CITY OF DEATH

Appearance of St. Pierre After the Eruption.

CHARITY STREET SCENES

Thirty Thousand Corpses Are Shown About.

CHARRED AND UNRECOGNIZABLE

Only Heads of Ashes and Scraps of Stones Were Where the Buildings of the City Once Stood.

The dead have been brought to a hotel. The sense of horror and awe that gripped the world a month ago has been replaced by a mounting sense of dejection as the survivors return to pick up the pieces of their shattered lives. The victims were buried in the open air, without any ceremony of any kind. The bodies lay on the ground for 36 hours before they were removed. The next day, the bodies were burned in the open air. The city was left to the elements. The city was left to the shroud.
