TOLLROAD MATTER GOES OVER.

Clatsop Will Not Accept It Until Of-ASTORIA, May 7 .- The County Commissioners' Court today considered the proposition submitted by the Elk Creek oliroad Company some time ago to turn its road over to the county on condition that the county improve the same by reducing It to not to exceed a 10 per cent grade; rebuild the bridges, repair the roadbed and assume an indebtedness of $212. The court, upon investigation found that the com-pany had no right of way deeds or eur-veys of the thoroughfare, and that a por-tion of the land over which the line was built was Government property at the time, but had since been taken up. The matter was taken under advisement until a more definite proposition is submitted. The court this afternoon made an order directing the Clerk to advertise for bids for constructing a wooden bridge with an 80-foot span and suitable approaches,

MAY OBSERVE JULY 4 AFTER ALL Baker City Reconsiders Vote to Have

No Celebration. BAKER CITY, May 7.—Despite the fact that a mess meeting of citizens called some time ago to consider the street fair and carnival proposition voted not to hold a formal celebration of the Fourth bold a formal celebration of the Fourth of July in this city this year, a meeting of citizens has been called for tomorrow evening to arrange for a celebration. There was a conflict last year between those who wanted to celebrate the Fourth of July and the carnival promoters. The Fourth was duly celebrated, however, it was hoped that a conflict would be avoided this year, as a number of leading merchants and business men decline to conchants and business men decline to con-tribute money for a Fourth of July cele-bration and a street fair also.

City of Good Sidewalks. Baker City may be shy on street lights and paved streets, but within 60 days no city in the state can boast of better sidewalks on its principal streets than Baker City will have. All of Front street is to be paved with cement walks on both sides of the street. Contractors are now busy putting down walks in places where they were not put in last Fall, when the

SALEM TO HAVE BIG RALLY. There May 16.

SALEM, May 7 .- W. J. Culver, chairman of the Marion County Republican Cen-tral Committee, was today notified that the candidates on the Republican state ticket will be in Salem Friday evening, May 16. Salem Republicans have begun preparations for a grand raily on this odcasion. The executive committees of the Republican clubs met this afternoon and formulated plans for the reception and entertainment of the candidates. The Sathe Salem Workingmen's Republican Club will all act in conjunction in welcoming the candidates to the city, and the demonstration that will attend their coming will be complete, as the Salem Republicane never do anything by haives.

The programme will not be completed for several days, but reception committees will be appointed from the different clubs, the city profusally decorated. the city profusely decorated, and a great street procession, with several bands and give clubs, is being considered. Before that time, the Young Men's Republican Club will have organized its flambeau and cymbal clubs, and these organizations will participate in the demonstration. AN ARMY OF IDLE MEN GO FROM SKAGWAY TO WHITE HORSE.

Situation Is Becoming More Serious Each Day-Governor Brady Comes Out From Alaska.

PORT TOWNSEND, Wash, May 7.— Two steamers afrived this evening from Skagway, the City of Seattle and the Dolphin. Both steamers sailed from here together, and as they belonged to opposi-tion companies, both were run at full speed during the entire run to Skagway and back. The City of Seattle arrived here 25 minutes ahead of the Dolphin. They left Vancouver side by side. On board the City of Seattle was Governor John G. Brady, of Alaska, who, having obtained a leave of absence, is on his way to Ashland, to join Mrs Brady, who is visiting there for her health. Reports brought by the steamers from PORT TOWNSEND, Wash., May 7.-

Reports brought by the steamers from Skagway say there is an army of idle men at White Horse, and many of them are destitue. They walked from Skagway and shipped their luggage by trains. They have no money to get their luggage out of the warehouse, or to purchase meals, and the situation is growing more serious as recruits are delty arriving. as recruits are daily arriving.

Great preparations are being made for travel down the Yukon. On May 1 the steamer Dawson was launched, and the steamers Selkirk and White Horse are ready to be put into the water. The river is free from ice for many miles down the

No less than 15 realdences are now under course of construction, and the next two months will see building operations as-sume proportions never before equaled in the history of Vancouver. The general prosperity enjoyed the past year has given people confidence in the future of the city, and many of its leading citizens will build fine homes this year. Contractors, carpenters, brickmasons and plumbers are all rushed, and are putting forth every effort to expedite the work they have on hand. One prominent contractor said this morning that he had contracts for work amounting to $30,000, which is more that he contracted for in the past five years. Most of the buildings now being constructed are residences, and as yet no new business houses have been contracted for, although everything that can be used for a store building is now utilized, and new bush-ess buildings will soon be required to meet the demand for
