PACIFIC UNIVERSITY, FOREST GROVE, May 8.—Tomorrow morning the "Varsity" track team leaves for Eugene to meet the University of Oregon track team. Saturday, Chester Fletcher, the mile man, has been put out of training for the last two weeks, but is in fair shape. He will make a hard race for first place. Mills, the 100-yard sprinter and pole-vaulter, who is a well-known athlete of the Multnomah Club, is in better shape than ever before. He has been practicing the new form of vaulting, and will probably reach 12 feet before the season closes. Mills, Atkinson and E. Fletcher will enter the 120-yard hurdle. Other members of the team will take part in the events as follows: F. Fletcher and Mills in 200-yard hurdle; Fletcher, broad jump, Dimek and Atkinson; weights, Philbrick and Barnett. Manager J. D. Gibson and Trainer Hayward will accompany the team.

Field-Day Sports Saturday.
DALLAS, Or., May 8.—The Dallas College track team will hold its annual field-day sports on the campus Saturday afternoon. There will be 15 events, all of which will be hotly contested. The team has also arranged a meet with two other Valley college teams, the first of which is with McMinnville College, Saturday, May 10, and the last with the Monmouth State Normal School, Saturday, May 11. Dallas College has some very good men in the past, pulled up lame after the handicap, and has grown steadily worse.

McMeekin is Lame.
NEW YORK, May 8.—McMeekin, one of the contestants in the Metropolitan handicap at Morris Park, and owned by William Barrick, will, it is reported, be retired to the stud. The horse, which has won many races in the past, pulled up lame after the handicap, and has grown steadily worse.
