irrigation. It is provided that the annual charge for water for irrigation purposes shall be fixed by the State Land Board. The company shall maintain the canals, laterals and works in good condition, and furnish water during the irrigation season, according to such reasonable rules and regulations as the company may adopt; provided, however, that the rules regarding the distribution of water shall be subject to the approval of the board. Each subdivision of the company must bear such proportion of the entire lien as its value bears to the value of the whole tract. The clause regarding sales to settlers is as follows:

It is further agreed between the parties hereto that from the date of the execution of the contract between the Secretary of the Interior and the State of Oregon any bona fide settler, who is a citizen of the United States and who has declared his intention to become such, desiring to settle upon or become a purchaser of not more than 100 acres of any of the lands set out and described herein, shall file an application in duplicate with the party of the first part (the irrigation company), one copy of which shall be filed with the State Land Board, and when such application shall be approved by the board, the company shall release the lien for reclamation, the deed of conveyance to him from the state shall be issued without further payment.

State Engineer G. L. Dillman is now in Eastern Oregon, examining land for the reclamation of which application has been made. He will estimate the cost of reclamation and report to the board, whereupon contracts will be entered into with the irrigation companies.

Location of Largest Tracts. Crook County contains the largest tracts for which applications for reclamation have been made. A tract in the central part of Crook County, about 100,000 acres, is expected to be reclaimed. The contract for the reclamation of this land has been applied for by the Pilot Butte Development Company, which A. M. Hildeman, attorney for the company, has before the State Land Board last week, presenting the claims of his company.

The land which these companies propose to reclaim is in the eastern part of the state and not state land. The state can acquire title to it by reclaiming it. Under an act of the last Legislature, the State Land Board is authorized to enter into contracts for the reclamation of land and the persons or companies building the irrigation works paying all the expenses and having a lien upon the land for the cost of reclamation. Any settler desiring to purchase any of the reclaimed land from the state may do so by paying off the lien. What the cost of reclamation will be yet to be determined by the State Engineer, but it is expected the cost will be $10 to $12.50 per acre.

Total of Applications. Applications have been filed asking for contracts for the reclamation of more than 200,000 acres. The tracts mentioned are the most important of any now under consideration. For the reason that the land is now lying idle, it is believed that by the construction of irrigating ditches, the land can be made very productive. Water for irrigating purposes will be taken from the Deschutes River or small tributaries and conducted through long canals around the upper side of the tracts to be watered. If these enterprises should prove successful, Eastern Oregon, and especially the Willamette valley, will receive such an industrial impetus as has never been known before.

CIVIC IMPROVEMENT LEAGUE. Salem Commercial Club Makes Move for Organization of One.

SALEM, Or., April 16.—The Greater Salem Commercial Club this evening adopted a resolution calling a meeting for May 8 for the purpose of organizing a civic improvement league, such as exists in Portland. Each secret society, church, social organization and other association was requested to appoint a delegate to participate in the organization of the league, purposes of which are the "beautifying and adorning of our city and the betterment of any condition which may be found to be a menace to public health or morals." President Thibault was directed to appoint 10 delegates to represent the Greater Salem Commercial Club. May 16 was fixed as the date for a general meeting when an effort will be made to interest all the people of Salem in the work of the Commercial Club. The rally will be held in the armory at 8 o'clock in the evening.

The club took the initiative in the matter of holding a Fourth of July celebration. It declared in favor of celebrating at Salem, and called a citizens' meeting for next Monday evening, for the purpose of arranging therefor.

Chairman J. H. Albert, of the Good Roads' Bureau, reported that it seemed impracticable for a wagon road to be built from the Detroit road in the Cascades, to Metol, as has been suggested.

The cost of constructing such a road he thought would be prohibitive. Secretary Judah was instructed to communicate with Frederick Hammond, of the Corvallis & Eastern, to ascertain what prospect there is of an extension of his road across the Cascades.

BROOK TROUT FOR DISTRIBUTION. 100,000 Will Be Turned Over to State Association at Once.

OREGON CITY, April 16.—One hundred thousand brook trout fry, resulting from the eggs received from the United States Fish Commission station at Leadville, Colo., will soon be turned over to the Oregon Fish and Game Association by Superintendent J. Nelson Wilmer, of the Clackamas station. The second shipment of 100,000 trout will also be given to the association with the exception of one or two small shipments to individuals. The State Fish and Game Association will commence the distribution of the fish about the last of the week, and they will be placed in the various streams of the state. The first lot will go to feeders for distribution. It will take about three weeks for the complete distribution to be made. No directions have yet been received from Washington concerning the 500,000 salmon hatched from eggs taken from Clackamas River, and 100,000 lake trout received from Duluth, Minn.

Talking July 4 Celebration. A meeting has been called for next Monday evening to discuss the matter of celebrating the Fourth of July. George W. Grace, L. Adams, M. Michael, C. G. Huntley and Elmer E. Charman, a committee appointed by the Retail Merchants' Association, to ascertain the sentiment of the business men in the matter, are now making an active canvass of the city.

SUPPLIES REACH MINES. Stringency at Thunder Mountain Is Relieved.

LEWISTON, Idaho, April 15.—Frank D. Hobbs, a prominent mining expert, arrived here tonight from Thunder Mountain. The Shisler pack train, the first to reach the camp, arrived before he left, and relieved the stringency in supplies. The flour cargo was sold at $40 per sack, sugar and bacon at 75 cents in the pound. These supplies will last until other pack trains now en route arrive. Mr. Hobbs passed three trains on Salmon River, and in a distance of 25 miles passed 41 prospectors. He reports that the Dewey on the Dixie trail is now in full swing with the travel increasing daily. On his trip out he made record-breaking time, reaching the wagon road at Dixie in 14 days. Mr. Hobbs spent two months in the district, and says it will unquestionably make one of the great camps of the West.

"The Dewey mine," he said, "is simply a great reef of low-grade mineral substance, just like the Treadwell mine on Douglas Island. It is a peak of porphyry 60 or 70 feet high that only has 20 feet of ore, and the ore runs through the stamps. There is no ledge at all and no ledge in the district, only great reefs of a mineralized conglomerate, just like the Dewey mine. The Dewey mine is there the deposit is sedimentary, while here it is volcanic. The summit resembles a crater some 12 miles in circumference, with phonolitic peaks rising all around it. The Palmer is a principal owner of the old street-car line, and it is understood that in case the electric railway franchise shall be granted the old line will be converted into a street car line. The ordinance for the new franchise provides that at least two miles of road shall be constructed this year.

FOR STREET-CAR FRANCHISE. Ordinance Introduced at Baker City in Interest of Local Man.

BAKER CITY, April 15.—At the regular meeting of the City Council last evening a petition signed by about 15 citizens and taxpayers was presented, asking that Baker City be granted a franchise for a street car line, and the company ordered to remove the ties and rails from the streets. Immediately following this petition an ordinance was introduced, a franchise to C. L. Palmer, and others to construct an electric street-car line on any of the streets and alleys not now occupied by another street railway.

Mr. Palmer is the principal owner of the old street-car line, and it is understood that in case the electric railway franchise shall be granted the old line will be converted into a street car line. The ordinance for the new franchise provides that at least two miles of road shall be constructed this year.

MR. ADAMS AND GAMBLERS

QUEER TALE FROM SPOKANE ABOUT LEASING OF A BUILDING. Famous Boston Man Will Own Lease-see, Now That He Knows Their Business.

SPOKANE, April 15.—Charles Francis Adams, great-grandson of John Adams, and grandson of John Quincy Adams, overseer of Harvard University, and ex-president of the Union Pacific Railroad, will soon begin to draw revenue from a building in Spokane leased for one of the most elaborate gambling places in the United States. The property is the new building on the corner of Stevens and Main streets. It belongs to the Adams Real Estate Trust, which was formed to handle the estate left by the late Charles Francis Adams, father of the present head of the house.

Harry Green and Harry Fason, two of the four men who have leased the building for a gambling-house, say it was erected and specially fitted up for that purpose.

FIRST MEMORIAL PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH OF VANCOUVER, WASH.

WHERE THE SESSIONS OF THE PRESBYTERY OF OLYMPIA ARE BEING HELD.

VANCOUVER, April 16.—The principal business today of the Presbytery of Olympia, which convened here last night, was the election of delegates to the General Assembly, to be held in New York City in May. The election resulted in the choice of Rev. L. J. Weeks as Rev. J. C. Willert, both of Tacoma, the ministerial representative, and Elders Ross, of Hoquiam, and Lindner, of Ridgefield, as the lay delegates. The Rev. J. R. Campbell was displaced at his own request by the Presbytery of Benicia, Cal. Rev. J. B. Little, D. D., pastor of the Vancouver church, was received from the Presbytery of Shenandoah, Ia. The following calls were presented to the presbytery and placed in the hands of the proper committees, to be acted upon later: The Rev. W. W. McKee, to Calvary Church, Tacoma; the Rev. J. Beattie, to the Sprague Memorial Church, Tacoma; the Rev. J. B. Little, D. D., to the Vancouver church; the Rev. C. E. Cornwell, to Buckley and Enumclaw churches.

At noon the ladies served a fine lunch in the basement of the church, which was heartily appreciated by the ministers. The meeting is proving one of the most interesting in the history of the presbytery.

By J. D. Sherwood, local agent of the Adams Real Estate Trust. A dispatch from Boston says the Adams family declines knowledge of the building having been leased to the gambling industry, and that if such action is taken, the tenants will be ousted. Charles Francis Adams was in Spokane last month ago. His trip west was primarily for the purpose of looking after his property interests. While here he delivered a speech at a Harvard alumni banquet.

Harry Green and Harry Fason, two of the four men who have leased the building for a gambling-house, say it was erected and specially fitted up for that purpose.

The motion for a new trial in the case of E. W. McDonald against the Washington & Columbia River Railway, in which the jury awarded the plaintiff $10,000 damages, was argued and denied today. In overruling the motion, Judge Brints estimated that he regarded the verdict as excessive, but thought it best to let the case go to the Supreme Court instead of reducing the verdict, and then having that court pass on his action.

CITIZENS' TICKET PUT UP CLATSOP COUNTY CONVENTION MAKES NOMINATIONS.

Protection of Salmon Industry on the Columbia the Principal Plank in the Platform.

ASTORIA, April 15.—A citizens' mass convention was convened in the City Hall at 10 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of nominating a Legislative and county ticket. Ex-Mayor Isaac Bergman was elected chairman, and P. B. Sovoy, secretary. After unanimous adoption of a platform the convention adjourned until 7:30 in the evening. Nominations were made as follows: Senators—Dr. L. Henderson, Representative—H. M. Lornsten, John Hahn, County Judge—A. M. Smith, Commissioner—E. F. Liska, Sheriff—J. H. Hansen, Clerk—B. J. Sloop, Treasurer—B. F. Allen, Assessor—P. A. Trullinger, Surveyor—J. Raymond, Coroner—W. C. A. Pohl, Justice of the Peace—C. C. Utzinger, Constable—William Kelley, Road Supervisor—John Chitwood.

The platform adopted was as follows: We believe in non-partisan politics in county and state, as well as in municipal affairs. We believe that the protection of the fishing industry is of the utmost importance to Clatsop County, and that legislation favorable to Clatsop County can be secured only through concerted and determined action, and we pledge our candidates to secure such protection by every legal means. We call attention to the fact that the proposed legislation regarding traps and fish-wheels and all stationary gear in the Columbia River.

We are in favor of reasonable taxation for the purpose of repairing and constructing county roads, which should be expended in each road district. We believe that each road district should have the expenditure of the road taxes collected upon property within the district. We also favor the enactment of a law authorizing each road district to levy a special tax.

The importation of Chinese and Japanese to this country is a menace to laboring men for whose jobs there is no demand at the time of Congress, and we favor legislation to restrict the Chinese exclusion act.

We are opposed to ring rule and bossism in Clatsop county, and we condemn the practice of legislating any man out of office on an un-American basis. We favor just and equal assessment and taxation through which all persons will contribute to the support of government according to their wealth, and we condemn the present assessment of the property of Clatsop County as unequal and unfair and not in proportion to the value of the property. We call attention to the fact that the property of the Astoria & Columbia River Railroad Company is assessed at $110,000, while the average assessment of railways in Oregon is barely decided by the Supreme Court to be $2000 per mile of road-bed.

We believe that the interests of the taxpayers of Clatsop county, and of 2000 fishermen and their families, are of more importance than the political fortunes of any individual. We call particular attention to the ineffectualness of the present legislation of Clatsop County in adopting a plank against straggle and at the same time sending a delegation to the state convention for J. N. Williamson for Congress, the most ardent supporter of straggle in the last Legislature.

We favor the initiative and referendum, public ownership of public utilities, and the eight-hour law.

RECEPTION TO FURNISH. Salem Club Will Have People Meet Nominee at Hotel.

SALEM, April 15.—The Republicans of this city will make no public demonstration on the occasion of the visit of W. J. Furnish the latter part of this week. A quiet reception will be tendered the party nominee for Governor, and all persons of whatever party will be chairman of the party to meet him. The Salem Republican Club, which has the matter in charge, was at first disposed to give Mr. Furnish a public reception, at which there would be speeches by various political leaders. Such a meeting, however, would be in effect an opening of the campaign, and the committee having the matter in charge thought it best to take no action which might seem to be an intrusion upon the prerogatives of the state chairman.

Under present plans Mr. Furnish will be met at the train by the entertainment committee and conducted to the hotel, where he will meet the citizens of Salem and vicinity.

*Doctors not seldom give up a case, but a mother never does. While life lasts, while there is a spark of vitality which love's labor may fan into a flame, she toils untrudgingly for the child she brought into the world. And sometimes where the doctors fail, the mother succeeds. She has no prejudices. Any means she will use which will save her child.

The mother's prescription given below is a case in point. Her daughter was given up by physicians as suffering from an incurable disease, the mother succeeded in "wasting of the digestive organs." The mother prescribed Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and "Favorite Prescription," and had the happiness of seeing her daughter restored to perfect health.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion. It is a nerve-sustaining, flesh-forming medicine—making new blood and new life.

"Golden Medical Discovery" contains no alcohol and it is absolutely free from opium, cocaine and all other narcotics. It is a true temperance medicine.

My sister (of Arlington, Washington Co., Neb.) was taken very sick and had several doctors write Mrs. L. H. Harnish of Elk City, Douglas Co., Neb. They could not do her any good, and told my mother they would not come any more, as no doctor could help her, that she could not get well. She had "wasting of the digestive organs," and to my sister: "Well, I almost know that Dr. Pierce's medicine will cure her." So she bought six bottles of "Golden Medical Discovery" three of "Favorite Prescription," and some of the "Pelle's," and now my sister is a well woman.
