Will Be Expended in Enlarging Structure-$10,000 for Exterior Finish of Custom-House-Washington's Money.

WASHINGTON, April 25.-The omnibus public building bill, which is to be introduced in the House tomorrow, will carry $150,000 for enlarging the Portland Postoffice and Federal Court building, and $10,000 for the exterior finish of the Portland Custom-House, These provisions were secured through the efforts of Rep resentative Moody, who has repeatedly urged even larger appropriations upon the House committee, and in the face of a strong desire to eliminate the postoffice item. Aside from these appropriations, Oregon is not recognized.

The bill also appropriates $150,000 additonal for the Scattle building, making the total amount appropriated $900,000. Sixty thousand dollars each is appropriated for Tacoma and Spokane for the purchase of public building sites, the bill stipulating that these sites shall embrace an entire city block, and shall be bounded by a street on four sides. Idaho gets no appropriation in the bill.

NEW LAND LEASING SCHEME. Delegation of Cattlemen Appears Before Senate Committee. WASHINGTON, April 25 .- A delegaion of Western cattlemen appeared before the Senate public lands committee today, and presented arguments favoring the enactment of land leasing legislation. The delegation, since reaching here, ascertaining the strength of the opposition to the leasing bills now pending, which at the request of the Cattlemen's Association were introduced in the Senate by Senator Millard, and in the House by Representative Bowersock, have practically decided to abandon these bills, and endeavor to secure leasing legislation less objectionable to the interior Department, which has reported adversely upon these bills. It is acknowledged that conditions are so varied in the West that a general law, which may $760,000. be advantageous to one state, may be entirely inappropriate in others. It is suggested that each state delegation secure legislation applicable to its own state, fixing the rates of rental, term of lease, etc., in accordance with local conditions, the Interior Department officials, it is said, will not be averse to the plan SOLIDIFIES THE REPUBLICANS. Democratic Censure of Philippine Policy is Welcomed.

WASHINGTON, April 25. - Democratic Senators continue to attack the President and the Republican policy in the Philippines at a time when the Republican party is divided on another issue. As a result, the Republicans welcome the discuscion on these lines, as it tends to solidify the party when party unity is most desired. The Senate laughed at the remarks of Carmack, of Tennessee, today, and his utterances seemed to vastly please his own partisans. But Republicans who consider the matter thoughtfully believe every assault of that character will result in popularizing Roosevelt before the country. Carmack had pre-pared his speech a long time in advance, and coupling Funston with Roosevelt, he had not reckoned on the determination of the President to stop all talk by Army officers regarding all public men, and while the remarks were funny they were inapplicable.

The Republican Senators do not care to prolong the debate on the Philippine bill. but before the vote is taken it is evident that the position of the Administration regarding the Philippines will be plainly stated, and it will be shown that the majority party is willing to accept the battle which the Democrats offer.

TRUST POLICY THAT COUNTS. Roosevelt's Stand Furnishes Good

Campaign Ammunition. WASHINGTON, April 26. - There is great deal of serious discussion about trusts among Senators and Representatives, and even those who have been known as railroad or corporation men are much disturbed over the amaigamation of vast transportation interests throughout the country and on the seas. That the trust question is going to enter largely into the campaign is the general belief, but Republicans feel that they will have as much ammunition on this line as the Democrats. There was a time when the Republicans were much disturbed over the action of the President in instituting sults against the Great Northern-Northern Pacific merger, fearing it would make capital timid, and at that time many large capitalists tried to create an unfavorable impression about the President. Now, however, the politicians see that the position of the President will be extremely advantageous to them in the campaign this Fail, as the Democratic party cannot hold any monopoly in opposition to the trusts, and it will be pointed out that a Republican administration has taken the only course open for restraining the

WASHINGTON, April 26.-The Senators who are favoring the Nicaragua Canal have scouted a "plant" in the resolution introduced by Senator Hoar, providing for an adjournment to May 15. EXCLUSIONISTS FIGHTING HARD. Pacific Coast Delegation Holding House Conferees Firmly. WASHINGTON, April 25. - The Pacific Coast delegation does not intend to give up anything it has in sight on the Chinese exclusion legislation. The men from that section are fighting every inch of the ground, and are holding the House conferees firmly to the provision for indefinite life of the pending measure. When It is demonstrated that there is no possibility of getting a proposition through the Senate, they will yield. Their arguments are that the whole Chinese excluslon matter will have to be fought over again in the next Congress, unless the Geary law is indefinitely extended.

SENATOR CARMACK ATTACKS HIS PHILIPPINE POLICY.

Denounces General Funston in Unmeasured Terms-McCumber on Food Adulteration.

WASHINGTON, April 25.-Two speeches occupied the entire attention of the Sen-ate today. McCumber discussed his bill to prevent the misbranding and misrepresentation of food products which enter into interstate commerce. Carmack, a Tennessee Democrat, one of the minority members of the Philippine committee. spoke in opposition to the Philippine gov-erament bili now pending. His address attracted to the chamber not only many Senators, but a considerable number of his former colleagues in the House. He sharply criticised the President, not only for the policy he is pursuing in the Philippines, but for utterances which, the Senator declared tend to fan the flame of Schattor declared, tend to fan the flame of insurrection. He also denounced General Function, whom he characterized as the "jayhawker Brigadler from the wind-ewept plains—the mightlest Samson that ever welded the jawbone of an ass as a weapon of war."

The Proceedings. McCumber, chairman of the commit-tee on manufactures, spoke on the bill "to prevent the adulteration, misbrand-ing and imitation of foods, beverages, candles, drugs and condiments in the Dis-trict of Columbia, and the territories, and for regulating interstate commerce there-in." The object of his address, he said, was to convince the Senate of the very great importance of the subject to the American people. For a quarter of a century, nearly every state in the Union had been struggling with the question of procuring pure foods. Experience has proved that it has been impossible to obattempts to regulate the sale of only such foods as enter into interstate commerce, and Congress therefore has ample opportunity to deal with the subject. A bill for the protection

Alaska was passed.

At 2 o'clock the unfinished business—the bill for the protection of game in At 2 o'clock the unfinished business—the Filipino government bill—was laid before the Senate. Carmack, a member of the Philippine committee, addressed the Senate in opposition to the measure. He said this bill, like the Philippine tariff bill would simply present the aspect of imperialism. It was not a question only of framing just laws for the Filipinos, but a question of the right to make any laws whatever for that people.

"The claim of the Republicans," said he, "is that they had purned enough towns, wasted enough and killed enough people to make good their right. The people to make good their right. The land is ours because we have strewn it with the ashes of its homes and drenched Appropriations are made for sites as folit with the blood of its people."

Opponents of this policy denied that we had derived any just powers of govern-ment from the subjugation of the gov-erned, and that was the real issue of this debate. In the former debate, he said, Spooner had charged that the minority had prostituted the question for partisan purposes and that Mr. Bryan had selzed on it to force an issue with the Admin-ration. Unfortunately for this arguistration. Unfortunately for this argument, the fact was that Mr. Bryan had declared his position upon this question long before anybody knew what the policy of the Administration would be. At that time, the public utterances of McKinley and Bryan were in exact accord, and if the and Bryan were in exact accord, and if the Administration had not reversed its policy, there would have been no difference between them. The Democrats in the Senate, he insisted, had tried to remove the question from party politics. It was now claimed that the civil authority of the United States was supreme throughout the Philippines, and it was treason for a Democrat to express an opinion. He cited the public utterances of Presi-He cited the public utterances of Presi-dent McKinley and Mr. Roosevelt, and the speeches of Republican Senators, and quoted from the Republican campaign book to show that a general policy of colonialism and conquest was advocated as Republican doctrine. "The idea that you can transform the character of a race by teaching them to read," said he, "is the wildest, craziest, the most fantastic dream that ever flitted through a lunatic's brain." He quoted utterances from Mr. Roosevelt, charging that "treasonable" utterances had incited the Filipinos to insurrection, and said that we must not judge the President in his moments of oratorical fercelty or when the frenzy of battle was ferocity or when the frenzy of battle was in his blood. The President was not vindictive, but simply "strenuous," and resembled, in his habits of speech, a certain "Tennesseean" horse of which it was said that running away was his natural gait. Mr. Roosevelt had habitually spoken of the Filipinos as "savages," and "barbarians" and "Apaches," and these denunciations had been scattered through. Genunciations had been scattered through-out the islands to inflame the people against the United States. The effect of the President's language had been to harden and intensify Filipino opposition to American rule.

"Some of our military heroes had been guilty of a like offense," said he. He re-ferred to a recent speech of General Funston, whom he described as 'the jay-hawker Brigadier from the wind-swept plains, the mightlest Samson that ever wielded the jawlone of an ass as weapon of war."

Carmack said death had cheated Funston of some illustrious victims, like ex-Senator Sherman and ex-President Har-rison. But there were still enough to keep him busy. Papers had quoted Funston as saying the President entirely approved his gallus speech and wanted him to accept an invitation from the junior Schater from Massachusetts to go to Boston and talk to the people there about hanging the senior Schater from Massachusetts, but the plain truth was that Funston could not hang anybody. Funston should not hank to the Philip. Function should go back to the Philip-pines-to the land where there was plenty of hemp and no Constitution.

"If men are to be hanged without regard to law for speaking words calculated to incite insurrection," said he, "the first neck to feel the strangling clutch of the soaped rope should be the heroic guliet of Function." of Funston."

Ever since be had been in the Philip-pines he had been pouring forth tirades of indiscriminate insult against the whole people, and had outrageously insulted the very men upon whom the commission was relying for aid in pacifying the country. He also had it on the very highest authority that a speech made by the Senator from Indiana (Beveridge) had been circulated broadcast throughout the country with an exceedingly pernicious effect won the natives fect upon the natives.

The dominant idea of the bill now before the Senate, said he, was to exploit innes to foreign syndicates and corpora-tions without giving the people themselves any voice in the business. The whole bill was a pitiful evasion of a plain duty. We have a right to demand and the Pilipinos have a right to demand that the Admin-istration shall at least define its policy in the Philipines. PRESIDENT WILL SUBMIT THE TWO AGREEMENTS TO CONGRESS.

in the Philippines.

"Upon what fact or experience," he asked, "did they base their belief in the purity of carpet-bag government?" He apoke of the "horrors of carpet-bag government in the South," and said "the Republicans gave no heed to the cry of an oppressed and plundered people, though they were their own people, of their own blood." The original proposition was to pay a lump sum representing the cap-italization of this rent for 100 years, but the republics prefer to have the money paid yearly in recognition of their sov-ereignty, and in consideration of the although public sentiment demanded legislation it could not be obtained. Cochran assailed the Senate. It was a matter of public notoriety, he said, that in some lowance of their wish in this matter they have gone to the length of making the lease to the United States perpetual as state Senatorships were bought and sold just as produce was bought and sold in the public market. "Does anyone doubt," he asked, "that one state is now without Senatorial repre-

LOSS OF APPETITE

IS LOSS OF VITALITY, VIGOR, TONE

That stands to reason.

It's common in the Spring when the blood, which needs cleansing, fails to give the organs the stimulus necessary for the proper performance of their functions.

Hood's Sarsaparilla cleanses the blood, restores appetite, gives vitality, vigor, tone-this is one of the reasons why it's called the Greatest Spring Medicine.

"I have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla, and it has created a good appetite ave any appetite, and -Adolph Rhode, Plattsmouth, Neb.

"My father did not have any appetite, and seemed all run down. I advised him to get a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla, as he had used it some years before with good results. He did not complain any more of poor appetite."-Mattie Groff, Cedar Bluffs, Ia.

"I have used two bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the medicine has given me entire satisfaction. I had a tired feeling, could not sleep, had no appetite, and at times was troubled with dull headaches, but this medicine has given me new life and done me so much good that I recommend it to all who are overworked or run down in health."-H. Reese, Glen Rock, Wyo.

"I was all run down, had no appetite and could not sleep. I had the blues and felt as though I did not have a friend in the world. I was troubled very badly with catarrh in the head, and this was beginning to affect my stomach. Previous to this I had suffered a great deal from bolls on my back and arms, and I had a felon on my thumb. I was almost crasy, and did not care whether I lived or died. One day I was told of some one who had taken Hood's Sarsaparilla, and I concluded to try it. When I had taken nearly all of the first bottle I began to feel better, and I procured another bottle. When I had taken half of this my appetite returned, and I could eat with relish anything that was set before me. I grew stronger and gained 25 pounds in my weight in six months. My complexion became clear, and my checks and lips were red. I take from three to four bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla every year, and regard it as the best of medicines."-Mrs. Ada E. Schelling, 421 South Santa Fe avenue, Denver, Colo.
